PREFATORY NOTE

The Copy for the printer and the sheets of this Volume, as in the case of Volume II., were carefully compared with the original records by Rev. W. J. Lowe, M.A., Clerk of the General Assembly and of the General Synod, and Convener of the Assembly's Committee for Historical Purposes. These repeated revisions have, it is hoped, secured a sufficient degree of accuracy. It has not been thought advisable to delay the publication further by the addition of the index and notes originally contemplated.

Mr Barbar opened the Committee by preaching from Jo. 8:46.

Appeared from Caple Street, Dublin, Messrs Stewart, Blair, & Gilbert, Commrs, to support the complaints against Mr Baird. Mr Baird also appeared. The Commissioners from Dublin & Mr Baird declared themselves ready for trial. The reasons in support of the supplication of the commissioners at the Gen'l Synod containing the charge against Mr Baird were read. The reasons were also read again severally & considered. The witnesses adduced in proof of each, and Mr Baird's defence were fully heard, after which the Committee came to the following resolution—to wit, that all the material charges brought against Mr Baird's conduct and character were proved or censured admitted, and that though the whole of the transactions under consideration, Mr Baird hath discovered a mind not sufficiently impressed with the principles of that Religion he professed to preach and practise. The Committee therefore having a just abhorrence of Mr Baird's conduct and behaviour, do appoint the Moderator to rebuke him from the pulpit, in the most solemn manner, for the Temper of mind, and Tenure of conduct thus discovered, and warmly and earnestly admonished him to act a part in future more suitable to his character as a man, & a Christian, and particularly as a minister of the Gospel, and they farther enjoin him not to preach or exercise the function of a Gospel Minister within the bounds of the Gen'l Synod, unless by appointment of that Synod, or some particular Pby thereunto belonging; and also to enjoin him to give up his present house, and all the appendages belonging to the congreg^e of Caple Street to the Trustees of that congregation, in one month from the date hereof, or as soon after as demanded by the said Trustees, otherwise he be disposed [deposed] from the ministry ipso facto. Mr. Baird was accordingly rebuked & admonished, upon which he renounced all subjection & dependance upon the Gen'l Synod, and all its subordinate parts.

The Conduct and resolution of the Committee who met at Newry was considered and approved by this Synod.

It was then enquired in what relation does Mr. Baird now stand to this Synod, when it appeared to be their mind that he is deposed from the ministry, and that he is no longer entitled to the R.D. than the 23rd June, 1777, of which the Clerk of the Synod is ordered to give Information to Mr. Lang without loss of time.

Upon reading the minutes of last G. Synod relative to the Ballyhalbert and Kirkcobrin differences, it appeared that Mr. Henry had changed Pulpits with Mr. Dickson, the day appointed and report that the Cong's of Ballyhalbert did in the most ample manner conform everything, proposed by their commissioners, for peace & concord; therefore this Synod most heartily approve of the conduct [of that] congregation.

Resolved that the affairs relative to the Synod's fund be refered to the Commissioners of that fund to meet to-morrow at eight o'clock forenoon.

A supplication from the Conreg of Caple Street, Dublin, was presented to this Synod by Messrs. Gilbert & Richey, commissioners, setting forth that an unanimous call, had through the Pby Letterkenny, been presented to the Rev. Mr. McDowell from that Cong.; he desired some time might be allowed him to consider so momentous a matter, and that he would give his answer at next meeting of the Pby. That the Congregation of Caple Street did transmit their reasons for Mr. McDowell's removal to the Mod. of the Pby Letterkenny, and minutes of said Pby represent that Mr. McDowell craved advice from y's Pby, who finding themselves difficulted, declined giving him any advice, but left the whole to the final decision of this Synod. They therefore pray the application of the kind offices of this Synod in recommending to Mr. McDowell the acceptance of their call. The abstract of the minutes of the Pby of Letterkenny relative to the above affair were also read, whereby it appears for several reasons they refer the whole matter to y's Synod.

Reasons against the removal of Mr. McDowell to the Cong of Caple Street were read by Mr. Sherard, &c., Commissioners of the Cong of Ballykelly. Commissioners being heard at full length, and removed, Mr. McDowell was called upon to give light in this matter, who replied he had nothing to offer by way of Information, only if required he was ready to declare his mind, with respect to his accepting or rejecting the call of Caple Street congregation. The Synod then demanded, Mr. McDowell his own determination, who said that considering the matter, with the most serious attention, it appeared to him that the invitation from Caple Street Cong was providential, therefore he accepted their call, but that he was still sensible of the subjection due by him, as a Presbyterian, to this Synod: I am in your hands.
This Synod declared they would exercise no power or authority over Mr. M'Dowell, nor give him any advice, but leave him at full liberty; and it is the mind of this Synod that a copy of this minute shall be transmitted to be read to the congregation of Ballykelly next Lord's day.

Adjourned till 11 o'clock to-morrow morning. Interloq' at nine. Y's session concluded with prayer.

4th Session Thursday at 11 o'clock forenoon, after prayer &c. 4th Sessn.

The Committee of the fund who met this morning at 8 o'clock as Fund directed report by their minutes that Mr. Rowan is entitled to the fund till this date collected by the Pby of Ballymena. That Mr. Jas. Read shall be placed to the Pby Ballymena, instead of Mr. Rowan, and that Mr. Rowan be hereafter put upon the fund of the Pby of Belfast.

Ordered by this Synod that the Pby Ballymena shall have it in their power to dispose the fund money they have collected, as they shall see cause.

23rd The Committee resolved that the money which has been stopped out of the R.D. of the members, who neglected making collections for ye Synod's fund, shou'd be disposed of, were of opinion that the money shou'd lay in Mr. Lang's hands till next G. Synod. That if the Gentlemen from whom it was stopped shou'd before that time make collections, it shou'd then be restored to them; but in case they did not, the Synod then act as they thought proper.

Mr. Henry, of Dromore Pby, entered his protest against detaining Protest any of the R.D. on acct of the fund money.

The Synod after reasoning on the above resolution, moved confirm the resolution of the Committee or not? The Roll was called and it carried, confirm.

On reading the minute of Ballykelly affair it was moved and agreed to that a member of this Synod be appointed to preach at Bally- Ballykelly kelly next Lord's day, read the said minute, and declare the congrega- tion vacant; and at the request of the Commissioners we appoint Mr. Lytle to go to the congregation of Ballykelly, preach to that people, & execute the above purpose, Mr. McPerlan to preach to Mr. Lytle's con- gregation. Mr. Sherard, comm'r from Ballykelly, in consequence of full power vested in him by his constituents, Intreat this Synod will take that congreg'n under their special care, and that an ordained minister may supply them for one month, after the 1st Lord's days in July Ins't. And at the instance of the Commissioner this Synod appointed Mr. Simson to supply them the 2d & 3d Lord's day in July Ins't.; & Mr. Birch to supply them the 4th Lord's days in July & 1st in Aug't next. The different Phys within our bounds are enjoined to send them sup- pliers to the Cong'n of Ballykelly, as they, from time to time shall apply for till our next meeting.

A Supplication from the congregation of Letterkenny was pro- duced by Jn' Patterson, complaining of grievances arising from the resolution of this Synod at their last meeting in disannexing a part of their number, and erecting them into a distinct congregation—that they were unapprized of the designs of the said party: that the Synod (tho' they doubt nothing of its sincerity) must have been misled by wrong representations of the people erected, therefore belong formerly to the Cong." of Donfanahy. This the suppliants expressly deny, and assert that the congregation of Letterkenny will be materially injured, Fannet totally demolished; they therefore pray that the Resolution of this Synod as to the erection of Killmacrennan be rescinded.

At the same time two papers, but unsupported by any Commissioner from Donfanaghy, were read complaining of the suspension of Mr. Allen, their minister, praying his restoration, &* that the Pby of Letterkenny be censured.

Upon considering the above supplication & paper relative to it, agreed that the whole of this matter be referred to a Committee, consisting of the Pby Rout, Strabane, and Derry, who are hereby empowered to determine & finally issue that matter, to meet at St. Johnston the 1st Tuesday in August next, only such members of such Pphys as were formerly correspondents with the Pby Letterkenny when Mr. Allen was suspended shall not sit & vote with the Committee. The Pby of Letterkenny & the parties concerned are enjoined to attend & give light to the Committee, five mina & their elders to be a quorum, Mr. Craford, Mr. Law, & Mr. Davis to notify to their respective Pphys to be punctual in attending. Mr. Patterson, Comm' from the congregation of Letterkenny, to give a copy of this minute to Mr. Allen and he to communicate it to the people of Killmacrennan & Drumfanachy.

Adjourned till 5 o'clock, y* Session concluded with prayer, &c.

5th Session, Thursday, at 5 o'clock afternoon, &c.

A supplication was presented to the Synod by Alex' Henry & Robert Rogers from the congregation of Killenker, setting forth that at last Synod they obtained the order of this Synod for a collection in the several congregations within our Bounds, to enable them to rebuild their meetinghouse. The collection to be made as soon as they shou'd obtain a Lease of the ground for their meeting house from the Right Hon' Lord Fernam, that they now have obtained a Lease, but little respect has been paid to said order obtained last year; and therefore they pray this Synod's Injunction may be speedily put in execution.

The Synod considering the above supplication, find that some Pphys and individuals have complied & paid their collections to Mr. Sprate, but as a great many are yet deficient ordered that they may be careful to make collections as early in y* summer as possible, and remit the amount to Mr. Campell of Armagh. The Pby of Monaghan are enjoined to lay before the C1 an ace of what is advanced that it may be entered into the minutes.
A Letter from the congregation of Ballyhalbert was read in this Synod, expressing their gratitude to this Synod for their particular care to restore peace and concord, and to heal the unhappy breaches of that cong, and informing them that the discontents have persevered: That the Church of Scotland have lent aid to their supplication, and in the face of the order of this Synod have ordained & sent over a minister to Kirkcobbin, who are, as they were informed, officiate as minister, but with what views, or upon what principles, they leave with the wisdom of this Synod to determine.

A supplication at the same time signed by Geo: Brydone was read setting forth that he is a minister in the Pby of Lauder in Scotland, that he was called by the people of Kirkcobin—a bond of £50 p' ann had been tendered to him by said people, which he had accepted of, and has become the minister of Kirkcobin, now earnestly prays the benefit of our brotherly communion & that he may be rec'd as a member of this Synod. Annexed to the above supplication was a request in the name of Kirkcobin, praying that they with their minister may be taken under the care & protection of this Synod.

Mr Brydone was then called upon and enquired at as to his credentials, very ample originals of which he produced, in his License from the Pby of Lauder, and also Testimonials of ordination at the instance of the people of Kirkcobin, and Certificate of his moral character.

The Synod considered Mr Brydone's supplication, and also that from Kirkcobin, and rejected them, as inconsistent with the Resolutions of this Synod, and implying an Insult to them, as said Resolutions were well known to the people of Kirkcobbin, as we have reason to believe to Mr Brydone also.

The Synod therefore appoint a deputation of their Body of the following members, viz., Messrs White, Campble, Livingstone, Craford, and Jackson to write a letter to the Mod of the G. Assembly of the Church of Scotland, to be communicated, complaining of the irregular behaviour of the Pby of Lauder relative to the above matter, which was read and approved of, & is as followeth:—

Rev'd and Dear Brother,

It hath appeared to us by authentic papers, signed by the Mod & Clerk of the Rev'd Pby of Lauder that they have ordained a Mr Brydone and sent over to officiate as a minister of the Gospel to a part of the parish of Ballyhalbert, and calling themselves the congregation of Kirkcobbin. This small body of people applied at the last annual meeting of the Gen' Synod of Ulster praying to be erected into a Distinct Congregation.

The Synod took their supplication under consideration, and after the fullest Inquiry it appeared that said petition was not founded on any religious concern, or matter of conscience, and consequently that granting it would not answer any valuable end, but, on the contrary, wou'd be injurious to neighbouring congregations & prejudicial to the interests of Religion. Therefore refused their petition.
From our earnest desire of maintaining & cultivating such communion & intercourse between the Church of Scotland and our Church, as becometh Christian Brethren, we thought it necessary in the spirit of brotherly love to remonstrate against the late conduct of the Pby of Lauder, which, we are sorry to say, appears to us strangely irregular, and un-Presbyterial, and most unfriendly: Instances of the like kind in other of your Pys we have passed over unnoticed, but in order to prevent such unhappy interruption of our peace in future we do make it our unanimous request; that you will be pleased to inspect into the conduct of said Pby in this particular, and take such measures, as in your wisdom & Brotherly love, shall appear most effectual to establish & preserve that Harmony, good understanding, & Christian intercourse which hath subsisted between the Church of Scotland & the Synod of Ulster.

Signed in our name & by our appointment at Lurgan, the 3d July, 1778, by JA* BRYSON, Mod'.

P.S.—We earnestly request your Indulging us with an answer previous to the next meeting of our G. Synod the last Tuesday in June, 1779, directed to our Mod', the Rev'd Mr James Bryson of Belfast.

To The Rev'd the Mod' of the Gen'l Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

A supplication was presented to this Synod from the congregation of Glentubret, praying that they may be annexed to the Pby of Dromore. The Synod having reasoned on the affair, and hearing the Pby of Dromore, proceeded to vote—Annex said congregation or not? The Roll called, and it carried, annex. That congregation hereby acknowledged to belong to the Pby Dromore.

A supplication was presented from the congregation of Venecash complaining of great remissness in several congregations in the Phys of Dromore & Rout in making good their localities due by order of the Synod to these congregations. They therefore pray this Synod's interposition and aid.

The several members of Dromore Pby who were present being spoke to promised to use their endeavours to answer any expectations from them, and Mr Cuming is ordered to write to the Pby Rout, that the congregations of Killratis, Armoy, Maghera, Romoan, & Bavidy, who have entirely neglected Venecash, may be directed to make collections & remit them to Mr Todd without delay.

It was moved & resolved that this Synod recommend it in the warmest manner to its several members to use their utmost diligence to raise contributions for the support of the poor congregations which now are, or may hereafter be, upon the fund, and the Synod fully convinced of the charitable & benovolent dispositions of the several members will leave this important affair entirely to themselves, hoping this mode will conduce more to the true interest of the fund than those that have hitherto been adopted.

The Moderator concluded this Synod with prayer.

1\textsuperscript{st} Interlog\textsuperscript{r}.

At an Interlog\textsuperscript{r} consisting of the constituents of the Widows fund, 1\textsuperscript{st} Interlog\textsuperscript{r} a Letter from the Trustees of that fund was read, in which they express their satisfaction of our increasing fund, and their perseverance in the execution of that Trust.

Resolved that Messrs Wm Craford and James Caldwell shall answer the Trustees Letter, and express in the warmest manner our gratitude for the care & assiduity in the management of our fund.

A letter from Mr Lang to our Clerk was also read, informing us that the amount of the widows fund down to the 1\textsuperscript{st} July Ins is £10,349 : 2 : and that over and above the provision made for the widows to the 1\textsuperscript{st} July Ins,\textsuperscript{4} there remains in his hands £160 : 16 : 7, which the Trustees have ordered to be laid out in Government Deb\textsuperscript{n}, he represents Deb\textsuperscript{n} as low & still expected lower.—That the interest upon Deb\textsuperscript{n} to the 24\textsuperscript{th} June last, yet due, and no money of any kind issuing from the Treasury of a civil nature.

Also that he sent copies of the Divid\textsuperscript{d} of the R.D. and of the stoppages from the ministers who omitted to make collections for the Synod’s fund of £26 : 14 : 7\textsuperscript{3}.

Ordered that our Clerk shall answer Mr Lang’s Letter, inform him that the widows fund will bear £12 to each annuitant, therefore the annuities shall commence the 1\textsuperscript{st} Jan\textsuperscript{y}, 1779, at £12 to each annuitant.

Mr Lang also to be informed that the stoppages for the benefit of the Synod’s fund shall be restored in case they make collections before the meeting of next G. Synod.

2\textsuperscript{d} Interlog\textsuperscript{r}.

On reading the resolution of last G. Synod relating to the Alienation of the accumulated capital of the widows fund. In this Interlog\textsuperscript{r} it was moved and seconded—Rescind this resolution or not ? on which the previous question was moved; consider now or refer to the constituents at next G. Synod. The Roll was called, & it carried refer.

The Clerk of the Synod is instructed to inform Mr Lang to remit to Mr Kennedy, of Tyrone Pby, the annuity of y\textsuperscript{r} fund, by him to be divided between Mr Hood & the orphans of Mr Peebles.

In Answer to our Mod\textsuperscript{2} Letter to the Gen\textsuperscript{1} Assembly of the Church of Scotland of the 3\textsuperscript{rd} July, 1778. The letter of that Body signed by their Mod\textsuperscript{2} was read we was considered & approved of as a satisfactory & respectfull answer, & is as follow—

Dear Brother,

Upon receiving your Letter complaining of ye conduct of the Pby of Lauder, I laid it before the G. Assembly, who called upon the Comm\textsuperscript{r} from that Pby to explain the part of their conduct, which you found hurtfull, and I have the order of the Assembly to inform you that it appeared to them the above mentioned Pby were far from having any Intention, or the most remote Idea of doing a thing disagreeable to you, by ordaining Mr Brydone. He was well known, and much esteemed by them, and they deem'd the call they sent him not Irregular, but as your letter has discovered their mistake, they wou'd for the future carefully avoid whatever had the least tendency to Interrupt the peace of your Synod.

And the Gen\textsuperscript{1} Assembly of the Church of Scotland, extremely desirous to maintaine Harmony, good understanding, & Christian Intercourse with your Synod, Informed all Psys to guard against everything that cou'd have a contrary Tendency; I am sorry the inattention of any Pby of this church shou'd have unhappily intercepted the peace of your Synod, but have now the greatest reason to trust that hereafter you will have no such cause of complaint.

I think proper to acquaint you that the G. Assembly have ye year enacted a Law in the following words. "The Assembly do hereby prohibit all persons educated or residing within the bounds of this Church, to go out of its Bounds, to obtain Licenses to preach, and prohibit all preachers licensed by this Church from going out of its Bounds to obtain ordination, unless they are called to a particular congregation in another country.

"And enact that Licenses obtained in that manner shall not be receiv'd nor have any effect in this Church; and such preachers as controvene this act shall forfeit the License formerly given them, and be no longer entitled to the privileges which belong to a preacher of the Gospel in this Church.

What is above you'll please to communicate to the G. Synod of Ulster.

I embrace with pleasure this opportunity of assuring you that I am,

Rev\textsuperscript{d} & Dear Brother,

Your most ob\textsuperscript{d} & faithful humble servant,

JAS. GILLESPIE, Mod\textsuperscript{r}.

Eldenbrough, 21\textsuperscript{st} May, 1779.

It was moved & seconded that the Thanks of this Synod be returned to Doc\textsuperscript{r} Wight of Glasgow, for his care in the above affair, and Mr Bryson is enjoined to transmit their Thanks accordingly.
Ordered that the Committee of funds do meet to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock.

A Supplication from part of the Cong of Islandmagee was presented to this Synod under sev Resolutions.—Their disapprobation of the character & conduct of their present min M' McAuly, Imploring the attention & interposition of this Synod for their relief.

At the same time a counter Supplication from part of the Session & Congreg of Islandmagee was presented in favour of M' McAuly, complaining of the irregularity of the first supplicating partly in their measures against their min.

The Synod considering the above supplications, it was moved and agreed to that this whole matter be referred to a Committee of the following min—viz., Messrs Huey & Laird, from Belfast Pby, Messrs Henry & Thomson, from Dromore Pby, from Bangor Pby, Messrs Hull & Bryson, & Messrs Rankin, Brown, & Lyndsay from Ballymena Pby. The Pby of T. Patrick to attend said Committee to meet at Islandmagee the 3rd Tuesday in July next & give light in the affair, 5 min & three elders to be a quorum. M' Lyndsay to preach. The Committee are authorised to give Judgment in that affair & finally to issue the same. The Clerk of the Synod to furnish both parties with a copy of this minute.

Adjourned till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. Interloq at 12. This Sess concluded with prayer.

4th Session Thursday at 9 o'clock forenoon, after prayer, &c.

A Supplication from part of the Cong of Ushers Quay, Dublin, was presented to this Synod setting forth that they have hitherto & since their Junction with the Congregation of Plunket Street lived in much peace & Harmony, that they are deeply concerned to inform this Synod that their Tranquility hath of late been & still is like to be interrupted with respect to different sentiments prevailing among them respecting the chusing a Colleague to their much esteemed pastor M' Caldwell. That in opinion of supplicants, measures very irregular & unconstitutional have been used to Introduce into the above relation M' Sinclare Killburn, belonging to the Southern association, and also disrespectful to their present minister. That application by part of said Congreg in contradiction to the strongest remonstrances & earnest pressing conciliatory measures hath been made to the Pby of Belfast, in order that a Call from that Cong to M' Killburn should be prepared & presented to him.

It was moved & agreed to without entering into the merits of the affairs of Ushers Quay Cong, a Committee of Ministers shall instantly convene & form a resolution relative to said Cong.

The Committee at the following session met as appointed, and after mature deliberation do recommend the following expedients viz. that a minister be appointed by this Synod to supply Ushers Quay for six Lord's days, That Mr. Killburn be appointed to supply in that Congreg^a for four Sabb^a commencing at the expiration of that time and that a minister be now appointed to go to Dublin four months after Mr. Killburn has preached there, to take the minds of the people with regard to Mr. Killburn, and to report at the meeting of next Gen^r Synod; no person shall have a vote but such as are now Contributors to the support of that Congregation.

Signed by order,

JAS. HULL, Mod^r.

The Resolution of the Committee was considered & approved by y^r Synod. This Synod do in consequence of the above decision, allow the Comm^a to go together & nominate a min^r to supply Ushers Quay six Lord's days:—and they have agreed upon Mr. Moor, now supplying in Caple Street, from the Pby Rout, and this nomination is confirmed, and Mr. Moor is hereby appointed to supply Ushers Quay six Lord's days, commencing the 2^d Lord's day in July next—Mr. Killburn is appointed to preach in Ushers Quay the four Lord's days following Mr. Moor, and four months after Mr. Killburn's time is expired. This Synod appoint Mr. Campbell to go to Ushers Quay, take the minds of that Congregation, and report the Determination at next G. Synod: and it is Determined that there is to be no application from Ushers Quay respecting Mr. Killburn to the Pby Belfast, till after next G. Synod.

A Supplication was presented to this Synod from part of the Congregation of Bovedy to the amount of 226 heads of families praying that they may be taken under the care of this Synod, and in due time provided with a minister and supplies in the meantime.

A Supplication was presented to this Synod by the Inhabitants of Killrea, Tamlagh, & Desert, remonstrating against the above supplication, affirming that constituting the above supplicants into a separate Cong^a wou'd be highly injurious to the Interests of Religion in those parts, from the smallness of the whole stipend not £26 y^r ann. and therefore not admitting a Division. They therefore pray a reunion with Bovedy, and that Mr. Smith their present min^r shall preach alternately at Bovedy & Killrea.

The minute of the Sub Synod of Derry relative to Bovedy & Killrea, appointing a Committee to sit at Bovedy, which Committee met; the minute of which was read containing the Dissent & Appeal of the people of Bovedy, against the Committee's decision. The reasons of appeal were produced 1^r Because the members were not well chosen, but strangers to the affair; 2^r That Committee seemed to listen most to Killrea side, & not Bovedy; 3^r the Committee were determined by a List containing names of people of other Churches—4^r That because they think that Mr. Smith cannot be useful amongst them; 5^r That it is unreasonable to confine them to the half of the Labours of a minister, as they are in a flourishing state.

Answers to the above reasons were also produced & considered, the Committee was also called upon to give light in this matter, & also the Comm" from Killrea & Bovedy were heard at full length, and removed. The Synod after reasoning on the above it was moved and agreed to without a division.—That M" Smith shall continue the stated min" of Bovedy, and that he shall preach two Sabb. During the winter in Bovedy & one in Killrea, & during the summer season, alternately, or day about in Bovedy & Killrea, and such as do not acquiesce in the above are at liberty to join any neighbouring Congregation; and M" Smith is enjoined to preach at Bovedy next Lord's day, being the first day ensuing this Determination.

A Supplication from the Cong" of Letterkenny was presented to this Synod, seting forth that as the Committee appointed at last G. Synod came to no resolution respecting the erection of Killmacrenan, they recur to this Synod, praying a dissolution of the erection of Killmacrenan, as in its consequences great damage will insue to the Congregation of Letterkenny.

Same time a Supplication was presented from Killmacrenan Cong", earnestly praying for their preservation as a united Cong" w^t Dunfanachy.

A Letter from the Revd M" McOaughey remonstrating against the erection of Killmacrenan & declaring that his Cong" must be greatly hurt thereby: minutes of the Committee appointed to enquire into the affairs of Killmacrenan & Mr. Allen were produced, & are as follow—The Committee met at St Johnston the 1st Tuesday in Aug^t 1778 as appointed, and upon inquiry the people of Letterkenny Cong" produced evidences to prove that a Relation has subsisted for many years, between the people of Killmacrenan & the Cong" of Letterkenny & Fannet. The evidences in ye matter appeared & the purport of them was, that the people of Killmacrenan were related to these Congregations since M" Drummond's death. The people of Killmacrenan produced two affidavits, sworn before M" John Finlay a magistrate, the substance of w^t is that the people of that place, were under the Ministry of M" Drummond during his life.

The parties being heard were desired to remove: and the Committee entered upon the consideration of this matter; and after reasoning, it appears to us that this is an affair of the utmost importance & delicacy, and as not a member from the Pby of Rut has appeared, & only M" Osborn from the Pby Strabane, and therefore the weight of this critical affair must rest upon the shoulders of the members from Derry Pby.—It was moved that a vote of this Committee be taken—Whether this matter be issued now, or refered to the next Sub Synod: The motion was seconded. M" Osborn desires his protest may be entered against this motion. The question was then put. Issue it now or refer it, until the next meeting of the Sub Synod. The Roll was called, and it carried by a great majority—refer it.

Session 2d.—The Pby of Letterkenny were called upon to assign the reasons why they suspended M" Allen. M" Alexander read the minutes of the Pby relative to that matter. The parties were desired to remove, and the Committee entered upon the serious consideration of it and after reasoning, the question was put, whether the Pby, according to the evidence that appeared before them, acted with propriety in suspending Mr Allen, and it was unanimously agreed that they acted with propriety. It was farther inquired whether the suspension shall now be taken off Mr Allen, and after reasoning, the Committee unanimously agree, that as Mr Allen did not submit to the censure of his Pby, he was guilty of Contumacy, and is therefore to be suspended ab officio, and the Mod is ordered to exhort him to be more cautious & circumspect for the future, and this minute is to be read in the Congregations of Drumfanagh, Letterkenny, & Fanet. Mr Allen appeared, and was exhorted.

The Synod having heared the parties at full length, the following motion was put, seconded, and unanimously agreed to, viz. that Messrs Lytle, Burk, and Mr Gaughy shall preach alternately at Killmacrenan from ye 1st of October untill the 1st of April every second Sabbath, and that the inhabitants of that district shall belong to the congregations of Letterkenny, Ralphmilto & Fannet respectively as formerly, and possess their seats, pay stipend, & be admitted to church privileges, as usual.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock afternoon. Interloq at 5, ye Sess concluded with prayer.

5th Session Thursday at 7 o'clock afternoon, after prayer.

A Supplication from the Congreg of Killenker was read setting forth that the Synod's recommendation to the several congregations, within the Bounds of the Gen Synod, to make collections for enabling that Cong to rebuild their meeting house, hath, except twenty one, been entirely neglected. They therefore pray that this Synod wou'd give such directions as shall make their former resolutions effectual. Ordered that the Injunctions of this Synod relative to the above matter be renewed, and that a particular member be now called & named, of every Pby, unto whom the care & enforcement of this Injunction shall be particularly committed; The members are as follow—

For Clogher Pby.... Mr Miller. For Bangor Pby.... Mr Stoupe.
Armagh...... Mr Dickson. Belfast...... Mr Huey.
Killinla...... Mr Neilson. L.kenney...... Mr Alexander.
Strabane..... Mr Craford. Rout....... Mr Marshall.
Derry....... Mr Young. Ballymena.... Mr Lyndsay.
T. Patrick.... Mr Bankhead. Dublin..... M'. Caldwell.
Dromore..... Mr Maclure. Monaghan.... Mr Harris.
               Tyrone..... Mr White.

Ordered that these collections be made as soon as possible & transmitted to Mr Campbell of Armagh by him to be handed over to the Cong of Killenker.

A Supplication from the Congreg of Ballykelly was presented to this Synod setting forth, that through their Pby of Letterkenny they applied for, and obtained a hearing, of the Revd Mr Rentall of the Pby of Dromore, and at the same time they requested their Pby, that during M' Rentall's time, The ordinance of the Lord's Supper might be administered among them, which last request they have been denied of, and that said Pby of Letterkenny have said they will cast them from under their care, which shou'd it be the case (tho' they wou'd be sorry to be from under their care) they request they may be annexed either to the Pby of Rout or Londonderry; and that M' Rentall's time may be prolonged for some Lord's days; and that they may have the Lord's Supper administered among them by such assistants, as this Synod shall nominate during M' Rentall's prolonged Time, and as far as the trial they have had of M' Rentall, he seems to be generally acceptable to them, and they expect he will be the object of their choice. They request that a minister be appointed to go to Ballykelly, and see a call drawn up and subscribed to M' Rentall.

The Synod in considering the contents of the above Supplication unanimously agree to grant the several prayers therein contained, viz. they order that the Congrega of Ballykelly be annexed to the Pby Rout—That M' Rentall's Time shall be prolonged two Lord's days; and that the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be administered the last of those days—M' Simson & M' Davis to assist, and that on the Monday after the Sacrament M' Simson is appointed to preside in drawing up a Call for M' Rentall.

It was moved, seconded, & agreed to, That it be enjoined on the Conga Ballykelly to conform strictly to the Synodical Regulations respecting the Polling of Congrega before the drawing up of a Call— which are that previous to the day that may be fixed for drawing up a Call a compleat authenticated List of all the just voters of the Congrega shall be deposited in the hands of their Pby. We therefore require that Ballykelly may be punctual as to this particular.

A Supplication from the minister & Conga of Kirkeobbin was presented & read in this Synod, praying that they may be taken under our care & considered as a Congrega belonging to this Body.

The Synod after reasoning at large on the above petition, it was moved & seconded, that the previous question be put—consider it now, or defer it—The Roll called—and it carried defer it a great majority.

The Moderator concluded this Synod with prayer.

1st Interloq.

On reading the minute of the 2d Interloq' of the preceeding year relative to a motion concerning the alienation of any part of the Capital of the widows fund, referred to the Constituents from last to this Synod, The Question was put—Rescind the resolution of the 27th June 1777 or not. The Roll was called, and it carried not.

2d Interloq 1st July, 1779.

A Letter from M' Lang, dated 26 ultim was recd informing this Messa Welds Interloq of the failure of Mess Isaac & Ricd Weld in London with one year's, viz. 1778 of our Ad³ R.D. in their hands, and proposing that the Synod shou'd concur with the other Creditors in signing an agreement that the Messæ Welds affairs may be vested in Trustees for the benefit of the creditors at large without the Trouble or delay of the statute of Bankruptcy.

This proposition was unanimously agreed to, and the Moderator is hereby directed to subscribe in our name, the above agreement.

Mr James Lang Treasurer

A 2d Letter from Mr Lang of the 29th of ultim, was also rec'd by our Clerk, offering to our consideration the appointment of a Treasurer to receive our ad³ R.D. annually. This Synod do therefore appoint, Mr James Lang our Agent, to receive all the ad³ R.D. in our behalf, and negotiate that whole matter for our Interest, as his good Judgment shall direct; and this Interloq¹ request Mr Lang to present our Thanks to Mr Vaughan for his kind offices.

A Letter from the Trustees of the widows fund was read, informing us of the increasing state of that fund; and also recommending to our choice Couns' Andrew Caldwell as a successor to Doc' MœBride to be one of the Trustees of said fund.

Couns' Caldwell Trustee.

The Interloq¹ unanimously approve of the Recommendation, and appoint Messæ White and Alexander, to answer the Trustee's Letter and request Couns' Caldwell's acceptance of ye Trust.

A motion explanatory of the decision made yesterday relative to the Capital of the widows fund, yesterday proposed and seconded, in the following words, "That this resolution is not meant to extend to minæ who leave this Kingdom to go to America, with a view to act in the ministerial character, when there, was, according to agreement, now renewed, and after reasoning, the question was put, consider now, or defer to next Synod. The Roll called, and it carried defer.

34 Interloq¹ Thursday, at 5 o'clock afternoon.

A Letter from Mr Baird was produced, praying of what he has contributed to the Capital of the widows fund, shou'd be refunded him, if any way consistent with our present rules and regulations relative to the widows fund.

Mr Baird

Ordered that a Letter be wrote to Mr Baird informing him, that the Prayer of his Petition, as the Regulations of the widows fund now stands is altogether inadmissible & the Clerk is ordered to write said Letter.

Answer to ye Trustees Letter

Messœ White & Alexander brought in the copy of a Letter to the Trustees which was considered & approved & signed by ye Mod².

The Clerk is ordered to answer Mr Lang's letters in ordinary, and direct him to be careful to make good the subscription to the widows fund as it becomes due, out of whatever money of ours may be in his hand.
AT LURGAN, JUNE 29TH, 1779.

4th Interloc't Thursday at 9 o'clock afternoon.

The Committee of overtures, took into consideration, the overture annexed to ye minutes of last year relative to marriage, and are unanimously of opinion that it be dismissed, & that the mode of marriage amongst us shall remain as before. Therefore the former overture was dismissed.

A Mrs McAlister formerly the widow of the late Mr O'Brien, produced a Supplication to this Interloc't setting forth that she thought herself entitled to the whole share of the annuity arising from the widows' fund, after eight years,—for the resolution of this affair recourse was had to the original scheme, Article 4th, which fully sets forth, "that the child or children to be entitled to one moiety during the mother's life after 2d marriage. Therefore this Synod enjoins the Pby, to which Mr O'Brien belonged, to inquire into this matter & see justice done to the child of Mr O'Brien.

Representation having been made to this Interloc't, that there is ground to alledge that the marriage of the late Mr Nisbet with the woman he has now left as his widow, was collusive & made chiefly with a Lucrative view, That said widow might derive emolument from our fund.

It was moved & seconded, that the woman who calls herself Mrs Nisbet, do give proper evidence to this Synod by her personal appearance at next meeting, confirmed by the Testimony of one credible evidence of her Marriage with the late Mr Nisbet, before she shall be recommended to receive any annuity of ye widows' fund. This unanimously confirmed & agreed to.

On reading the minute relative to the affairs of Ushers Quay, Mr Campbell was called on and reports that he attended according to appointment of the Synod, that he had repeated meetings of the heads of the Cong's, in all which they discovered a most becoming desire of restoring peace & harmony. When a call was proposed in favour of Mr Killburn, then it was objected to by his friends, as a letter has been read by a member of that congregation, in which, he declared [declined] in the most explicit manner, any farther views of being a Candidate; in consequence of this candid proceeding of Mr. Killburn; they unaniously resolved to ask a hearing of the Rev'd Mr. Wilson of Tyrone Pby. The Synod highly approve of the conduct of Mr. Campbell on this occasion, and return him their warmest thanks for the diligence & punctuality with which he executed their Commission. It gives the Synod great pleasure to learn from Mr. Campbell's report, that the people of Ushers Quay, seem to be actuated by so becoming a spirit of Christian forebearance & moderation.

Adjourned till seven o'clock afternoon, Interlox' at 5. Concluded &c.

3d Session Wednesday at 7 o'clock afternoon, after prayer, &c.

It was moved that the Time and place of next Synod's meeting be fixed now:—Antrim and Dungan, were proposed, and it carried Dunganon; This Synod therefore is to meet at Dunganon the last Tuesday in June, 1781. Sermon to begin at 5 o'clock afternoon.

The members of the several Phys, to whom the care of the collection in favour of the meeting house of Killenker was committed, were called upon and it appeared by their account, that very little had been effected, only Mr. James Birch gave Mr Spratt £0 : 11 : 4s, for Dramara, and Mr. Bankhead a moyaty for Broadisland; Mr. Campbell being appointed to receive from the sev' Phys, had received only £1 : 6s: from Maghrafelt, and from Mr. Dickson £0 : 11 : 4s for Portafory. This matter to be reconsidered at next Session.

A memorial of Lilias Keating, otherwise Ambrose, the Daughter of the Rev'd Mr. Ambrose, was presented to this Synod, setting forth her poverty & distress, and praying relief from this Synod; several members spoke in behalf of memorialist, representing her case, as both necessitous and afflicting: It was moved and seconded with amendment, that memorialists condition be recommended to the care & protection of the Pby of Monaghan; and in the meantime that the members here present shall make such charitable contributions, as they at present think fit.

A petition from the Rev'd Geo. The Synod after mature deliberation & much reasoning upon the above petitions resolved: that the question be put, grant the petitions of Mr. Brydone and Kirkcubbin or not? The Roll called, & it carried not by a great majority.

Upon a motion it was ordered, that the Committee of Overtures, meet to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock, Interlox' at 9. Open Synod at 11. This Session concluded with prayer.
AT DUNGANNON, JUNE 27TH, 1780.

4th Session Thursday at 11 o'clock, forenoon, after prayer, &c.

It was moved by Mr Young, and agreed to that Castleblainy shall no longer have localities within the Bounds of Derry Pby, but that said Pby shall every year make collections, for the four following congregations—Banagh, Donagh, Malin, & Movil. The amount of these collections, shall be divided in such proportion, as they shall think fit to these congregations.

A supplication from the congregation of Morne was presented to this Synod, praying that merely on account of convenience, and not from any other cause, they may be disannexed from the Pby of Bangor, and be put under the care of the Pby of Dromore; this supplication was granted.

A petition from the people and Cong of Killmacranan & Dunfanagh, was presented to this Synod, that they may have relief from various difficulties they labour under, arising from the claims of the congregations of Letterkenny & Fanet, over them; at the same time, a Letter from the Rev. Mr Magaghy of Fanet was read, purporting that his congregation will be materially hurt by the erection of Killmacranan and that Mr Allen will be reduced to order.

The Synod having considered the above supplication & letter & heard the parties at full length, and being removed came to the following resolution, namely, to put the question—Confirm the union of Killmacran & Dunfanaghy or not? provided y' according to their own proposal, namely, that such hearers of the now neighbouring congregations of Letterkeny and Fanet, as formerly paid stipend to their respective ministers, which they usually heard, shall make good that stipend to those ministers, during their residence. The Roll was called & it carried confirm the union upon the above petition, by a great majority.

The Rout Pby by a paper signed by their Moderator, request that Mr Todd may have no Localities among them, but that their yearly collections for the Synod's fund may be allowed to several weak congregations within their own bounds. The question was put, Continue Mr Todd on the Rout Pby or not? The Roll called, & it carried continue.

The affair of Mr Spratt's meeting house, for defraying the expenses of which, the Synod in former years, had enjoined collections to be made in the sev1 congregations within their Bounds, was farther considered, and this Synod most warmly recommended to those congregations, who have not made collections, for that purpose, to use their Best endeavours, that something may be collected and forwarded speedily to Mr Campbell, and sent to Mr Spratt; and of this affair an account will be expected at next Synod.

Mr Caldwell of Donegall proposed that in case the Gentleman who has the call from Sligo under his consideration, does not accept the same, that he might in favour of that remote Cong2 be empowered to write for such ministers to supply that congregation as they may require—This granted.

The Moderator concluded this Synod with prayer.
A letter from Mr Lang was read wherein he complains of the want of punctuality in making returns of the ordination, demission, or death of ministers, and whether they were subscribers to the widows fund, also the Death of Annuitants.

Ordered that the several Phys shall be punctual in making returns, and in case any have been defective, the Clerk of the Synod is to write to them to have that defect supplied.

A motion was made & seconded, that out of the produce of the widows fund, one hundred pounds shall be added to the capital, and that the whole of the remainder of the produce of the fund, shall be equally divided among the Annuitants, when the conditions of the subscription shall be fulfilled.

After reasoning on the above motion, it was moved & agreed to, that the fund shall stand directly what it is for one ensuing year.

On reading the minute of last year relative to the motion of desiring the explanation of a preceding resolution, which explanation designs to refund to such ministers as leave this Kingdom to go to America, what they have paid into the widows fund. It was agreed to, that the consideration of this affair be deferred until next meeting of the G. Synod.

The Interlocutory taking under consideration the affair of the late Mr Nisbets pretended marriage, from all information that came before them, find that the pretended marriage, was marked with the most evident signatures of fraud & collusion, The question was then put: shall the woman now calling herself Mrs Nisbet, be admitted as an Annuitant of the widows fund, or not? The Roll called and it carried not.

Inquiry was made at this Interlocutory whether or no, ministers that have demitted (not through age or infirmity) are entitled to R.D., but are still willing to pay the annual subscription to the widows fund shall be, upon the event of Death, & leave widows or children, be entitled to the benefit of the fund; and it was agreed to in the affirmative, provided such ministers shall continue in Great Britain or Ireland, and providing the constituents are annually furnished. with the agents rec'd of the payment of such subscriptions in Dublin.

Upon a scrutiny of the List of ministers to the R.D. Inquiry was made concerning Mr Malcom’s title to that Bounty, after reasoning, the question was put, Is Mr Malcom entitled to the R.D. or not? The Roll called and it carried not.

A supplication was presented to this Interlocutory by Mathew Boyd Esquire, of the late Rev’d Mr Boyd of Taghboyne, complaining that Mr Lang refused to pay the annuity of the children of Mr Boyd, as he has made a will Bequeathing that annuity to Grandchildren.
Ordered that Mr Lang be instructed to transmit all the annuity to the children of the late Mr Boyd, to Mr Andw Alexander of the Pby of Letterkenny, by him, with the assistance of that Pby to be equally distributed among sd children agreeable to a former resolution.

The Trustees Letter to the constituents of the widows fund was read informing us of Con' Caldwell's acceptance of the office of Trustee for said fund, and as Dcc'' Machonchy and Mr Read are lately deceased, recommending to our consideration Messrs' Geo. Machonchy, Willm McCullogh, and Tho' Petticrew, as Trustees to that fund.

It is the opinion of this Synod that the Phý Tyrone cannot proceed to the settlement of that Cong, untill Justice be done M'r Ker & her demands satisfied from the last settlement, untill the decease of the late M'r Ker. And this Synod order this minute to be read in the Cong of Minterburn, accompanied with a warm recommendation to that people to see speedy Justice done to M'r Ker; & this Synod appoint Messrs Campbell, Mulligan, Harris, Moorhead, & Miller, as a Committee to meet at Minterburn the 2d Tuesday in Aug next, to settle the affairs in that Cong as to them shall seem best; and this Synod authorise said Committee to call Messrs Kennedy, Stitt, & Smith, of the Phý of Tyrone to attend said Committee, to give information in that affair.

Mr. Bankhead is appointed to preach on opening the Committee, and to have a copy of this minute, and the Clerk of the Synod is ordered to furnish the parties with a copy of said minute, which is to be read to the Congreg of Dromore next Lord’s day.

The appointment respecting Mr. Sprate’s meeting-house was now revised, and the sever members who have not yet made collections for that purpose are enjoined to do it speedily, and transmit said collections to Mr. Campbell, by him to be forwarded to Mr. Sprate.

The Moderator concluded this Synod with prayer.

Interlocut 1st

On reading the last year’s order for the Clerk to write to such Pbys as have neglected to make returns of ministers ordained, Deceased, or demitted, who are or were contributors to the widows’ fund, and also of the annuitants upon ye fund, It appeared that Sev Pbys who have neglected to make such returns, are still negligent. This Interlocut therefore in the strictest manner renew their injunction & direct the Clerk to demand of every Pby that they be punctual in furnishing without loss of Time, with a full account of all ministers who have been ordained, or deceased, or demitted, within their Bounds, and also the number of widows they now have entitled to the fund, & if any have deceased, the time to be mentioned.

The Trustees Letter to the constituents of the widows’ fund was read informing us of Mr. Petigrew’s acceptance of the office of a Trustee of that fund, of Mr. M’Culloghs declining that Trust, on account of his intended removal to the country, at the same time recommending to the Constituents the nomination of Mr. Alex Kirkpontick, Rob Alexander, Esq, and Alder Henry Bevan as Trustees to the widows fund. It was also moved & agreed to by the Interlocut, that the Right honourable Frederick Earl of Bristol & Lord Bishop of Derry & Cha Messrs Mulligan & Killburn, are ordered to ans' the Trustees Letter.

It was moved & seconded that the anns of the widows on the fund shall be increased to £13 3s ann., from the 1st of July next, after reasoning, it was proposed, shall the annuities be at £12 or £13 3s ann., the Roll called & it carried at £13.

2d Interloq'

Upon refunding

On reading the Minute of last year respecting the refunding the Contributors of the widows' fund all that they may have paid into that fund, provided they shall remove to America in order to exercise the ministerial office when there, This matter to stand over till next year.

On reading the Minute relating to Mrs Nisbet, a petition from Mrs Mary Nisbet with an attested certificate of her marriage annexed, praying that she may be paid her annuity.

The Interloq' considering the above affair & Impropriety of her claim, agree to take no notice of her petition.

A memorial of the Rev. Mr Caldwell was produced to this Interloq' setting forth, That thro' bodily Indisposition, and on no other acc't he was necessitated to demit the Pastoral charge of his Cong' Praying that he may be continued to receive the Royal Bounty.

The Interloq' having a Retrospect to former Rules of the G. Synod respecting the demission of ministers thro' age & bodily infirmity, when it appeared that Mr Caldwell comes under the description of them who demit thro' age & Infirmity, and therefore he is allowed to enjoy the R.D.

It was proposed, and agreed to that Mr Malcom, notwithstanding the resolution of last year, shall be continued to have a Divid of the R: D: his case coming under the Rule aforesaid.

It was moved and agreed to, that Mess^t M^Clure, Doc^t Little, & Birch, from the Pby of Dromore, and M^f Abernethy from the Pby of T. Patrick shall be a Committee—three to be a quorum, to go to Drumbo, and take the minds of that people, w^t respect to M^f Malcom's becoming their min^t, & if upon scrutiny they find a Synodical majority for M^f Malcom's Restoration to his office among them, the Committee is immediately to restore him—But if the Cong^a desire Installment, the Committee is to Install him upon the spot, Doc't Little is to preach — The Committee is to meet the 11th July next, and the Congregation is ordered against that day to have an accurate List of their members to be put into the hands of the Committee — Mr. Patten is to preach at Drumbo next Lord's Day, and to publish this minute — Mr. Malcom to supply Mr. Patten's congregation, & he is to preach in Drumbo the following Lord's day. — Parties being called in and the above minute read — the Committee on both sides requested a Conference with some members of the Synod, to take their advice towards settling the arrears due by the Congreg, ordered that the Mod' shall announce from the Chair to the Com', that no one shall be qualified to vote, who hath not paid his stipend down to the first of May last.

Adjourned till tomorrow forenoon at 9 o'clock, concluded w't prayer.

4th Session Thursday at 9 o'clock forenoon, after prayer &c.

The affair of subscrip'n deferred to this session being resumed — Subscrip'n C. Faith this motion was made — if no one moves for a repeal of the Rule respecting subscrip'n, then the Rule remains in its full force — and as no one moved for its repeal, the Rule continued.

A supplication from the Congreg'n of Moira, setting forth y't upon Moira the settlement of their present Min', the Pby of Bangor had engaged to assist them in the support of their Min', but that Pby had failed in the fullfillment of their engagement.

This Synod warmly recommended it to the several Congregations of Bangor Pby, to make good their promise to the Congreg'n of Moira, with respect to the Time past, & to be liberal in assisting that Congreg'n in time to come, for the support of a Gospel Minister; and it is enjoined that the Clerk of the Pby of Bangor, shall make out copies of this minute, and shall transmit them to the sev't Ministers of that Pby, that it may be read to their respective Congregations.

A supplication from the Congregation of Ballynahinch was presented to this Synod, requesting that, for several reasons therein set forth, they may be disannexed from the Pby of Killieca.

At the same time appeared a supplication from another part of said Congregation, complaining of the Conduct of the supporters of the preceeding part in that Congregation, & requesting that they may be continued under the Care of the Killieca Pby.

Ordered that a Committee shall be appointed, and the following members are hereby appointed, viz., Mess'rs Henry, McClure, Birch, from the Pby of Dromore, Mess'rs Hull, Bryson, & Craig, from Bangor Pby. Three to be a quorum, to meet at Ballynahinch on Tuesday the 9th day of July next, and there to enquire into the minds of that Congreg'n, and if a Synodical majority appear to desire to be disannexed from Killieca Pby & join to the Pby of Belfast, the Committee have power to disannex them & join them to any Pby they chuse within the Bounds of this Synod, — Mr. Henry to preach at that Committee.
And it is further ordered, that no member of the Congregation of Ballynahinch shall be allowed to vote on this occasion, who is not clear of stipend at May last, and that the Committee shall be furnished with an authentic List of the Congregation.

Ordered also that the Collectors of the Congregation, be hereby directed to pay to the representatives of the late M's Strong, immediately all the stipend in their hands (except what is due the Probationers) and M's Mat' Rea is enjoined to make good a promise he made of securing said representatives, for all remaining claims of stipend, & it is expected the Probationers will be paid before the meeting of the Committee.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock, Interloq at 5. Y Session concluded w't prayer.

5th Session, Thursday, at 7 o'clock afternoon, after prayer &c.

On reading the minute relative to Ballynahinch, it was resolved that the Treasurers of that Congregation shall out of the money in their hands immediately pay the Probationers, & also that security shall be given to the representatives of the late M's Strong, for the payment of the arrear stipend due him. This Synod at the same time appoint Messrs Henderson & Semple to supply the Cong of Ballynahinch the two Lord's days preceding the Committees meeting.

A supplication from the Cong of Dromore was presented to this Synod, complaining of Injustice in the Pby of Dromore, in not granting their several supplications, for the hearing of M's Arnold, & refusing themselves to a remonstrance, & that they might be joined to some other Pby. It was moved & seconded, that the Conduct of the Pby of Dromore, be approved with regard to their Conduct, towards the Congregation of Dromore, and the Conduct of that Pby, is hereby, in the fullest manner approved by this Synod.

After much reasoning on the affair of Dromore Congregation, this Synod resolved that a Committee consisting of the following members, viz.: Messrs Neilson, Patten, Craig & Killburn, three to be a quorum, M's Killburn is to preach, shall meet at Dromore the last Wednesday in Aug next, to take the minds of that Congreg, & if a Synodical majority of said Congreg shall desire to be disannexed, the Committee are enjoined to disannex them from the Pby of Dromore, & to join them to any Pby they shall ask, and no member of that Congregation is to vote unless he is clear of stipend at 9ber last—the Congreg are enjoined to furnish M's Black with an authentic List of such persons who are entitled to vote, ten clear days before the Committee's meeting, this Synod appoint M's Thos Bireh to preach to that Congregation, the last Sabbth of this month, M's Fletcher to M's Bireh's Congregation, M's Henderson to preach in Dromore y 14th & 21st [Sabbaths] in July, M's M's Kewen the 3rd & 4th of Do. M's Fletcher the 1st & 24 of Aug, M's M's Kewen y 3rd & 4th of Do.
A supplication from the Cong* of Carriockfergus was presented to this Synod, by Mr Jn* Moore & Dan* Mc Kay supplingating that this Synod would be pleased to appoint Mr Jn* Savage a probationer under the care of the Rev* Pby of Dromore, to supply that Congregation the month of July next. This supplication was granted.

A supplication was read praying for Synodical aid, in erecting a Richhill Meeting house at Richhill.

Ordered that it be warmly recommended to the sev Pby's seriously to attend to this matter, & this Synod think it highly worthy of the notice & aid of all friends of the dissenting Interest.

It was moved & agreed to, that the Pby of Belfast make Collections annually for the support of Venecash Congregation, & the Pby of Rout are enjoined to raise contributions annually for the support of a Gospel min* at Armoy, of a Gospel min* at Armoy, Whereas a paragraph in an advertisement, purporting to be the production of the Pby of Killelea, was published in the Belfast News-Letter of the 17th of May last, in which mention is made of Imputed Sin as a blasphemous Doctrine, which appears to this Synod as highly impudent & offensive—It is the sense of this Synod, that our Mod* do express our disapprobation of said Paragraph, and in the most earnest manner, caution all our members against all such improper publications in future.

This Synod however think proper to add, that they have not the most distant Idea of Condemning the generous principles of Civil & Religious liberty expressed in said Publication.

Doc* Little a member of the Pby of Killleea, requested that this Synod would disannex him from that Pby, & that he may be annexed to the Pby of Dromore—This request was unanimously granted.

It was moved and agreed to, that next Gen* Synod shall be at Lurgan the last Tuesday in June 1783, sermon to begin five o'clock afternoon.

The Committee of overtures brought in the following overtures, which were read & approved & are as follow:—

1st That his Majesty be addressed by this Synod, upon the present occasion.

2nd That an address be presented by this Synod to the Lord Lieutenant.

3rd That Colonel Stewart be thanked by this Body, for his exertions in procuring a Law for declaring the marriages of Protestant Dissenting ministers valid to all intents & purposes, & for removing doubts on that head.

Resolved that the following members be appointed, & accordingly are hereby appointed to draw up the different addresses, Viz: Messrs McDowell, Campbell, Rankin, Huey, Murray, Bankhead, Wilson, Black, Henry, & Livingstone,—These Brethren after having withdrawn sometime, returned with an address to the King, & also an address to the Lord Lieutenant, which were read and unanimously approved of, and inserted in our Journals & are as follow:—

TO THE KING’S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN.

We, your Majesty’s dutiful and Loyal subjects, the Presbyterian Min’r & Elders of the Province of Ulster, in your Majesty’s Kingdom of Ireland, assembled in Genl Synod, beg leave to approach your Royal Person, with the most cordial & unfeigned sentiments of affection, Loyalty, & respect.

We assure your Majesty that no part of your Dominions, contain men more attached to those principles, which seated your Majesty & your Illustrious family on the Throne of these Kingdoms, than the Protestant dissenters of the North of Ireland—educated in the principles of Liberty & a veneration for the Laws, we trust that as we have hitherto, so we shall be ever found the foremost in the support of the one, & obedience to the other.

We behold, with veneration & gladness, the late change in your Majesty’s Counsels.—We revere the magnanimity & goodness of your Royal heart, in adopting those maxims of Government which have for their object, the liberty & happiness of mankind—we rejoice in the pleasing prospect now opened of having the sword sheathed, & that Brother will no more rise up against Brother.

As Irishmen, we particularly rejoice in the Justice & Liberality of your Majesty’s Intentions towards this Kingdom.

We return your Majesty our most warm & grateful thanks, for having placed over us a chief Governour, whose hereditary principles deserve confidence—whose uniform support of the Liberty of the people commands esteem—our Hearts beat high at the name of Portland—The popular Governour of the people of Ireland—We trust that in his administration, the desire of your Majesty (whose first wish [is] to promote the happiness of all your subjects) will be perfected, that every species of persecution for Religious opinions, will be done away, when every equally good subject, will be equally cherished & protected by the state.

May the King of Kings, who weigheth the nations in a Ballance, direct the heart of your Majesty & superintend your Counsels—May he grant victory to your fleets & armies over the antient enemies of freedom and these Kingdoms—That the blessing of Peace may again be established, & Christian unity & Love succeed to discord, enmity, & War is our most ardent wish, & constant prayer.

Done at Lurgan the 26th June 1782, & signed by our order.

THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS & ELDERS OF THE PROVINCE OF ULSTER.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR GRACE.

We, His Majesty's dutiful & Loyal subjects, the Presbyterian Min's & Elders of the Province of Ulster, assembled at our annual Gen' Synod, beg leave to approach your Grace, with our congratulations on your appointment to the government of this Kingdom. With peculiar pleasure we have seen at this eventful period a nobleman of the Illustrious house of Bentick appointed to that high dignity, for even the great abilities that distinguish your Grace's character, are not so sure a pledge of the wisdom and justice of your administration, as your Inheriting that uniform attachment to the true principles of the Constitution, that has been so conspicuous in your Illustrious family—and for that reason Protestant dissenters flatter themselves with a peculiar Interest in your Grace's protection—for it is with peculiar satisfaction we can reflect that the Presbyterians of Ireland, have ever been, in all revolutions, most Loyal to the Crown, & Invincibly steady in support of the Constitution.

We also beg leave, with all becoming respect, to represent to your Grace, that the settlement of our forefathers in this country was by encouragement from the Crown, that it was deemed essential to support the Protestant Interest here, & necessary to the establishment of peace, public tranquillity & order, and that this, under the divine providence, was a happy means of checking the frequent commotions that formerly distracted this Kingdom, and at length of rendering it amiable to the Laws.

And it has been our constant study hitherto, so we shall persevere, notwithstanding the peculiar difficulties we still continue to labour under, to Inculcate on that numerous body of people under our care, those principles of virtue & Religion, Reverence & submission to the Laws, Loyalty to his Majesty & Zeal for our happy Constitution, which tend to make them good subjects & useful members of society.

Done at Lurgan the 26th June 1782, & signed by our order.

THOS. READ, Mod'.

It was proposed & agreed to, that Messrs M'Dowell, Caldwell, & Moore shall be appointed, & accordingly are hereby appointed to present our address to the Lord Lieutenant, by him to be transmitted to his Majesty, & at the same time, they shall present the address to his Grace the Duke of Portland—These addresses to be published in the Dublin Evening Post, & Belfast News-Letter.

It was moved and agreed to, that a Committee consisting of the Pby of Tyrone & Mr Wm Craford, shall wait on Colonel Stewart, with the following address, & that it, with Mr Stewarts answer, shall be published twice in the Dublin Evening Post— Belfast News-Letter, & Strabane Journal, at the expence of this Synod.—

Colonel Stewart

To James Stewart Esq., one of the Representatives in Parliament, for the County Tyrone.

Sir,

We, the Presbyterian Ministers & Elders of the Province of Ulster, embrace this first opportunity of our annual meeting in Gen" Synod, to express our grateful sense of your kind services in our behalf, and that of our people, respecting the marriage Bill—to those of the Lords by whom it was supported, & to the house of Commons we acknowledge ourselves much indebted—To you Sir, with whom it was originated, whose exertions in favour of it, were warm, strenuous, and preserving, until it passed into a Law, we are under very particular obligations. We beg leave to return you our most sincere thanks, and to assure you, that we have peculiar pleasure, in being indebted on the present occasion, to a Gentleman not more distinguished for his private virtues, than by his upright & uniform attachment to the rights of his country.

This Law by removing every doubt concerning the validity of our marriages is of great importance to us—We trust we may with the confidence of Integrity appeal to the world, that Presbyterian Min"s have always been attentive to the Rules of order, & decency, & to the peace, & Interest of families & society, in all such transactions, as the Ministers of any denomination whosoever.

Permit us to say, and we feel it with a conscious pride, that our loyalty to the King, & steady regards to the rights of the Constitution, have ever been, and we trust, ever will be, consonant to the privileges we enjoy, as Christians—as freemen & Protestant Dissenters.

Done at Lurgan 26th June 1782, & signed by our order.

THOS. READ, Mod'.

A proposition was made, that the Pby of Belfast shall be enabled & authorised by this Synod to receive Mr Brydone as a member, in order that he may be accepted as belonging to this Body—and liberty to join any Pby he pleaseth—The consideration of that matter was postponed till next Gen' Synod.

The Mod' concluded this Synod with prayer.

1st Interloq'.
AT LURGAN, JUNE 25TH, 1782.

2d Interloc.

Whereas the Dublin annual papers have been missent, there is reason to apprehend they are in the Post office of Dungannon—ordered that M' Stitt be directed to search that office without loss of Time, & if such papers & letters are found there, to transmit them to the Clerk of the Synod, upon the rec\textsuperscript{i} of which he is to convey them to the Moderator, who is hereby directed, with all convenient speed, to call a Committee of the following members, viz., Messrs Laird, Bryson, Killburn, Thomson & Bankhead, to meet at Belfast to consider these papers & form a minute, that the Clerk may be enabled to fill up the Synod’s minutes, to be transmitted in due form to the sev\textsuperscript{t} Pby's.

The Committee appointed by the G. Synod to consider the Dublin papers, which had been misdirected, met at Belfast the 1\textsuperscript{st} July 1782, these papers were laid before them, which contained a Letter of the 22 ultim. from the trustees of the widows fund, giving an ace\textsuperscript{i} of the state of that fund, which, as it is in a very prosperous way, is highly agreeable to the constituents—"That Messrs Bevan, Alexander, & Kirkpatrick, had been pleased to become Trustees of that fund—"That the legacy of Doc Maconchy had not yet been p\textsuperscript{d}, but it is expected it soon will.

The Committee answered this letter, & ordered it & a Copy of the answer to be inserted in the widows fund Book,

A Letter of the same date from Lang to our Clerk was produced, also Lists of the subscriptions, & of the annuities & annuitants of the widows fund specified—Likewise an ace\textsuperscript{i} of the Divi\textsuperscript{d} of the R.D.

It was observed that the great trouble in negotiating the Business of y\textsuperscript{e} widows fund, induced M' Lang to charge Com\textsuperscript{n} according to the original scheme, at the rate of 2\textsuperscript{d} 3\textsuperscript{d} & c., tho’ he had transacted that business above thirty years, & had never charged anything for his trouble, but thinks it expedient to do it now, as the fund can very well bear it.

M' Lang intimated that the southern association mean to make a compliment to M' Vaghan, the Gentleman in London, who negotiates the Business of the R. D. there, and have bespoke for him a suite of Table Linen with his arms, and it is expected the Northern Min\textsuperscript{t} will join in this. The Committee did not take upon them to determine anything respecting that part of M' Langs Letter.

A 2\textsuperscript{d} Letter from M' Lang of the 25 ult\textsuperscript{m} was also produced, wherein he mentions that M' Cha King our good friend, in conjunction with other Gentlemen, who he hopes will give him their assistance, mean to try whether an address to the house of Commons—to his Majesty, may not be procured for an add\textsuperscript{n} to the present Royal bounty on this Establishment to the nonconforming Ministers.

The Committee agreed to answer M' Lang’s Letter as followeth:—

Sir,

You will please inform M' King that y\textsuperscript{r} Letter did not reach our Mod\textsuperscript{t} in time to be laid before the G. Synod. As that Body knew nothing of that interesting business, when they had appointed us a Committee to examine y' papers, and to write to the Trustees of y' widows fund, we do not think ourselves authorised to instruct you what ans' you shou'd give to our generous friend.

For ourselves, we beg that you will assure M' King that we are penetrated w' the most lively sentiments of gratitude to him, for his truely benevolent view, and that his kind intentions cou'd not be laid before y' G. Synod, we beg to refer the whole matter to his wisdom & goodness of heart, we have no doubt y' G. Synod will take y' first opportunity, of returning their most unfeigned acknowledgements to M' King for his most generous plan, & to you for y' obliging manner of communicating it.

Signed by order of the Committee. THOS. READ, Mod'.

P.S.—Should M' King introduce the matter this Sess', M' Lang will please to inform Messrs Laird & Bryson.

Inserted by W. ROGERS, G.S.C.

Synod respecting the Rule concerning subscrip' to the W.minister Confession of faith, viz:—"If no one moved for a repeal of the Rule respecting subscrip' then the Rule remains in full force, no one moved for its Repeal, the Rule continued. It was therefore unanimously agreed by this Synod, that the words "full force, should be erased, and the words "as usual should be inserted in their place.

The Committee appointed to Ballynahinch Report that, at their meeting the probationers were p^ off, satisfaction made to the Heirs of the late M^ Strong, and the Cong' joined to the Pby of Dromore. This Synod approved the Conduct of the Committee.
On the affairs of the Cong of Dromore, Mr Black informed this Synod they previous to the day, on which the Committee was appointed to meet, he understood the parties had mutually acquiesced to drop their animosities, and were content to remain under the care of the Pby of Dromore, and therefore the necessity of the Committee's meeting was superceded.

Mr Hamilton disannexed from the Pby of Coleraine, by the last Sub Synod of Derry, made application to this Synod, requesting he might be annexed to the Pby of Belfast. This granted, provided the Pby of Belfast are inclined to receive him, and if not Mr Hamilton is allowed to join himself to any other Pby, that will receive him.

Moved that the Time and place of next Synod's meeting be fixed now, Magharafelt & Antrim were proposed. The Roll called & it carried Magharafelt. The next Synod is therefore to meet at Magharafelt the last Tuesday in June 1784. Sermon to begin at 5 o'clock afternoon.

Adjourned till Seven o'clock afternoon. This Session concluded with prayer.

3rd Session Wednesday, at 7 o'clock afternoon, after prayer &c.

Mr Bruce a member of the Southern Association, being present was invited to sit and vote with this Synod and he consented to do it.

Mr Black moved that the address to his Majesty which was agreed upon at last G. Synod, shou'd now be read, which being complied with he observed, that the address, printed in the Belfast News-Letter differed from ye address agreed upon, by the G. Synod at last meeting & entered in the records. Ordered that the Clerk write to Mr McDowell and inquire if the address to his Majesty was transmitted unaltered.

A petition from the Congregation of Kirkcubbin, requesting that they may be rec'd under the care of this Synod; also a Petition from Mr Brideon of Kirkcubbin praying, that he may be under the Protection of this Synod, were read. After some reasoning it was moved—Receive Mr Brydeen, or not. The Roll called & it carried receive, altho' they consider the settlement of that Gentleman in their Bounds as irregular yet in consideration of the goodness of his private character, this Synod consents to receive him, as a matter of favour, but not to be considered as a precedent. Mr Brydeen was asked if he had subscribed the W. M. Confession of faith, when he was licenced, and if he still adhered to that subscription, if he wou'd be subject to this Synod in the Lord, & wou'd be a Contributor to the the widows fund, all which he answered in the affirmative, and Mr Brydeen is allowed to be a member of any Pby in our Bounds that will receive him. Messrs Jackson, Dickson, Ker & Jackson jun'r, entered their protests & promised to give their reasons in due time.

Adjourned till eleven o'clock to-morrow forenoon. Interloq at 9, ye Sess concl w prayer.
4th Session Thursday at eleven o'clock forenoon, after prayer, &c.

A Supplication from the Congregation of Morn, was presented to this Synod setting forth that in consequence of a Difference between them and the Exrs of M' Kennedy, they [are] prevented of obtaining the settlement of the minister they had called; they therefore pray the Interposition of this Synod in adjusting their differences, and the ordination of the minister they have made choice of, may be expedited.

The Pby of Dromore, the Comrs from Morn, & the Executors of the late M' Kennedy, were heard at Large & removed—It was moved & agreed to, that a Committee of the following members, viz: Messrs M'Comb, Campbell, Read, White, & Livingstone, shou'd immediately converse with the parties, in order to heal their differences. The Committee having made their report, this Synod resolved—that as differences have arisen from the settlement of their accounts, it is the mind of this Synod, that the proposed sum of £50, shou'd be p'd by the Congrs of Morn to the Exrs of the late M' Kennedy on the morning of M' Thomson’s ordination, and the sum of £10 more left to the generosity of the Congregation.

A Reference having been made by the Pby of Killilea to y° Synod, in regard to a Dispute subsisting in y° Congregation of Cregan, concerning the proportion in which M' M'Comb’s Labours shall be divided between the Two meeting houses at Cregan & Newton Hamilton, and the minute of said Pby containing every Information upon the spot, being read—This Synod agreed unanimously, that M' M'Comb shou'd preach alternately at Cregan & Newton Hamilton from the Time that the people of the later place shall have discharged the arrears due by them at Cregan, Aug 1st 1781, and as long as they shall continue to pay him one half of the stipend promised, or to be promised, & become Justly due to M' M'Comb from the above date, this minute to be read publicly in both places.

M' Harris having reported that very little money had been given in to him, in pursuance of the appointm't yesterday—Ordered that the members present, who have not collected for M' Sprate’s meeting house, be enjoined to make Collections before or against next meeting of the G. Synod, & convey the same to M' Harris, by him to be transmitted to M' Sprate. The following members are—M' Colin Lyndsay, M' Ker, M' Wm Henry, M' Wm Smith, M' Patrick, M' Barbcr, M' Sherard, M' M'Pherson, M' M'Gee, M' Fletcher, M' Hays, M' John Thomson, M' Livingstone, M' Craig, M' Tho Birch, M' M'Kewen, M' Cumming, M' Robt Montgomery, M' Arnold, M' Dickson, with all others in the respective Phys, who have not collected for the above purpose, are hereby requested to be punctual in making Collections as above.

The Moderator concluded this Synod with prayer.

On reading the minute of last year’s Interloq' refering to this Interloq', the consideration of the Business respecting the refunding the Contributions to the widows fund, to such as go to America. Reference being had to the Rule of the G. Synod made in the year 1777, which is as follows:—"That if any part of the Capital of the widows fund already accumulated, be hereafter given away to any person or persons, but those originally intended to be relieved by the scheme of that fund, every Contributor who disapproves thereof, shall have a right to go out of the scheme, provided he declares his resolution to do so, then, or at the meeting of next G. Synod, & whosoever votes for such an alienation shall be excluded the benefit of this Resolution,—after some reasoning on this matter, the question was put—Rescind the Rule of 1777 or not? Messrs Osborn, White, Rankin, & Dickson, entered their Protests against the vote. The Roll was called & it carried Rescind.

It was moved and agreed to, that Messrs Jackson & Mathewson, formerly of the Pby of Monaghan, having demitted their Congregations, not thro' age, or bodily Infirmity, should not be entitled to any share of the R.D: from the time of their respective Demissions, and the Clerk is hereby ordered to Inform our agent of this, & to instruct him to pay no money in his hands to either of them.

It being observed that Mr Moore & others of the Pby of Monaghan, do enjoy a double portion of the R.D: ordered that Mr Moore be enjoined to attend at next G. Synod to give information of this matter & Mr Harris is to Inform Mr Moore of this.

2d Interlocut.

Mr Lang's Letter to this Synod was read, stating his desire, that according to the original scheme of the widows fund, he may in future be allowed, by the special direction of this Synod, 2½ £p c on all the annuities, for negotiating the Business of the widows fund; this was unanimously agreed to & our Clerk, in his answer to Mr Lang's Letter is ordered to inform him accordingly.

On observing that the Returns from several Pbys of the widows and annuities in their Bounds are defective: it was moved & agreed to, that if thro' the neglect of any Pby, annuities shou'd be transmitted longer than realy due, to the prejudice of the fund; what it shall have suffered, by such neglect: by an order of this Synod to our Agent, to stop so much out of the R.D: due to such Pbys, our Clerk is ordered to advise our Agent to be particularly careful, that he receives due certificates of y° widows and annuitants being alive, before he pays any annuities according to the Regulation, relative to that matter of 1778, a copy of which will be sent to Mr Lang.

A Letter from the Trustees of the widows fund, was received by Trustees Letter ye Interlocut', which gave pleasure to find, that the fund is in a prosperous state, but it was observed, that no account appeared respecting a bequest of £100 by Mr Ker of Newcastle, county Meath, to the widows Bequest fund.

Ordered that Mr Moore & Mr Montgomery of the Pby of Monaghan do apply to the Exequtor of Mr Ker, in relation to that matter, & report to ye General Synod at next meeting.
Some members having given information of a Bequest, said to be left by a lady in Dublin to the widows fund; this Interloc' request M' Bruce to get what Information he can, relative to that matter and communicate it to the Trustees.

M' Black and Craig were ordered to prepare an answer to ye Trustees letter. Ordered that the Mod' write to M' Mc'Dowell to procure without loss of Time the Royal Charter of the R:D: from the representatives of the late M' Caldwell.

M' Hull in the name of the Pby of Bangor, requested that M' Rowan, a member with them, shou'd no longer be one of their Body. This was granted, even at the request of M' Rowan, but as in the course of conversation, several things had dropped, affecting the character of M' Rowan. Ordered that a Committee shall meet at Ballinderry the last Tuesday in July next, to consider that matter: the Com't to consist of Mess'^ N. Thomson, Henry, M'Clore, Birch, Sherard, from the Pby Dromore; Mess'^ Laird, Malcom, Patten, & Killburn, from Belfast Pby; Mess'^ Wright, Montgomery, Abernathy & Gibson, from T. patrick Pby; & from the Pby of Ballymena, Mess'^ Lyndsay, Park, Rankin, & Jas Brown, with their Elders, (The Pby of Bangor are enjoin'd to attend), 5 Min'^ & three Elders, to be a quorum, to hear any complaint against M' Rowan, by the Pby of Bangor, or any others; and to enquire into the state of his Congregation: and all affairs relating to the Conduct of M' Rowan, & his Congregation: and M' Rowan, is enjoined to attend said Committee, and in case of non-attendance, the Committee are to proceed to pass such sentence as to them shall seem meet. The Committee are empowered to Issue the whole Business upon the spot, or to adjourn to a latter day as they shall see cause. M' Craig is ordered to preach in Ballinderry the 2nd Sabb'd hence & to publish this Minute; M' Murdoch is appointed to preach for M' Craig in Lisburn, and M' Rowan is to pay M' Murdoch. M' Thomson is enjoined to preach at the meeting of the Committee.

The Mod' is appointed to write a Letter to Cha' King Esq' in the name of the G. Synod, thanking him for his generous proposition, communicated by M' Lang, in his Letter to this Synod last year, hoping he will persevere in any steps he may Judge most conducive to our Interest.

Moved that a Letter be wrote to some friend in Dublin by M' Campbell or M' White signifying the inclination of this Synod, to take some steps towards obtaining an augmentation of the R:D: That we may know the sentiments of our Brethren in the Southern Association on that subject.

Inserted by WILL. ROGERS, G.S.Clsk.

Ordered that the Congreg within the Bounds of the Pby of Leterkenny & Clogher, be applyed to give them aid & assistance to the above Laudable work—and the other Cong within the Bounds of the G. Synod, are requested to send such aid towards this matter as they conveniently can to next G. Synod.

A Supplication from the Congreg of Ballinderry, was presented to this Synod, reciting, That as in consequence of the Demission of Mr. Rowan their late Min, they have been taken under the care of the Revd Pby of Belfast, untill this meeting of the G. Synod. They supplicate that they may be annexed to & continue under the care of the Pby Belfast.

Recourse being had to the minutes of last year, appointing a Committee to meet at Ballinderry, & Mr. Thomson a member of that Committee being called upon, gave an acc of their proceedings, he repeated that Mr. Roan had demitted his charge, & as the Congregation was not under the care of any Pby, the Committee recommended it, that they shou’d be under the care of the Pby of Belfast untill this meeting.

This Synod approve of the Conduct of the Committee & grant the above supplication, & are duly sensible of the Diligence & perseverence of those members who attended to the conduct of that business, while they must censure the indifference & negligence of those of them, who paid no regard to the appointment of this Synod.—The Cong's of Ballinderry was annexed to the Pby of Belfast, & at the same time are enjoined that all arrears due the Probationers, shall be paid them before the ordination of the ministers.

Mr. Miller applied to this Synod, respecting a debt due, of nine days preaching, by y° Cong's of Saintfield, to the amount of £10: 4: 6, but inasmuch as the duty performed was partly in favour of the Representatives of the late Mr. Walker, he will be satisfied with three guineas—This Synod appoint Mr. Birch to lay Mr. Miller’s claim before his Congreg's, by publishing this minute there, that Mr. Miller’s just demand may be satisfied, Mr. Birch is to procure the money & pay it to Mr. Miller’s order.

The Moderator concluded this Synod with prayer.

1st Interlop'

Mr. Patrick a member of this Synod & a Contributor to the widows fund, represented to this Interlop’, his necessity of removing to America for certain peculiarities of circumstances, & therefore claimed the restitution of what he had paid into the fund.

This was granted, & whenever the Pby of Dromore shall certify
Mr. Lang, Mr. Patrick’s determination to go to America, he shall refund him whatever he had subscribed to the support of the fund.

It was moved—Rescind the resolution of last G. Synod, respecting the Rule of 1777, relative to the alienation of any part of the Capital of the widows fund. The question was put, Repeal the Resolution of last year—or not? The Roll called, & it carried not.

Ordered that Mr. Lang pay Mr. Killburn £1: 16: 10. for discharging a debt due by the Gen’ Synod for publications in the Belfast News-Letter.

It was moved & seconded, that all Ministers entitled to the R.D. shall be put on an equal footing, each to enjoy one equal single share & no more.—The previous question was proposed—shall the above be put or not, The Roll called & it carried—put—The main question was then carried without a division. The Clerk is to inform Mr. Lang of this resolution.

It was agreed that Doc’s Campbell be now called upon to give a Report of his transactions in Dublin, which he gave in by reading a correct account of his proceedings, which are inserted in our Record & is as follow:—

Doc’s Campbell reports, that in pursuance of an appointment of the G. Synod’s fixed Committee at Dunganon, the 2d of Decem’ 1783, he went to Dublin to solicit an augmentation of R:D: That, according to his Instructions, he waited on Col. Stewart, of Killymoon, immediately on his arrival in Dublin, & found there, & at all times a most steady, intelligent & zealous friend to our interest—That during his long stay in Dublin, he received from him every mark of attention & kindness, that the G. Synod cou'd have hoped from the most determined one to serve them. That he took no step without consulting the Col., & in every transaction thought himself particularly fortunate to be able to avail himself of the knowledge of the world, & superior wisdom for which that Gentleman is so justly distinguished.

That Mr McDowell on every occasion shewed the most friendly attention & zeal to co-operate with him in the execution of their Commission.

That he had several meetings with the Ministers of the Southern association, informed them that the terms proposed in their papers to the Synod's Committee cou'd not be admitted, but that if they chose, they might join in our petition on the following terms, viz., let the issue of our Petition, be what it might, they shou'd still be entitled to their £400 a year, and if his majesty shou'd raise our proportion higher than theirs, they shou'd be advanced to an equality with us, so that they may possibly gain, but cou'd not lose, Doc' Dun, and M' Thomas, urged their Brethren to join, alledging that tho' they shou'd reap no Benefit, our union would place the whole body in a more reputable point of view, and give the greater weight to our memorial, w' Government, but after waiting ten days for their determination, they declined joining on these terms, & seemed willing to forget the paper they had sent to the Committee.

That M' McDowell & he presented an address to Lord Northington, the Lord Lieutenant, with the memorial to be transmitted to the King — That they were graciously received, had a favourable answer from his Excellency—That the Lord Lieutenant sent for Doc' Campbell several times, & entered very particularly into the present state of publick affairs, & among other things told him, that very unfavourable representations had been made of us,—That the North was in a disturbed state, & ready to break the peace of the Kingdom—M' Secretary Pelham had mentioned the same unjust aspersions, when Col. Stewart & M' McDowell were present. Doc' Campbell, in the most effectual manner, in his power endeavoured to obviate these mis-representations, gave a just account of the state of the country, and our principles & conduct, and in the several Conferences, with which he was honoured by the Lord Lieutenant, was so happy as to remove the ill impressions he had rec'd of us.

His Excellency shewed much candor, thanked him for his information, told him he was fully satisfied of the justness of our principles—that they were the true old Whig Principles, which he revered, & was anxious that we might support the character of our forefathers, and assured him that he wou'd make a faithful & favourable Representation of us to the King when he returned to England, which he had reason to think had not always been done.

The change of Ministry which happened about the time of presenting the memorial, occasioned great delay in our Business & detained Doc' Campbell in Dublin, above a quarter of a year—during this period, while matters were full of uncertainty, he used all his Diligence to procure information—wou'd have gone to the British Court, had he found it necessary for our service—but upon making the best Inquiries he cou'd in Dublin, & writing to Lord Templetown, then in London, he found from the distracted state of publick affairs, that tho' he cou'd have had Letters of Introduction to the Duke of Portland, his going over cou'd not be useful.

Lord Northington at length Informed him, that the King's Letter was come over, with a grant of one thousand pounds a year, that this was the largest sum that ever had been granted, yet as there had been reason to hope for a much more liberal augmentation—The Doc^t expressed his disappointment with great frankness to the Lord Lieutenant, who told him with his usual candor, that a larger sum had been intended, but that it was opposed by men of power in this Kingdom, with whom the publick business was transacted, but that we shou'd consider it as a pledge of a further augmentation, & spoke of our presenting an address to his Majesty.

Upon this, the Doc^t consulted Col. Stewart & Lord Charlemont, who thro' the whole of this transaction, had also shown themselves steady & zealous friends, they were both of opinion that addresses of thanks shou'd be presented to the King & L^t Lieutenant, and that those Gentlemen who had supported our memorial by going up with us to the Lord Lieutenant, shou'd be consulted, as to the manner of expressing our Thanks, which was done.—Those consulted on this occasion besides the Earl of Charlemont & Col. Stewart, were M^t Grattan, M^t Geo. Ogle, Col. Rowly, Col. Dawson, & Major Skiffington. Lord Templetown having at this time come over from London, was particularly consulted, as was also, M^t Rowly of Summerhill, & several of the Dublin ministers, who all approved of the addresses, which were presented, after being submitted to their examination & correction.

By advice of our most Intelligent friends, Doc^t Campbell had the grant placed by warrant from the Lord Lieutenant, on the Civil Establishment of this Kingdom under the Head of nonconforming min^s, whereby a savage was made of sixty or seventy pounds, which a Charter wou'd have cost, that for that purpose he got himself introduced to M^t Secretary Hamilton, had several meetings with him, and in this business he experienced much attention & kindness from him.

That he procured copies of the King's Letter & of the warrant of the Lord Lieutenant out of the Secretary's office.

That the Duke of Rutland, being appointed Lord Lieutenant & expected shortly to arrive in Dublin, the Southern min^s insisted on his staying in Town to present the usual congratulatory address, which he complied with, and in the mean while he consulted with those Gentlemen of high Rank, to whom he had access, about asking an audience of his Grace on our affairs, but they all thought the season was not convenient. However to obviate misrepresentations of our Body to Government, & to lay a foundation for a future application for the extension of the R. D. appeared of great consequence to our Interest, He was therefore anxious to form some scheme to effect these important purposes; The scheme that occurred to him as most effectual, he submitted to the Earl of Charlemont, Lord Templetown, & Col. Stewart, it met their approbation, and with the most friendly assurances, of regard & kindness, they promised to support it—A number of their Letters to him, since he returned to the country, show that they have used great assiduity & zeal to serve us,—our character has been fairly represented, so that we stand well in the opinion of the present Government, and as to a farther augmentation of R.D. it may just be observed that it is a matter of much delicacy, and considering the powerful enemies we have in this country, so long as it is depending, prudence must command us to be silent about it.

In conversation with the Earl of Northington, he maintained from an historical detail of our Conduct, from our first settlement in Ireland, that we are justly entitled to favour; But from the nature of our Establishment, and the Privileges we long enjoyed, we had a right to a mentaince tho' in our present situation, we petitioned for a favour, yet we had a claim of Right & Justice upon the State.

That he endeavoured to support this claim in a paper sent to his Excellency by the hands of Secretary Pelham—That his Lordship thought well of it, and y' he has reason to believe, that a Copy of that paper has been laid before the Duke of Rutland, that his Grace was also well pleased with it & expressed his desire of keeping it.

That being informed while he was in Dublin, that one of the Bishops was to move the House for a Revival of our Marriage Act, he had sev' conversations on that Subject, with Lord Charlemont, Col. Stewart & other members of Parliament, and requested, that if that question was brought forward no alteration shou'd be agreed to, without consulting this Synod, which they promised—He gave them a particular account of our mode of celebrating marriage, which they highly approved, and alledged that our Regulations were much preferable to those of the Establish Church.

That he met with the accounts, handed down among the Southern ministers of the add'd R.D. by Geo. I., by which means it was divided between them & us, & also of the immediate occasion of the Toleration Act,—That he obtained copies of these papers,—that he got the statement of the Treasury accounts to ascertain the arrears of R.D.

As to his being appointed again Comm' by the G. Synod's Committee, that met at Dunganon, the 16th March 1784, he observed, that he had paid every attention to the Instructions of his Brethren; but that nothing had occured to induce him to return to Dublin.

That according to the orders of the Committee he had written Letters of Thanks to Lord Charlemont, Col. Stewart, M' Grattan, M' Geo. Ogle, Col. Rowly, Col. Dawson, and Major Skiffington, & had received the most friendly answers to the most of his Letters.

It was moved & unanimously agreed to, that the Thanks of this Synod shou'd be given to Doc' Campbell, for his great zeal assiduity & fidelity in conducting our publick affairs committed to him, which was done from the Chair.
It was moved & agreed to, that Doc' Campbell & M' M'Dowell our Commis's in transacting our Business in Dublin, shall have their expenses fully discharged by our agent M' Lang, & as an expressive of high sense we entertain of their ability & zeal in serving us, we request that Doc' Campbell may be pleased to accept a piece of Plate to the value of 40 Guinea's, with a proper Inscription, and that M' M'Dowell may accept a piece of plate to the value of 20 Guinea's, with a proper Inscription also. The choice of the plate to be left to these Respective Gentlemen, M' Lang is ordered to pay the Mod' the above specified Sixty Guinea's, who is requested to see this matter executed.

Doc' Campbell is requested to continue our Commissioner.

It was moved that the following min' may be struck off from receiving R.D. M' Rob' Caldwell formerly of Coleraine Pby, M' Smith of Killilca Pby, M' Dunn Deposed by Derry Pby, M' Rowan formerly of Bangor Pby, M' Hume of Templepatrick Pby,—M' White is continued to enjoy the Benefit of R.D. for the ensuing year, this matter to be considered at next G. Synod.

Ordered that M' Dunn be refunded what he has paid into the widows fund, and that the Pby Derry draw for the money & repay him upon his removal to America, he is to receive his portion of R.D. only down to the 18th May last, when he was deposed.

The Clerk of the Synod is ordered to advise M' Lang to pay M' Alexander of Letterkenny Pby all M' Steen's subscription to the widows fund, & his portion of R.D. for a year & 3, as he is to remove to America.

Marriage

After deliberating on the Article of Marriage, which came before this Interlog' & the Committee of overtures, it was resolved to let the matter lay over to next G. Synod, but at the same time, it is in the fullest manner enjoined on the several Phys belonging to the G. Synod, to have the strictest regard to the conduct of their several members, that none of them shall celebrate marriages in an irregular & disorderly manner.

M' Ker's Bequest

M' Montgomery reports that he applied to the Ex'm of the late M' Ker, & from the ans' he rec'd from one of them, he presumes they are not willing to pay the Bequest to the widows fund.—It is proposed the Trustees be acquainted with this matter, & their Interposition & assistance be requested.

In the affair of M' Ker's Legacy, M' Lang is requested to give his assistance to the Trustees.

A Letter from the Trustees of the widows fund, was rec'd & read wherein they advise us, that M' Price's mortgage is soon to be paid off, and they have intimated to M' Price that the money will be accepted.
Ordered that Messrs White, Livingstone, & Doc Campbell, shall write an answer to the Trustees Letter, and request them, that they will be pleased to look into the securities, which either Lord Moira, or Lord Eniskilling will offer.

Is was moved that an agent be appointed for the new Grant of R.D. Mr Lang & it was agreed y' Mr Lang shou'd be the person—and Messrs McDowell & Moore, Counr Dunn, & Stewart of Pill Lane, Alexander Kirkpatrick, Jun', & Henry Lyons Esq' be requested to enquire what is the security, Security for R.D. if any, for the former R.D., & be empowred to receive security from Mr Lang, for that & the present addition. The Mod' is requested to inform these Gentlemen of the above, & entreat their acceptance of this Trouble.

It was moved & agreed to, that a Deputation shall be appointed to wait upon Col. Stewart, to thank that Gentleman in the warmest manner for the exertion of his ability & zeal in our service, and the Deputation, Doc' Campbell, Mr White, Mr M'Clelland, Mr Murray, Mr Wilson, Mr Moore, & Mr Osborn, are hereby appointed.

It was agreed that a Deputation be appointed to wait on Lord Charlemont, at the Belfast Review, & Mr Laird, Mr Bryson, Doc' Crombie, Mr Killburn, Mr Wm Bryson, Mr Jackson, & Mr Beaty, & Mr Thomson, & such others as they may judge proper, are directed to present their warmest Thanks of this Body to that nobleman for his interest to their Interest.

Ordered that a Deputation be appointed to wait on Lord Templetown, with their grateful acknowledgments for his great attention to our Interest, & Messrs Ranken, Bryson, Wright, Read, Abernethy, Montgomery, & Bankhead, be appointed for that purpose.

It being adverted to, that whereas our former quarterly payments of R.D. at the Castle of Dublin is known to be £300, and in all the acc' cur' from our agent, he states the gross sum of each q' at £290—our Clerk is enjoined in his ans' to Mr Lang's Letter, to request his clearing up that difficulty, & whereas it appears from the acc' out of the General's office, that the arrears of R.D. are no more than one q', our Clerk is also desired to enquire how it happens that in all the agents returns, the arrears appear to be about three quarters.

It is recommended to the several members of this Synod to take into their serious consideration, the great loss the dissenting Interest sustains by the want of an academy for the education of youth, & to come prepared to the next G. Synod, to determine upon the ways & means of establishing of an Institution of y' Kind.

Inserted by WILL. ROGERS, G.S.C.

Wednesday 11 o'clock forenoon after prayer &c.

It was moved that the time & place of next Synod's meeting be now fixed. When Antrim, Lurgan, & Dunganon were moved for, upon a Division it carried "Dunganon," to meet at Dunganon the last Tuesday in June 1786. Interlocut at half after four, open Synod at six.

Wednesday 7 o'clock.

A supplication from part of the Congregation of Randlestown, was presented to this Synod, complaining of the conduct of the Pby of B. mena towards them, and praying to be annexed to the Pby of Root.

At the same time another supplication from another part of said Congregation was read, claiming that they may be considered as the Congregation of Randlestown, and that they may be continued under the Care of the Pby of Ballymena.

The Memorial of the Pby of Ballymena giving a Relation of their proceedings from the vacancy of that Congregation, and a full statement of their transactions with said Congregation, was also laid before this Synod.

The Pby of Ballymena, and the party complaining were heared, also the other party from Randlestown. After reasoning on the above Matters, the following Question was moved "does it appear from what has come before us, that the Pby of Ballymena had good Ground to proceed, and draw up a Call, or not? The previous Question was put & negatived, the original motion was then agreed to, without a Division—viz. that the Pby of Ballymena had not good Ground to draw up and present a Call.
It was moved and agreed to, that Messrs White, Crawford, Campble, Dixon, McClellan, Thomson, Killburn, shall meet the parties from Randlestown, at 7 to morrow Morning, in order if possible to bring about a reconciliation & report to this Synod. This Session concluded w't prayer.

[Thursday Morning.]

The Committee who met the parties from Randlestown on Thursday morning, report that they had heard both parties—that the minority were willing to lay aside Mr Elder, and apply for a young man to any other Pby, to this the majority objected, and requested that a Committee be appointed at a short day to take a new Poll of the Cong of Randlestown in which the Majority acquiesced.

This Synod therefore appoint a Committee of the following members, Messrs Dixon, Thomson, Montgomery, Abernethy, Bankhead, Wright, Gibson, McClelland, Whiteside, Sen, & Killburn, to meet at Randlestown on Wednesday the 20th July to poll the Congr, and to proceed with a Call, if they shall see Cause, no person to be intitled to a vote who has not paid his or her respective share of Stipend, and arrear of Stipend, with all other Congregational Charges down to the first of May 1784. Both parties agreed to make out Lists of such persons as they intend to vote, and give their several Lists to each other ten clear days before the Meeting of the Committee, that they may be scrutinized if they see needfull, which Lists are to be delivered to the Committee on the morning of their meeting. Mr Bankhead to preach at 11 o'clock said day. A Copy of this Minute to be read in the Congregation of Randlestown next Lord's day, & another Copy to be given to Mr Bankhead for the use of the Committee.

It was desired that the Minute of last Synod's Interloq relating to Marriage should be read, and after reasoning on the subject, it was moved and unanimously agreed to, that any Member of this Synod, who shall Join in Marriage any man & woman not under his pastoral care, or if not duly certified by the Minister or Session of the Congregation of which they are members Shall for the first offence be suspended ab officio for three months, for the second offence be degraded, and that when either of the parties shall be members of the Established Church, he shall not celebrate any matrimonial contract, without the consent in writing of the Rector, Curate or other Officiating Clergyman of the Parish in which said Party shall be a resident, under pain of incurring the like Penalties.

The Presby of Templepatrick requested that this Synod would be pleased to apropioate their share of the Synod's fund, to the Congregation of Islandmagee, untill it arrive at such a degree of strength as will enable them to pay £40 a year, this granted.

This Synod concluded with Prayer.

[1st Interloq.]

Upon reading the Minute of last year, allowing Mr Patrick to withdraw his contribution to the Widows fund upon his going to America, it was moved & agreed to, that the Resolution of last Synod is no longer in force, but discharged.

It was moved that no part of the Money paid into the Widows fund be applied to any other purpose, than the support of the Widows & Orphans for whose use it was originally designed, the previous Question was put & was negatived, the original motion was then agreed to without a division.

[2d Interlogr.]

It was moved that Mr Sprat in consideration of his distressing circumstances, be allowed a double Portion of R.D. during his life, this unanimously agreed to.

On reading the Resolution of last year declaring Mr Caldwell to be no longer intitled to R.D., it was moved that as Mr Caldwell is again appointed to the Charge of a Congregations, that the Resolution respecting him be rescinded, and that he shall be intitled to a dividend of R.D. without any drawback or interpituation. This agreed to.

As it appears to this Synod that Mr McDowel has declined to make any charge for his expenses in transacting their Business, with respect to the new Grant, and also has declined accepting the compliment of a piece of Plate voted him last Synod, they cannot help expressing their very grateful sense, which they ever entertain of his important services as their Commissioner, & also of his generous Conduct in the present instance.

Ordered that the Resolution of last Synod respecting Mr Dunn be rescinded, and that the money drawn by the Pby of Derry from the Widows fund in favour of Mr Dunn, be repaid to the agent of said fund.

[3d Interlogr.]

It was moved that a sum equal to that given to the widows fund by Mr Dunn, be paid by our agent out of the new R.D. to the order of the Presby of Derry, to be appropriated as they shall see fit to the sole use of Mr Dunn & her family, on account of her & their extreme poverty. This granted.

[4th Interlogr.]

A Letter in answer to Mr Lang's was read and approved of, and is as follows:—"Dear Sir, We rec'd your Letter of the 23d Inst., the accounts with which you favoured us in it, we have not had time to examine with that minuteness that would enable us to speak positively upon them, but as far as we have been able to consider them, they appear to us satisfactory, with respect to the Security, we are happy to say that you have always been attentive to our affairs, and that we have had the utmost Reliance upon your honesty and integrity, yet, nevertheless, we cannot consider it in the smallest degree indelicate to require a fresh security for the whole R.D. from you now, indeed we are surprized that you should make any difficulty in complying with our wishes in that respect. It is no more than the ordinary mode of doing Business, & therefore we must insist upon your giving a proper security to our Rev^d Brethren, Mess^r M^Dowel, Moor, & Wilson, as soon as you conveniently can, that it may be transmitted to this Body before or at their next Meeting."

The Moderator & M^r Stitt were appointed to answer the Trustees Letter, expressing our approbation of lending the Capital of the fund to Sir John Blackwood, reminding that M^r King had been added to the Trustees: M^r Killburn is appointed to write to M^r King, & to inform him that he was appointed a Trustee of the Widows fund, & request he would accept that Trust.

Resolved that if any Gentleman shall by the approbation of this Synod, set up an Academy in which Logick, Mathematicks & Moral Philosophy, shall be taught, in this case a Certificate from the Gentleman conducting the Academy of six months regular attendance & corresponding Improvement, shall be considered by the respective Phys within our bounds, as equal to Certificate of one seasons attendance in any University, and that D^r Crawford of Strabane, is unanimously approved of as a very proper person to preside in such an Academy. D^r Campble is requested to continue our Commissioner.

A Letter from M^r James Jackson late of Ballybay was read, requesting to be allowed to pay up his subscription to the Widows fund, that his widow may be intituled to the Benefit of said fund. This Request referred to next G. Synod.

This Synod observing with Regret the great Inattention both of Minisets & Elders to the concerns of this Church. The Synod therefore resolve to censure according to the established Rules of this Church, such Ministers as shall be absent from our annual meetings, without sufficient reason. And as Elders are a part of our Ecclesiastical Constitution, it is resolved that this Synod will strictly inquire why Elders do not attend with their respective Ministers, at our stated Meetings. And it is hereby enjoined to every Presby belonging to this Synod, to observe the Conduct of their members attending Presbyterial Meetings, and the Presabys should frequently meet for the purpose of visiting their Congregations. And that Ministers & Elders endeavour to maintain the Discipline, and good Order of this Church. This minute to be read in every Congregation belonging to this Synod before Novem^ber next.

That this Synod do declare it to be their sense that no person should be ordained in this Kingdom for America, by any Pby within the Bounds of this Synod, unless in consequence of a regular application from America—That a Rule be made prohibiting such practice. And that no Probationer shall be put on 2d trials by any Pby, unless in case of a regular Call to the Charge of a Congregation, and that every probationer shall henceforth pass trials for Ordination before the Pby under whose Care the Congregation is to which he is called.

It was moved that the minute relating to an Acadamy to be erected within the bounds of this Synod, & a resolution that Doctor Crawford is a fit person to direct and superintend an Acadamy in Strabane to be read; and after reading, this Synod heard with particular pleasure from undoubted authority, of the remarkable progress in knowledge, of the Students in the Strabane Acadamy instituted under their patronage, at their last meeting. And as an additional proof of their earnest desire to encourage that Seminary, & in compliance with the request of its Committee & subscribers, do unanimously resolve, that if Natural Philosophy, and a Course of experiments, shall be added to the several Branches of Literature already taught there, a second season's attendance in it shall be considered as entitling students to the same privileges in the several Phys, with a second season's attendance in any foreign University.

And it was ordered that Messrs Young & Black of the Pby of Derry, Messrs Burke & Love of the Pby of L.kenny, M's Hamil of the Pby of Strabane, and M's White of the Pby of Tyrone be added as members of the present Committee, to assist in superintending the affairs of the Academy, to attend the public examinations, & to make annually a report to this Synod, of the improvement of the Students in the several Branches of Literature.

Thursday 11 o'clock.

The minutes of last Synod were now read, and upon enquiry of the Committee met at Randlestown according to appointment, the minutes of that Committee were read & a protest of Messrs Thompson & Killburn, two members of it, against its proceedings, & their reasons in support of them,—And as the other members of that Committee now present, allege they had not an opportunity of seeing these reasons in due time, leave is given to answer them at our next meeting.

When the minute relating to Marriage was read, this Synod agreed that the expression duly certified contained in it, was not intended to lay aside proclamation—And whereas it was said by several members, that Messrs Hume, Blakely, McCal, Rogers & Dunn, Samuel Moore formerly of Root Phys, Messrs Brittel & McMain are by common report flagrantly guilty of great irregularities, particularly of celebrating marriage contrary to all order, and improperly on many accounts, therefore the several Phys in whose bounds they reside, are enjoined to cite them, before them & to make enquiry into the truth of these Complaints, and if they appear to be well founded, formally to degrade them from the ministerial Character, an account of which shall be read in every Congregation within the bounds of each Phys, where such Degradation shall take place, and be published in the most convenient N-paper, and it is most strictly enjoined, that every Phys of this Synod, shall carefully inquire into every similar complaint, & proceed in the same manner against any minister so offending.

This Session concluded by prayer, & adjourned to half after six o'clock.
Commissioners from Killead request that Mr. Robert Orr, a Probationer under the care of the Revd. Pby of L. kenn, be appointed to preach to them six Lord's days, commencing the 2d Sabbath of July next, which is granted. A copy of the minute describing the qualifications of those who are to vote, was given to the Commissioners.

Commissioners from part of the Congregation of Lisluene appeared, & set forth that a Call to Mr. McAdam had been drawn up by a member of the Pby of Monaghan, & subscribed in his presence by a number of that Congregation, which that Pby from the state of the people thought proper not to present for some time.—They therefore request this Synod to recommend it to Mr. McAdam to return the call. But as this supplication was considered to come in irregularly before this Synod it was dismissed by vote.

A Petition of the Rev. Colin Lindsay was presented, complaining that the Pby of Armagh had dissolved the relation between him & his Congregation of Dundalk, & had threatened to silence him if he should perform ministerial duty, within the bounds of that Congregation. The Petitioner farther alledged that after an appeal to the S. Synod of Armagh, the affair between him & his Pby was referred to the Decision of this Synod, and requests that a Committee be appointed to meet at Dundalk to inquire into the merits of his petition.

A petition from some of the members of that Congregation was also laid before this Synod, complaining of the determination of the Pby of Armagh in the above stated affair, and requesting this Synod to rescind the sentence of that Pby, & grant the prayer of Mr. Lindsay's petition—From the Session & Congregation of Dundalk, likewise appeared Commissioners with power to act in their name—The minutes of the S. Synod of Armagh were read, from which it appeared that Mr. Lindsay's appeal was referred to this Synod—The minutes of the Pby of Armagh was also read, and the parties heard at considerable length, & having withdrawn, several members spoke upon the subject, after which the Question was put—Approve the sentence of the Pby of Armagh in dissolving the connection between Mr. Lindsay, and the Congregation of Dundalk or not—It was carried in the negative. That part of Mr. Lindsay's Prayer for a Committee to meet at Dundalk is granted, & the following members, Messrs. Moore, Davies, Trimble, Smith of Loughbrickland, Hay, Porter, Magee, Killburn, Craig, Thos. Birch, Doctor Dickson, Cochran, & Turretine, with Elders, (five Ministers with three Elders to be a Quorum) are appointed to meet at Dundalk on the 4 Wednesday of July, to try all complaints and charges, against the Revd. Colin Lindsay, & finally to determine in what relation he shall stand, both to this Synod & the Congregation of Dundalk, said Comm" hath power to put the Congregation under the care of any Pby to which they choose to join. Mr Andrew Bryson appointed to supply the Congregation until the meeting of the Committee — Mr Turretine to preach at it. Mr Lindsay is to be furnished with the copy of the charge or charges which are to be brought against him, ten days before the meeting of the Committee, & also with a list of the names of such witnesses as are to support the charge or charges.

Adjourned until 9 o'clock to morrow morning—Interloq' at 7. This Session concluded with prayer.

[Sixth Session.] 4th Session

A Supplication from a part of the Congregation of Aughadowey to which nine names were subscribed, was presented, requesting that a minister of this Synod be appointed to preach to them one Lord's Day in every month, until the next meeting of this Synod.

After maturely considering the request, suppliants are allowed to be disannexed from the Congregation of Aughadowey & to join any other will receive them, upon this condition only, that they have paid or do pay all stipend due to them by Aughadowey, and when this condition is fulfilled, they are disannexed from it.

A Supplication from the Congregation of Moywater was given in, praying that a double portion of the R.D. may be allowed to their minister, which was refused.

The Moderator is requested to present the thanks of this Synod to the Right Honble Lord Kingston, for his attention & regard to Protestant Dissenters, expressed by his benefaction to the colony of Ballymote.

When the resolution relating to the supplication from Moywater was read, it was moved and ordered, that the Congregations of Sligo & Moywater shall each of them have a double portion of the R.D. new & old for this year,

The following overture from the Comm" of overtures was submitted to the consideration of this Synod, viz: It is recommended to the Several Pbys to take this overture into their serious consideration, & at the same time, to modify its contents, & the former regulations of this Synod concerning the education of youth for the Ministry, that they may be incorporated into one body to be adopted & established by this Synod—aproved.

Resolves of the Committee of Overtures:—

1st That every Candidate for the ministry, having finished his Academical & University Courses, according to Synodical regulations, must, before he is admitted to public examinations, make himself acquainted with all or the greater part of the members of that Pby under the care of which he chooses to place himself.

The expediency of printing Copies of the minutes of this Synod to be considered at next meeting.

The Moderator concluded this Synod by prayer, June 30th 1786.

Wednesday half after 4 o’clock p.m.

The minute of the Interloq of last Synod being read, allowing M’ Spratt a double portion of the R.D., some doubts having arisen about the extent of that order, it is now declared to be and to have been our Intention that it should not extend to the late R’ Grant.

A Letter from M’ Lang was read, directed to M’ Murray our former Moderator, informing him he had perfected jointly with James Johnston Esq’, a security to the G. Synod, as their Agent, & a bond drawn upon paper not stamped was produced which was not satisfactory, for that & other reasons, & therefore Mess’ Dowell, Wilson, & Moore of Dublin, when furnished with copies of the several Royal Grants, & a letter of Att’ from this Synod, are requested & intrusted, with such other Gentlemen as they shall think proper to join with them, to demand and take from M’ Lang such security as Counsel shall approve, both for its Legality & sufficiency.

And it is now ordered that a Letter of Att’y empowering our Agent receive, & directing him to dispose of the entire R.D. for the use of this Synod be duly perfected—And Mess’ Birch, Killburn, Wilson, & Lindsay, are appointed to draw up a letter of Att’y for the above purpose—And Mess’ White, Livingstone, Wilson & Black are appointed to answer M’ Lang’s Letter, & fully to inform him of our sentiments and expectations, & to lay the letter before our next Interloq’.
Upon reading the minute relating to the Institution of an Academy in the bounds of this Synod, it was allledged to belong to the minutes of open Synod, which was admitted.

When the minute of Mr. Jackson's application to last Synod was read, the Question was put—shall Mr. James Jackson be allowed to be a Contributor to the widows fund or not?—The roll was called, & it carried that Mr. Jackson is allowed to be a Contributor to the W Fund, upon paying all arrears due by him to the fund, with legal interest to the day of paym't, & his being punctual in his future annual payments.

Doctor Stevenson requested a similar indulgence by letter, and a like application was made in favour of Mr. Rowan—it was unanimously granted to both, upon the above conditions. But if it shall appear at our Annual meetings, by our Agent's return, or by his receipts, that such subscriptions are not paid in due time by Messrs. Jackson, Stevenson, & Rowan then he, or they in whose favour such report or recpt is not produced, shall be excluded from the benefit of this indulgence & forfeit all their claims on the fund, in behalf of his or their widow or widows, family or families.

The minutes of the last Interloq were read & a letter to Mr. Lang requiring him to give satisfactory security to this Synod, as our Agent, which was approved & ordered to be engrossed by our Clk.—A Letter of Atty. was prepared as directed, read, and duly perfected, by our Moderator & Clerk.

The Trustees letter was read, & Messrs. Murray & Stitt were appointed to answer it—It was proposed & appointed that Doctor Campbell is continued as our Commissioner.

[3rd Interloq.]

A request was made that any sum of money, which should be given by the Congregation of Usher's Island, to the Representatives of the late Rev'd James Caldwell, and the Annuity due to his Widow, annually by the W Fund, shall be paid to the Rev'd Andrew Alexander of Urnie, one of Mr. Caldwell's Trustees—Granted.

Mr. Thompson of Carnmony is appointed to apply to the family of the late Mr. Rogers for all Books & papers in their hands belonging to the G. Synod, & to bring them to our next meeting.

Messrs. Murray & Stitt answered the Trustees Letter, which with the Letter to Mr. Lang & other papers, our Moderator was pleased to take into his Care.

Interloq' at 5 o'clock in the evening. Open Synod at 7—Adjourned.
3d Session Wednesday Evening after Prayer.

It was moved that the time & place of the meeting of next Gen. Synod should now be fixed, when it was unanimously agreed, to meet at Lurgan the last Tuesday of June 1788 at 5 o’clock in the Evening.

Mr. McMean

Mr. Black is appointed to inform the Presbytery of Letterkenny of a report commonly prevailing, That Mr. McMean residing in their Bounds, had been guilty of Irregularly celebrating marriages, and to enjoin them by the Authority of this Synod to enquire into the Report, & to proceed according to the Rule entered into by this Synod, in the year 1785.

The minute of the Synod, of the year 1785, respecting marriage was ordered to be read, & is as follows:—" Any member of this Synod, who shall join in marriage any man or woman not under his Pastoral care, if not duly certified by the minister or Session of the Congregation of which they are members, shall for the first offence be suspended ab officio for three months, & for the second be degraded. And when either of the Parties shall be a member of the Established Church, he shall not celebrate any matrimonial contract without the consent in writing of the Rector, Curate, or other officiating Clergyman of the Parish in which said party shall be a Resident, under Pain of incurring the like Penalties." Whereupon it was resolved—That inasmuch, as this Rule has hitherto in some measure, been Ineffectual, by reason of mistaken Lenity, in not prosecuting such as have offended—We do strictly Enjoin and Require, That every offender be prosecuted most unequivocally by the Minister or Ministers against whom the offence has been more immediately committed, upon Pain of incurring the Censure of the Synod, and farther—We do strictly enjoin & require all Sessions within the Bounds of this Synod, to suspend from Privileges all such Persons as shall be irregularly married, and not to restore them, until they make a publick acknowledgment of their offence & submit to be regularly married.

This minute to be read in all Congregations within our Bounds the first Sabbath of September next.

The Sentence of the Committee of the Synod which met at Dundalk to determine the affair of Mr. Colin Lindsay was read, & is as follows:—"That the facts proved seemed to argue Indiscretion & Imprudence, unbecoming a Minister of the Gospel:—Yet no charge of Immorality was so supported, as in their Judgment to affect the Relation, in which Mr. Lindsay has stood to the Synod of Ulster. And as to the Relation in which Mr. Lindsay shall hereafter stand to the Congregation of Dundalk, the committee was not under the Necessity of pronouncing any Judgment; as Mr. Lindsay freely gave them a Resignation in writing of the Pastoral charge of that Congregation. The Resignation was accepted, & the Congregation declared vacant.

Signed by order,

FRANCIS TURRETINE, Modr."
The conduct of the committee approved by the Synod.

Interloq' to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock; open Synod at 10 Adjourned. This Session concluded with Prayer

4th Session Thursday morning, after Prayer.

On reading the minute of the former Session of this Synod, relating to marriage, the Rev'd Wm Henry entered his Protest, against the Synod's Rule obliging ministers of their Body to prosecute every minister who may have solemnised marriage between any of his or their Hearers without Certificates; and gave in the following Reasons:

"1. Because this Act is too general, & makes no distinction between such Offenders as wilfully transgress, & such as by mistaking the Parties or either of them as belonging to his own Cong's may have fallen into the snare.

"2. In this last case a Prosecution ought not to be instituted by any minister—And to compel him to prosecute, I deem highly unreasonable & that it can serve little purpose, but to raise Discord among neighbouring Ministers & their Congregations.

"3. Because the Penalty of suspension for the first & Degradation for the Second Offence, in the former Act of Synod, is disproportioned to the supposed Demerit of an Action so circumstanced.

WM. HENRY.

In which Protest & for the same Reasons the following members joined Viz: Rev'd Messrs Wm Kennedy, Ja's Cuming, Dr Little, John Bankhead, Samuel Barber, & Thos Henry.

The following Overtures were proposed & unanimously agreed to overtures by this Synod:

1. That a Committee of Accounts shall be appointed on the 1st first day of every future meeting, in order to inspect the accounts of our Agent & report at the first Interloq'—And that our Agent be hereby instructed to be very careful that his accounts be at the place in which this Synod shall meet on the Post Day preceding the last Tuesday in June every year.

2. That the Clerk of each Sub Synod shall bring his Books to the 2nd Annual Meeting of this Synod, to be laid before the Comtee of Books, that each Sub Synod, Presbytery & Session shall pay attention to their Books.

3. That no Presbytery shall give credentials to any Minister, untill said Minister shall have given in his Demission of his Pastoral Charge.—Nor shall any Probationer obtain credentials from his Presbytery, unless directed to some other Presbytery; or in case of his going out of the Kingdom.—And if any Presbytery within the Bounds of this Synod, may have given Credentials to any of their number who still holds his charge, such Presby is enjoined to recall those Credentials.
Bequest to Banbridge.

Mr Jackson reported that a Bequest of ten pounds had been made by Philip M'William, to certain Trustees, to be by them laid out at Interest, & the Interest to go to the Dissenting minister of Banbridge for the time being for ever—Another Bequest of the same kind for the same purpose by M' John Fleming of Banbridge, of ten Guineas, and another of Twenty pounds by M' Robert M'Clelland, for the same purpose. All which Bequests are now well secured.

Mr Colin Lindsay having Petitioned this Synod "That he should be allowed stipend until the day of his Resignation to the Synods Com"—That Credentials may be given him.—"That he may be taken under the care of whatever Presb' should be willing to receive him.—And that his Proportion of the R.D. may be continued to him."—A Question was put on the first part of this Petition "Is M' Lindsay entitled to stipend until the time of his Resignation to the Com", or not"?—The Roll was called & it carried—"Entitled."

It is earnestly recommended to the cong' of Dundalk, to pay M' Lindsay the stipend up to the Day of his Resignation, & it is ordered, That M' Rob' Montgomery shall read this minute to the Cong' the first Sab. of August next, & that M' Bryson shall exchange Pulpits with M' Montgomery that Day.

Interloq at half an hour after 5 o'clock. Open Synod at the conclusion of the Interloq—Adjourned.

5th Session Thursday Evening, after Prayer.

Synod's Com's.

It was moved that D' Campbell & M' M'Dowel should be appointed Commiss' from this Synod, & are accordingly appointed.

Mr Lindsay

M' Lindsay by order of Synod put under the care of the Presbytery of Monaghan.

This Synod concluded with Prayer.

1st Interloq', Wednesday Evening.

Mr Lang

M' M'Dowell reported to this Interloq' that he, in conjunction with Messrs Wilson & Moore, had pursuant to Order of last Synod, taken such security from M' Ja' Lang, as to them & to council seemed both sufficient & legal.

Mr Rowan

Upon reading the minute of the Interloq' of last year, respecting M' Rowan, it was stated: That by some mistake M' Rowan had not Information, of the Synod's Resolution in his favour. He is therefore allowed until the first day of Sept' next to make good his Payment, in which case only, he shall be entitled to the benefit of the former Resolution.

2d Interloq. Thursday Morning.

Synod's Records

Our Moderator is desired to bring such Records of this Synod, as are now in his possesion, to our next meeting.
An application was made to this Synod by Mrs Orr, complaining that part of her annuity had been detained.

Mr Kilburn, is ordered to write to Mr Lang, desiring him particularly to enquire into that matter & to cause the arrears (if any) to be paid to her or her order.

Messrs McDowel, & Wilson, are ordered to have Mr Lang's Bond signed by Mr Johnston & then to declare a Trust & take such steps for Registering said Bond, & Declaration of Trust, as they shall be advised by Council.

On reading Mr Lang's Letter in which he states the amount of the Fund Widows Fund, it was observed: That on comparing the Capital of our Fund on the 17th of June 1786, which he states at £11260 19s 10½d with the particular sums, there appears to be the sum of £1360 19s 10½d unaccounted for.

Resolved that it be an Instruction to the members appointed to answer Mr Lang's Letter, to take notice of this Omission.

Mrs White, Dr Campbell & Mr Murray, appointed to answer the Trustees Letter: Dr Dickson & Mr Livingston to answer Mr Lang's.

3rd Interloc. Thursday Evening.

Mr Colin Lindsay's Petition: "That his Proportion of the R.D. Mr Lindsay may be continued to him" was considered, by this Interloc & it was resolved to grant it for one year.

It was moved & unanimously agreed to by this Interloc that the Mrs Smyth sum of thirteen pounds, fourteen shillings & seven pence halfpenny, shall be paid by our Agent to Mrs Smyth widow of the late Clerk of this Synod.

It was also moved & unanimously agreed to, that a Mr Cameron Double Portion of the King's Bounty, Old & New shall be allowed to the Revd Mr Cameron of Dunluce for this year.

Inserted by

The consideration of the Motion made in the former Session, Withdrawn respecting the Return of a Candidate licensed by Bangor Presbytery, was now resumed, when the members who made & seconded the Motion, for the Sake of Peace, withdrew it.
Synod's Meeting

It was unanimously agreed, that this Synod shall meet at Lurgan the last Tuesday of June, 1789, at 5 o'clock in the Afternoon.

Whereas no member of the Presbytery of Letterkenny, has attended the present Meeting of this Synod, to give any Information, respecting Mr McMean.—And whereas a Report still prevails that he persists in his former Practice of Solemnizing Marriage in an Irregular Manner.—The Clerk of this Synod is ordered to write a letter to Mr Alexander, to be communicated to the Presby of Letterkenny; requiring them to make Inquiry into that matter, & to proceed according to the former Order of Synod; and that, that Presby shall attend our next meeting, & report concerning the same.

A Petition from Mr Colin Lindsay having been presented to this Synod Supplicating, “That his Proportion of the King’s Bounty may be continued to him, & that the Stipend due by the congregation of Dundalk may be ordered to be paid to him.” The Synod resolved that a letter shall be written by the Rev’d Wm Moore to that congregation, Expressing the Synod’s concern that, their former Recommendation had not been complied with; and enjoining them to pay Mr Lindsay up to the day of his Resignation, or to send Commissioners to our next meeting to shew Reason why they do not.

The consideration of that part of the Petition respecting the R.D. referred to the Interlocutor.

A Petition signed by more than One Hundred Persons, (Twenty three of whom formerly belonged to the Congregation of Brigh) was presented to this Synod, Stating:—“That they were building a meeting house in Stewartstown, & supplicating this Synod to Authorise & Desire the Presbytery of Tyrone, in due time to ordain a minister among them, to whom they were willing to pay fifty pounds £50 Annunum, and in the meantime to grant them supplies from the first Sab. of August next.”

A Supplication from the Cong° of Brigh was also presented to this Synod, in which they set forth—“That by granting the above Petition, the Peace & Harmony of the Cong° of Brigh, were in danger of being disturbed, & Interrupted; That it would be a bad Precedent; and that it was not Inconvenient for the Inhabitants of the Town & Neighbourhood of Stewartstown to attend at their usual place of worship.”

After hearing the Commissioners on both sides at considerable length & reasoning on the subject, the Question was put, “Grant the Petition or not? ” The Roll was called & it carried “Not.”

4th Session Thursday morning, after Prayer.

A Protest signed Tho° Stewart, Wm Moore, Wm Millar, members of the Presbytery of Monaghan, against a Resolution of another part of that Presby, for granting a Supplication from part of the congregation of Bally James Duff was presented to this Synod, which Resolution Protesters alledge was obtained Unfairly, Partially, & not according to the usual mode of proceeding in Presbys.

The Synod after considering the affair at large & deliberating upon it, were unanimously of Opinion, that said Protest is well founded; and the Synod enjoin the Presby of Monaghan to Erase said Resolution from their minutes, and to pay greater Attention to Regularity for the future.

Mr Kilburn moved, That M' McCay a Probationer under the care of the Presbytery of Tyrone, may be appointed to supply the Cong. of Newtonards two L. Day's commencing the first of July. The Question was put, "Appoint or not?" The Roll was called, & it carried "Not" by a great majority.

It being stated to this Synod, That two supplications, from opposite Parties of the cong. of Bally James Duff, for an hearing of different Candidates, had been presented to the Presbytery of Monaghan; In consequence of what appeared in this Case the Synod were of opinion that both should be set aside. On which the Presby of Monaghan requested this Synod, to appoint some Probationer under their care, to supply the cong. of Bally James Duff for one month, alledging that such appointment would be the most probable means of healing the Divisions which at present subsist in that Congregation; & of promoting its peace & Interest.

The Synod agreed to this Request; However it was unnecessary to proceed upon it, as the Commissioners from the two contending Parties happily agreed in supplicating an hearing of M' Samuel Kennedy a Probationer, under the care of the Presby of Tyrone, for the four L. Days in July next. This Granted. And the Presby of Monaghan is enjoined to send one of their number to Bally James Duff on the first L. Day in August, to poll the Congregation & draw up a call for M' Kennedy if he sees fit.

A Supplication of the united congregations of Vinecash & Richhill was presented to this Synod, Praying that young men may be appointed to supply those Congregations, as their present minister M' Todd through Infirmities, & old age, was unable to discharge the Duties of his office among them.

The Presbytery of Tyrone is enjoined to meet at Vinecash the first Thursday after the first Sab. in August next, to settle matters between M' Todd & his Cong. & to see that they shall secure to him for life such Provision as their Circumstances allow, and in consequence thereof to appoint supplies to those Congregations.

Interloq' at 5 o'clock. Open Synod at 7. Adjourned.

Session concluded with Prayer.

5th Session, Thursday Evening, after Prayer.

The following Overtures were unanimously accorded to by this Overtures Synod:—
1. Whereas a manuscript Copy of the Minutes of this Synod for each Presbytery is deemed Insufficient for the Purposes for which it is designed, on account of the Delay with which it is attended, & the Impossibility of communicating by it the Knowledge of our proceedings to the respective Sessions & Congregations within our Bounds—That from & after the present year, our Minutes shall be printed annually, & a copy of them sent to each Minister & another to each Session: that a knowledge of our Discipline & Proceedings may be generally diffused among our People & said Minutes be in retentis by the Clerk of Session in each Congregation respectively—The expence of printing said Minutes to be defrayed by this Synod.

2. That, whereas many Ministers & Sessions have been shamefully defective; The former in absenting themselves from Presbyteries & Synods—The Latter in neglecting to depute Elders for these purposes—A Circular letter on that subject be written by this Synod to be hereafter forwarded together with our Minutes by our Clerk to every Minister & Session as above; and that the Rev’d Messrs Hen. Jackson, John Thomson, James Birch, Robert M’Clure, Wm Magee, D’ Dickson, & D’ Campbell, be & hereby are appointed a committee to prepare the same in order to be laid before us at our next meeting.

3d. That Two members of this Body shall be annually appointed to visit the frontier Congregations & other places in the West & South West parts of this Kingdom where there are any Protestant Dissenters settled—To preach—To inquire into the conduct of Ministers, & the state of the Congregations—To observe where it would be advisable to send Preachers—To inquire into the conduct of such as may at any time be sent by the Synod, & the success of their Preaching—and to report to the ensuing Synod—And the expence of said Visitors be paid out of the fund of the Synod.

This agreed to with this Limitation—That such Visitors or Preachers shall always be members, & subject to the Controul of this Synod; and that they or any of them shall not preach within four miles of any Meeting house, or place of publick worship, belonging to Protestant Dissenters, & in which a Protestant Dissenting Minister may be regularly settled, without consent of said Minister; nor of any vacancy in the Bounds of any Presbytery, without the Approbation, and appointment of said Presbytery.

M’ M’Dowel appointed Visitor for the ensuing year and empowered to chuse a Colleague.

Open Synod to morrow morning at 7 o’clock. Adjourned.

Session concluded with Prayer.

6th Session Friday Morning after Prayer.

It is recommended to the several Ministers who live contiguous to County Jails, to visit such persons of our communion as are in confinement.
Mr. Trimble gives notice, that he will next year move, That every Minister hereafter to be ordained to the charge of a congregation under our Care & become a contributer to the widows Fund; shall appropriate to the same the whole of his first years R.D. as it now does, or hereafter may stand.

Resolved that a committee be appointed on the first day of next meeting, to prepare the minutes for the Press.

The Moderator concluded this Synod with Prayer.

of them have declared it? And in whose hands is the Declaration lodged.

The Rev'd Messrs Benjamin M'Dowel, William Wilson, & Hugh

The Synod unanimously, & most cordially agree to, & recommend the above Overture, from the fullest conviction of its happy tendency, to excite & promote Devotion;—And order it to be read in all Cong°s within their Bounds.

2. That any minister, who shall employ to preach for him, any man not known to be a Regular minister of the Gospel, & whose moral character is not sufficiently known, shall be suspended, ab officio two L° Days for the first offence, & for the second, three months:—And that any man under pretense of being a Presbyterian min', presuming to officiate as such in any vacancy without appointment of Presby or within the Bounds of any Cong°, in which there may be an ordained min' without the consent & appointment of such min', shall be incapable of being a member of this Synod.

Deed, as soon as may be convenient. The Declaration signed by Mr Caldwell, is lodged in an Iron Chest in Mr. Finlays Bank.

A motion was made, That a Double Portion of the R. D. be continued to Mr. Cameron, for this year. The Question was put 'Continue or not?' The Roll was called & it carried ‘Continue’ by a great Majority.

The Resolution of the Interl' of last year—‘That where there shall be two or more ministers, in one Cong'd (Excepting the ministers now living) they shall receive no more than one annual share of the Royal Bounty ” being read; It was moved, That said Resolution be erased from our Minutes—And the Question being put “Erase or Not?—The Roll was called & it carried “Not.”

Mr. John Thomson reported to this Interl' That he had got the Binding of the several volumes of the Records of this Synod compleatly repaired;—Had put them into a Box made on purpose to receive them;
And had Deposited them in the Hands of the Rev'd Mr. Magee.

Mr. Thompson received the Thanks of the Interl' for his Care in that matter, and was ordered to be repaid the expense by our Agent.

2d Interlocutor Thursday Morning.

Mr. Trimble agreeably to the notice given by him last year now moved; “That every Minister hereafter to be ordained to the charge of a Cong'd under our care, & become a contribute to the Widows fund; shall appropriate to the same, the whole of his first years
R. D. as it now does, or hereafter may stand.

The above motion unanimously agreed to by this Interl'.

Mr. Ranken Chairman of the Com't of Accounts, gave in their Report comprised in the following Resolutions.

1. That by a letter received from the Trustees of the Widows Fund it appears, That our said fund continues in an Increasing state.

2. That it appears to us, that the Representatives of our late Agent Mr. Lang, have in their hands, one Intire Quarter of the R.D.
viz. that of June 1788, besides arrears due to Individuals.
3. It has been stated to us, that our late Agent had advanced several sums to members of this Synod, who held particular Accounts with him: over and above what they were Intitled to, by their respective Dividends of the money he actually received.

4. That our Opinion is, That the Representatives of the late Mr Lang, do with all convenient speed, pay up to those to whom arrears may remain due, the full amount of such arrears, respectively.

5. That with respect to the Individuals to whom Mr Lang may have advanced more than their Dividend of the above mentioned June Quarter; His Representative may draw Bills on them in favour of the Synods Agent, who may be instructed to repay the Ballance, so soon as the respective accounts are allowed: Mr Lang’s Representative having first paid over to the said Agent, the Ballance of the June Quarter, as above stated.

6. That Mr Black’s general statement of the money received by him & of the Dividends & payments of the same has, been laid before us; and we are of opinion, that the same is just and correct.

7. We humbly offer it as our opinion to the Synod, that it may be useful to Instruct our Agent in future; That if he chuses to advance money to Individuals, the Synod ought not, & will not consider themselves as any way accountable; but he must do it at his own Risque.

3d Interlocutor 2 o’clock.

Moved that the following Question be now put, “Continue Mr Mr Black our Agent for the R.D. or not?”—The Question being put & the Roll called it carried “Continue” by a great Majority.

4th Interlocutor Friday Morning 8 o’clock.

The following Resolutions were moved & agreed to by this Interlocutor:

1. That two & one half % cent, shall be allowed to our Agent on all money of the R.D. which he receives—And that he shall pay the same without Fee or Deduction.

2. That our Agent shall produce his Books & Accounts to this Synod, on the first day of every annual meeting, in order to be submitted to the Inspection of the Synod, or of any Comité which they may appoint to Inspect them—And that a failure in this, shall ipso facto, dismiss him from his office.

3. That no person shall be qualified to act as our Agent untill his security shall be submitted to Council, & approved by them, as sufficient. And we request & authorise And’’ Caldwell, Henry Bevan, Thos Pettigrew & W’’ Colvill Esq’’ to lay the proposed security before Council; & if approved to take it in their own names in Trust for us.
D' Craford, M' Alexander & M' Young appointed to answer the letters of the Trustees of the widows fund, & M' Hugh Lang.

Moved, that our Agent be ordered to pay M' Isaac Patrick out of the R.D. a sum equal to that paid by him into the widows Fund, Whenever the Presby of Dromore, shall certify to the Agent his resigning the Pastoral charge of his Congregation.—And that this mark of Respect to a worthy Character is in consideration of a Disappointment of a former Grant out of the widows fund.

The motion passed in the affirmative.

Moved & unanimously agreed to, That a Double Portion of the R.D. be allowed to M' Todd, on condition of his resigning immediately the Pastoral Charge of his Congregation.

The letters to the Trustees of the widows fund, & M' Hugh Lang were read,—Approved by the Interlocutor & subscribed by the Moderator.

5th Interlocutor Friday 3 o'clock.

Mr Lindsay presented a memorial to this Interlocutor, stating, That he had an Invitation to go to America, & Praying, "That he may be indulged & permitted to withdraw the money paid by him into the widows fund."

Resolved that our Agent be ordered to pay M' Lindsay out of the R.D. Twelve pounds 8s, whenever the Presby of Monaghan shall certify to him, that M' Lindsay is determined & prepared, to go to America.

A Petition from the Congregation of Moywater was presented to this Interlocutor, Praying that a Double Portion of the old ordination R.D. may be allowed to M' Barr their minister, for this year.

This granted.

It appearing from a Petition of M[.] Colin Lindsay, that the sum of Eight pounds ordered by last Synod to be paid to him by the Cong[.] of Dundalk, had not been paid; This Synod renews the order of last respecting that matter, and orders the Pres[.] of Armagh to appoint one of their members to exchange Pulpits with M[.] Bryson, & read this minute to the Cong[.]. Moved that the time and place of the Synods next meeting be now fixed. Lurgan & Stewartstown were proposed. The Roll was called, & it carried to meet at Lurgan on the last Tuesday in June 1791; Sermon to begin at 5 o'clock afternoon.

Complaint having been made to this Synod, that the Presb. of Antrim had encouraged an Erection in the bounds of a Cong[.] under our Care; the Synod resolved that our Mod[.] assisted by a Com[.] of the following Brethren, viz. D[.] Dickson, M[.] Killburn, M[.] John Thomson, & M[.] Jas. Birch, shall write a letter to that Presbytery respecting that matter.
Mr. Tho’s Birch having agreeably to the notice given by him last year now moved, “That the Act of Synod of the year 1737, Impowering the ministers of Dublin to address his Majesty or our chief Governor in the name of the Protestant Dissenters of Ireland be repealed”; The Previous Question was moved, viz. “Shall this Question be put or not?”—The Roll was called & it carried, “Not.”

Mr. Denham reported from the Presb. of Clogher that application had been made to them by the Presbyterian Inhabitants of Newport & Thurlow to have a stated minister placed among them, for whose support they informed the Presb. they would be able to raise about fifty pounds a year. That in consequence thereof the Presb. had appointed Mr. Marshal a Probationer under their care to preach to them for some time; & afterwards a member of the Presb. to take the minds of the People concerning him. That the People were unanimous in giving him a Call; but that the Presb. would not proceed to Ordain him, without the approbation & Consent of the Synod.

The Synod approve of the conduct of the Presb. of Clogher in that Erected matter; Consent that Newport & Thurlow shall be erected into a Cong., & that the Presb. shall proceed to ordain Mr. Marshal, as soon as the People shall satisfy them in respect to a sufficient security for his support.

Interlocutor tomorrow morning at 7 o’clock. Open Synod at the conclusion of the Interl. Session concluded with Prayer—Adjourned.

4th Session Thursday Morning 11 o’clock, after Prayer.

The Minister & Cong. of Glentubbert, with the Consent of the Glentubbert Presbyteries of Dromore & Monaghan, are put under the care of the Presbytery of Monaghan.

Moved & unanimously resolved, that the Rule of this Synod requiring that no Minister or Cong., shall be disannexed from, or annexed to, any Presbytery belonging to this Synod, by any other Authority than that of Synod, Be, and hereby Is, continued in full force.

Ordered, that our Moderator shall write a letter to the Presb. of Munster, remonstrating against the Conduct of Mr. Blair a member of their Presb., for Irregularly Introducing a Probationer to Drumurry, a Cong. within the Bounds of the Presb. of Bangor, & under the Care of this Synod; & afterwards prescribing in drawing up a Call for him.

Resolved that we approve of the Conduct of the Presb. of Bangor respecting Dunmurry, in deferring the Ordination of Mr. Taggart in that place until the matter might come before this Body.

The following Overture was proposed to this Synod:—“That a Person be appointed to examine the Records of this Synod from the year 1697 until the present time, & have an Abstract drawn out, of all the Laws, Acts, & Regulations of this Synod, arranged in their proper order; & this abstract to be produced to the next meeting of the Gov.
Synod, to be examined by a Comt to then appointed; in order to its being printed, for the use of the members of this Synod, & the Congregations under their Care."

The above Overture was unanimously approved & Mr. John Thomson was requested to take the Trouble of examining the Records & arranging the said abstract. With this Request of the Synod Mr. Thomson was so obliging as to comply, & in consequence thereof, all their Records were ordered to be put into his hands.

Complaint having been made to this Synod that the Cong of Ballindrait had not satisfied the demands of Mr. Wm. Henry for preaching in that place, the Synod recommend it to the Presb. of L. Kenny, to see that Justice be done to Mr. Henry in that matter.

Moved & unanimously agreed to that a Comt of this Synod consisting of the following Brethren, viz: Messrs. Bankhead, Brown of Broughshane, Cochran, Thomson of Larne, & Lindsay, with their Elders, shall meet at Killraats on the last Wednesday of July Ins, to settle a dispute between Mr. John Adams & Mr. Ephraim Cuming. The Comt of the Cong to be present & assist. Mr. Thomson to preach. This Minute to be read in the Cong of Killraats on some Lords day previous to the meeting of the Committee.

The Moderator concluded this Synod with Prayer.

1st Interlocutor Wednesday Evening 5 o'clock.

The Comt of the Synod appointed to Inspect the Acct of our Agent, gave in the following Report, signed by Mr. Bankhead their Chairman which was unanimously approved of, & agreed to, by the Interlocutor.

Lurgan, June 30th 1790 7 o'clock A.M.

"Synods Comt of Accounts met agreeable to appointment, and examined the accounts of their Agent, for R.D. down to the Dec 1789 inclusive, all the particulars of which they heartily approve.

Adjourned till 11 o'clock A.M.

"Comt met according to adjournment, went through Mr. Black's correspondence with the Representative of the late James Lang, from which they are enabled to inform this Synod, that there is a considerable sum, yet due from the latter in respect to R.D. and that in the Opinion of Comt Mr. Blacks conduct in this Troublesome Business is highly worthy of the Thanks of this Synod.—Comt are clearly of Opinion that the Charge for Negotiations, or Fees, is totally inadmissible; & therefore that this Synod should order their Agent to call upon the said Representative as soon as may be, for the above Ballance & if Payment is delayed, to take the most speedy & effectual steps for Recovery of the same.
"The Comit\textsuperscript{es} are also of Opinion, that the account against the Rev\textsuperscript{d} Alex\textsuperscript{r} M'Combe originated from Private Transactions, in which the funds of this Synod are unconcerned; & therefore the Ballance stated against M' M'Combe is not to be admitted by their Agent, but that it should be immediately demanded of the Representative of the late James Lang."

Resolved unanimously, that the Thanks of the Synod be given to Mr Black for his unremitting attention to the Business of the R.D. and for his great trouble in transacting the same with the Representative of our late Agent; & Thanks were accordingly given him.

Moved that a Double portion of the R.D. be continued to Mr M'Todd for this year. The Question was put, "Continue or Not?"—The Roll was called & it carried, "Not."

Mr Bankhead gives notice that he will next year move, that the Notice of a annual subscription of every Contributor to the Widows fund, shall instead of 40 Shillings be three pounds, and that every annuitant on the fund shall receive Twenty pounds a year.

\textit{2d Interlocutor Thursday Morning.}

The Comit\textsuperscript{es} of Accounts gave in the following Report, signed by Mr Bankhead Chairman of the Comit\textsuperscript{es}, which was unanimously approved of, and agreed to by the Interlocutor.

"Lurgan, Thursday Morning 7 o'clock.

"The Comit\textsuperscript{es} went through the whole of the Account of the Widows fund for one year, ending the 1st day of January last past, the Regularity and precision of which meet their warmest approbation; And from the Trouble which attends the Business of the fund, and the Essential service which Mr Black has already rendered to the same, It is the Opinion of this Comit\textsuperscript{es} That Twenty pounds \textpounds\textsuperscript{a} annum be allowed him for transacting the Business thereof."

Resolved, that every minister ordained to the Charge of a Cong\textsuperscript{est} shall be entitled to the R.D. from the Quarter day immediately following his Ordination, until the Quarter day immediately following the Dissolution of his Connection with the Congregation.

The Rev\textsuperscript{d} Philip Taylor having communicated to our Agent the Opinion of the Ministers of the Southern Association, that a Compliment of Twenty-five Guineas ought to be made to Mr Benjamin Vaughan, the Agent for our English Bounty in consideration of his Attention to, & Trouble with the same; This Synod unanimously concur with our Brethren of the Southern Association; & our Agent is hereby authorised to advance Twelve Guineas & an half, being our Proportion of the said Twenty-five Guineas.

Mess\textsuperscript{es} Livingston, M'Clure & Birch, are appointed to answer the Letters of the Trustees of the Widows fund, & Mr Hugh Lang.
The Letters to the Trustees & Mr Lang were read, approved, & ordered to be subscribed by the Moderator.

Inserted 30th August 1790, by

AT LURGAN, JUNE 26TH, 1792.

These with an Elder from each Presb., and our Mod* & Clerk, are to meet at Lurgan, when called by the Mod', on any Emergency; fifteen to be a Quorum whereof Twelve at least are to be ministers.

M* Birch the late Mod' reported to the Synod, That in consequence of a letter from our Agent, M* Black, He had called a meeting of the Gen. Synods fixed Conft* the Proceedings of which are referred to the consideration of the Interloq'.

Moved & unanimously agreed, That the Synods next meeting shall be at Lurgan on last Tuesday in June 1793; Sermon to begin at 5 o'clock afternoon.

A Letter from the Revd W* Bryson Mod' of the Presbytery of Antrim addressed to our Mod' was read, & was judged to be a Respectful & Satisfactory answer, to our letter to them in the year 1790.

On reading the minute of last year respecting the Abstract from the Synods Records by M* Thomson, M* Thomson said: That he had not yet fully completed the Abstract nor arranged it to the satisfaction of his own mind; but that he would proceed to do so with all possible expedition; and submitted it to the Judgment of the Synod, whether they would think it proper to appoint some members to revise it, & if approved commit it to the Press.

On reading the minute respecting M* Henry, & the Cong* of M* Henry & Ballindrait, M* Alexander, declared his willingness to lay the affair before M* Marshal, & the Presb. of L. Kenny & see that Justice be done to M* Henry.

M* Alexander reported to the Synod that the number of members sufficient to form a Quorum did not attend at Drumquin & therefore no Business could be done.

Resolved, That such members as were appointed & did not attend the Synods Committee at Drumquin shall appear at the next meeting of this Synod under pain of Censure to show cause why they did not comply with the order of Synod.

Interloq* at 5 o'clock, Open Synod at 7. Session concluded with Prayer.—Adjoined.

3rd Session Wednesday Evening 7 o'clock after Prayer.

The Report made by the Presb. of Bangor, "That the Relation which subsisted between the Revd Alex* Gouday & the Cong* of Donaghadee was dissolved on the 30th June 1791, & that he is no longer a member with them," (Having received a Certificate from them in order to his going to America) is sustained, & M* Gouday declared to be no longer connected with this Synod.

The Comt* of Accounts to meet to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock—Interloq* at 8, Open Synod at 11. Session concluded with Prayer. Adjoined.
Resolved that a Comtse consisting of the following Brethren, viz. from Root Presh. Messrs Rentoul & Marshal, from T. Patrick Messrs Bankhead, & Abernethy, from Belfast Messr Birch & Kelburn, from Tyrone Messrs McClelland & Murray & from Dromore Mr John Thomson, shall meet at Randalstown on the second Tuesday of Aug. next, to assist the Presb. of B. mena, in judging of an affair of Scandal charged against a Candidate for the ministry under their Care—Mr McClelland to preach.

A Petition from the Congregation of the Revd Ja. Bryson, was presented to this Synod Stating, "That having sometime since been forced to Erect a new place of worship, they earnestly pray to be continued under our Care." This granted from an Opinion that it did not militate against the Rule of Synod, made in the year 1789, respecting new Erections.

A Petition from the Presbyterian Inhabitants of the Parishes of Ray, & Allsaints, and a Petition from the Presbyterian Inhabitants of Newton Cunningham, were presented to this Synod, Stating "That they laboured under great Inconveniences on account of their great Distance from any Place of Publick Worship, being obliged to travel upwards of three or four miles to enjoy the opportunity of associating with their fellow Christians in Publick Worship; and therefore praying this Synod to order the Presb. of L. Kenny to grant them supplies, or to refer them to a Committee of the Synod."

The Question was put, "Refer them to the Presb. of L Kenny or Not?" The Roll was called & it carried "Not." A motion was then made to Dissmiss the affair, which was carried without a Division.

A supplication from the People of Pettigo & Drumquin was presented to this Synod, praying to be Erected into a separate Congregation.

Resolved that the People of Pettigo & Drumquin, shall be supplied by the Presb. of Strabane, until the next meeting of Synod. That during the course of this Summer, the Presb. shall administer the Lords Supper to them if they desire it. And that Commissioners shall be sent from both Places to our next meeting, if they persevere in their desire of being erected into a Congregation under the sanction of said Presbytery.

Interlocq' at 5 o'clock. Open Synod at 8. Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned.

5th Session, Thursday Evening, 8 o'clock after Prayer.

It is Overtured to this Synod, That an Address be presented to Mr Wilberforce expressing our Approbation of his Conduct in endeavouring to rescue from a state of Slavery and wretchedness an oppressed Race of our fellow Creatures.
The above Overture unanimously agreed to, and Messrs Birch, agreed to Black, Barber, Magee & Shaw, are appointed to prepare & bring in the same.

Interloq' to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock. Open Synod at 10. Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned.

6th Session Friday Morning 10 o'clock, after Prayer.

The Address to Mr Wilberforce was reported, agreed to, ordered to be transmitted by the Moderator, & with Mr Wilberforce's Answer to be published. It is as follows:—

TO WILLIAM WILBERFORCE, Esq.

Sir,

We the Ministers and Elders of the Gen. Synod of Ulster in the Kingdom of Ireland, accustomed Individually to Contemplate your Character with Admiration, & Esteem, Joyfully embrace the opportunity which our Annual Meeting affords of declaring our most cordial Approbation of your Liberal, Dignified, & persevering Struggles, in the Cause of Insulted Humanity. We should think ourselves shamefully defective on our Duty to God, to the world, & our own Consciences, did we not come forward to bear our Publick Testimony against the Unnatural Traffick in Human flesh, which has so long disgraced the Nations of Europe. A Traffick which in our eyes is Barbarous, in itself sinks a part of our species to a level with Beasts of Burthen, Disgraces the Religion of a Mild & Merciful Jesus, and tramples under foot the Sacred Book, stamped with the Authority of the Most High, which expressly declares that "He that stealth a man & selleth him shall surely be put to Death." At the same time we feel ourselves bound to express our warmest acknowledgments to you Sir, & your faithful associates, for your Noble Exertions in the cause of our Nature. That they may be crowned with Speedy & compleat Success, is the daily & fervent Prayer of our Hearts.—Go on then Generous Man! Our Hearts go with you.—We Rejoice that your Labours have not been altogether in vain. Justice & Mercy will finally prevail, under the Government of a Righteous God. We rejoice in the Hope that your Triumph will be compleat. Drooping Nature looks up to you with anxious Expectation, and the prayers of him who is ready to perish accompany your steps. Humanity revived by the dawn of success which your Efforts have opened, points her eye to that Brighter Day when Liberty & Life shall go hand in hand, through the Nations of the Earth, in safety & in Peace, when the Oppressed shall no longer groan under the lash of the Oppressor, neither hear his voice; And Slavery like the Gloomy Vision of the night, shall be recognized only by the Remembrance of its Concomitant Horrors.

We are Sir, &c.,

Signed by order

WM. STITT Mod' of G. Synod.

The Mod' concluded this Synod with Prayer.
First report of Comtee of Accts

WM. STEEL DICKSON, Chairman.

Moved that a sum equal to a single Portion of last years R. D. be stopped out of M° Allen’s Proportion of R. D. for this year.

The previous Question was moved viz “Shall this Question be put or Not?” The Roll was called & it carried “Put.” The original motion was then made, & carried in the affirmative.

HIS MAJESTY’S ANSWER.

Any Trouble which may be supposed to have attended the Pursuit is now amply compensated by the accomplishment of an Object, which I have long had much at Heart. In conducting this Business I have been much indebted to the assistance of certain most Respectable members of both Houses of Parliament, whose names have been already mentioned to you.—

The Behaviour too of [the] Administration on the occasion, has been Handsome, & Honourable, and it is with Particular Pleasure I can say, that no motion was ever received in the House of Commons with more General Satisfaction than that one, which I had lately the Honour of submitting to them, on Behalf of the Presbyterian Ministers of this Kingdom.

I have the Honour to be with the highest Respect & Esteem

Gentlemen, your Obedient & most Humble Servant.

JAMES STEWART.
THE MARQUISS OF WATERFORDS ANSWER.

Dublin 18th Feb'y 1792.

Sir,

I have the favour of your Letter and take the liberty to request you will be so good to express to the Synod, That I have the greatest Satisfaction in their being pleased with the part I have taken Relative to the Presbyterian Ministers of the Synod, That I am highly gratified by their Thanks, and that I trust that I shew my Regard to Religion, in being desirous, that those who are to preach it, should have a decent competency. In Justice to the Government I must add, That they took up the Subject with a warm Liberality.

I am Sir, your most obedient humble Servant

To the Revd James Birch, Mod' of the Gen. Synod of Ulster.

3d Interloq' Thursday Evening, 5 o'clock.

Lurgan, 28th June 1792. Com'te of Accounts examined Mr Blacks account of R. D. Item by Item, & unanimously approve the whole.

WM. STEEL DICKSON, Chairman.

Mr Black, reported to this Interloq' a variety of circumstances relative to the late grant of five thousand pounds, made to the Presbyterian Ministers of the Kingdom; and that the Proportion allotted to the ministers of the Synod of Ulster was three Thousand seven hundred and twenty nine pounds sixteen shillings, and ten pence, to be Issued at the Treasury at such times as all other Payments on the Civil Establishment.

Resolved that Mr Black be ordered to commit to writing the material circumstances Relative to the late Grant, and to present them to the first Interloq' of next Synod that they may be recorded in our minutes.

Resolved that our Warm & Grateful Thanks be returned to his Grace the Duke of Leinster, The Right Honourable the Earl of Claremont, The Right Honourable Henry Grattan, The Right Honourable William Brabazon Ponsonby, & George Ponsonby Esq', for the kind and Honourable support afforded by them to the late measure of an Increase of the Royal Bounty, recommended by the House of Commons, on our Behalf.

Resolved that James Stewart Esq' be requested to transmit a Copy of this Resolution to the Noblemen, & Gentlemen, named therein.

Resolved that Mr Murray & Mr Black be directed to Provide & Present to James Stewart Esq' a Piece of Plate with a suitable Inscription to record our Grateful Sense of the Signal Services He has rendered to this Body.
Resolved that Messrs John Thomson, Geo. Murray, & Saml Livingston, be appointed to prepare a Letter to M' Stewart to acquaint him with our Request & Determination on these Subjects.

Moved & unanimously agreed, That the Thanks of this Interloq Thanks to Mr Black be given to M' Black for his Zeal and Diligence in the affair of the late Grant—And Thanks were given him accordingly.

Resolved unanimously, that a Member from each Presbytery be appointed a Committee to consider what farther mark of Respect, shall be shewn to M' Black, for his Services in that matter & report immediately.

The Committee having met according to appointment, M' Barber their chairman reported, That they were unanimously of Opinion, That a Present of Plate to the value of one hundred pounds, ought to be presented to M' Black with a suitable Inscription.

To this Opinion of the Comt of the Interloq most cordially acceded;—Appointed M' Murray to purchase the same; and M' Barber and M' Livingston to prepare the Inscription.

Resolved that our Agent be impowered to pay to M' Barr the sum of Thirty Guineas out of R.D. to be applied to the sole purpose of conveying himself and Family to America.

Resolved that Dr Bruce shall be admitted a Contributer to the widows fund, on the same Terms, as other Intrants at the same Period.

The following Protest was given in, read, & ordered to be inserted in our Minutes.

We whose names are underwritten, do hereby Protest against the Determination of the Interloq' of yesterday's evening whereby a donation of R.D. granted to the Revd David Allen at the last meeting of Synod is reversed, by ordering a sum equal to said Grant, to be detained out of his Proportion of R.D. for the current year.

1. Because we deem it mean in its object & unworthy of the Character of this Synod.

2. Because the Reasons on which it was obtained are Nugatory, Unconstitutional, and Partial.—Nugatory, inasmuch as, If Opposition to a Rule of Synod lay a foundation for Reversal, the Determination should have comprehended five previous cases.—Unconstitutional, as pleading Absence, or a departure from the Synod-House, before the Business of Synod is done, in Reversal of the Acts of Synod. Partial, as operating to the discouragement of one poor Cong°° & the Hurt of its Minister, whilst others in the same circumstances & favoured in the same manner by former Synods are passed by unnoticed.—And the assertion, "that M' Allens Case was the only one in which a Specified Rule of Synod is violated," is unfounded, as the cases of the Cong°° of Sligo & Moywater, of Killinker & Dunlucie, are posterior to the date of said Rule & prior to the Case in Question. Lurgan, 28 June, 1792, Wm Steel Dickson, John Thomson, Benjamin M'Dowel, Robert Porter, Robert Rentoul, Sinclaire Kelburn, Natb Shaw, Wm
Magee, Wm Knox, James Davison, Tho L. Birch, Alex Marshal, James Neilson, John Davys, James Whiteside, Henry Henry.

I Protest against the above Determination for the Reasons Assigned, the first excepted.—Tho' Cuming.

Whereas the Gen. Synod of Ulster & Presb. of Antrim are connected as one Body, with respect to the Kings Bounty & widows fund; Resolved that as no Presbytery belonging to the Synod of Ulster has authority to make any new erection; If the Presb. of Antrim shall erect into a new Cong°, a part of any Cong°, now belonging to them or part of any Cong° now belonging to this Synod, or shall make any new Erection whatsoever, without the consent of this Body first obtained, the minister or ministers of such new Erection, shall not be Entitled to receive any part of the Royal Bounty, nor be a subscriber to the widows fund.—And this Synod shall not erect, any Cong° in future, without allowing such members of the Presb. of Antrim, as attend our meetings to debate & vote with respect to such new Erection, otherwise the minister or ministers of such new Erection shall not be entitled as above.

4th Interlog Friday morning 7 o'clock.

A Letter from the Trustees of the Widows fund was read & Dr Dickson & Mr Cuming appointed to answer it.

The Letters to James Stewart, Esq', and the Letter to the Trustees of the Widows fund were read, approved & ordered to be subscribed by the Moderator.

Resolved that Messrs Black, John Thomson, Wm Knox, & Alex Marshal, of Root Presb. & Tho Henry, be appointed a Committee, under the sanction, and authority of this Interlog' to enquire from what causes, & by what means one Entire Moiety of the English R.D. came to be engrossed by the Southern Association, and to take such measures, as they shall deem expedient to promote the Interest, and secure the Honour of our Body, in this matter; And Mr Black is empowered to call a meeting of the Comit° at such time & place as He shall judge necessary.

Moved & unanimously agreed, That in our opinion a Compensation should be made to our Clerk for his extraordinary labours during the current year. And tho' this Interlog' are sensible of their Competency to make such Compensation, yet from a recent case, & in order to avoid a Repetition of the same, this Interlog' decline the exercise, of their Power, & warmly recommend it to the Ministers who may constitute the first Interlog' at the Meeting of the Synod in the year 1793, to take the same under their serious consideration.

Inserted the 3rd day of August, 1792, by

ROBERT DICKSON,
Clerk of Gen. Synod.

TO THE KINGS MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS & ELDERS OF THE GEN. SYNOD OF ULSTER.

May it please your Majesty

We your Majestys most Dutiful & Loyal Subjects, the Ministers & Elders of the Gen. Synod of Ulster, at our annual meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most unfeigned expressions of Loyalty & Respect.

We humbly assure your Majesty that we & the great Body of your subjects, with whom we are connected, are firmly attached to the Constitution of our country, which has established the form of Government in a King, an Hereditary Peerage, and a Representation of the People in a Commons house of Parliament.

That we continue unshaken in those Principles which placed your Majestys most Illustrious Family on the Throne of these Realms. We will not fail to inculcate, on the People under our Care the Practice of Religion & Virtue, which will at once render them good Citizens here, & qualify them for felicity hereafter.
We pray that your Majestys Reign may be long and Prosperous; That your Throne may be established in Righteousness; and, That publick Peace & Tranquility may be speedily restored.

Signed by order,

WM. STEEL DICKSON, Moderator.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN EARL OF WESTMORLAND, LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS AND ELDERS OF THE GENERAL SYNOD OF ULSTER.

May it please your Excellency

We his Majestys Dutiful and Loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, beg leave to express to your Excellency our earnest Desire that your Excellency will be pleased to transmit to his Majesty the humble & Dutiful Address herewith delivered to your Excellency. And that your Excellency would be pleased to represent the Ministers & Elders of the Gen. Synod of Ulster and the great Body of People with whom they are connected as dutiful & Loyal subjects, attached to the Constitution & obedient to the Laws.

Signed by order,

WM. STEEL DICKSON, Mod't.

The following Declaration was overtured & agreed to (one Dissenting) & ordered to be published with the Addresses & Answers.

At an annual meeting of the Ministers & Elders of the Gen. Synod of Ulster, held in Lurgan, 25th June, 1793, the following Declaration was agreed to and ordered to be published:—

That however unwilling the Synod may be to obtrude their Political sentiments on the attention of the Publick, they feel themselves called upon by the various interesting events which have occurred in this Kingdom, & in Europe since their last General meeting, explicitly to avow & publish their unshaken attachment to the Genuine Principles of the British Constitution. An attachment early inculcated by the lessons of their Fathers, and since Justified by their own Observation and Experience.

That as members of Civil Society they deem it not inconsistent with their Publick character to join with the great majority of the Virtuous & Enlightened men in this Kingdom in expressing their opinion, That a Reform in the Representation of the Commons House of Parliament, is Essentially necessary to the Perfection of the Constitution, and the security & Maintenance of Public Liberty.

That in seeking this Reform they will not be seduced by the visionary Theories of speculative men, but taking the Principles of the Constitution for their Guide they will co-operate with their fellow-citizens by all constitutional means to obtain this great object, rejecting with abhorrence every Idea of Popular Tumult or foreign aid.

That impressed with that goodwill & Brotherly Love which is inculcated by their Religion towards good men of all Religious Denominations & trusting that this Spirit will always be cherished by the People under their care, they congratulate their Roman Catholic countrymen on their being restored to the Privileges of the Constitution, and they indulge the flattering hope that Irish Catholics cultivating & maintaining the Principles of Civil & Religious Liberty will prove to the world that the Liberality of Protestants has neither been ill-timed nor unsafe.

And finally, it is their earnest Prayer, That the time may never more return, when Religious Distinctions, shall be used as a Pretext for disturbing Society, or arming man against his neighbour;—That Intolerance of every kind may be trodden under foot; and every equally good subject, shall be equally cherished & protected by the State.

Against the above Declaration the Rev'd Mr Hogg entered the following Protest:—

I Dissent from the Declaration of the Synod of Ulster at their present meeting, Because I conceive that it is unnecessary & improper for them at this time to enter upon or discuss Political Principles, as I conceive their attention should be directed to the Business of the Church, & its Concerns, & to that alone.

2. Because said Declaration, was not the unanimous Declaration of the Synod, as there was a Respectable minority who both spoke & voted against it.

MOSES HOGG.

Lurgan, 28 June, 1793.

The consideration of Mr Hassards Appeal from the sentence of the Presbytery of Monaghan was now resumed; and the Synod, after mature deliberation were of opinion, That they could not take any farther cognisance of a matter where the Party accused had been convicted & Punished, a second Tryal for the same offence, being utterly inconsistent with the Spirit of Law & Justice. But Mr Hassard was asked whether he had any charges against Mr Elliot different from the matter alleged and inquired into before the Presbytery of Monaghan, to which Mr Hassard answered in the affirmative. The Synod were proceeding to appoint a Committee consisting of the Presbytery of Monaghan and assistants to receive Mr Hassards Complaint, and the Defence of Mr Elliot, when Mr Hassard declared that he would give the Synod no farther Trouble, as he was determined to bring his complaint before another court.
Open Synod to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock. Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned.

5th Session Friday morning, 7 o'clock, after Prayer.

Appeared from Drumquin M' James Boyle & from Pettigo M' James Clendinning Commissioners, supplanting this Synod to erect them into a Congregation. After reasoning on the subject the Question was put, "Erect them or not?" The Roll was called & it carried unanimously, to Erect them.

A Supplication from the Minister and Congregation of Portaferry to be disannexed from the Presbytery of Killyleagh, & annexed to that of Bangor, was presented to this Synod.

Granted unanimously.

It is overtured, That our Agent shall be ordered to pay the sum of one pound Sterling at the next Quarterly payment of R.D. after the meeting of each Synod, to each Minister who answers to his name, when the Roll is called, on the first and last days of said Synod, over and above the Dividend of R.D., which is paid to such members of Synod, as do not attend said meeting.

The above overture unanimously agreed to.

The Synod considered the Request of the Presbytery of Derry respecting M' Ross, & authorise the Presbytery to act in that Business, as upon Deliberation they shall think proper.

M' Wilberforce's Answer to our Address to him of last year was read & ordered to be inserted in our minutes. It is as follows:—

Sir,

I should have returned an immediate answer to your favour of the 1st Inst. had I not been extremely occupied for some days by the Business of the Sierra Leone Company.

I beg you will assure the Gentlemen who composed the General Synod, That I entertain a due sense of the Honor done me by their late address; And it affords me particular pleasure to find that the cause I had so deeply at heart has engaged the attention of my fellow-subjects of Ireland. You may be persuaded, That the friends of the oppressed Africans will continue their Exertions, and I trust thro' the Divine Blessing their Labours will e'er long be crowned with Success.

I cannot conclude without begging you to accept my Thanks, for the obliging manner in which you have communicated to me the Synods Address.

I have the Honor to be, Sir, your most obedient & most humble Servant,

WM. WILBERFORCE.

Rev'd Wm Stitt, Dungannon, Ireland.

The Mod' concluded this Synod with Prayer.
AT LURGAN, JUNE 25th, 1793.

1st Interloq Wednesday Evening 5 o'clock.

Mr Bankhead, Chairman of the Committee of Accounts gave in the following Report.

Capital of the Widows fund ... £12383 14 7
Annual Interest arising from the same ... £633 10 0
Contributers for the year ending 29th Sept, 1792—173.
Amount of Contributions ... £411 17 6
Number of Annuitants—64.
Amount of Annuities due to them ... £822 1 4

Mr Black reported to the Interloq That Mr Simson had become a Contributer to the Widows fund, & had paid the subscription due by him as such. Also that Dr Bruce had declined becoming a Contributer to the fund on the terms proposed to him by the Interloq of last year.

Mr Blacks narrative of the Material Circumstances relative to the late grant of R.D. was read, received, & a copy of it ordered to be taken in a fair hand, in order to be bound and preserved among our Records.

Resolved that a Compliment of Ten Guineas shall be given to our Clerk for his Extraordinary Trouble during the years 1792 and 1793.

Moved and unanimously agreed, That the Thanks of this Interloq be given to Mr Black, for his Trouble and pains in drawing up and presenting the narrative relative to the late Grant of R.D. and for discovering the Honourable Terms on which it was obtained; and Thanks were given him accordingly.

Moved, That the Resolution of the year 1788 relative to Ministers having Collegiate Charges be repealed. The Question was put, "Repeal or Not?" The Roll was called & it carried, "Not."

2d Interloq Thursday Morning, 10 o'clock.

Two Memorials from our Brethren of the Southern Association directed to our Moderator were read, & Messrs. Craig, Millar, Davys, Shaw, McClure, & Ja Birch, are appointed to prepare a Letter conveying our Sentiments respecting the Subjects of said Memorials.

Mr Bankhead reported from the Comt© of Acc©, That they had examined the Accounts of the widows fund for the last year, & found them in all respects perfectly satisfactory.
Two Letters received from James Stewart, Esq^r, were read and ordered to be inserted in our Minutes. They are as follow:—

To the Rev^d Presbyterian Ministers of the G. Synod of Ulster.

Gentlemen,

The success of the Motion which I had the Honor to make in the House of Commons last session of Parliament respecting the Presbyterian Ministers of Ireland, affords me real satisfaction, and I am highly gratified to find my conduct on the occasion acceptable to you. When your obliging Intention of honouring me with a memorial of your Approbation was first communicated to me by a much respected member of your Body, I wished (with all possible Respect & Gratitude) to decline the sumptuous mode proposed for conveying it. But his Arguments & the Reasons Assigned for adopting that mode were too flattering to be resisted. I acquiesced knowing that I cannot err in submitting mine to your better Judgment. Accept then Gentlemen my most cordial Thanks, for repeated marks of your Regard, and particularly for the distinguished Honor this day conferred upon me; An Honor ever to be remembered with honest Pride which I receive, and shall preserve as a Record of approbation from your truely Respectable & learned Body. Permit me to assure you of my unalterable attachment, and that I shall ever be desirous as far as my poor abilities will permit, to promote your Interest, knowing that in so doing I shall serve that of my Country.

I have the Honor to be with the highest Respect & Esteem,

Rev^d Sirs, your obliged & obedient humble Servant,

Killymoon, Dec^r 27th, 1792. JAMES STEWART.

Dear Sir,

I am much obliged to you for your kind letter mentioning the time fixed for the meeting of the General Synod of Ulster. I request that you will be so good as to present my Respects to the Gentlemen and inform them, That in consequence of their desire I sent copies of their Resolution of the 26th June, 1792, to the Duke of Leinster, Lord Charlemont, M^r Gratian, & the M^r Ponsonbys; from all of whom I received answers expressing in the warmest Terms their attachment to the Interest of the Synod and the satisfaction they feel in having their conduct approved by that Respectable Body. You saw some of these answers in the country last Christmas. I lament that it is not now in my power to send them to be laid before the Synod.

M^r Black, who is now in Dublin, has promised to deliver a letter for me, which very imperfectly expresses the sense I have of the particular Honor conferred upon me.
Believe me with great Esteem & Respect Dear Sir, your obedient & most humble Servant,

JAMES STEWART.

Dublin, June 22d, 1793.

Resolved unanimously, That the Thanks of this Interloq' be given to Messrs Murray & Black for the faithful Honourable & dignified manner in which they executed the commission entrusted to them by the Interloq' of last Synod to James Stewart, Esq, and Thanks were given them accordingly.

Resolved unanimously, That the Thanks of this Interloq' be given to Mr Murray for purchasing, & to Messrs Barber & Livingston for preparing, a suitable Inscription for the Plate ordered to Mr Black by the Interloq' of the Synod last year, and Thanks were given them accordingly.

On reading the Order of the Interloq' of last year for paying to Mr Barr thirty guineas, for the purpose of removing himself & family to America, Resolved, That as Mr Barr & Family had not removed to America the said order be reversed.

4th Interloq' Friday Morning 10 o'clock.

Resolved unanimously, That the sum of fourteen pounds sterling shall this year be paid to each Annuitant on the widows fund.

A letter from the Trustees of the widows fund was read, & Mr Livingston and Mr James Birch appointed to answer it.

On considering the part of the Trustees letter relative to Mr Rogers it was moved & unanimously agreed to, That in case any annuitant or annuitants on the widows fund shall commence a suit at Law for recovery of such part of her, his, or their annuity as may be due without first applying to the Trustees of said Fund, or to the Interloq' of this Synod; The expenses incurred by said fund in consequence of such suit, shall be deducted out of the annuity, which to such person or persons may be then due.

Moved and unanimously agreed, That a certificate of any annuitant on the widows fund being alive, signed by a Minister who is a contributor to the fund, & no other shall be deemed by our Agent a sufficient Certificate.

Resolved, That the conduct of the Revd James Horner in employing an Attorney at Law to intimidate our Agent, and induce him to act in contradiction to the Instructions of this Synod, has been highly disrespectful to this Body, & Injurious, to their Reputation and Interest.

Resolved, That our Agent be instructed to write to Sir John Blackwood and inform him, That it is the Determination of the Constituents of the widows fund, that he must pay at the rate of five and an half ¾ cent. Interest for the money in his hands, from the 23d day of November next, or pay in the Principal according to the Terms settled in the Loan.
Mr Trimble made application to this Interloq† That a certain portion of the R.D. should be given to the Rev'd James Walker to enable him to remove to America.

After some Conversation the motion was withdrawn, on the Principle, "That no part of the R.D. could, with propriety, be applied to such Purposes."

The Letter to our Brethren of the Southern Association was read, approved, and ordered, to be subscribed, and transmitted by the Moderator.

The letter to the Trustees of the widows fund was also read, approved, & ordered to be transmitted.

Inserted 22nd July, 1793, by ROBERT DICKSON, Clk. of Gen. Synod.

A Gen. Synod at Dungannon, 24th June, 1794.

A Petition from the Presbyterian Inhabitants of Stratford on Slaney in the County of Wicklow, was presented to this Synod stating "That they were for the greater part, Natives of Scotland, and educated in the Principles and Worship of the Scotch Church. That "on account of their great distance from any place of Presbyterian Worship, they had no opportunity of Worshipping God, and having "the Ordinances of the Gospel dispensed in the way which they "conceive most conformable to the Spirit of Christianity, and most "pleasing to their consciences; and therefore praying to be Erected "into a Congregation, under the care of the Presbytery of Dublin, "and to be supplied by them with preaching."

A Supplication from the Minister and Congregation of Ballyhalbert to be disannexed from the Presbytery of Killyleagh and annexed to the Presbytery of Bangor was presented to this Synod.

The Moderator concluded this Synod with Prayer.

* Number omitted.
1st Interloq: Wednesday Evening, 5 o'clock.

M' Birch Chairman of the Committee of Accounts gave in the following Report, examined & approved by the Committee.

Capital of the Widows fund 9th June, Inst. £12690: 19: 6
Interest arising from the same, last year £632: 14: 0
Number of Contributers 29th Sept., 1793—182.
Amount of Subscriptions to same date £555: 7: 8
Number of Annuitants 1st January, 1794—65.
Amount of Annuities due & Payable to them on that day £877: 9: 5

Committee examined the accounts of the Kings Bounty, until March Quarter, 1793 inclusive, and found them satisfactory; and observed, That M' Black had made no charge for his Expence and Trouble during his long attendance in Dublin, relative to the late Grant.

Whereas it appears evident from experience, that the Regulations entered into by the Synod of Ulster and Presbytery of Antrim, are not sufficiently determinate and Particular as to one general standard, in disposing of the Produce of the Different Royal Grants made to them. And whereas the Synod of Ulster and Presbytery of Antrim have always exercised Authority over these Grants, as to the mode in which they should be disposed; It is proposed that the following Resolution be agreed to. "That in future only one equal Portion of the Annual Produce of our Grants shall be allotted to each particular Congregation, and this particular Portion is designed as the Property only of the oldest Minister, or of him who has officiated for the greatest length of time in that Congregation; And that where a Minister shall be obliged by age or Infirmities to demit his Charge, he shall enjoy the Bounty during his life, which on his Decease only, shall devolve to his successor in the Pastoral Charge of that Congregation."

The Question was put "Shall this Resolution pass or not?"
The Roll was called and it carried, "Pass."

2d Interloq: Thursday morning 7 o'clock.

On reading the Resolution entered into at the preceeding Interloq respecting the manner of dividing the Produce of the Royal Grants made to the Synod of Ulster and Presbytery of Antrim it was agreed by this Interloq, That the Resolution then formed does not affect the Congregations of Drumboe and Ballinderry in their present Circumstances.

Upon reading the minute of last year, relative to the Memorials from the Dublin Presbytery of the Southern Association, and the letter from this Interloq to those Gentlemen, it appeared, That they had declined supporting the allegations contained in them; It was therefore resolved, That said memorials be no longer in Retentis.
Mr Black reported to this Interloq', That Sir John Blackwood had agreed to our Terms respecting the money in his Hands, and that it is now at five and one-half % cent. Interest, from the twenty-third day of November last.

Upon reading the minute of last year respecting Mr Horner, He being now present, very fully disclaimed any Intention of Acting in a manner disrespectful to this Body, or Injurious to its Reputation and Interest; Whilst this Interloq' are fully persuaded that the Principle upon which their former Resolution was founded was Right, they are now fully satisfied with the Declaration Mr Horner has made.

Resolved, That the Annuity of the Widow of the late Mr James Jackson shall be paid into the hands of Dr Jackson, for the use of the younger children, as the widow has made no claim, nor is it known whether she be alive.

3d Interloq' Thursday Morning, 10 o'clock.

Mr Trimble gave notice that he will next year move the following Resolutions:

1. That no minister shall be admitted a Contributer to the Widows fund, but at the meeting of the General Synod immediately following his ordination, where the members may have an opportunity of Judging of his Constitution and general state of health.

2. That any minister who at the time of his Ordination shall have passed his twenty-fifth year, shall over and above the usual or settled, Terms of Admission pay forty shillings for every year he shall have so passed, his age to be taken from his own solemn Declaration.

3. That if it shall appear by proof, that any minister shall have concealed his real age, his widow or family shall forfeit all advantage arising from the Scheme.

4. That any minister marrying a second time, provided at the time of said marriage, he shall not have passed the age of fifty years, shall pay to the Capital of the widows fund fifteen pounds; and if past the age of sixty years thirty pounds.

Inserted 4th September, 1794, by

ROBERT DICKSON,
Clk. of G. Synod.
At a meeting of the Gen. Synod's fixed Committee at Dungannon, the 27th day of February, 1795, called by the Moderator, the following members from the several Presbts. were present:

Rev'd Jn. Cochran, Mod'. Robert Dickson, Clerk.

Presb't.

Armagh, Sam'l Livingston, Thos' Cuming.

Tyrone, Moses Hogg, Hugh Boylan.

Bangor, Andw Craig.

Derry, Robert Black, Henry Elder.

Dromore, James Birch.

B'mena, James Cuming.

Strabane, Hugh Hamil, Will'm Dunlop.

Root, Alex' Marshal, Matt. Elder.

Belfast, Thos' Leadlie Birch.

Clogher, James Ker, Will'm Johnston.

The Moderator acquainted the meeting with his Reasons for calling it, stating, That it was in consequence of a Letter to D'r Crawford from our worthy Friend M'r Stewart informing him that he had a prospect of obtaining from Parliament a Grant of money for Establishing a University for the Education of Protestant Dissenters. That he had Hopes of success in the affair, and therefore allledged the propriety of calling the Gen. Synod's fixed Committee.

The Committee highly approve of the conduct of the Moderator on this occasion, and return him their thanks.

Resolved, That the Thanks of this Committee be given to the Rev'd D'r Crawford, for his unwearied Exertions in prosecuting the object for which the Committee has been this day summoned, and Thanks were accordingly given him.

Resolved unanimously, That a Letter be written to M'r Stewart expressing our Gratitude for his unremitting attention to our Interest on this, as well as on former Occasions.

Resolved, That an Address from this Committee be presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and the following Address being read, it was moved and agreed to (one Dissentient), that the said Address shall be presented to the Lord Lieutenant as the Address of this Committee.
May it Please your Excellency

We his Majesty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Members composing the fixed Committee of the General Synod of Ulster, beg leave to express to your Excellency the unfeigned Satisfaction which we have felt on your appointment to the Government of this Kingdom. From the private virtues of the Earl of Fitzwilliam we naturally anticipated a Publick Conduct at once Dignified, and Just, and it is with Sensations of the most lively Pleasure that we have observed the opening of your Excellency's Administration justifying the Expectations of an anxious People. In the Declarations made by your Excellency to different Classes and Descriptions of men in this country, we discern a Spirit of Generous, and Distributive Policy, commensurate with the wants of a Nation so peculiarly circumstanced for more than a century; and we look forward with confidence to the accomplishment of measures calculated to cement a General Union, and to Establish the Empire of the Laws, on its best and surest Foundation, the Affections, and Confidence of the People.

For ourselves, we intreat your Excellency to believe, That we have not departed from the Principles of our Ancestors,—And, That we will continue to recommend that Reverence for the Supreme Being, and those Sentiments of universal Benevolence, and pure Morality, which our Religious Profession so forcibly enjoins.

This in the name and by appointment of the Committee.

JAMES COCHRAN, Mod.

Against the foregoing Address, the following Protest was entered:—

I as a Minister of the Gospel of Christ do Protest against the Address agreed to this day by my Brethren, the Ministers of the General Synod of Ulsters fixed Committee, to be presented to his Excellency the Earl of Fitzwilliam Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, not for want of the highest Respect for the Eminent virtues of that distinguished Nobleman, and a wish to pay the most Grateful Tribute to his Liberal Professions as Chief Governor:—But because this Kingdom being at present engaged in a War, the Address does not expressly recognise a Desire for Peace.

THOS. LEDLIE BIRCH.

Dungannon 27th Feb'y 1795.
Resolved unanimously, That the Rev'd James Cochran, our Mod', the Rev'd D' Crawford, and the Rev'd Robert Black be, and hereby are, appointed Commissioners to proceed immediately to Dublin, in order to present the Address to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to confer with Government, and to give such Information as may be necessary to M' Stewart, and such of our friends in both Houses of Parliament, as may be disposed to favour us in that Business.

Instructions given to the Commissioners of the General Synods fixed Committee.

We do hereby appoint you the Rev'd James Cochran, our Mod', the Rev'd D' Crawford, and the Rev'd Robert Black, or any two of you, to proceed forthwith to Dublin in the Character of Commissioners from the Gen. Synod of Ulster. You are there to confer with Government, with our much respected friend M' Stewart of Killymoon, and with such members of the two Houses of Parliament, as are friendly to our Interest, and use your best endeavours to procure the Establishment of an University for the Education of youth under the Patronage and Direction of the Ministers of the Gen. Synod of Ulster, the Presbytery of Antrim, and the Southern Association, Subject to the control of Parliament, for the expenditure of any sum, or Annual Grant of money which may be made to Establish and support the said University.

The Detail of the various Regulations necessarily connected with a system of Liberal Education, will require mature and Deliberate Consideration; and for the present, we limit your Powers respecting this part of your Commission to engage in our name, That a competent number of Masters may be appointed to teach the following Branches of Science:—viz., Divinity, Moral Philosophy, Natural Philosophy, Logick, Metaphysicks, Rhetoric, Composition, Belle-Letters, History, Mathematicks, and Languages, with such other collateral Branches of General Science and Information as our funds may enable us to provide masters for.

With respect to the site of the University, you are to propose Cookstown in the County Tyrone; And provided it shall be thought, that Cookstown is not an eligible situation, you are further authorised to ascertain and fix upon a place, which shall best serve the purposes of the Institution. You are also authorised to use your best endeavours to procure a Charter for securing the Capital, and regulating the application of the Fund, belonging to such Members of the Synod, as are Contributers to the Widows and Orphans fund.

And you are generally charged and Impowered to act in our name, and on our Behalf in every matter relative to those Concerns, according to the best of your Discretion and Judgment.

Signed in our name & by our order

ROBERT DICKSON,
Clk. of G. Synod.
The following Letter to James Stewart, Esq', of Killymoon was read, approved, and ordered to be subscribed and transmitted by the Moderator:

Sir,

The first Committee of the Gen. Synod of Ulster met at Dun-gannon agreeably to your very obliging Desire, communicated to our Moderator by Dr. Crawford, embrace the present Occasion to express how much the Presbyterians of Ireland must think and feel themselves Indebted to you for this new Instance of your Attention to their Interest. In their name and particularly in that of the Synod at large, which we represent, we beg leave to return you our respectful and grateful acknowledgments. Formerly on more Occasions than one, you stood forth among the first of our friends, and were an Active and Successful Instrument in procuring Benefits for our Ministers, which have served them Essentially.

Destitute of a proper Seminary for the Education of their Youth the Presbyterians ever since their first Settlement in this Country, a period of many years have been under the disagreeable necessity of sending them abroad for Instruction. This was attended with considerable expence, and many other Inconveniencies. In consequence of being thus disagreeably circumstanced, not only those among us designed for the ministry, but our People sustained a loss in point of Improvement, much to be regretted. We are highly gratified to think that there now opens to our View, a prospect of our being relieved from these Difficulties. For we understand, Sir, that with your usual Goodness you have lately been employing your Endeavours & intend to continue them, in order to procure for us the Establishment of an University. Nothing, we take the Liberty of saying, can be more agreeable to us and to all those of our Religious Denominations, and call forth our warmer acknowledgments, than the accomplishment of this great and Interesting Object.

There is another Object which you have also been so good as to turn your attention to, and given us hopes of obtaining, a Charter for the Security of our Widows fund. This we likewise consider as a matter of high Importance, and one, which for years, we have much wished to have it in our power to Effect.

According to your wishes we have appointed, and vested with full authority to act in the name of the Synod, in respect to both these points, as Commissioners, the Rev'd James Cochrane, our Moderator, the Rev'd Dr. Crawford, and the Rev'd Robert Black, or any two of them, who are to proceed to Dublin immediately for the purpose. We flatter ourselves that they will render you acceptably every necessary assistance, and that the Instructions we have given them will meet with your approbation.

Suffer us, Sir, to conclude, with expressing once more our sense of the high obligations we owe you, and our Earnest and affectionate wishes, that Providence may long spare you to enjoy the refined and dignified Pleasure resulting from a Consciousness of your private &
AT DUNGANNON, FEBRUARY 27TH, 1795.

Publick virtues, and particularly that you have embraced every opportunity of being the friend and the Benevolent Protector of those who have stood in need of your assistance.

Signed by order

JAMES COCHRAN, Mod'.

The Report of the Commissioners delegated by the fixed Committee to negotiate the Establishment of an University in Ulster for the Education of Protestant Dissenters, and to present the Address of the Committee to the Lord Lieutenant being also read, the Conduct of the Commissioners was unanimously approved.

The Answer of the Lord Lieutenant to the Address of the Committee is as follows:—

Gentlemen

I return you thanks for this Address. It has been the great Object of my Ambition, since I undertook the Government of this country to secure to his Majesty what he so eminently merits, the Affection & Confidence of his People. On Fidelity to his Royal Person & Government and on Attachment to the Constitution of which He forms so Essential a part, the wellbeing of these Kingdoms exclusively rests. These have been the Principles of your Ancestors, and I am happy to find that you have not departed from them.

The Overture submitted to last Synod respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry, by a Committee of the Synod, being read, It was moved & unanimously agreed to, That said Overture be rejected.

Moved, That the next meeting of the Gen. Synod shall be at Belfast, in the meeting house of the third Congregation on the last Tuesday in June 1796. The Question being put and the Roll called it carried in the affirmative by a great majority. Sermon to begin at five o’clock afternoon.

In consequence of the Report of the Commissioners of the Gen. Synods fixed Committee, it was the unanimous Opinion of the Synod that the Application for the Establishment of a University should be farther prosecuted, and that for this purpose, a letter should be written to the Lord Lieutenants Secretary on the Subject. A Committee being appointed to prepare a letter, it was read, unanimously agreed to, and ordered to be transmitted to Mr Stewart, to be by him forwarded to Mr Pelham. A Committee was also appointed, consisting of the following members, viz. Rev’d Dr Marshal, our Moderator, Dr Crawford, Dr M’Dowel, Mr Wilson, & Mr Black, vested with full authority to transact all Business on this Head as they may think proper.

The letter to Secretary Pelham is as follows:—

Londonderry 1st July 1795.

Sir

We the Ministers and Elders composing the General Synod of Ulster assembled at our annual meeting, take the liberty of Informing you, as holding a Place of high Importance in the Government of this Country; That under the late Administration we applied for the Establishment of an University, for educating the youth of our Religious Denomination through the medium of Mr James Stewart of Killymoon, a Gentleman of Distinguished Respectability, who has with much Kindness and Zeal, interested himself on our Behalf, on many occasions. We were particularly encouraged to use our Endeavours to Obtain this Important Object by Lord Fitzwilliam’s Declaration to Parliament, That it was his Majesty’s wish that a system of Education should be adopted favourable to the Improvement of his Subjects of all Religious Descriptions in Ireland.

Permit us Sir to acquaint you, that we had the Pleasure to find, That those in the Confidence of Lord Fitzwilliam were well disposed to gratify us in this matter. Our application was for a Seminary of Instruction Invested with the Privileges of an University to be placed under the Patronage of the ministers of the Gen. Synod of Ulster, the Presbytery of Antrim and the Southern Association, and supported by an annual Endowment of Two Thousand Pounds. In this Seminary Divinity, Philosophy, Rhetorick, Mathematicks, and the Languages were to be taught by a competent number of Professors to which other Branches of Education were to be added as circumstances might permit.

We understand, That upon the late change of Administration this Business was mentioned to you, and explained by Mr. Stewart, to whom you were so obliging as to say, "That you were well disposed to receive and attend to our Communications on the Subject," informing him at the same time that a general Plan of Education was to be digested and carried into execution, and that Commissioners would be appointed for that purpose. We trust Sir that in framing this Plan, Regard will be paid to our application, which we request you may be so good as to lay before his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and that proper measures will be taken to render it effectual.

At present we constitute a large, and permit us Sir, to say, a Respectable part of the People. When what we have been—What we are—And hope ever will be—in our attachment to the great Principles of the Constitution, and to the Peace, the Order, & the welfare of our Country, are considered, we trust, That the confident expectations we have been led to entertain with respect to the Establishment and support of an University will not be disappointed.

This Letter will be transmitted to you by Mr. Stewart, who has been so good as to consent to take charge of it and forward it. We take the liberty to request, That your answer, and any farther communications on the subject, may be directed to the Rev'd D'r Marshal, our Moderator, at Ballymoney, whom with D'r Crawford, D'r McDowel, Mr. Wilson, & Mr. Black, we have appointed our Commissioners to attend upon you in Dublin, when you may be pleased to call upon them for the purpose, and whom we have invested with full authority to act for us in all respects, in this Business, as to them may seem expedient.

We are Sir, &c.,

ALEXR. MARSHAL, Mod'.

Session concluded with Prayer Adjourned till 5 o'clock.

3d Session Wednesday Evening 5 o'clock after prayer.

It is Overtured, "That no new Congregation shall be Erected at the meeting of the Synod at which it is first proposed."

This Overture unanimously agreed to.

An Appeal, Memorial, and Supplication from the Congregation of Drumbo were presented to the Synod, by Capt. Kelly Commissioner, complaining that the Presbytery of Belfast had delayed the Ordination of Mr. Hanna, among them and had refused to give them Satisfaction as to several Points in dispute between them and their late minister, Mr. Malcom, respecting money accounts, and Praying that the Synod might take such steps, as to them may seem expedient for settling these Accounts, and forwarding Mr. Hanna's Ordination.
After hearing the Parties at considerable length, the Synod unanimously approve of the conduct of the Presbytery of Belfast. But considering that Party disputes have run high in that Congregation and that the Business itself has been attended with much difficulty, they appoint a Committee consisting of the following members, viz. D' Dickson, D' Neilson, M' M'Clure, M' Cochran, M' Craig, M' John Thomson, M' Thomas Cuming, M' Shaw, & M' Orr, with Elders, to meet at Drumbo, on the last Tuesday of this month, five to be a Quorum, who are vested with full Powers finally to issue the Business. The Presbytery of Belfast are directed to attend and to give every Information in their power on the Subject. And the Congregation are enjoined to produce their Books to the Committee, & to bring forward all papers that may be called for, tending to throw light on the affair, M' Cuming to preach.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock.

4th Session Thursday Morning 8 o'clock, after Prayer.

A Supplication was presented to the Synod from a part of the Congregation of Drumbannagher by M' John Goorly, Commiss' Praying, That the Presbytery of Dromore might be ordered to take a third Poll for M' Arnold, as they conceived that the Happiness of their Congregation depended on his settlement among them.

Another Supplication from another part of the Congregation of Drumbannagher was also presented to the Synod by M' Absalom Best, Commissioner, Praying that M' Arnold might be set aside, and that the Synod would appoint a Probationer to preach four Lord's Days in their Congregation as a Candidate for becoming their minister.

It was unanimously agreed, that both Supplications be dismissed.

Synodical Business being finished, The Interloq' is appointed to meet at 11 o'clock. Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned.

Interloq' Thursday Morning 11 o'clock.

Upon reading the minute of last year respecting Drumbo it was moved and unanimously resolved that the Congregation of Drumbo, shall not be an exception to the general Rule, respecting the Distribution of the R.D.

M' Trimble declined for the present to bring forward the first three Resolutions of which he gave notice last year, but moved the fourth, amended in the following manner. "That every Contributor "to the widows fund shall, upon every marriage after the first, "contribute fifteen pounds for the benefit of the fund."

The Question was put, "Shall this Resolution pass?" The Roll being called, it carried in the affirmative, by a great majority. And in order to carry the Objects of this Resolution into effect, every Presbytery is enjoined to give immediate Information to our Agent upon the second, or any subsequent marriage, of any of their members.

Moved and unanimously agreed to, that upon Mr William Millar continuing to pay the sum of 40 shillings annually into the widows fund, his widow or children shall be entitled to the Benefit of the fund.

Mr Alexander Chairman of the Committee of Accounts gave in the following Report.

Capital of the Widows fund 1st June 1795 . £130 37: 16: 6

Examined & approved the account of the R.D. to March Quarter 1795 inclusive; and also the Account of the widows fund to January 1795 inclusive.

ANDW. ALEXANDER.

July 2d 1795.

Synods fixed Committee, which met at Dungannon on the 27th of February last; as also the Expenses of the Commissioners appointed by them to proceed to Dublin for the purpose of negociating the Establishment of an University, and presenting their Address to the Lord Lieutenant, be defrayed out of the General Fund of the R.D.

Mr Black having proposed to pay five ^p cent Interest for the Ballance of the widows fund now in his Hands, until next meeting of Synod, the proposal was agreed to by the Interloq'.

A letter from the Trustees of the widows fund was read and our Moderator & Mr Craig appointed to answer it.

respecting the different Sub-Synods & Presbyteries bringing their Books to the Synod to be there inspected by the Committee appointed for that purpose, be renewed, and for the future strictly observed.

Overture.—That whereas certain Regulations respecting Intrants, into the Ministry, as to the Extent & Duration of their Course of Study, previous to their being Licensed to preach the Gospel by any Presbytery belonging to this Synod, have been in force for several years, we hereby recognise the wisdom & authority of said Regulations. And we further add and enjoin—that no Person hereafter licensed to preach the Gospel, by any other Body, or Society of Ministers within this Kingdom, or elsewhere, shall be received by any Presbytery belonging to this Synod, as a Preacher to preach in, or be ordained to, any vacant Congregation under our care, without producing satisfactory Credentials of his having passed through a course of Study in Extent and Duration equal to that prescribed by this Synod to young men to be by them Licensed.

After reasoning on the Subject the Question was put, "Dismiss this Overture or not?" The Roll was called, and it carried, "Not" by a great majority.

A Supplication from the Session and Congregation of Clough was presented to the Synod, stating, "That they understood the Presbytery of Killyleagh was about to be dissolved," and Praying, "That they might be put under the care of the Rev'd Presbytery of Bangor."

The Prayer of the above Supplication was granted unanimously.

D' Neilson and the Congregation of Killmore having requested "the consent and authority of this Synod to cease to be connected with "the Presbytery of Killyleagh, and to be put under the care of the "Presbytery of Armagh." Their Request was granted unanimously.

A Supplication from the Congregation of Ballee was presented to this Synod by the Rev'd James Petterson, Pastor of said Congregation, Commissioner, stating, "That as the Presbytery of Killyleagh, to which they belonged, was about to be dissolved, They wish to be put under the care of the Presbytery of Bangor."

This granted unanimously.

A Supplication from the Minister and united Congregation of Cregan and Newton Hamilton was also presented to the Synod, Praying to be put under the Care of the Presbytery of Dromore.

This also granted unanimously.

Synodical Business being finished, the Interloq' is appointed to meet to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

of the Interloq of last year, which precluded their minister from a share of the R.D., and Praying, That a Proportion of it may be allowed to him.

A Supplication was presented from Ann Jackson, widow of the late Mr. Jackson of Ballybay, Praying, That the Annuity due to her as the widow of a member of this Body may in future be paid to herself.

It was moved, "Grant this supplication or not?" The Roll was called, and it carried, "Grant."

Resolved unanimously, That the sum to be paid to each Annuitant on the fund from 1st January 1796 to 1st January 1797 shall be fifteen pounds.

Capital of the Widows fund 1st June 1796 . . £13;43:16:9

JOHN BANKHEAD, Chairman.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

2d Interloq Thursday Morning, 10 o'clock.

A Letter from the Trustees of the widows fund was read, and Dr. Marshal and Mr. John Thomson appointed to answer it.

Mr. Black is impowered to lend the Ballance of the widows fund now in his hands, on such securities, as he, with the concurrence of the Trustees, shall deem sufficient.

Resolved that our Agent be, and hereby is, ordered not to pay any Order to our R.D. to any minister, who has resigned his Pastoral Charge of a Congregation, unless the Presbytery of which he was a member, shall return him to the Synod, as having resigned through age, or Bodily Infirmity.

On reading the Return of Mr. Jackson's Ordination, and of the Terms on which he proposed to become a Contributor to the fund, It was proposed and agreed to, That Mr. Jackson and every other minister in Similar Circumstances shall be allowed to become a Contributor, on the following terms: That he do pay 40 Shillings annually, together with the Interest of thirty pounds from the day of his Ordination, until a sum equal to the R.D. is paid; And should M' Jackson die leaving a widow or children on the fund before said R.D. is paid; That said sum shall be paid, before she, or they, shall be entitled to the fund.

M' Jackson being asked whether he would become a contributer on these terms, answered in the affirmative.

Against the foregoing Resolution the following Protest was given in.

We do hereby Protest against the Resolution of the Interlocutor of the Gen. Synod of Ulster, this day entered into, relative to the admission of the Revd M' Jackson of Cregan, as a subscriber to the widows fund, for the following Reasons:—

1. Because we deem it in our humble Opinion a Dangerous Innovation as sapping a fundamental Principle of the scheme, and tending to its final Ruin.

2. That it carries with it an Insult to a member of our Body, to whom such Indulgence, or any other, was positively refused, and carries with it the appearance of Partiality & Injustice.

Belfast, 30th June, 1796.—Wm Steel Dickson, Wm Stitt, Adam Hill, Robert Christy, Robert Acheson, John McCance, Sinclare Kelburn.

The Letter to the Trustees of the widows fund was subscribed by the Moderator and transmitted to George McConchy, Esq' Dublin.

The Moderator concluded the Synod with Prayer.

Inserted 18th Aug., 1796, by ROBERT DICKSON, Clerk of G. Synod.

The following Letter from the Right Honourable Thos Pelham, Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant in answer to the letter of this Synod dated Londonderry, 1st July, 1795, was received but omitted to be entered in its proper place in the Minutes of 1796.

Dublin Castle,
21st July, 1795.

Sir,

I have received your letter of the 1st of July, written in the name of the Ministers, & Elders composing the General Synod of Ulster & signed by you as Moderator, in which you inform me that an application had been made for the Establishment of an University, for the Educating the youth of your Religious Denomination; & that you had the pleasure to find that the Gentlemen in the confidence of Lord Fitzwilliam were well disposed to gratify you in that matter; you acquaint me also that the application alluded to, was for a Seminary of Instruction, invested with the Privileges of an University to be placed under the Patronage of the Ministers of the General Synod, of the Presbytery of Antrim, & of the Southern Association, & to be supported by an annual endowment of two thousand pounds.

I must beg leave to observe to you, upon this part of your letter, that I do not find either in the Office, or in any proceeding in Parliament during the last session, any trace of the Plan you have alluded to, and altho' I took some pains on my arrival in this country to find out what measures were in agitation, in order to carry such into effect, as seemed calculated for the general Interests of the Country. I never heard from any one that such a thing was in contemplation, & from Mr' Stewart alone have I ever known of your wishes until I received your Letter.

With respect to the Conversation that passed between Mr' Stewart & me I am satisfied that he repeated it correctly; and in truth it amounted only to a declaration on my part, that whenever the Subject of Education in general (which had been the subject of a long Investigation by a Board appointed for that purpose) was taken up by Government & submitted to Parliament, I should be very happy to confer with Mr' Stewart, or any person belonging to the Synod of Ulster.

Your request that I should submit your wishes & Expectations to the Lord Lieutenant, I shall take the earliest opportunity of attending to. You may rest assured that your Attachment to the great Principles of the Constitution, to the Peace, the Order, & the welfare of the Country have not escaped his Excellency's notice, and that your professions will be duly considered by him upon all occasions.

I have the Honor to be

Sir your Most obedient Humble Servt,

THOS. PELHAM.

Rev'd Alexander Marshal, Mod'.

4th Session Thursday Morning, 10 o'clock after prayer.

A Memorial & Supplication was presented to the Synod from a Keady part of the Session & Congregation of Keady, stating at great length the Disorders & Confusions, which have long prevailed in that Congregation, and the Grievances under which Memoralists have laboured, by the Introduction of Rev'd Hen. M'Illree among them, as a Candidate for taking upon him the Pastoral Charge of the Congregation; The Injury which they allege his settlement among them would bring on the Interest of Religion; The Irregularity of many of the Proceedings in this Business; The oppressive and overbearing behaviour of M'Illree's friends; The unprecedented Conduct of the Presbytery of Monaghan in proceeding to his Installation without the concurrence of the Presbytery of Tyrone, under whose Care the Congregation had been for time Immemorial; And Praying That for these and many other Reasons, the said Installation may be declared Null and Void.

A Narrative of the Presbytery of Tyrone on this subject was laid before the Synod, Stating, That on account of the Refractory Conduct of the majority of the Congregation of Keady and their unamenableness to the Decisions of the Presbytery, they considered themselves under the necessity of declaring the said Congregation not under their Care, which Declaration they however rescinded at their next meeting, and granted supplies to that part of the Congregation which remained amenable to their Authority.

A Memorial & Supplication was also presented to the Synod from the Majority of the Congregation of Keady complaining in many Instances of the treatment which they had received from the Presbytery of Tyrone; and Praying that That Presbytery might be ordered not to send their Probationers into the bounds of that Congregation, as this had a tendency to create Distractions & prevent that Harmony and Happiness which otherwise they were likely to enjoy under M'Illree's ministry.

After these matters had engaged a very long and Dispassionate Discussion, and after every evidence which could be procured on the subject had been investigated it was resolved.

First, That M'Illree's Installation be declared Null and Void.

It was next resolved, That the conduct of the Presbytery of Tyrone in declaring the Congregation of Keady not under their care was Rash and Irregular; and it was moved & unanimously agreed to, That the said Presbytery be admonished from the Chair, and they were admonished accordingly.

It was also moved & agreed to, That on account of the very Irregular & unprecedented Conduct of the Presbytery of Monaghan in this Business, the said Presbytery be Earnestly admonished from the Chair, And they were Earnestly admonished accordingly.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

5th Session Friday morning, 7 o'clock, after Prayer.

Charges and Alligations, affecting the Moral Character of M'Illree having been brought forward; Resolved, That a Committee

The Synod do earnestly recommend and enjoin that both Parties in the Congregation do lay aside their animosities, & regularly attend Publick Worship as one Body. All the Papers together with the written evidence, which has been taken before the Synod on the Subject, shall be laid before the Committee, who are impowered to avail themselves of the same if they see it necessary. A Copy of this minute as also of that of the preceeding Session to be read in the Congregation on the first and second Lords days hence.

In consequence of a Representation of Mr Black it was unanimously resolved, That our Agent be ordered to pay 40 shillings annually out of the R.D. into the widows fund, as the contribution of Mr Irvine late minister of Faughan.

Some members of the Southern Association, having intimated to Mr Black, their Desire that a Compliment of Twenty Guineas or even a larger sum might be made to Mr Ben. The minute of last Synod respecting the Committee appointed to meet at Donaghmore being read, it was moved & agreed to, That in consequence of no written Documents of the Proceedings of said Committee being produced, the Business shall be now dismissed, & another Committee appointed to meet at Donaghmore, invested with full Powers for finally issuing all Matters in dispute there, in such a manner as to them shall seem proper, That the said Committee shall consist of the following members, viz. Rev'd Messrs. Dr. Crawford, Hugh Hamil, Wm Dunlop, Wm Knox, Rob't Thomson, Ja's McFarland, Ja's Elder, John Glasgow, & John Davison, with Elders, five ministers & two Elders to be a Quorum, to meet on the third Tuesday of October, M' Dunlop to preach. It appeared, That the Committee appointed to meet at Clogh had issued the Object of their appointment, & the Synod unanimously approved of their Conduct.

Dr. Crawford reported from the Committee appointed to meet at Munreagh, That they had finally issued all matters for which they had been sent thither.

Upon reading the minute respecting Keady & hearing the report of the Committee which met at Armagh, it was unanimously agreed to, that the Conduct of the said Committee be approved. It appearing however, from two long memorials & supplications presented to the Synod from the Congregation of Keady that matters are far from being in a state of Harmony, Peace, & brotherly Concord in that Congregation, but that on the Contrary, Party Spirit, Dissention, & Animosities still continue to run high among them, It was moved & agreed to, as the only measure likely to heal their Divisions, that another Poll should be taken of the Congregation of Keady. A Committee consisting of the Rev'd Messrs. Sherrard, Shaw, & Bankhead, is therefore appointed, to take the said Poll on the last Wednesday of September. The Committee to be guided in taking the Poll by the regular Stipend Book during the ministry of the late M'r Smyth; and those only who were paying stipend at the time of his Decease, & the Representatives of such of them as have died since are to be considered regularly qualified voters. This book to be produced & read in the Congregation, & to be furnished to M'r Shaw, at least ten days previous to the day of Poll. The Committee are impowered to Install M'r M'dlree if they see Cause. This minute to be read in the Congregation of Keady next Lords Day.
Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

4th Session Thursday Morning, 10 o'clock, after Prayer.

The following Addresses to his Majesty, and the Lord Lieutenant, being proposed by the Committee of Overtures, were unanimously agreed to by the Synod; ordered to be presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the Moderator, the Rev'd Mr Vance & the Rev'd Mr Black; And that the Addresses, with the Answers when received, shall be once published in the Dublin Evening Post, Dublin Journal, and Belfast News-Letter.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

The Humble Address of the Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster Assembled at Lurgan on the 28th Day of August 1798.

Most Gracious Sovereign

We your Majesty's Dutiful & Loyal Subjects the Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, though prevented by a Daring & Flagitious Rebellion raging in two Counties of this Province, from assembling at our stated season, eagerly embrace the first Opportunity afforded by the return of Tranquility to lay our Sentiments of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of sorrow & shame for the Calamities & Crimes of our Country, at the foot of the Throne.

We cheerfully renew those Declarations of Fidelity to the Crown & Attachment to the Constitution, from which we have never swerved. We can confidently assure your Majesty that these have been the Invariable Principles, & Professions of this Body; and we appeal to History to attest the Inviolable Attachment of the Presbyterians of Ireland to Monarchy, Counsell'd by an Hereditary Nobility, & supported & limited by an Elective Representative of the Commons.

But while we dwell with Exultation on those Periods of our Annals in which our Ancestors firmly resisted the Usurption of Cromwell, vigorously supported the Exertions of King William, & strenuously defended your Majesty's Illustrious Progenitors from the repeated attempts of a Desperate Pretender to the British Throne, and this Kingdom against the restless Ambition of France; we are constrained to lament, with the deepest Humiliation, that the most Stable & Sacred Principles of many of our People & of some of our members, have been shaken by the Convulsions of this Sceptical & Revolutionary aera.

Though we cannot presume to suggest the general Infatuation of a great part of Europe, nor the incessant & deceitful artifices employed in this country to seduce our People, as Apologies for crimes which we ourselves deem inexcusable, much less for those few unworthy members of our Body, whose conduct we can only view with grief &
Indignation, yet we venture to entreat your Majesty not to impute to the Whole the Transgressions of a part, nor to believe that the Synod of Ulster has fallen off from that line of Conduct which it heretofore uniformly maintained, nor from those Principles which it has often so solemnly avowed.

We Beseech your Majesty to accept the faithful Exertions of those who have withstood the torrent of Popular fury, & the Seductions of Sophistical Philosophy, as an atonement for their deluded Brethren. Let the madness of the Multitude be hidden from your eyes, by the courage, & sufferings of those of our Communion who have fought & died in defence of their King & Country, their Liberty, & Religion, and deign to harken to our Solemn Engagement, to do our utmost to recall the deluded from their Errors & Crimes, to make a strict Inquiry into the Conduct of our delinquent members; and to withstand to the best of our Abilities those pernicious foreign Principles which threaten alike the Temporal and Eternal Interests of Mankind.

Finally, we Beseech the King of Kings, who stilleth the madness of the People, and maketh the Wrath of men to praise him, & their vices to redound to His Glory, to Bliss & Protect your Majesty, to preserve your Subjects from every fatal Delusion & to convert our follies, Crimes, & Miseries, into Instruments of Wisdom, Piety, & happiness both now & for ever.

Signed in our name & by our appointment,

THOMAS CUMING, M div.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE MOST NOBLE CHARLES MARQUIS CORNWALLIS, LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

May it please your Excellency

We his Majesty's Dutiful & Loyal Subjects, the Presbyterian Ministers, & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster embrace this our earliest opportunity of expressing our Congratulations on your Excellency's arrival in this Kingdom.

Though the Reasons of our meeting do not lead to the Investigation of Political Subjects, yet we feel ourselves irresistibly called on at this important Period, rendered still more Interesting by the actual landing of a foreign Enemy on our shores, to declare our unfeigned attachment to the Laws & Constitution of our Country, a Constitution in behalf of which our Fathers suffered & bled, & in defence of which we, their Descendants, are also willing to risk everything that is valuable & dear to us.

As we abjure every Idea of foreign Interference in the affairs of this Kingdom, so we view with Sorrow and Indignation the late Attempts which have been made at Home to subvert our Government, under the specious pretext of Reforming it: Attempts, originating with the Crafty & Ambitious, seconded by the Ignorant & Credulous; and in too many Instances reduced to practice by the abandoned & Licentious. And we fondly trust that the Firm, Wise & Healing Measures pursued by your Excellency will be the Happy Means, as well of preventing such Attempts in future, as of calming that anxiety & Apprehension with which the Popular mind has been so long agitated.

Our fellow Subjects in far distant Lands, have born ample Testimony to that wisdom & virtue which form most striking features in your Excellency's Character; and we anticipate with pleasure the Period when we also shall have learned by happy Experience how eminently qualified your Excellency, is to restore Harmony, & Comfort to a distracted Land.

We entreat your Excellency to lay before our Gracious Sovereign our Humble & Dutiful Address, which we herewith deliver to your Excellency, and we rely on your Goodness for a favourable Representation of our Principles & Conduct.

Signed,

THOS. CUMING, Moderator.

The subsequent Overtured Address from the Synod to the People under their Pastoral Care, was unanimously agreed to; Ordered to be read from the Pulpit, and such a number of Copies to be printed and circulated, as would allow a Dozen at least to be distributed to each Congregation.

Christian Brethren

Influenced by a sincere and Affectionate regard for your Happiness, Temporal and Eternal, and by a sense of the Obligations we are under to promote, as far as in our Power, the Welfare of our Country, we feel it our Duty to address you, on the present deeply Interesting Occasion. Whilst we lament the late Disturbance of the public Peace, we derive no small satisfaction, from the Conviction, that the great Body of the People with whom we are connected have given by their Conduct the most decisive Proof how greatly they condemned all acts of Violence.

With respect to those of our Communion who unhappily have been led into open Outrage and Rebellion, we entreat them to reflect dispassionately on their Conduct; and to Place before their view, the melancholy consequences by which it has been followed. On making an appeal to their own Hearts, they must see, & feel, that it cannot be justified. So many of their fellow creatures deprived of life & hurried into Eternity; Numbers driven from their Habitations without knowing where to seek for Refuge; So much property destroyed, and the Commerce of the Country in so many Respects injured. These are Evils of such magnitude, as we are confident, must make upon their minds a very deep Impression. Men may violate the Duty which they owe to themselves, and to their King, to their country, and to their God, from Error or from Passion, but to persist in doing wrong, where the wrong is so apparent would testify a Depravity of mind, with which we hope they will not be chargeable.

With respect to all of you under our Care, the great Object of our Ambition is that you should maintain that Loyalty to the King & Attachment to the Constitution combined with those Virtuous, Honourable & Pious Principles which distinguished your forefathers, and which have rendered their memories dear to their Posterity.

Here is an Example which we earnestly recommend to your Imitation, an example equally distinguished by Loyalty & by a Veneration for those Rights of the Governed, the securing of which is alike the Duty & the Interest of the Crown.

We beseech you to look back to the Period when these Disputes commenced which have involved this Country in its present Calamities, and say whether in matters of a Political nature on weighing their Blessings, with the evils of which they complained, the People of Ireland could be Justified in rising in Opposition to Government & disturbing the Public Peace. Did not Christians of every Denomination enjoy perfect liberty of conscience? Were not the shackles broken which had confined our Trade? Was not private property secure, and the land every day becoming more prosperous? Can a wise or a virtuous man be found who would not wish to see us brought back to the same comfortable Situation? The accomplishment of this most desirable Object, will be greatly forwarded, by your acting under the influence of a steady regard to the Laws & to the Constitution, by your avowed and manly Opposition to every species of Insurrection, and by those exertious to restore the public Tranquility, which at this critical and important Period, will be the best proof of your regard to your own Interest, of your Loyalty to your King, and your love to your Country.

Thus co-operating with the efforts in behalf of Ireland of our excellent chief Governor, whose name for Dignity of Principle, for Benevolence & true Wisdom, is so eminently distinguished, you will evince, That you know & feel what you owe to your own Character, testifying in the most effectual manner that you reprove the views of those who would involve this country in the incalculable Horrors of a Revolution, and aid in restoring to it the enjoyment of its former Blessings.

In your endeavours to restore Order & the Public Peace, it is necessary for us to observe how much it is your Duty, on every Occasion to place in the strongest point of view to every one with whom you can have Influence the Danger, and pernicious Consequences of a foreign Connexion. Here in respect to France your argument is simple, it is plain, and not to be resisted. It is the Fact that this nation has exercised a Despotic Power, over every country, which has had the misfortune to apply to it for assistance, or to be conquered by its arms. As a strong additional Motive to excite you to oppose any attempt against this country, of this restless ambitious People, we beseech you to consider how unfriendly their Declarations, & Conduct have been, to those Principles of Religion, which are the support of our present comfort, and the sure foundation of our Eternal Happiness.
Permit us likewise to entreat you to guard against a Party Spirit & to cultivate goodwill towards your fellow-subjects of every Religious Description. Everything contrary to this would be hostile to that Christian Temper, by which you should be animated, would be inconsistent with your Principles as Protestant Dissenters, and a reproach to your Character. Brethren deeply concerned in what respects your Duty & Happiness, & as ministers of the Gospel of Peace, we beseech you to attend to, & to practice the things that make for Peace. And we offer up our fervent Prayers to the Almighty, that you may conduct yourselves, in the manner, in which your own Hearts will approve, on Reflection, which will give you Comfort at the hour of Death, and which will be approved at the Great Day when you shall stand before the Tribunal of your Judge.

Signed by order

THOS. CUMING, Moderator.

The following Overture was likewise unanimously agreed to by the Synod.

The Synod reflecting with grief & Indignation on the Conduct of some members of this Body, and of the Licentiates under their Care who have been lately implicated in Seditious & Treasonable Practices, do hereby declare their most pointed abhorrence of a Deportment so inconsistent with the Character of a minister of Religion. And they do strictly enjoin the several Presbyteries within their Bounds, to Institute a Solemn Inquiry into the Conduct and Conversation of their respective members and Probationers, to distinguish impartially between the Innocent & the Guilty, that the ministry may be Blameless, and to make a faithful report of their Procedure at next meeting of Synod, under Penalty of severe Censure.

Moved and agreed to that next meeting of Synod shall be held at Lurgan on the last Tuesday of June next. Sermon to begin at 5 o’clock afternoon.

Session concluded with Prayer.

Interloc Thursday, 3 o’clock.

These with an Elder from each Presbytery, & our Moderator & Clerk, are to meet at Lurgan when called by the Mod', on any Emergency, fifteen to be a Quorum, whereof Twelve at least are to be Ministers.

Upon reading the minute of last year respecting the non-attendance of the Presbyteries of B. Mena, Belfast, & Dublin, at last meeting and their neglecting to make the necessary Returns; it was moved & unanimously agreed to, That the Apology offered on the subject by the Presb. of Dublin through Dr McDowel is satisfactory. But in consequence of the Inattention with which the Presbyteries of B. Mena, & Belfast, have treated the Injunction of the Synod above alluded to; & the Disrespect they have shewn to its Authority; it was moved & ordered accordingly, That the several members of said Presbyteries absent from the last & present meeting, do attend next meeting of Synod, to account for their Conduct.

The several Committees are ordered to meet immediately.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till 1 o'clock.
3d Session Wednesday 1 o'clock, after Prayer.

After the Address to the King & the Lord Lieutenant, agreed to at last Synod, had been read, Mr Cuming the late Moderator reported That He, Mr Black, & Mr Vance had, in obedience to the order of Synod, proceeded to Dublin, & had presented the Addresses, to his Excellency who received them very Graciously. Mr Cuming also produced the Lord Lieutenant's Answer, which being read, was ordered to be inserted in the minutes & is as follows.

Gentlemen,

I receive with pleasure your Loyal Address and beg you will accept my Cordial Thanks for the favourable Interpretation you give to my Endeavours for restoring this Kingdom to Tranquillity.

I am sensible that when the Publick safety has formerly been menaced either by Domestic Traytors or foreign Invaders, no Description of his Majesty's Subjects were more active in all the Duties of Allegiance than the Protestant Dissenters of the Province of Ulster.

To find this Disposition so cordial on the Present Occasion affords me Sincere Satisfaction; And your avowing your Principles at the moment when the Hopes of the Disaffected were revived by the actual landing of the enemy, could not fail to have had a Beneficial Influence on the Community.

I shall have particular Pleasure in transmitting your Loyal and Dutiful Address to our Sovereign.

Mr Black, having also communicated the manner of procuring & circulating, printed Copies of the Address to the People, It was unanimously the Opinion of this Synod, that He & his fellow-Commissioners, have faithfully executed every part of the Trust committed to them.

The following Overture was unanimously agreed to by the Synod, Overture

That each Presbytery be enjoined to give in their Returns to the Clerk in his Seat, on the evening of the first day of the Synods meeting; And that the several Committees meet at 7 o'clock the next morning to prepare Business for the Synod after Breakfast; And that to facilitate the accomplishment of this Overture it be ordered that Divine Service shall in future begin at 4 o'clock.

Moved and unanimously agreed to, That next meeting of Synod shall be held at Lurgan, on the last Tuesday in June 1800. Divine Service to begin at 4 o'clock afternoon.

A Memorial & Supplication were presented to the Synod from the Ballindrait Cong of Ballindrait, Praying that the Revd M' Houston, who had regularly received a Call from them might be ordained their minister, with all convenient speed.

A Counter Supplication was also presented from a part of the Cong of Ballindrait, praying That M' Houstons Call might be superseded, & a new Poll granted to them.
The Synod after hearing all Parties at considerable length & investigating every Circumstance in the Business with Patience & Impartiality cannot but highly disapprove of the Conduct of the Presbytery of L. kenny in not having proceeded to Ordain Mr Houston in due Course. And the Synod doth hereby particularly enjoin the Presbytery to ordain Mr Houston on this day fortnight, Mr Dill to preach, and Mr Holmes to Ordain & give the Charge. Mr Taylor to preach in Ballindrait on the Lords day preceding the Ordination.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock.

4th Session Thursday Morning 8 o'clock, after Prayer.

Donoughmore

A long Memorial & Supplication from the Congen of Donoughmore was presented, praying that this Synod may Order the Ordination of Rev'd Sam'l Dill to be forwarded among them with all convenient Dispatch; and that for this purpose they may be disannexed from the Presb. of L. kenny & put under the Care of the Presbytery of Derry.

A Supplication was also presented from a former minority of the Congen of Donoughmore, cordially concurring in the same Requests.

After deliberating on this affair at some length, it was resolved, That a Committee of Synod consisting of D' Young, M' Cuningham & M' Henderson shall ordain Mr Dill in Donoughmore on Tuesday fortnight, Mr Cuningham to preach, & D' Young to ordain & give the charge. The Presb. of L. kenny are enjoined to attend.

Ballybay

A Supplication from a part of the Congen of Ballybay was presented to the Synod praying that another Poll might be taken respecting Mr Morrell.

After hearing the Commissioner & the Presbytery of Monaghan at some length, it was resolved to dismiss the affair.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

5th Session Thursday, 10 o'clock after Prayer.

Keady

The Committee of Synod appointed to take the Poll of the Congen of Keady in Sept. last & to Install M' M'lreel if they should see cause, reported, That there was not a Synodical Majority in his favour.

The Conduct of the Comtens considered & approved.

A Supplication from that part of the Congen of Keady called the Minority was presented to the Synod, praying, That they would for ever disannex M' M'lreel from that Congregation.

Two Supplications from the majority of the Congen of Keady were also presented, praying that the Synod would disannex them from the Presb. of Tyrone, & annex them to the Presb. of Monaghan; and that they would order the Installation of M' M'lreel among them with all convenient Expedition.
After the Synod had heard the Commissioners, & Mr McIlree at great length, and taken the affair into their most mature and serious Deliberation the Question was put, "Is it expedient to Install Mr McIlree in the Congregation of Keady or not?" The Roll was called & it carried, "Not."

It was then resolved that the Congregation should for one year be put under the immediate care of the Synod, & that the Moderator with the assistance of Messrs Davys, Cuming, & Jackson, do execute that charge.

It was farther resolved, That Mr McIlree, at his own request, should be disannexed from the Presb. of Tyrone & put under the Care of the Presbytery of Monaghan.

The Committee asked the Synod, "whether they should be at Liberty, to send Mr McIlree, as a Supplier to Keady?"—Upon the Roll being called it carried, That they should be at Liberty.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

6th Session Friday Morning 7 o'clock, after Prayer.

The Several Presbyteries having made their Reports according to the Injunction of last meeting, this Synod has the Satisfaction of finding, That the General Conduct of its members, & Probationers, has been conformable to Order & good Government, in the late afflicting Circumstances of the Country. It appears, that of the comparatively small number, who have been implicated, in Treasonable or Seditious Practices, Two only, one a Minister, and the other a Probationer, have been executed.—Two are still in Confinement. Some have expressed their Sincere Contrition; Others are no longer connected with the Synod. And the remainder have either Voluntarily, or by permission of Government removed from the Kingdom.

On the whole of this melancholy & most painful subject, while the Synod reflects with sorrow, on the Scandal brought upon its Reputation, by the Indiscretion & misconduct, of a few misguided and unworthy Individuals; It feels Confident in declaring that there is no ground for suspecting its Loyalty, as a Body; and it strongly enjoins every Member, and Licentiate, to observe such peaceable Conduct, & Discreet Conversation, as becometh their Profession, and by an unremitting application to the proper Duties of their Ministerial Calling to recommend themselves as Blameless, in the sight of God, & the world.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Interlocutor Friday, 10 o'clock.

A Letter from the Trustees of the Widows fund to the Moderator was read. In consequence of that Letter Dr McDowel is authorised & appointed in conjunction with the other Trustees to open the Iron Chest lodged in Finlays Bank, to examine the Securities therein deposited; to collect the other Securities; and deposit all in a secure place. The Doctor is ordered to report to the Interloq't at its next meeting the number of the Securities, the names of the Trustees to whom these Securities have been respectively made, and the names of such Trustees as have declared their Trust.

M'r Cochran & M'r Cuming were appointed to answer the letter of the Trustees.

The Committee appointed to Inspect the Accounts of our Agent, report, That they have examined the Accounts of the R.D. to the Dec' Quarter 1798, inclusive, & also those of the Widows fund, down to the 1st Inst, and that they appear to the Comt's perfectly correct & satisfactory.

SAML. LIVINGSTON, Ch.man.

A Letter from M'r M'Ilree was read, Praying, That the R.D. which has been withheld from him in some time past, may be granted to him.

It was agreed that any Determination on M'r M'Ilree's request be postponed, till next meeting of Synod. It is understood at the same time that M'r M'Ilree has no claim of Right upon the Synod.

Mr. Douglass of Carnculloch.

Ordered, That our Agent do pay 40 shillings to the Revd Samuel Watson, a member of the Presb. of Belfast, out of the R.D. of the members of said Presbytery.

Mr. Black having asked the Opinion of the Interloq'r respecting the Payment of R.D. to the two members of our Body, now in Confinement, after reasoning on the Subject at some length the Question was put, "Suspend payment for the present or not?" The Roll was called & it carried "Suspend."

The Letter to the Trustees of the Widows fund was read, approved, & ordered to be subscribed by the Moderator.

Also the number of Annuitants on the fund, & the sum due & payable to them from 1st Jan 1799 to 1st Jan 1800.

The several Committees are ordered to meet to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock. Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.
2d Session Wednesday Morning 11 o'clock after Prayer.

When the minute of last year was read respecting the non-attendance of several members of the Presbyteries of Ballymena & Belfast, some appeared & apologized for their former absence, whose Apologies were sustained. It is now ordered, that the Moderators of these Presbyteries, & others who are not in the Habit of attending our meetings shall write to such members as have not attended this meeting nor sent any apology, informing them, That if they do not in future pay greater Regard to the Injunctions of the Synod it will be under the necessity of adopting some measures which will be extremely disagreeable to them.

It was moved that the Overture of last year, respecting the time of making Returns to the Clerk; of the meeting of the Committees; and of the commencement of Divine Service be Repealed. The Roll being called upon the Question, it passed in the affirmative.

Moved & unanimously agreed to, That next meeting of Synod shall be held at Lurgan on the last Tuesday of June 1801. Divine Service to begin at 5 o'clock afternoon.

The Committee for supplying & taking charge of the Congregation of Keady, having made their Report, it was moved & unanimously agreed to, that the Conduct of the Committee be approved.

A Memorial was presented to the Synod, from the Cong of Ballymoney, praying to be disannexed from the Presb. of Root & put under the Care of the Presb. of Ballymena. This memorial was accompanied with some severe Charges and Insinuations against the Presb. of Root on account of the treatment which that Cong had received from the Presbytery in the affair of the Revd Benj Mitchel’s being a Candidate for becoming the Stated Pastor of the Congregation.

After considerable Deliberation on this subject, it was moved, That the Prayer of the Memorialists be granted. The Roll was called on the Question, Disannex or not, & it carried “Disannex.”

It was then moved & seconded, That by this vote it is not intended to attach Censure to the Presb. of Root in this Business. Upon this the previous Question was moved, viz. “Put this Question or not?” The Roll was called and it carried, “Put.” The Original Question was then put & carried by a great majority.

It was next moved, that a Committee be appointed to enquire into the Conduct of the Revd Benj Mitchel, a Probationer belonging to this Body. On this motion the Roll was called & it carried “Appointment” by a large majority. The following Brethren were appointed a Committee for this purpose, viz. Revd Messrs Moore & Bryson from Tyrone Presb.; Orr & Thomson from Templepatrick; Dunlop & Hamil from Strabane; & Elder & Osborne from Derry, with their Elders. Seven to be a Quorum of whom five must be ministers, Mr Moore to preach. They are to meet at Magherafelt on Tuesday 29th July; are impowered to adjourn; To send for Persons, & Papers; and to grant Credentials to Mr Mitchel should they see cause. The Presb. of Root are enjoined to attend and give light to the Committee, and also Mr. Kelso a Probationer under the Care of this Synod.

It was also unanimously resolved that the Congregation of Ballymoney be put under the Care of the Presbytery of Ballymena.

3rd Session Thursday Morning 10 o'clock, after Prayer.

Two papers were presented from different Parties of the Congregation of Lisnuney, Lisluney, the one praying that the Synod may order the Presb. of Monaghan to expedite the ordination of the Revd J. Riddell in that Congregation; The other praying that he may be laid aside, and that the Presb. may be ordered to grant them a hearing of other young men. The Presb. of Monaghan also presented a Request that the Synod would issue the Business as to them might seem right.

It was moved, & unanimously resolved, that these several applications be dismissed.

A Supplication was presented from that part of the Congregation of Keady Keady called the minority praying that Mr. McIlree may for ever be disannexed from the Congregation; and a Counter Supplication was presented from that part of it called the majority, praying that Mr. McIlree's settlement among them may be expedited.

It was moved & unanimously resolved that Mr. McIlree be Installed at Keady, by the Presb. of Monaghan as soon as that Presb. may find it convenient, and that the Congregation shall henceforward be under the Care of that Presbytery.

The Presb. of Monaghan are enjoined to take Care that all accounts with the Probationers of Tyrone Presb. & with Mr. McAlister, be paid by the Congregation of Keady, before the Installation of Mr. McIlree shall take place.

A letter from Mr. McIlree was read, stating an unsettled account Mr. McIlree between him & the Congregation of Vinecash, & praying that the Synod may order the Presb. of Tyrone to have him paid.

The Congregation of Vinecash are enjoined to settle their accounts with Mr. McIlree, before the Presb. of Tyrone at first meeting of that Presbytery.

It was Overtured & unanimously agreed to, that the following Address be transmitted to his Majesty, congratulating his Majesty on his late Providential Escape from Assassination; and that said Address be accompanied with one to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, praying him to transmit the same to his Majesty.

TO THE KINGS MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE MINISTERS & ELDERS OF THE GEN.

SYNOD OF ULSTER, ASSEMBLED AT LURGAN ON

THE 24TH DAY OF JUNE 1800.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We your Majestys Dutifull & Loyal Subjects, the Ministers & Elders of the Gen. Synod of Ulster gladly embrace the opportunity afforded us, by our stated annual meeting of expressing to your Majesty our unfeigned sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Just & Mild Government.

Your Majesty's life is deservedly dear to all your Subjects. With its preservation are closely connected the Existence of Regulated Government, the Cause of true Liberty, & the dearest Interests of our common Faith, of the practical Influence of which your Majesty has exhibited in your own Conduct so correct an example. It is therefore with the most lively sentiments of Gratitude to the Giver & Preserver of that we mix our sincere & Heartfelt Congratulations, with those of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, on your recent Providential Escape from an atrocious attempt upon your Sacred Person.

The Danger to which your Majesty has been exposed heightens our sense of the Blessings which we have enjoyed under your Auspicious Reign, increases our Attachment to your Person, and redoubles our Anxiety for your Safety.

That the Almighty Being to whom belong the Issues of Life & Death, Who in the Moment of Danger shielded your Majesty from the Assassins arm, may continue to watch over, & long preserve your Invaluable Life is our sincere, & earnest Prayer.

Signed in our name & by our appointment

JOHN BANKHEAD, Mod't.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY CHARLES MARQUIS CORNWALLIS
LD. LIEUTENANT GENERAL, & GENERAL

Signed in our name & by our Appointment

JOHN BANKHEAD, Mod't.

Statement of Mr Black to the Comittee of Overtures

Mr Black having stated to the Comittee of Overtures that he had waited by desire on Lord Castlereagh, Secretary to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, when he was informed by his Lordship that it was the Intention of his Majesty's Ministers to make a Provision for the Dissenting Clergy, on Terms different from those, on which the present R.D. was paid to them; and that his Lordship had expressed a desire that the Synod would appoint one or more of their number to confer with Government on this Subject—and Mr Black having farther stated to the Commissrs that as an Individual he was honoured with much Conversation, relative to the General Concerns of the Synod & found the Dispositions of Government, in his Judgment, Liberal, Conciliatory, & Satisfactory.

In Consequence of this Information the Synod resolved, that three of their members be appointed Commissioners to communicate with Government on this Subject; and Mr Black, our Moderator, and Dr Little were accordingly chosen & appointed for this purpose.

It was also Overtured & agreed to, that the several Presbs. under the Care of the Synod, be enjoined to furnish, our Commissioners, (immediately after their next stated meetings respectively) with correct Lists of the number of Families & Stipend paid by each Congregation within their Bounds, authenticated by the signature of the Moderator of the different Presbyteries.

A supplication was presented from the Commissrs of the minority of the Congregation of Keady, praying that the Synod would take their unhappy state, & the state of their Constituents into its serious consideration as they could not be profited by Mr. McIlree's ministry and that therefore the Presb. of Tyrone might be permitted & authorised to grant them supplies, until next meeting of Synod.

It was moved & carried upon the Roll being called, That the Prayer of said supplication be granted.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till 7 o'clock.

1st Interloq Thursday Evening, 7 o'clock.

Upon reading the minute of the Interloq of last year relative to the Instructions given to Dr. McDowell, for having the Iron Chest lodged in Finlays Bank opened, &c., a letter from the Doctor was read stating that the wishes of the Synod, had in many Instances been complied with, but from unavoidable circumstances not entirely fulfilled.

The letter was considered satisfactory, and this Interloq entertain a high sense of his attention, and renew their Instructions of last year, till the Objects of them be compleated.

The Committee have examined the Account of the R.D. from March Quarter 1799 till Decr Quarter 1799, inclusive; and also the accounts of the widows fund for one year till 1st June Inst, & find them correct, & satisfactory.

WM. WILSON, Chairman.

Lurgan 25th June 1800.
Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 6 o'clock.

2nd Interloc Friday morning 6 o'clock.

From the consideration of some circumstances relating to the subject & at present undetermined, Mr Bankhead begs leave to postpone the motion of which he gave notice last year, until next meeting of Synod. And in order that his Intention may be more clearly understood, he now gives notice that he will then submit a plan by which the members of this Body, resigning their Pastoral Charges, from Age & Infirmity shall be supported out of the Aggregate Sum of the R.D. and by which the Residue of the R.D. shall be appropriated in equal shares to our officiating ministers not allowing more than one share to each Congregation.

Upon reading the minute respecting the motion of which Mr Cuming gave notice last year, Mr Cuming begged leave to state to this Interlocutor, that although the melancholy Circumstances of the times, did in his opinion fully justify the Adoption of said motion yet as the case which gave principal rise to the notice was new, & unprecedented & as the Consideration of this Melancholy subject, must be painful to the feelings of this Interlocutor, & to his own, & as he trusts an occasion will not again recur calling for that, or any similar Regulation, he will with the consent of this Interlocutor decline making his intended motion.

A letter was received from the Trustees of the widows fund, which Mr Livingston & Mr Craig were appointed to answer.

Ordered, that our Agent do pay to Mr McIlree, a portion of the R.D. commencing from 25 Sept 1799.

It was moved & agreed to, that the members attending every succeeding meeting of this Synod shall each receive 40 shillings in place of 20, the sum now paid.

Messrs Livingston & Craig produced a letter in answer to that of the Trustees, which was read, approved, & ordered to be signed by the Moderator.

The Moderator concluded the Synod with Prayer.

Moved & unanimously agreed to, that a letter shall be written to Lord Castlereagh, Expressive of the high Sense which we entertain of his Lordship's Attention to the Interests of this Body, and of our most anxious wish that his Lordship would exert his Influence to Obtain that any addition, which the wisdom & Liberality of Government might see fit to make to our Bounty may be granted on Terms similar to those on which we at present enjoy their favour. And that a Committee consisting of a Minister & Elder from each Presbytery, be appointed to prepare the same.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till 12 o'clock.

3rd Session Thursday 12 o'clock after Prayer.

At the same time we beg leave to assure your Lordship that it is the anxious Desire of this Body, clearly ascertained in a meeting unusually full & particularly distinguished by the number and respectability of its Elders, that whatever addition the wisdom & Liberality of Government shall be pleased to make to the present Bounty, may be conferred on Terms similar to those on which former Grants have been enjoyed. And from your Lordships Knowledge of the Principles of Presbyterians we rely with the firmest Confidence that your Lordship will use your most active Exertions in promoting our wishes.

Signed by order

JOHN BANKHEAD, Mod'.

These with an elder from each Presbytery & our Moderator & Clerk are to meet at Lurgan, when called by the Mod' on any Emergency, Fifteen to be a Quorum, of whom Twelve at least are to be ministers.

Upon reading the minute of last year, respecting the Mod's of the Presbs. of B.mena, & Belfast & others not in the Habit of attending Synod, writing to the members of their respective Presbs. on this subject it appeared, that with this Injunction the Mod's of Belfast & B.mena had complied, & their conduct was accordingly approved. It not having been observed, however by the Presb. of Strabane, not one of whose members was present, at last meeting, & the Presb. of Dublin not having a single member present at this meeting, It was moved & agreed to, that the members of these Presbyteries be enjoined to attend, or apologize Individually at next meeting for their conduct in this respect.

M' Thomson of T.Patrick Presb. as Mod' of the Comt appointed at last Synod to meet at Magherafelt on the Business of M' Mitchel & the Cong's of Ballymoney, reported that they met, & issued the Affairs on which they were appointed.
Moved, That the next meeting of Synod shall be held at Cookstown on the last Tuesday of June 1802. It was also moved that Lurgan be the place of meeting. The Question was accordingly put "Cookstown or Lurgan?" The Roll being called, it carried "Cookstown." Divine Service to begin at 5 o'clock afternoon.

In settling the above Question a Discussion arose concerning the Presb. of Antrim & their Elders having a right to vote which Discussion terminated in the affirmative.

It was afterwards moved, "That Elders may sit, speak & vote on all Questions of Interloq' whatever." To this motion it was moved as an amendment, "That Elders may sit, speak, & vote on all Questions, those relating to the widows fund excepted."

The farther Discussion of this Business was deferred till to-morrow immediately after Breakfast.

Upon reading the minute of last year respecting the Cong* of Keady paying all accounts due to the Probationers of Tyrone Presbytery, it appeared, that the Cong* had not paid the said accounts in full. After some Investigation into the Particulars of this Business the Synod ordered that the Cong* of Keady do immediately pay into the Hands of Mr Boylan the sum of £2 8s 9d, as yet remaining due to the Probationers of Tyrone Presbytery.

Upon reading the Overture, of last year, ordering Returns to be made by every Presbytery, of the number of Families & Stipend of each Cong* within their Respective bounds, It was moved & agreed to, that by that Overture this Synod is not to be understood as having expressed any sentiment in favour of Classes.

It appearing that the Order of Synod of last year, respecting the settlement of Accounts, between M' M'Thee & the Cong* of Vinecash, had not been Obeyed, it was moved & agreed to, that Mess* Tho* Cuming, John Sherrard & John Hazlet be appointed a Comt* to meet at Portadown, on the last Thursday of July Inst. who are impowered to settle all accounts, in Question, and that their Decision shall be final.

On reading the minute of the pro rs natá meeting of the Synod on 8th Oct' last which declares, "that only one Elder from any Cong* shall be allowed to vote at that meeting." It was moved & seconded, "That Collegiate Charges may send an Elder with each Minister to the Judicatures of this Church." The Question was put "May they send or Not?" The Roll being called it carried "they may send," by a large majority.

The late Mod* reported, that He, & Dr Birch waited on Lord Castlereagh according to appointment & delivered to his Lordship the Synods letter. That his Lordship received them with much Politeness; said he would always be happy to attend to the Interests of the Presbyterian Body; & that with respect to the Objects comprehended in the Synods letter, his Majesty's Ministers had determined on two points; the one that they would not make any farther Provision for Presbyterian Ministers on the present plan; and that when they did enter on that measure, unequal Distribution would make a part of the plan.

The late Mod' also produced a letter from Lord Castlereagh which was read & is as follows:—

Ipswich June 13.

Sir,

The Change which has taken place in his Majesty's Councils will, I trust, explain to you, why I have felt myself precluded from making to you as Moderator of the Synod, the Communications which I promised, at our last Interview and which nothing but the event above alluded to, could have delayed.

I have in Obedience to Lord Cornwallis's commands fully explained to his Majestys Ministers, of both countries, what had already passed on this Subject; and in doing so I have used my best Endeavours to impress their minds in the strongest manner as well with the general Expediency of the measure, as with the Assurances which the Synod had received from their Predecessors relative to its speedy accomplishment.

I earnestly & Anxiously hope, that the Decision of his Majestys Confidential Servants, will ultimately accord with the purpose which Lord Cornwallis's Government had so much at Heart, and which he flattered himself, (as a part of a General System) would have proved of equal Advantage to the State & to the Dissenters, by ameliorating the Circumstances and Situation of their Clergy.

I beg Sir through you to assure the Synod, that I shall feel the same desire in my Individual Capacity to promote the true Interests of their Body, which I very sincerely entertained, when I had the Honor of being employed in his Majesty's Service, and that they may always very freely command my best exertions.

I have the Honor to remain Sir with much Respect

Your faithful & obedient Servt

CASTLEREAGH.

Resolved unanimously, that a letter of thanks be written to Lord Castlereagh, expressive of our Gratitude to his Lordship for his unremitting attention to our Interests, and that D' Black, D' Little, & Messrs John Bankhead, John Thomson & Tho' Cuming do prepare the same.

It was also unanimously Resolved, that the Thanks of this Synod be returned to the Right Hon'ble the Att' General for his favourable Intentions & kind Interference respecting the Interests of this Body, in a letter signed by the Moderator, and that D' Black & Messrs Barber, Birch, Acheson, & Hugh Delap do prepare the same.
The several Committees are ordered to meet to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

3rd Session Thursday Morning 10 o'clock, after Prayer.

The amended motion referred to the consideration of this forenoon, viz. "That Elders may sit, speak, & vote on all Questions, those relating to the widows fund excepted," having undergone a long Discussion, it was at last moved, that the previous Question be put upon the motion. The Roll being called, the previous Question was negatived. The Roll was then called upon the amended motion, which was carried in the Affirmative.

Against this Decision the following members protested promising to give their Reasons in due time, viz. John Thomson, Tho Horn Cuming, Sinclaire Kelburn, Tho McKay, & others.

A supplication was presented from that part of the Cong of Keady heretofore known under the Denomination of the minority, praying to be erected into a separate Cong. After considerable Deliberation, it was moved, & unanimously agreed to, that inasmuch, as a standing law of the Synod prohibits any Cong to be erected at the meeting at which it is first proposed, the Presb. of Tyrone be ordered to grant them supplies as they may see fit, till next meeting of Synod.

A supplication was presented from a part of the Cong of Maghera, praying that the Synod would either put a stop to the ordination of the Rev Chn Kennedy in that Cong or should this supplication not be complied with, to erect suppliants into a separate Congregation.

It was moved & unanimously agreed to, that the whole of this Business be dismissed.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

4th Session Friday Morning 7 o'clock, after Prayer.

It was moved and unanimously agreed to, that a Comt be annually appointed to draw up an Address to the People under our Pastoral Care recommending & enforcing the Practice, of Piety & Morality; and that Messrs Birch, Millar, Denham, Dr Little, & Tho Henry, be the Comt appointed for this year.

The protesting Brethren now gave in their Reasons of Protest which were read & are as follow:—

We protest against the Admission of Elders to vote on this Question Because we deem it Incompatible with every Idea of Propriety, that men should be Judges in their own cause, & assume a Privilege, which they have never enjoyed; Such Procedure is contrary to the practice of every publick Body; whether Ecclesiastical or Civil; A dangerous Innovation Inconsistent with the Government of our Church; & tending to establish a precedent, which may be most destructive in its Consequences.

We Protest against the Decision of the Question which has now taken place.

1. Because the ministers of this Synod & of the Presbytery of Antrim have no absolute Right in themselves, but enjoy the Privilege of directing the Application of the Royal Bounty, from the Courtesy & Indulgence of Government only, and therefore cannot, without the greatest impropriety permit the Interference of another class of men, who were never intended by the Donors to have any voice or Authority in its management, and Application.

2. Because the ministers of the Gen. Synod & Presb. of Antrim are competent to manage their pecuniary concerns, in which Elders have never hitherto shown any Desire to Intermeddle; & which we are persuaded, the greater part of them, have no inclination to engage in, and which may be abused to the purposes of a party spirit, to serve the Interests of Individuals, Inconsistent with the General Interest.

3. Because we deem it Inconsistent with the office of Elders who attend our Judicatories as church officers, to regulate, whatever relates to the Discipline, worship, & Government of the Christian Church, but not to assume, a power over the Property of others, whether ministers or Laymen.

4. Because the Introduction of such a measure at the present Juncture creating an unnecessary change in the Constitution of this Assembly, is peculiarly unwise, and may materially affect the Interest, Prosperity & Tranquillity of the Presbyterian Body.

5. Because the measure so far as it proposes to separate the management of his Majesty's Bounty, & of the widows fund is Impracticable; And if Elders interfere in the Application of the former, out of which the subscriptions of ministers to the latter are defrayed, the support of the fund, must depend upon the controul of men, who are acknowledged on all sides to have no concern in its Interests; and the Institution must be exposed to the hazard of being injured; or it may be, in time wrested from its original Purpose.

6. Because the Question has, in our Opinion, been urged with unbecoming haste, in opposition to our earnest Desire, that it might be deferred until next meeting of Synod, when the several Congr...
Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

5th Session Friday, 10 o'clock, after Prayer.

It was moved & unanimously agreed to, That the Resolution suspending the payment of the R.D. to Mr Smyth be rescinded.

Moved & unanimously agreed to that the following Address be transmitted to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY PHILIP EARL HARDWICKE LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, & GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

May it please your Excellency

We his Majestys Dutiful & Loyal Subjects the Presbyterian Ministers & Elders of the Gen. Synod of Ulster, embrace with pleasure this Opportunity, which our stated Annual meeting affords, us to express to your Excellency, the sense which we entertain of his Majesty's Goodness, in appointing to the Government of this country a Nobleman of your Excellency's high Character & the Representative of a family long distinguished for wisdom & virtue.

Your Excellency's Attachment to the best Interests of this country has been evinced at a Period when everything Dear & valuable to its Inhabitants was in Danger; & we are confident that the same Regard to its Interests, will continue to adorn your present exalted station & ensure the Blessings of Protection, Prosperity, & Peace to this Portion of the United Empire.

We beg leave to renew to your Excellency our Declarations of Loyalty & Attachment to the Person & Government of our beloved Sovereign, for the compleat & Happy Re-establishment of whose Health we are sincerely Grateful to Divine Providence, and we humbly beg that your Excellency may have the Goodness to represent these our Dutiful & Loyal Sentiments to the Father of his People.

Signed in our name & by our Appointment

JOSEPH HAY, Mod't.

Moved & agreed to, that the Moderator transmit the above Address to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant & inform him that if his Excellency shall have any Communications to make to the Synod, He may have the Goodness to make them through him as Moderator, and that he will lay them before this Body.

Resolved that the following letter be transmitted to Lord Castlereagh, in answer to his Lordships letter to our late Moderator.

Lurgan July 1st 1801.

My Lord,

Your letter to our late Moderator of the 13th ult. was laid before us at our present meeting.

While we regret that the late change in his Majesty's Councils hath deprived us of your Lordships official exertions, & delayed a measure which you have cherished with steady zeal, we feel ourselves impressed with the most sincere sentiments of Gratitude to your Lordship for your affectionate expressions of Kindness & your unremitting attention, while you continued in office, to our real Interests.

Whatever may ultimately be the success of a measure so conducive to the Interests of the Presbyterians of Ireland, we are proud that this measure originated under the Administration of the Marquis Cornwallis, a Nobleman whose Character we Reverence & love, & whose virtues shall long remain engraven upon our memories.

To him & to your Lordship we are sincerely Grateful, for the pains which you have taken in explaining to his Majesty's Ministers, what has already passed on the subject of the Augmentation of the Royal Bounty, and for recommending the measure to their consideration & Adoption; a Recommendation which we are confident must have its due weight, and of which we already feel the favourable Effects.

For your Lordship's Assurances of Friendship in your Individual Capacity, we beg you to accept our warmest thanks. We wish to open a Communication (through our Moderator the Revd Joseph Hay near Newry) with the present Administration of this country; and hope through your Lordships Exertions co-operating with those of other friends, whether of the late or present Administration, that a measure so Important to the Comfort & Respectability of the Presbyterian Clergy as well as to the People under their care, will ere long be brought to a favourable Issue.

At the same time we beg leave to remind your Lordship of the sentiments which we expressed to you in our letter of the 8th of October last, with respect to an unequal Distribution of the projected Augmentation; and with utmost Deference to your Lordships Superior Judgment, we take the liberty of assuring you, that we continue in the same opinion on that subject.

Signed in our name & by our appointment

JOSEPH HAY, Mod'.
The following letter to the Right Honble the Att'y General was read, approved, and ordered to be transmitted by the Mod'.

Sir,

The Synod of Ulster has this day laid before them your very kind letter to Mr Delap, & your no less obliging Communications to Dr Black, for which they return you their Hearty & Sincere thanks.

They are extremely obliged by your communicating to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the Objects which Lord Castlereagh had in view, relative to the Augmentation of the Royal Bounty; and the expectations which the Synod had reason to form from his Lordships Intentions.

The Synod is happy to learn that his Excellency will take into his consideration, the Assurances which were held out to the Synod by the late Administration, and Gratefully receive your friendly Communications to them, that his Excellency is ready & Desirous, to forward the views & wishes of the Synod.

The Synod is Happy to find, they have so Willing & Powerful an Advocate with Government, and request you may continue your good offices, in an affair, which has for its object the Interests & Welfare of Presbyterians in general & of the Kingdom at large.

Signed in our name & by our Appointment

Lurgan 1 July 1801.

JOS. HAY, Mod'.

Mr Hanna gave notice, that he intends on the next meeting of this Synod to move, That no member of Synod be its Agent.

It was moved & seconded, that the yearly Sallery to be paid to our Agent, for conducting our money Business, shall be the sum of one hundred pounds, & that the mode of payment shall be by Bank Post Bills Quarterly, to each Individual. On this motion the previous Question was put & it carried, "Not."

An Address to the People under the care of the Synod was read & Messrs John Bankhead, John Thomson, Robert Acheson, & Saml Hanna, were appointed a Comt to take care of the printing & Distribution. The number of copies to be printed, fifteen hundred; & the expense to be paid by the Agent.

It was moved & unanimously agreed to, that a Day of Humiliation be observed in all the Congregations under the care of the Synod, on the last Wednesday of July Inst., and if that day be inconvenient to any Congregation that it be held on the day before or after.

It was moved & unanimously agreed to, That as the peculiar Circumstances of Dr Dickson do not seem to militate against any Rule of this Synod; on his paying 40 shillings a year to our Agent & all arrears, he shall be continued a Contributor to the widows fund.

Dublin Castle 23 June 1802.

Sir,

It has been represented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, That at the last meeting of the Synod of Ulster a Question was brought forward as to the Mode in which the fund called the Regium Donum should be administered, and that attempts have been made at that meeting to controul the form of proceeding, which has been so long pursued and which his Majesty has placed under the Direction of the Lord Lieutenant.

His Excellency being of opinion that such attempts would tend to Introduce Discussions of matters not properly before the Synod; and that a departure from the present mode would be highly Inexpedient; I am directed to signify to you his Excellency's Pleasure that the mode hitherto pursued, be strictly adhered to, and that the Administration of the fund remain Exclusively under the Direction of the Ministers as has heretofore been the uniform practice.

I have the Honor to be Sir, your most obedient humble servant,

A. MARSDEN.

Dublin Castle 26 June 1802.

Sir,

I am commanded by the Lord Lieutenant to convey to you, for the Information of the Presbyterian Ministers of Ulster, the substance of a letter which has this day been received from Lord Pelham & which his Excellency has great pleasure in communicating.

Lord Pelham informs his Excellency that his Majestys Confidential servants have come to a Determination to recommend to the King to encrease the Regium Donum in the next year; and a future communication will be made as to the Amount, and the Regulations which it may be thought Adviseable to adopt.

I have the Honor to be Sir, your most Obedient humble Servant,

A. MARSDEN.

And we beg leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall continue to Inculcate on the People under our Care, those Principles of Religion, Order & good morals, which are alike conducive to their Eternal Happiness, & to the Tranquillity of Society. Nor shall we cease to offer up our Prayers to Almighty God for the Peace & Welfare of the Empire; And that your Majestys Reign over it may be long & Prosperous.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY PHILIP EARL HARDWICKE LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

May it please your Excellency,

We his Majesty’s Dutiful & Loyal Subjects, the Ministers & Elders of the Synod of Ulster, beg leave to approach your Excellency with the most lively sentiments of Respect, Earnestly requesting that your Excellency may transmit our Address to our most Gracious Sovereign, assuring his Majesty of our unfeigned Loyalty & Attachment to his Person & Government.

We are happy in this opportunity of expressing the high Veneration and Esteem which we entertain for your Excellencies exalted Character. We admire those virtues which so eminently adorn it, and we are highly Grateful for your Excellencies Attachment to the true Interests of this part of his Majestys United Kingdom, & for the Advantages which we enjoy under your Excellencies Administration.

Signed in our name, & by our order, at Cookstown, this 3d day of July 1802.

NATH. SHAW, Moderator.
TO HIS EXCELLENCY PHILIP EARL HARDWICKE LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, & GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

May it please your Excellency

We his Majesty's Loyal & Dutiful Subjects, the Ministers & Elders of the Synod of Ulster assembled at our Annual Meeting at Cookstown on 29th June 1802, deeply impressed with a sense of your attachment to the Interests of the Presbyterian Body, beg leave most Respectfully to acknowledge the Honor done us by your Excellency's Communication through Dr. McDowel, respecting a Resolution of last Synod.

We feel the deepest Concern that any Question brought forward at that meeting, should have given cause to your Excellency to consider us, as attempting to Control the usual Mode of administering the fund called the Regium Donum, which has been most wisely placed under the Discretion of your Excellency & your Predecessors in the Government of this part of the United Kingdom, and which the ministers of this Body enjoy, by the Beneficence of our most Gracious Sovereign.

Permit us to assure your Excellency that we have not the most distant Idea of changing the mode hitherto pursued in the Administration of any fund, which the goodness of Government, has from time to time been pleased to grant for the support of the ministers of this Body. We hope what the Synod has this year done, will be satisfactory to your Excellency in this Respect. Firmly attached as we are to the Excellent Constitution of this Realm, under which we certainly feel that we enjoy the most distinguished Blessings, we trust that your Excellency will have the goodness to believe that we will carefully guard against all Innovations, that might tend to Infringe on the Rights of Government, or Impede its kind Intentions towards us.

We acknowledge with Lively Gratitude your Excellency's kind & Condescending Communication Informing us "That his Majesty's "Confidential Servants have come to a Determination to recommend "to the King to encrease the Regium Donum in the next year; and "that a future Communication will be made as to the Amount, and the "Regulations which it may be thought Adviseable to adopt."

Your Excellency will easily conceive the Grateful Emotions which this Gracious Communication excited in our Breasts; and confiding in your Excellency's friendly Disposition and Influence we look forward with pleasing Expectation to the accomplishment of this Benevolent Intention.

Signed in our name, & by our Order, at Cookstown, this 3rd day of July 1802.

NATH. SHAW, Moderator.
The Answer of the Lord Lieutenant

To the foregoing Addresses his Excellency was pleased to return the following Gracious Answer:

I shall have great satisfaction in transmitting to his Majesty your Dutiful, & Loyal Address, and am convinced that the sentiments which you have expressed, of Loyalty, & Attachment to the Person & Government of our most Gracious Sovereign, as well as your Congratulations, on the success of his Majesty's Endeavours to restore to his Dominions the Blessings of Peace, will afford the highest Gratification to his Majesty's mind.

I beg leave to return you, my Grateful Acknowledgments, for the very flattering Expressions of your Esteem, and to assure you, that I am the more sensible of the value of your good Opinion, as I am fully persuaded of the Zeal & Sincerity, with which you will continue to Inculcate & to Confirm both by your Influence & Example, the Essential Principles of Religion, Order, & good Morals.

In the situation in which I have the Honor to be placed, my utmost Ambition is to deserve the Approbation of those who best understand the true Interests of their Country, by a Just & Impartial administration of his Majestys Government, and an unremitting Attention to whatever is likely to ensure the Tranquility & promote the Prosperity of Ireland.

HARDWICKE.

Mr James Bankhead gave notice that he would at next meeting of the Synod bring forward a motion for amending, the Law respecting the admission of men, not members of the Synod to officiate in our Congregations.

A Letter from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, addressed to the Ministers of the Synod through the Moderator, was read, communicating the Plan for Augmentation & Distribution of his Majestys Bounty, which his Majestys Ministers have formed.

The Letter & Plan are as follow:—

Dublin Castle, 26 June, 1803.

Sir,

In pursuance of the Communication made to the Ministers of the Synod of Ulster at their last meeting of the Disposition entertained by his Majestys Ministers to advise his Majesty to augment the Royal Bounty, hitherto given by his Majesty & his Predecessors to the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in Ireland, under such Regulations, as might appear to them most adviseable, I have the Honor of Inclosing, by the Lord Lieutenants Command, the proposed system of Distribution & Regulation and am to request that you will lay it before the Ministers of the Synod, and to acquaint them, that in the Event of their accepting of the same the Kings Ministers will be disposed, humbly to move his Majesty to carry the measure, into immediate Execution.

This system studiously avoids Interfering with the Discipline of the Presbyterian Church. It is wholly confined to the Administration of the fund itself, and rests upon two simple & obviously wise Principles of Policy; the one calculated in aid of the vigilance of their own Body, to give Additional Protection against the Disgrace & Evil that would attend the appointment of a Disloyal Minister; the other to hold out to Individuals the means of advancing themselves by the superior endowments of Piety & Learning. The latter effect cannot fail to be produced by a proper Gradation of Emolument, and the former will be in a great Degree secured by the proposed Regulations, without affecting the Usage of choosing & retaining ministers who may possess their Confidence, which has been invariably exercised by the respective Congregations.

I have the Honor to be Sir your most obedient humble Servt

A. MARSDEN.

The Revd the Moderator of the Synod of Ulster.

THE PLAN.

The 186 Congregations, of which the Protestant Dissenters in the North of Ireland, forming the Synod of Ulster are composed, to be divided into three Classes, regulated according to the number of their respective Congregations, & the stipend allowed to their ministers.
In the first class each minister to receive £100 £ an. In the second class each minister to receive £75 £ an. In the third class each minister to receive £50 £ annum.

The Particular Congregations of which each Class is respectively composed, to be hereafter named.

In the amount of the above sum, the Royal Bounty, now received by the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, is of course included.

The Bounty to be payable to each minister by the Agent appointed by Government, for the Distribution of his Majesty’s Bounty upon a Warrant specifying the names of the several ministers, to whom the same is respectively payable.

The names of all Congregations to be included as of course in the Original Warrant: and the Bounty once granted in no case to be withdrawn from any minister during his continuance in the Charge of that particular Congregation, so long as it shall please his Majesty to continue the Bounty to the Body at large.

Upon any Congregation becoming vacant, the Moderator of the Synod shall certify the same to the office of the Chief Secretary; and upon the appointment of a minister to the Congregation, the minister so appointed shall transmit his memorial certified by the Moderator to the Lord Lieutenant desiring that a warrant may Issue granting to the memoralist the usual Bounty paid to the minister of the said Congregation. In case his Excellency shall see no reason to the contrary, a warrant in the usual form to Issue, entitling the minister named therein, to the Bounty, so long as he shall continue in that Congregation.

The same proceeding to take place upon the removal of a minister from one Congregation to another, as upon his first appointment.

The memorial to be accompanied by a Certificate signed by Two Magistrates, stating that the Memorialist has taken, & subscribed before them the oath of Allegiance.

Moved by Dr Black that an humble Address be presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to thank him for his kind Communication of the Plan, on which his Majesty’s Ministers were disposed to augment the Royal Bounty and to express our hearty & grateful Acceptance of the same.

On this motion the previous Question was moved & argued at considerable length. At last the Roll being called on the Question “Put” or “Not?” It carried “Put.”

The Original motion being then put, it carried in the Affirmative.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at half-past 6 o’clock.

8th Session Saturday morning half-past six o’clock, after prayer.

On reading the minute of yesterday, respecting the Address to the Lord Lieutenant, It was moved, That the Consideration of that Business be adjourned till Tuesday se'nnight. After some Discussion the Question was put "Adjourn, or Not?" The Roll being called it passed in the Negative.

Against this Decision, the Rev'd Henry Henry entered a Protest for the following Reasons:—

1. Because I conceive our Heavenly Master has forbidden Classification in his Church, and the Example of the only Synod recorded in the New Testament is in opposition to it.

2. Because the Synod refused to submit the Government Plan of Classification with its Conditions to the Consideration of its respective Cong's.

3. Because Classified Churches are & have been the most venal of all others, generally surrounded with external Pomp & Luxury.

4. Because the Synod is Classified by a Power without itself viz. the Magistracy of the Country, who as such are not Church Governors, & therefore have no right to Classify this Synod.

5. Because the Conditions of the above Plan will at least Indirectly Intrench on the Privileges of Presbyterians relating to the Election & Emoluments of their Clergy.

Henry Henry.

Agreeably to Dr. Blacks motion, an Address to the Lord Lieutenant was now produced, read, & unanimously agreed to, and our Moderator, Dr. McDowell, Dr. Black, Mr. Shaw, & Adam Hunter, Esq' an Elder, were appointed Commissioners to present the same to his Excellency.

It is as follows:—

TO HIS EXCELLENCY PHILIP EARL HARDWICKE, LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, & GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

May it please your Excellency,

We the members of the Gen. Synod of Ulster beg leave to express our Warm & Grateful acknowledgements for your Excellency's kind Communication of the Intention of his Majesty's confidential Ministers, to advise his Majesty to augment the Provision for the Support of the Ministers of this Synod, according to a Plan which your Excellency has been so good as to submit to our Consideration.

We Entreat your Excellency to believe, That we are highly Sensible of the Generous, & Liberal Terms, on which his Majesty's Bounty is proposed to be extended; And that we shall accept the offered Kindness with a Gratitude proportioned to the value of the Gift.

Signed in our name & by our order at Cookstown.

1st July 1803. THOS. HENRY, Mod'.

After a long Discussion it was moved & unanimously agreed to, that the farther consideration of this subject be adjourned till next year.

Moved, That it is the sense of this Synod that its members are in duty bound to marry their Hearers without any pecuniary Charge whatsoever. On this Motion the previous question was put & carried.

Mr. Hanna gave notice, that at next meeting of Synod, he will bring forward, a motion for prosecuting according to Law, for celebrating Marriages, those persons who once were members of this Body but have been degraded.

Agreeably to the notice of last year Mr. James Bankhead brought forward the following motion:

Whereas it appears, that our Laws respecting the Admission of men, not members of this Body, or Licentiates under its Care to officiate for us, are too generally expressed to be of practical use, It is now enacted that no man, not a member of this Body, or a Licentiate under its care (The Presbytery of Antrim & Southern Association excepted) shall be permitted to officiate for us in our Congregations, until he shall first submit, his credentials to the Presbytery in whose bounds he wishes to preach & until he shall be approved of by the Presbytery.— And any Minister of this Body, violating this Law, shall for the first Offence be publicly rebuked by his Presbytery before his Congregation; and for the second, be suspended ab officio, sine die.

Dr. Black, by order of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, stated for the Information of the ministers of the Synod, that it was his Excellency's direction— "That when any Person shall be appointed as Assistant to the minister of any Congregation with the view that such Assistant shall succeed to said Congregation on the demise of the said minister, the same Communication shall be made to his Excellency as is directed in the Appointment of a minister to a vacant Congregation; and when his Excellency shall have approved of the Appointment of such Assistant, no Communication of his afterwards succeeding to the Congregation shall be deemed necessary."

III. ADDRESS TO THE KING.

May it please your Majesty

We your Majestys most Dutiful & Loyal Subjects the Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster assembled at our annual Meeting, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our humble & Grateful acknowledgments for the liberal addition which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to make to the Royal Fund for maintaining a Christian Ministry among us.

Our forefathers were originally settled in this Kingdom, by the Invitation, & under the Protection of one of your Majesty's Predecessors; and they & their Posterity have enjoyed in Succeeding Reigns very flattering Proofs of Royal favour. But it has been reserved for your Majesty to have conferred on the Presbyterians of Ireland more efficient marks of Protection & Regard, than they had experienced, since the Period of their first Settlement. We are now called for the third time to the pleasing Duty of returning to your Majesty our warm & heartfelt Thanks.

By your Majesty's Bounty, in Addition to the contributions of the People connected with us, a Provision is now made, which we trust will be found adequate to the encouragement & moderate support, of a well educated & faithful ministry in our Communion. And while our Children's Children shall enjoy the fruits of your Majesty's Liberality, in the Provision thus made, for their Moral & Religious Instruction, their Blessings will Embalm the Memory of the Prince, to whom under Providence they owe it.

To the Arduous, but Dignified Contest in which your Majesty is at present engaged, we look with earnest but not desponding eyes: Independently of the Zeal, Spirit & Loyalty of your Majestys Subjects, (which at no period of our History were ever greater) we believe that there is a God who presides over the Affairs of men, and that tho' for wise Reasons, He may permit the wicked to proceed to certain lengths in their unrighteous Career, yet when he shall arise in Judgment, "the wrath of man shall be made to praise him, & the remainder of wrath shall he restrain."

In your Majesty's Recovery from a late Indisposition we recognise with gratitude the Kindness of God, to this United Empire: We Bless him for his Goodness, and we Join our earnest Prayers to those of all your Majestys Loyal Subjects, that He may grant to your Majesty a long & Prosperous Reign, give you the Victory over all your Enemies & finally an Enterance into his Everlasting Kingdom.

Signed in our name, & by our Order at Cookstown, this 28 day of June 1804.

JAMES HORNER, Moderator.
IV. ADDRESS TO THE LORD LIEUTENANT.

May it please your Excellency,

We his Majesty's most Dutiful & Loyal Subjects the Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, request that your Excellency may be pleased to transmit to our Gracious Sovereign, the humble & dutiful Address, which we herewith present to your Excellency.

We have great satisfaction in again adding our acknowledgments of your Excellency's enlightened Just & Impartial Administration to those of a Grateful People: And we feel particular pleasure in reflecting that the Important Measure of providing a decent & competent Support for the the Teachers of Religion among the Presbyterians of Ireland, has been finally accomplished during your Excellency's Government.

We are well informed of your Excellency's kind & favourable Representations on our behalf & we are heartily Grateful for the beneficial Effects which they have produced. These we trust will be sensibly felt & acknowledged, & that not only the present Generation of Irish Presbyterians, but their most remote Posterity will be taught to associate the revered name of Hardwick with those of their most distinguished Benefactors.

Signed in our name, & by our Order at Cookstown 28 June 1804,

JAMES HORNER, Moderator.

V. ADDRESS TO LORD CASTLEREAGH.

My Lord,

We the Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, having discharged an Incumbent and most agreeable Duty in tendering to our Sovereign our grateful thanks for the late Extension of his Royal Bounty, would consider ourselves deficient in Gratitude, if we omitted to express to your Lordship, the strong & affectionate feelings which your Lordships zealous & persevering friendship has impressed upon our minds.

We are happy to reflect that this Important Measure, so beneficial in its publick & private Consequences, originated with an Administration of which your Lordship formed an Efficient part; And we are gratefully sensible that you never ceased to employ your powerful Influence, derived from great Talents, & Eminent Services, until it was brought to a happy Issue.

We beg permission therefore to enter on our Records, & by so doing to transmit to Posterity, this Testimonial of our Gratitude to a Nobleman, whom we are proud to call our Hereditary Friend. We earnestly pray, that your Lordships valuable life may be prolonged until you see the fruits of your labours in the increased Learning, Piety, & usefulness of that Portion of his Majesty's Subjects to which your Lordship has extended your Patronage & Support.

Signed in our name, & by our Order at Cookstown 28 June 1804, competent at present to give the Cong™ any aid in this Business, resolved to dismiss the Application.

A Memorial was presented from the Cong™ of Donegal-Street, Belfast, complaining of being aggrieved in being put in the Second Class, in the late arrangement of Royal Bounty; & praying the Interference of this Body, so that memorialists may be placed in the situation they are entitled to by the spirit of the Classification.

These Gentlemen being heard at considerable length in Support of their supplication; and Mr Ramsay & other members of the Presbytery in Answer; a motion was made, that the Appeal should be sustained, & that the Conduct of the Presbytery should be disapproved of; which was agreed to. After hearing the Parties for & against the Appeal & Supplication, it was moved & agreed to, that the Appeal & Supplication be dismissed.

A Memorial from the widow of the late Mr Whiteside of Stonebridge, praying the Synod to adopt such measures, as will cause an Arrear of Stipend due to her late husband to be paid, being read, it was resolved; that a Committee consisting of the following members, viz. Mr Tho™ Henry gave notice that he will at next meeting of Synod bring forward a plan for the relief of Congregations, which are excluded from a share of Royal Bounty, according to the present Establishment.
A Memorial from Josias C. Gamble, praying to be restored to the Pastoral Charge of the Cong of Enniskillen, till such time as another shall be ordained in his stead, being submitted to the consideration of the Synod, it was moved that the Prayer of the memorial be refused. Upon the call of the Roll it was carried in the affirmative.

The following Resolution & Regulations, respecting the Widows Fund, were submitted to the Consideration of the Contributers by Dr Black & after mature Deliberation agreed to.
I. That from the great Increase of the Widows and Families on the fund, during the last two years, the Annuity to each must have necessarily been diminished, but from the Seasonable Assistance, derived from the late Liberal Arrangement of his Majesty's Bounty.

II. That in consequence of this Aid the Annuity of each widow & family be raised to twenty pounds & so continue for the term of seven years, from the first day of January next, inclusive.

III. V. That on any ministers being removed from a Cong° in a lower to one in a higher Class; he shall for the first year after such Removal pay into the fund the difference between the Royal Bounty allotted to the Cong° to which he shall be so removed, & the one in which he had lately been placed.

VI. That such Assistant ministers, not in the Receipt of R.D. as now are, or may become Contributers to the Fund shall pay an Annual Subscription of two pounds, until such time as their title to the R D. shall commence; and if any of such assistant ministers shall die, before he becomes entitled to the Receipt of one years Bounty, a sum equal thereto shall be deducted from the first Payments to which his widow or family (if he should leave such) shall be entitled.

VII. That such Contributers to the fund as have not Pastoral Charges in the bounds of the Synod, or Presbytery of Antrim, or who are not in the Receipt of R.D. do pay during the above Period, an additional subscription of three pounds per Annum.

VIII. That during the above Period, these additional subscriptions together with such surplus as may remain after paying the Annuities as aforesaid, shall annually be put to Interest, either on Publick or Private Securities as the Constituents, with the Concurrence of the Trustees, shall direct.

IX. That from & after the first day of January, which shall be in the year 1812, the Annuitants on the fund shall receive in equal shares the largest Dividend of its annual Produce, arising from Interest, Subscriptions, premiums, on marriages or surplus of R.D. which a Just Regard to the Stability of the Institution will warrant the Constituents, for the time being, to direct.

X. That in future the Premium payable by a Contributor on a Quarter day following their own.

XIII. That in future any minister who shall resign his Pastoral Charge, in order to engage in a Secular Profession or Employment, shall not be permitted to continue a Contributor to the Fund, or his widow or family to derive any Benefit or Annuity from it inasmuch as the Institution in its original Establishment, in the publick Collections, & private Donations, and Bequests made in aid of its Fund, as well as the late Royal Appropriation of the Surplus of his Majesty's Bounty was intended for the exclusive Advantage of ministers as such,
& not for those who should voluntarily lay down the ministerial Character.

Moved & agreed to, that a Committee consisting of a minister from each Presbytery, do withdraw and consult together on what may appear to be a proper sum as an annual sallery to the Agent of the widows Fund.

Moved & agreed to, that M'r Horner be admitted a Contributor to M'r Horner the widows Fund, on the same Terms, on which M'r Rentoul was admitted.

The Committee reported, that it was their opinion that £40 is a proper sum to be given to the Agent as his Annual Sallery.

The Interloq' unanimously concurred in opinion with its Committee & resolved accordingly:—That the Sallery of the Agent to the Fund be from henceforth fixed at £40 per Annum.

Moved & unanimously agreed to, that the thanks of this Interloq' be returned to D' Black for his Diligence, Attention, and Zeal in executing the office of Agent to the widows Fund. And Thanks from the Chair were accordingly given to D' Black.

name of the Interloquitur, & He signified his acquiescence.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant directs that the said Agent shall pay to the Ministers of the above-mentioned Congregations respectively, the annual sums of one hundred pounds, seventy-five pounds, & fifty pounds, according to the Class to which each Minister belongs, and that said payment shall be made half-yearly without any deduction whatever, the mode of payment to be the same hitherto used in distributing his Majesty's Royal Bounty to the Ministers of the Synod of Ulster. The present Ministers of the above-named Congregations, shall be entitled to receive the said sums according to the above arrangement until the death or removal of each respectively. And after such death or removal, the same sums shall be paid in like manner to their Successors—provided always that such successor shall have been first certified to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant & approved of by him, in pursuance of the plan communicated by his Excellency to the Ministers of the Synod of Ulster on the 26th June last.

His Excellency is however pleased to direct that, inasmuch as the Rev. Tho. Reid, James Malcom, James Knox, Arthur Kyle, Joseph Douglas, & Robert Scott, have hitherto, by direction of the Synod received, the annual dividend of the Royal Bounty, though, through age or infirmity incapacitated for the duties of their Ministry, the said Agent shall still continue to pay to each of the aforesaid superannuated Ministers, during his natural life the sum of thirty-two pounds per Annum, and shall deduct the same from the yearly quota of such Minister as is now, or may be hereafter settled in the Congregation wherein said aged or infirm Minister last officiated.
His Excellency further directs, that from the surplus which shall remain in the said Agent's hands each year, after paying their respective salaries to all such Ministers, as shall according to the above directions, be entitled to the same, said Agent shall every year deduct, as his own salary, the sum of four hundred pounds sterling, together with whatever sum he shall have expended during the year for stamps and postage, of Letters. He shall next pay out of said surplus, the annual sum of fifty pounds sterling, to the Clerk of the General Synod of Ulster, And also the annual sum of thirty two pounds sterling to the Rev. Robert Carlisle, formerly Minister of Ballinderry, but now incapacitated by infirmity of mind, during said Carlisle's natural life; and whatever farther surplus shall still remain, his Excellency directs, that the same shall annually be paid without farther deduction, into the Fund instituted for the benefit of the Widows and Orphans of the Presbyterian Ministers of the Synod, it being his Excellency's desire, that whatever sum of Money may remain unapplied from temporary vacancies, in any of the above Congregations, after fulfilling all purposes already mentioned, the said fund should have the benefit of the same.

Given at his Majesty's Castle of Dublin the 20th day of January 1804.

LORD LIEUTENANT'S ANSWER.

I will immediately transmit to his Majesty the loyal and dutiful address of the General Synod of Ulster, and am confident that his Majesty will receive with great satisfaction the assurances which it contains of attachment to his Royal Person, as well as the sentiments which you express, with equal piety, firmness, and Patriotism, on the important contest in which we are engaged.

I am highly flattered by the favourable opinion, which you are pleased to entertain of my publick conduct in the Administration of his Majesty's Government; and am particularly gratified in reflecting that I have been in any degree instrumental in promoting a measure which you consider important to the support of the Teachers of Religion amongst the Presbyterians of Ireland.

HARDWICKE.

ANSWER TO THE ADDRESS TO THE KING.

Dublin Castle 24th July 1804.

Sir,

The Address to the King from the Ministers and Elders of the General Synod of Ulster having been transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant to be laid before his Majesty, I have the honor to acquaint you, that his Excellency has received a letter from Lord Hawkesbury, one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, signifying that the said Address had been laid before his Majesty, and that his Majesty was pleased to receive the same in the most gracious manner.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your most obedient humble servant

Rev. James Horner,
Moderator of the Synod of Ulster.

A. MARSDEN.

LORD CASTLEREAGH'S ANSWER.

London July 14, 1804.

Sir,

I have been favoured with your letter, conveying to me the Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Ulster.

I beg you will express to the Synod, how much personal satisfaction it affords me, to have been instrumental, in any degree, in bringing the interests of their Clergy under the favourable consideration of the Crown.

In addition to the flattering expressions of regard, with which they have honored me, I observe with peculiar pleasure, that the grateful sense, which the Synod entertains of his Majesty's paternal care so graciously manifested in the recent addition made to the Regium Donum, is accompanied by a full conviction on their part, of the importance & value of those principles upon which this provision has been conferred upon their body.

Accept, Sir, my peculiar thanks for the obliging manner in which you have conveyed to me the address of the Synod, And assure them from me, of the anxious solicitude I shall always feel, that the late arrangement so happily concluded may be productive of all the good effects, not only in augmenting the individual comfort, but in improving the condition and endowments of their Clergy, which in common with them I confidently anticipate from it.

I have the honour to be,

Sir, with great truth & regard, your obedient, & faithful servant

CASTLEREAGH.

To the Rev. James Horner,
Moderator of the Synod.

BILLS.

Loughbrickland

I. A memorial from John Atcheson Smyth, eldest son of the late Rev. John Smyth, on behalf of himself, his mother, brothers & sister complaining that the Presbytery of Dromore had proceeded to ordain the Rev. Mr McAllister, in the congregation of Loughbrickland, without first causing the arrear of Stipend due the heirs of his late father to be paid or satisfactorily secured; and also that said ordination was in direct opposition to an express Synodical Law, was presented to the Synod. This memorial was accompanied with a statement of the account, between Mr Smyth and the Congregation of Loughbrickland & with a protest by the said John A. Smyth, which had been lodged with the Presbytery of Dromore, previous to Mr McAllister's ordination, against the ordination of another Minister in Loughbrickland, until full justice was done to the heirs of his father.

A letter to the Moderator was also read, from the Rev. Samuel Barber, a member of the Presbytery of Dromore, referring the Synod to his protest and appeal against the ordination of Mr McAllister, recorded in the minutes of the Presbytery of Dromore; & praying that the Synod may have this matter fully investigated in order "that the different Presbyteries, and the people under our care, may be convinced that it is vain for any Presbytery to ordain until the arrears due the former Minister be discharged."

Mr David Heron appeared as Commissioner from the Congregation of Loughbrickland.

Mr Smyth was heard at great length in support of his protest, and of the Allegations contained in his Memorial. And the Presbytery of Dromore in support of their conduct.

The Commissioner was also heard, at full length, on behalf of the Congregation of Loughbrickland.
When the parties having withdrawn, & the subject having undergone a long & serious discussion, the Synod unanimously came to the determination, that the conduct of the Presbytery of Dromore be disapproved of.

Ordered, that a Committee consisting of Messrs A. Millar, William Moor, Tyrone, and Adam Hunter, Esq', do meet this evening and ascertain what balance is due to the heirs of Mr Smyth from the Congregation of Loughbrickland, according to the entries made in Mr Smyth’s Stipend book & such other documents as Mr Smyth & Mr Heron, shall lay before them; and that Mr David Heron the Commissioner from Loughbrickland be enjoined to pay, or satisfactorily secure the said balance to Mr Smyth’s heirs before our next sederunt.

Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 6 o’clock.

Fifth Session. Saturday morning, 6 o’clock.

After prayer, The Committee appointed to settle the account between the Congregation of Loughbrickland and the heirs of Mr Smyth made their report, by which it appears that there is a balance of £230: 0: 8 due to Mr Smyth’s heirs. The Commissioner on the part of the congregation expressed his intention to abide by the determination of the Committee, with which Mr Smyth signified his acquiescence.

II. A memorial from the congregation of Clare was presented to Clare the Synod, complaining of the irregularity of the proceedings of the Committee appointed last year to take charge of this congregation in the mode of its taking a poll for the Rev. Mr Reid, and praying this Synod to order his installment, either by the committee who took charge of the congregation last year, or in any other manner, which the Synod may deem fit.

A counter-memorial was also presented to the Synod by the Minority of the Congregation of Clare suppling that the Rev. William Reid may not be appointed their Minister, being in their opinion, a measure likely to be attended with the most ruinous consequences to that Congregation.

After hearing the Committee & the Commissioners on both sides, it was unanimously resolved, that this business be dismissed, the Committee dissolved, and the Congregation restored to the Presbytery of Armagh.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till 10 o’clock.

Sixth Session. Saturday morning, 10 o’clock.

III. An appeal from the Rev. Hugh Delap, lately Minister of the Old Congregation of Omagh, was presented to the Synod against the sentence of degradation pronounced upon him by the Presbytery of Letterkenny; and praying this Synod for the Sake of Justice, and for the cause of innocence, to appoint a Committee of their body to give the matter a full and fair investigation, alleging that a great deal of new light can be thrown upon the subject.

A memorial was also presented from a number of the members of the Congregation of Omagh, expressing their conviction of the innocence of the Rev. Hugh Delap, and entreaty the Synod to take his case into its serious consideration, and to institute such enquiry into his character, as may be the means of promoting the interests of religion, and of restoring peace and concord to the Congregation.

Appeal dismissed

The Presbytery of Letterkenny being heard in their defence, & the evidence on which they founded their sentence being gone over with great care, and maturely considered; and Mr Delap & a Commissioner from the Subscribers to the memorial, being heard in support of the appeal, and of their supplication; it was moved and seconded that the Appeal be dismissed. After serious deliberation the Roll was called and the appeal dismissed by a large Majority.

Mr Smyth

IV. A memorial was read from the Rev. John Smyth praying to be disannexed from the Presbytery of Root, and annexed to the Presbytery of Ballymena.

Granted.

N. T. Stewart

V. A memorial from the newly erected congregation of Newtown Stewart, praying the Synod to take such measures as may induce Government to allow them a portion of the R.D., was presented to the Synod.

The Synod resolved that it could not interfere in this business.

Keady

A similar memorial on the part of the newly erected Congregation of Keady was withdrawn.

Dr Dickson's mem

VI. A memorial from the Rev. William Steel Dickson, D.D., requiring the Synod to declare explicitely "whether or no he is alluded to in a part of a minute of 1799, which has been construed into a reflexion on his character, as a man "implicated in treasonable or seditious practices," and if so, to explain what they then meant by being implicated in "practices treasonable or seditious," was presented to the Synod.

Dismissed

It was unanimously resolved to dismiss this memorial.

Interloquitur. Saturday 3 o'clock, Afternoon.

The accounts of the Agent to the Widows' fund were inspected and found correct.

A statement of the receipts and payments of his Majesty's Royal Bounty, ending 25 March 1804, was submitted to this Interloquitur by D' Black, & found correct and satisfactory.
A letter from the Trustees of the Widow's fund was read, in which they recommend, that the balance in the Treasurers hands, as well as the Government debentures, belonging to the fund, be vested in Government consolidated Stock, at the Bank of Ireland.

In this proposal the Interloquitur concurs, & D' Black is instructed to co-operate with the Trustees in such measures, as may be necessary, to effect the same.

The Moderator concluded the Synod with prayer.

Inserted 15th August 1805 by

These with an Elder from each Presbytery & our Moderator & Clerk are to meet at Cookstown; when called by the Moderator on any Emergency; Fifteen to be a Quorum, of whom twelve at least are to be Ministers.

The several Committees are ordered to meet immediately. Adjourned till one o'clock.

Third Session. One o'clock.

It was moved that the time & place of next meeting be now fixed. Lurgan & Cookstown were put in nomination. The Roll was called & it carried Cookstown. The meeting to take place on the last Tuesday in June next. Divine Service to begin at 5 o'clock, afternoon.

According to the order of last year, the Presbytery of Dromore presented a pastoral address to the people under the care of the Synod, which was read, considered, & committed to the care of the Commissioners appointed to wait upon the Lord Lieutenant to revise; and the Moderator is requested to have fifty copies for each Congregation printed & distributed without delay: And the Presbytery of Belfast, as being next in the Roll, is ordered to prepare a similar Address for the ensuing year.

On reading the regulation of last year respecting Marriage it was moved & agreed to, that the Parenthesis ("in the words of the following certificate") be expunged.

It was also resolved, that no Minister belonging to this Synod shall, under pain of the penalties for transgressing said regulation, celebrate Marriage, where one the parties at least, is not a member of his own Congregation, except in the following cases, viz:—

1. In case of vacant Congregations, where the parties are duly certified by the Session of the vacant Congregation.
2. In case of the absence, sickness, or special request, of a neighbouring Minister, upon the parties being duly certified, by said Minister, or his Session.

On reading the Amendment of the rule of 1804 respecting the admission of men, not members of this body to officiate for us, it was moved & seconded that the rule of 1804 as amended in 1805 be repealed. The Roll was called and it carried not.

But it is now agreed and declared, that this resolution is not intended to prevent any Minister of this Synod occasionally to employ any member of any other Protestant Church, whom he knows to have been regularly set apart to the work of the Ministry, according to the forms of the Church to which he belongs; whose character he knows to be suited to his holy office; & of whose zeal to promote the great objects of the Ministry he has reason to think favourably: That it is only intended to prevent employing men to preach, who are not regular Ministers of any Church, and, who, under pretence of spreading the Gospel, give reason to suspect, that they have only in view to promote their own private interests, by exciting dissentions, & disturbing the peace of Congregations.

It was moved that the examination of young men previous to their going to College, be conducted by Committees & not by Presbyteries. Upon calling the Roll it was carried that the examination be conducted by Presbyteries.

OVERTURES.

I. It was unanimously agreed to, that the following Address be presented to the Lord Lieutenant.

TO HIS GRACE JOHN DUKE OF BEDFORD, LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

May it please your Grace,

We his Majesty's most dutiful & loyal subjects, the Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster take the first opportunity, afforded by our annual meeting, of offering our congratulations on your Grace's appointment as Chief Governor of this part of the United Kingdom.

Accustomed to consider your Grace's illustrious family with sentiments of more than ordinary veneration, and entertaining for your Grace's Character that unaffected respect, which private virtue when united with high rank never fails to inspire, we anticipate with confidence the happiest results from your Grace's administration.

We beg leave to assure your Grace, that in our respective situations, we shall continue to inculcate on the people connected with us, an inviolable attachment to his Majesty's person, family, & government; an unceasing regard for the Authority of the Laws; and a temper of kindness towards our fellow-subjects; satisfied that by thus discharging our duty, we shall best recommend ourselves to your Grace's protection, and obtain from your Grace, a favourable representation to our most gracious King.

Signed in our name, & by our order, at Cookstown this 25th day of June, 1806.

WILLIAM NEILSON, D.D., Moderator.

Resolved that our Moderator, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Dublin, Dr Black, & Mr Thomas Henry, be appointed to present this Address to the Lord Lieutenant, and that the Address, with his Grace's answer be published.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Fourth Session. Thursday Morning ten o'clock.

After prayer, it was moved that the members appointed to wait on the Lord Lieutenant be instructed humbly to suggest to his Grace, the propriety, the policy, & the advantage, of an equalization of his Majesty's Bounty, comprehending the two Congregations which at present receive no Bounty. This motion was resisted on the point of order, a memorial to the same effect having already been rejected in the Committee of Overtures. The Roll was called on the question, "Is this motion in order, or not?" which was carried in the affirmative.

Against this decision the Rev. Mr Rentoul, and a number of other members signified their intention of protesting & assigning their reasons in due time.

The original motion was then put & debated at considerable length, when the Roll was called & the motion carried. Against this decision the Rev. Dr McDowol and others protested, & promised to assign their reasons.

It was farther resolved, that the members appointed to wait upon the Lord Lieutenant be instructed, that if they find it convenient, they do confer with his Grace, on the great necessity & utility of extending the benefits of education to the Children of the poor in the bounds of our Congregations.

II. 1. Overtured & agreed to, that Students be permitted to enter on Presbyterial trials, upon their studying Divinity, Hebrew, & Church History, in a regular Seminary of learning, one session after taking a degree in Arts.

2. That every Student shall be examined at the first meeting of his Presbytery, after his return from College each session, in the sciences which he has studied during that session.
3. That the intervals between the College Sessions shall be spent in studying the following subjects, under the inspection of a Minister appointed by the Presbytery, viz, 1st Summer, Civil History & Jewish Antiquities. 2nd Summer, Greek Testament with Commentation. 3rd Summer, Ecclesiastical History and Divinity. 4th Summer, Divinity. And during these several seasons, particular attention shall be paid to composition, elocution, and devotional exercises.

III. It is overtured & agreed to, that each Minister of this Synod be enjoined to ascertain with all possible accuracy, how the families of the poor in his Congregation are supplied with Bibles; that he do faithfully report to the Presbytery of which he is a member, what number of Bibles would be necessary to supply them; & that such Presbytery do faithfully report to the next meeting of this Synod, the number of copies of the Scriptures, that would be wanting to supply the Poor, within the bounds of the Congregations connected with it. And it is to be understood by each Minister, that, in taking the necessary steps to ascertain the wants of the poor in the above respect, he inform the poor in his Congregation that it is the intention of this Synod to furnish with Copies of the Bible, at an easy rate, such of them as wish to read the Scriptures, but are unable to purchase them at their present high prices.

BILLS.

I. A memorial was presented to the Synod by the Rev. Samuel Dill complaining of the Conduct of the Presbytery of Letterkenny, in reprehending him for refusing one of the ordinances of the Christian Church to Mr Waughhope a member of his Congregation; and appealing (in which he was joined by the Rev. Francis Dill a Co-presbyter) against the sentence of the Presbytery to this Synod.

After hearing the parties for some time, it was agreed to defer the farther consideration of this appeal until the next Sederunt.

Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at Six o'clock.

Fifth Session. Friday Morning six o'clock.

After prayer, on reading the Minute of yesterday's sederunt respecting the instructions to the members, appointed to wait upon the Lord Lieutenant, it was moved that the members of the Presbytery of Dublin, & D' Black be laid aside, & that M' Andrew Millar & M' Shaw be substituted in their place. This motion on the call of the roll was carried. D' M'Dowel & several other members protested, & promised to assign their reasons.

The consideration of the appeal from the sentence of the Presbytery of Letterkenny was now resumed when D' M'Dowel, & Messrs Horner, Millar, Tho. Henry, & Dunlop, were ordered to withdraw & confer with the Presbytery of Letterkenny & the Appellants on the subject of their Appeal. On their return D' M'Dowel reported that the Appellants had, with the consent of the Presbytery of Letterkenny, withdrawn their appeal, & that a fair prospect was opened of a happy settlement of all differences between the parties.

II. A memorial from the Congregation of Tubermore was presented to the Synod, requesting that this Synod would devise measures to put them in possession of their meeting-house, on which their well-being as a worshipping society intimately depends.

The Synod resolved that Mr. Moore & Mr. Davison be directed to take such legal steps, as they may deem necessary, to put the Congregation of Tubermore in possession of their meeting-house; & that it be recommended by this Synod to the Interloquitur, to defray the expense of doing so.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till ten o'clock.

Sixth Session. Friday Morning ten o'clock.

The protesting members now gave in their reasons of protest which were read & ordered to be inserted in the Minutes, and that a Copy of said reasons of protest be furnished to the members appointed to wait upon the Lord Lieutenant.

Protest against laying aside the members of the Presbytery of Dublin, & Dr. Black.

We protest against this resolution.

Because in our opinion, it is subversive of all order, of dangerous tendency, & disrespectful to the individuals dismissed.

Benjamin M'Dowel, D.D. James Horner
Robert Rentoul Henry Elder
Thomas Cuming Thomas M^Kay
Josiah Ker William Ramsay.

Protest against instructing the members appointed to wait upon the Lord Lieutenant, to suggest to his Grace, the propriety, &c., of an equalization of his Majesty's Bounty.

We protest against the present decision for a variety of reasons which press upon our minds, of which we shall mention only the following:

1. Because, the motion was introduced in violation of the established order of proceeding, in this Synod. As new matter, it ought to have been first proposed to the Committee of Overtures & approved of; but it is notorious, that a measure substantially the same, in the form of a Memorial to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, was this morning rejected by that Committee.

2. Because, the Synod was taken by suprise, as no notice was given of any intention to agitate the question at this meeting, in which a great majority of the Congregations are not represented, & when the attendance is less by more than one half, than at the meeting in 1803, when the late arrangement was approved of, as will appear by a reference to our Minutes: Nor can the majority on the Poll be considered as expressing the sense of the body at large, the numbers for the motion being 46 Ministers, & 12 Elders,—against it 29 Ministers & 4 Elders.

3. Because we cannot suggest to the Representative of our Sovereign the propriety of depriving one third of the Ministers of this Synod of a considerable portion of an income, of which they have, for some years, been in possession, on the faith of his Majesty's Government, "that the Bounty once granted, shall in no case be withdrawn from any Minister, during his continuance in his Congreg- nation, so long as it shall please his Majesty to continue the Bounty to the Body at large," in reliance on which, many Ministers have formed their domestic arrangements, & commenced a course of education for their families.

4. Because in firm reliance on this publick engagement, Students have devoted themselves to our profession, young Ministers have been settled in Congregations, & aged & infirm pastors have relinquished their stipend to Assistants, reserving the Royal bounty alone, for their support in their declining years.

5. Because, no proof has been, or in our opinion can be adduced, that the present mode of distribution is improper, or impolitick, or dis-advantageous—it being an incontrovertible truth, that Ministers placed in Cities or large Towns, or in extended or populous Congregations have a fair claim to a larger Bounty from the State than others, whose situations subject them to less expense, & whose ministerial labours, however respectable, cannot have so extensive an influence on society.

6. Because, this mode of proceeding may establish a precedent for frequent application to Government for a change in the mode of distribution, thereby endangering the comfort & security of Ministers, discouraging Parents from devoting their Sons to our profession, fomenting a Spirit of Discontent & Discord among the people & thus defeating the gracious purpose of his Majesty in the late extension of the Royal Bounty to the Ministers of this Body.

III. A Memorial was presented to the Synod from the Rev. Alexander Montgomery, a member of the Presbytery of Ballymena, complaining of the proceedings of said Presbytery, as precipitate & irregular, in their sentence against him, of suspension for two Lord’s days, and admonition by the Moderator, for marrying Elizabeth Agnew contrary to Synodical regulations, and appealing from the sentence of his Presbytery to the General Synod.

After hearing Mr Montgomery in support of his appeal, & the Presbytery in support of their sentence, the parties were desired to withdraw; when, after serious & mature consideration, it was unanimously resolved, that the appeal be dismissed, that the sentence of the Presbytery of Ballymena has been too lenient, and that the Presbytery of Ballymena be directed to revise this sentence & make it conformable to the rule of Synod in such cases.

The Memorial of the Rev. William Burke, so far as it relates to the settlement of his, & his late Father’s accounts with the Congregation of Ramelton, is referred to the Presbytery of Letterkenny, who engage to see justice done in this case, before the Ordination of another Minister. The remaining part of the Memorial is referred to the Interloquitur.

Session concluded with prayer.

Interloquitur. Friday 3 o’clock Afternoon.

It was moved, & unanimously agreed to, that our Clerk shall receive the thanks of this Interloquitur for his zeal & diligence in recovering the Minutes respecting the Widows’ fund from its Origin, and for the great pains he has taken in transcribing them into a Book for the information of the Contributors. And thanks were given accordingly.

A statement of the receipts & payments of his Majesty’s Bounty ending 29th Sept’ 1805, was submitted to this Interloquitur by Dr Black, & found correct, & satisfactory.

The accounts of the Agent to the Widows’ fund were inspected & found correct.

A letter from the Trustees of the Widows’ fund was read in which they recommended to the Contributors to invest as soon as possible, the present balance in the Agent’s hands in consolidated Bank stock. Dr Black is ordered to co-operate with the Trustees in carrying this recommendation into effect.

Resolved unanimously, that the Rev. James Horner be added to the number of the Trustees for the Widows’ fund. Mr Horner signified his acceptance of the Trust.
Dr Black stated, that, previous to the last meeting of Synod, he had made an humble representation to his Majesty's Government relative to the English Bounty, which had not been included in the estimate, for providing for the arrangement of 1803.

That on the second of July last, he received an order from the Right Honourable, N. Vansittart, Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, by which the said Bounty is appropriated in aid of the Widows' fund, without deduction for Agent's fees, or any drawback whatever.

That anxious that the Annuitants on the fund should experience without delay the effects of his Majesty's Royal Munificence, he lost no time in consulting the several Presbyteries, & with their concurrence, he paid the Annuitants of last year the sum of £25, each—That in so doing he hopes for the approbation of this Interloquitur, as the said increase of the Annuities, will not affect the regulations for augmenting the Capital of the fund, entered into in 1804, at which time this valuable addition to its annual income was not calculated on.

Resolved that this Interloquitur feel a grateful sense of the great liberality of Government in the munificent Donation made by them, in the course of the last year, to the Widows' fund; and, that Dr Black, our Agent, is deserving of our warmest thanks for his assiduous & successful labours in obtaining said Donation.

Resolved that this Interloquitur do approve of our Agent's conduct in paying £25 to each Annuitant on the Widows' fund last year, & that he be instructed to pay the same to each Annuitant this year.

Inserted July 23rd 1806, by

THO. CUMING,
Clerk of Gen. Synod.

Dr. William Neilson the Moderator opened this Synod by preaching from Psalm cx xxx, 4, then constituted it by prayer: after which were present from the several Presbyteries the following members, viz., from :-

That such students having read Virgil, Horace, Sallust, & Cicero de Officiis, the Greek Testament, Homer, & Xenophon’s Cyropaedia, may be examined in such of these books as the Presbytery may find sufficient to satisfy them of their possessing a competent knowledge of the Greek & Latin languages.

Thanks were returned from the chair accordingly.
D' Neilson read also the Lord Lieutenant’s answer to our address of last year, likewise a letter from M' Secretary Elliot, in answer to the application of the Synod for an equalization of his Majesty’s bounty which were ordered to be inserted in the minutes & are as follows.—

LORD LIEUTENANT’S ANSWER.

The Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster are entitled to my best thanks, for the cordiality with which they express their satisfaction at my appointment to the Government of this part of the United Kingdom. I can assure them that it shall ever be the most important object of my administration, as it is the most anxious wish of my heart to secure to every class & description of his Majesty’s subjects in Ireland, all the blessings connected with civil & religious liberty: and it will give me sincere pleasure to convey to our most gracious Sovereign the assurances contained in the Address now presented to me, of gratitude for his paternal care, & of loyal attachment to his sacred Person & Government.

THE SECRETARY’S ANSWER.

Dublin Castle 26th July 1806.

Sir,

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, having given the most mature deliberation to the suggestions which you were deputed to communicate to him, in respect to the arrangement of the Regium Donum, and having also taken the sentiments of his Majesty’s confidential servants on the subject, I am commanded to acquaint you, for the information of the respectable persons, who compose the Presbyterian Synod of Ulster, that it is not judged advisable to recommend to his Majesty any alteration in the mode at present adopted in the distribution of that Fund.

I have the honour to be
Sir, your Most obed’ humble servant

Rev. D’ Neilson, Dundalk.

W. ELLIOT.

On reading the order of last year to the different Presbyteries to ascertain the number of Bibles, that may be necessary to supply the families of the poor in the Congregations within their bounds; it was moved & agreed to, that a committee consisting of a member from each Presbytery be appointed to devise some expedient method, for immediately carrying said object into effect. The committee to met in the Meeting-house this evening at 8 o’clock & to report to-morrow morning.

The Presbytery of Ballimena being asked whether they had put the sentence of suspension against M’ Montgomery in execution, according to the Synod’s order of last year, answered that they had ordered one of their members to signify to the Congregation of Antrim the Synod's order; but that they had been induced to defer putting the sentence of suspension in execution, on account of Mr Montgomery's Congregation having, at present, no Meeting-house of their own to assemble in for publick worship. The Presbytery having requested advice how they should proceed under these circumstances, the Synod advises to put the sentence of suspension against Mr Montgomery in execution, without delay.

OVERTURE.

It was overtured and unanimously agreed to, that the following Address be presented to the Lord Lieutenant.

TO HIS GRACE CHARLES DUKE OF RICHMOND, LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, & GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

May it please your Grace,

We his Majesty's most dutiful & loyal subjects, the Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, assembled at our annual meeting, request permission to offer to your Grace our respectful congratulations on your Grace's appointment, as Chief Governor of this part of the United Kingdom.

We have observed, with particular satisfaction, the declarations which your Grace has been pleased to make of a fixed determination to afford equal protection to all classes of his Majesty's Subjects entrusted to your government; & we feel a confident hope, that the Presbyterians connected with the Synod of Ulster will merit your Grace's favourable opinion, by an unshaken loyalty to the person of their most Gracious Sovereign, accompanied by a temper of kindness & conciliation towards their fellow-subjects, of every religious denomination.

Signed in our name, & by our order, at Cookstown, this 3d day of July 1807.

HENRY HENRY, Moderator.

Dr McDowel & Mr Horner are appointed to present this Address to the Lord Lieutenant, & to have the Address, with his Grace's Answer published.

BILLS.

I. A Memorial was presented to the Synod by the Rev. Francis Dill, a member of the Presbytery of Letterkenny, complaining of that Presbytery for refusing to take into their consideration a charge brought by Memorialist against the Rev. And Alexander, a member of said Presbytery, and appealing from the Presbytery's decision to the General Synod.
A Memorial was also presented to the Synod by the Rev. Samuel Dill, complaining that the Presbytery of Letterkenny had disannexed him from said Presbytery in violation of the rules of the General Synod, & praying to be annexed to some other Presbytery belonging to the Synod.

The Messrs Dills were heard in support of the allegations in their respective memorials, & the Presbytery of Letterkenny in defence of their conduct, when it was resolved that, on account of the lateness of the hour the further consideration of this affair be deferred till tomorrow morning.

Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o’clock.

Sixth Session. Friday Morning, 7 o’clock.

After prayer, the Committee appointed to devise a plan for supplying the poor in our Congregations with Bibles, produced their report, which was read & considered at some length, when it was recommitted in order more completely to meet the wishes of the Synod.

The adjourned discussion of the matter at issue between the Presbytery of Letterkenny & the Messrs Dills was then resumed & proceeded in at considerable length, when the consideration of this business was further adjourned till the next sederunt.

Seventh Session. Friday morning ten o’clock.

After prayer, the consideration of the complaint of Messrs Francis & Samuel Dill against the Presbytery of Letterkenny being again resumed, & maturely considered; it was resolved that the memorial of Mr Francis Dill be dismissed, but that this Synod do declare their decided disapprobation of the principle on which, the Presbytery of Letterkenny refused to consider the charge brought against one of their members.

It was further resolved, that the conduct of the Presbytery of Letterkenny, in disannexing Mr Saml Dill, has been irregular & disorderly, & that they be rebuked from the chair.

Ordered that Messrs Fra & Saml Dill be disannexed from the Presbytery of Letterkenny, and annexed to the Presbytery of Root, & that our Moderator be instructed to advise Mr Saml Dill to temper his zeal with prudence & discretion, in future.

The Presbytery were rebuked, & Mr S. Dill admonished accordingly.

II. Two Memorials were presented to the Synod by Mr William Burke, late pastor of the Congregation of Ramelton: The first complaining of the Presb. of Letterkenny for unjustly disannexing him from the Congregation of Ramelton, & praying the Synod to restore to him his first year's subscription to the Widows' fund.

The second praying to have justice done to the family of the late M' Wm. Burke, & to consider the justice of Memoralist's claim to the stipend & bounty, payable to the Minister, during the interval between his disannexation from the Congregation of Ramelton, & the Synod's sanction thereof.

The first memorial was dismissed because the disannexation of M' Menl. dismissed Burke from the Congregation of Ramelton had been sustained last year, & the conduct of the Presbytery approved of, & because the latter part of this memorial belongs only to the Interloquitur.

With respect to the second Memorial, the Synod enjoins the Presbytery to see justice done to the family of the late M' Burke, but It judges M' Burke's claim to the stipend & Bounty during the interval of disannexation inadmissible.

III. A Supplication was presented to the Synod from the con-gregation of Tobermore, praying the Synod to devise & adopt such methods, as in their wisdom may seem most effectual, to recover for them possession of their meeting-house. This supplication referred to the Interloquitur.

IV. Two supplications were presented from the United congrega-tions of Fintona & Dromore, the supplication from Fintona praying to be erected into a separate congregation, & that from Dromore, to be continued united to the congregation of Fintona.

Resolved that these supplications be referred to the Presbytery of Clogher, & that they report on them, at the next meeting of Synod.

V. A Memorial was presented from the Rev. James Delap, appeal-ing from the sentence of suspension pronounced upon him by the Presbytery of Letterkenny, & praying to be restored to the exercise of the ministerial office, or to have a fair trial in the Meeting-house of Fannit before his Congregation.

Connected with this Memorial, two supplications were read, one from the Session of the Congregation of Fannit, praying to have the sentence of the Presbytery confirmed; & the other from a number of the members of the Congregation, praying that M' Delap's supplication may be granted.

Resolved that the sentence of the Presbytery of [Letterkenny] be dismissed affirmed, & their conduct in that matter approved of.

The Committee appointed to devise a plan to supply the poor in our respective Congregations with Bibles, now made their report, which is as follows:—

That it is their unanimous opinion that this Synod would most materially promote the cause of pure & undefiled religion, by adopting & recommending the following plan:—
1. That the Ministers of this Synod, on the last Sabbath of July, or as soon after as they conveniently can, after preaching to, or addressing their respective Congregations, on the necessity, & advantages of procuring for the poor, in their congregations, & neighbourhoods, copies of the holy Scriptures, do, for themselves subscribe, & take a collection from their people, for the purpose of purchasing Bibles.

2. That the different sums thus produced be paid into the hands of the Moderators of the Presbyteries to which said Ministers shall belong, who shall forward the sums they shall so receive to the Rev. Mr Thomson, of Carnmoney, the Rev. Mess'r Hanna, & Atcheson of Belfast, or the Rev. Mr Simpson, of Saintfield, who are hereby appointed a committee for conducting the affairs, & managing the funds of this charitable institution.

That this Committee after taking every step necessary to obtain satisfactory information, shall order the required number of Bibles, wherever they can be procured on the best terms, & shall forward to every Presbytery a number of Bibles, in proportion as nearly as may be, to the sums they may have respectively advanced, to be by them distributed Gratis, or at reduced prices as they shall think proper.

The Committee appointed for conducting this business to report to the next meeting of Synod.

The Synod adopts this plan, & recommends it to its members, & the Congregations under their care.

Whereas an error appears in Section fifth in the Minutes of our Sixth Session, in the year 1805, it is ordered that said error be now corrected thus:—

A petition presented on the part of the new erected Congregation of Keady, praying an answer to the following question, viz, "Why were we not included in your negotiations with Government respecting Bounty?" was withdrawn.

INTERLOQUITUR.

Friday, 5 o'clock, afternoon.

A statement of the receipts & payments of his Majesty's Bounty, ending the 29th September 1806, was submitted to this Interloquitur by Dr Black, & found correct & satisfactory.

The accounts of the Agent for the Widows' fund were examined & found correct.

Ordered that Dr Black do lend out, under the direction of the Trustees, the balance in his hands.

Resolved that the members of this Interloqui'ur, who are not at present Subscribers to the Widows' Fund, be entitled to become subscribers, on their paying into the fund one year of their Regium
AT COOKSTOWN, JUNE 30TH, 1807.

Donum, provided they signify their intention to the Agent, within three months from this date, but not otherwise.

Moved & carried, that Mr. Burke be refunded the money which he has paid into the Widows' fund, but that this shall not be a precedent for future applications.

THO. CUMING, Clerk of Gen. Synod.

Lord Lieutenant's Answer to the Synod's address of last year.

Gentlemen.

I beg leave to return my most sincere thanks to the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Ulster, for their very obliging congratulations on my appointment to the Government of this country in the administration of which it is my firm purpose to afford equal protection to all classes of his Majesty's subjects—And I receive with the greatest satisfaction, & confidence your assurances that the Presbyterians connected with the Synod of Ulster, will ever merit that protection, by their unshaken loyalty to the person of our most gracious Sovereign, and a temper of kindness & conciliation towards their fellow subjects of every religious denomination.

BILLS.

Two Supplications from the united congregations of Fintona & Dromore were presented to the Synod; the supplication from Fintona praying to be separated from the Congregation of Dromore; and that from Dromore praying to be continued united to the Congregation of Fintona.

Resolved that the supplication from Fintona be rejected, & that the supplication from Dromore be granted.

Fourth Session. Thursday Morning, 7 o'clock.

After prayer, the Presbytery of Dublin stated that the Rev. John Boyle, an ordained Clergyman in the established church, having produced satisfactory testimonials of his moral character from the Vicar General of the Diocess of Derry during the time he had officiated as a clergyman in that Diocess, had since the meeting of this Synod, applied to be admitted into said Presbytery, with the view of becoming a minister of the Gospel in the Presbyterian church; & requested the Synod to direct them how to proceed in this case.

This business was entered into & proceeded on at some length, when its farther consideration was postponed till our next sederunt.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

---

Fifth Session. Ten o'clock.

After prayer, the farther consideration of the affair respecting Mr Boyle was resumed, when it was moved & seconded that, "it be recommended to the Presbytery of Dublin to receive Mr. Boyle." The Roll was called & it carried "recommend to receive."

The Presbytery of Dublin having then requested instruction, in what capacity, whether as a student, a Probationer, or an Ordained Clergyman, they should receive Mr Boyle, it was moved that "Mr Boyle be received on trials, as the young men of our own Body who have finished their education at a regular seminary of learning." On the call of the Roll this motion was negatived.
The question was then put whether Mr. Boyle be received on trials as "an ordained Clergyman without a Charge," or as "a Probationer?" On the call of the Roll it was carried that he be received as "a Probationer."

Synod concluded with Prayer.

INTERLOQUITUR.

Thursday, 3 o'clock afternoon.

A statement of the receipts & payments of his Majesty's bounty, ending the 29th September 1807 was submitted to this Interloquitur by Dr. Black, and found correct & satisfactory.

The accounts of the Agent of the Widows' fund were examined & found correct.

Dr. Black informed the interloquitur, that he had let out the balance in his hands according to the order of last year, & that it had been vested in Government consolidated Stock.

It was moved & carried, that, in order to create a fund for discharging the debts incurred by this Interloquitur, the Agent for his Majesty's bounty be requested to retain in his hands £2 per * from the ministers in the first class, £1 : 10 : 0 from each minister in the second class, & £1 from each minister in the third class.

It was then resolved that whereas Mr. Burke has not yet been paid the sum ordered by the Interloquitur of last year, that the said sum be paid to him out of this fund.

It was also resolved that our Agent be requested to continue his exertions to put the Congregation of Tobermore in possession of their Meeting-house, & that the expense be defrayed out of the same fund.

Resolved that our Agent be requested to take such measures as may appear to him most likely to procure an act of Parliament to incorporate the institution of our Widows' fund.

A Memorial from Jos. C. Gamble was presented to the Interloquitur, praying to be permitted to pay the arrears & interest, due on his subscription to the Widows' fund, & to be continued a Subscriber. Granted.

Mr. Horner gave notice, that he will move in the Interloquitur of next year, in order to inforce a due attendance of the Minrs at the annual meeting of this Synod, that a fine of 40s. shall be imposed on such Minrs as shall not answer to their names at the first and last call of the Roll: And if it be carried in the affirmative he will move that it shall take effect next year.

Ordered that our Agent do lend the balance in his hands to the Corporation of Derry.

THO. CUMING, Clerk of G. Synod.

Inserted August 24th 1808.

"Sensible of the importance & utility of the measure you committed to our care, your committee have been employed since your last meeting in endeavouring to carry it into effect. We have now to communicate our report, which will be as gratifying to this body, as it has been pleasing to us—That our success has exceeded our expectations. The recommendation of Synod has received the zealous support of many Ministers. In various congregations the sums collected have been very considerable, & under your sanction the way is now opened for a wide dissemination of the Word of life among the people under our charge & in our respective neighbourhoods.

Since the commencement of this business in September 1807, your committee have received the following remittances in gold:—

£1102 8 3

We would now turn your attention to this fact that in many places where it might be presumed copies of the Scriptures most abounded, the collections have been the largest, & from places where our books were received we have had renewed demands and repeated remittances.

We have again to acknowledge our obligations to the incorporated society in Dublin for promoting the knowledge & practice of Christianity. We have received from them during the last year, one thousand Testaments at their reduced prices.

"We have to regret that there are still many members of this body, who have not found it convenient to attend to your recommendation. We hope Ministers will urge their people to avail themselves of the present opportunity of procuring copies of the Scriptures, at such reduced prices, which we cannot but consider as a blessing to the poor, & an accommodation to the publick.

"The remittances your committee have received since the commencement of this business, now amount to £1102: 8: 3 and altho' we have at present in hand £203: 7: 5½ for which we have not yet been able to return books, we have distributed 600 family Bibles in quarto, 130 Octavo Bibles, 1222 Bibles in 12mo, 1424 in 24vo, 2674 Testaments, and 100 Psalm Books. These remittances have been received from 38 Ministers only, & to their congregations 6149 Books have been distributed.

"From this unexpected success, your committee have no doubt you will be induced to continue your encouragement to a measure so powerfully calculated to promote the civilization of our country, the increase of religious knowledge, & the salvation of immortal souls,"

Resolved unanimously, that the warmest thanks be returned to the committee, particularly to Mr Hanna & Mr Munford for their unwearied & highly useful exertions in this business, & that they be requested to continue their services.

Dr McDowel informed the Synod, that the British & foreign Bible Society in London have generously voted £100 to this body, to assist in purchasing & dispensing the holy Scriptures in this country.

Resolved, that the thanks of this Synod be returned by Dr McDowel to the Society for their liberal donation, & that they be furnished with an account of the increasing demand for the Scriptures in this part of the united kingdom, & the progress which the Synod's Bible Society has made in furnishing the people, under the care of the Synod, with copies of the holy Scriptures.

Ordered that the above donation of £100. remain in the hands of the committee, as a fund for forwarding the object of this institution.

The Synod renews its recommendation, that the subscriptions for purchasing the holy Scriptures be forwarded to the Rev. Mr Hanna before the 1st of Oct next.

Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Fifth Session. Thursday 10 o'clock, A.M.

Mr Horner in pursuance of his notice of last year, moved, that a committee be appointed to draw up a code of laws for the future government of this Church. This motion agreed to, & the several presbyteries are ordered to return each a Minister & Elder to the next Sederunt to constitute said committee.

OVERTURE.

Overtured & agreed to, that each Presbytery do report, annually, to this Synod, the attendance of its members at its different meetings during the year.

BILLS.

[1.] A Mem' from the Session & congregation of Castleblaney was presented to the Synod, praying that it may sanction the proceedings of the Presbytery of Monaghan in acquitting the Rev. Mr MacAulay, a probationer under the care of that Presbytery, from charges of an immoral nature which have been brought against him, & to have the ordination of M’ M’Aulay in the Congregation of Castleblayney, to which he had been previously called, appointed as soon as to their wisdom may seem meet.

A Memorial was also presented from five members of the Presbytery of Monaghan alleging that the charges against M’ M’Aulay were well founded, protesting against the decision of the Presbytery, & praying that the minutes of the evidence which governed the proceedings of the Presbytery on that occasion, & the reasons of Protest may be considered, & to decide on this affair as to their wisdom may seem right.

The members of the Presbytery of Monaghan on the trial of M’ M’Aulay, & the reasons of the Protest of the appellants being read, & the Presbytery and appellants being heard at great length, It was unanimously agreed to, that the appeal & protest of the majority [minority] of the Presbytery of Monaghan be sustained.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning, at 7 o’clock.

Sixth Session. Friday morning, 7 o’clock.

After prayer, the several Presbyteries made their returns for the committee to draw up a code for the government of this Church, which are as follows :

Ballymena, M’ Tho. Henry Strabane, M’ Dunlop
L.Kenny, M'r Ramsay Derry, M’ Mitchell
Clogher, M’ Johnston T.Patrick, M’ N. Alexander
Root, M’ Jas. Elder Dromore, M’ Thomson
Monaghan, M’ Denham Belfast, M’ Hanna
Tyrone, D’ Dickson Bangor, M’ Craig
Armagh, M’ Cuming Dublin, D’ M’ Dowel

The Committee will hold its first meeting in Belfast on the last Tuesday in March next.

It is understood that the Presbyteries shall at a future meeting, appoint the Elders who are to accompany the Ministers.

It was moved & seconded that those members of the Presbytery of Monaghan, who composed the majority at the meeting, which acquitted M’ M’Aulay, be reprehended. The Roll was called, & the motion agreed to. The members were reprehended by the Moderator accordingly.

Adjourned with prayer.
The several Committees are ordered to meet to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

3d Session Thursday Morning 10 o'clock, after Prayer.

The amended motion referred to the consideration of this forenoon, viz. "That Elders may sit, speak, & vote on all Questions, those relating to the widows fund excepted," having undergone a long Discussion, it was at last moved, that the previous Question be put upon the motion. The Roll being called, the previous Question was negatived. The Roll was then called upon the amended motion, which was carried in the Affirmative.

Against this Decision the following members protested promising to give their reasons in due time, viz. John Thomson, Thos Cuming, Sinclare Kelburn, Thos McKay, & others.

A supplication was presented from that part of the Cong" of Keady heretofore known under the Denomination of the minority, praying to be erected into a separate Cong". After considerable Deliberation, it was moved, & unanimously agreed to, that inasmuch, as a standing law of the Synod prohibits any Cong" to be erected at the meeting at which it is first proposed, the Presh. of Tyrone be ordered to grant them supplies as they may see fit, till next meeting of Synod.

A supplication was presented from a part of the Cong" of Maghera, praying that the Synod would either put a stop to the ordination of the Rev° Cha° Kennedy in that Cong" or should this supplication not be complied with, to erect supplicants into a separate Congregation.

It was moved & unanimously agreed to, that the whole of this Business be dismissed.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

4th Session Friday Morning 7 o'clock, after Prayer.

It was moved and unanimously agreed to, that a Comt°e be annually appointed to draw up an Address to the People under our Pastoral Care recommending & enforcing the Practice, of Piety & Morality; and that Mess° Birch, Millar, Denham, D° Little, & Thos Henry, be the Comt°e appointed for this year.

The protesting Brethren now gave in their Reasons of Protest which were read & are as follow:—

We protest against the Admission of Elders to vote on this Question Because we deem it Incompatible with every Idea of Propriety, that men should be Judges in their own cause, & assume a Privilege, which they have never enjoyed; Such Procedure is contrary to the practice of every publick Body; whether Ecclesiastical or Civil; A dangerous Innovation Inconsistent with the Government of our Church; & tending to establish a precedent, which may be most destructive in its Consequences.

We Protest against the Decision of the Question which has now taken place.

1. Because the ministers of this Synod & of the Presbytery of Antrim have no absolute Right in themselves, but enjoy the Privilege of directing the Application of the Royal Bounty, from the Courtesy & Indulgence of Government only, and therefore cannot, without the greatest impropriety permit the Interference of another class of men, who were never intended by the Donors to have any voice or Authority in its management, and Application.

2. Because the ministers of the Gen. Synod & Presb. of Antrim are competent to manage their pecuniary concerns, in which Elders have never hitherto shewn any Desire to Intermeddle; & which we are persuaded, the greater part of them, have no inclination to engage in, and which may be abused to the purposes of a party spirit, to serve the Interests of Individuals, Inconsistent with the General Interest.

3. Because we deem it Inconsistent with the office of Elders who attend our Judicatories as church officers, to regulate, whatever relates to the Discipline, worship, & Government of the Christian Church, but not to assume, a power over the Property of others, whether ministers or Laymen.

4. Because the Introduction of such a measure at the present Juncture creating an unnecessary change in the Constitution of this Assembly, is peculiarly unwise, and may materially affect the Interest, Prosperity & Tranquility of the Presbyterian Body.

5. Because the measure so far as it proposes to separate the management of his Majesty's Bounty, & of the widows fund is Impracticable; And if Elders interfere in the Application of the former, out of which the subscriptions of ministers to the latter are defrayed, the support of the fund, must depend upon the controul of men, who are acknowledged on all sides to have no concern in its Interests; and the Institution must be exposed to the hazard of being injured; or it may be, in time wrested from its original Purpose.

6. Because the Question has, in our Opinion, been urged with unbecoming haste, in opposition to our earnest Desire, that it might be deferred until next meeting of Synod, when the several Congregations in its Bounds, as well as the ministers now absent, & who never thought of the present Discussion would have an opportunity of expressing their sentiments on a Subject Novel in its nature & introduced without that previous & timely notice which its magnitude demanded. Signed John Thomson, Robert Black, And" Craig, Hugh Brooke, Joseph Denham, Tho* McKay, David Taggart, Tho* Cuming, Matt. Trimble,
A statement of the receipts & payments of his Majesty's bounty, ending the 29th of September last, was submitted to the Interlocutor by Dr. Black & found correct & satisfactory.

The Accounts of the Agent for the Widows' fund were examined and found correct.

Dr. Black informed the Interlocutor, that he had lent out the balance in his hands to the corporation of Derry, according to the order of last year.

On reading the minute of last year relative to an Act of Parliament for securing the Capital of the Widows' fund, Dr. Black reported, 'that in executing the trust reposed in him, he felt it his duty to consult in the first instance, the long tried & powerful friend of the Presbyterian Ministers of Ulster, Lord Viscount Castlereagh, & found as he expected, his Lordship's dispositions to promote their interests in no degree abated. Other members of his Majesty's government were afterwards consulted, & in every quarter a ready acquiescence was expressed. That with his encouragement he prepared a bill which he considered as effectual to the proposed object, & which had the further recommendation that its enactments extended to every similar institution in the kingdom, and being put in the form of a publick bill, was unattended with expense. That he committed this bill to the Right honourable Sir George Fitzgerald Hill, member for Derry, & one of the Lords of his Majesty's treasury in Ireland, who in the most obliging manner introduced it in the House of Commons, & bespoke protection for it in its progress through the Lords'. That it passed both houses without opposition, & having received the Royal Assent is now the law of the land.'

Dr. Black then read the Act, & delivered the same at the table to be in retenis.

Moved & unanimously agreed to that this Interlocutor have a grateful sense of the kindness of his Majesty's government on this occasion, & that Dr. Black be instructed to return the warmest thanks of this meeting to Lord Castlereagh, & Sir, Geo. Fitzgerald Hill, for their honourable and effectual support to a measure so long desired by the contributors to the Widows' fund & now so happily accomplished.

Dr. Black having submitted an abstract of the laws & regulations now in force for the government of the Widows' fund, & the same being read & approved of, it was ordered to be signed by the Moderator, & presented by Dr. Black to the Assistant Barrister & Justices at the next ensuing Quarter Sessions for the City & County of Londonderry, to be registered pursuant to the fore-mentioned Act of Parliament, & that a Copy of the same be transcribed into the minutes of this Interlocutor as follows:—

I. Each Minister who shall become a Contributor to said fund shall pay to the treasurer appointed for the management thereof, the full amount of his first years Royal bounty as the same now stands, or hereafter may stand, so soon as he shall receive the same, as his contribution for the first year, and an annual subscription of forty shillings for every year afterwards.

II. From the 29th day of September next ensuing, until the 29th day of September which shall be in the year 1810 both inclusive, each Minister of a Congregation in the first class, shall pay an additional subscription of three pounds; each Minister of a Congregation in the second class, an additional subscription of two pounds five shillings; & each Minister of a Congregation in the third class an additional subscription of thirty shillings per Annum. This regulation not to extend to such Ministers as have resigned from age or bodily infirmity, or to such Ministers in the third Class, as are not yet in receipt of the entire bounty.

III. Such Ministers as have become partially entitled to the receipt of the Royal Bounty, by the arrangement made with his Majesty's Government, in the year 1803, & are contributors to said fund, shall upon, the decease of their respective predecessors, who are now in receipt of a share of the Royal Bounty allotted to the Ministers of the Congregations in which they had respectively officiated, pay to the Treasurer of said fund, the difference between the portion of the first year's bounty they have received, & the net sum allotted to the Congregations of which they are respectively the Ministers.

IV. Any minister who shall be removed from a Congregation in a lower to one in a higher class, shall for the first year after such removal, pay to the treasurer of said fund the difference between the royal bounty allotted to the Congregation to which he shall be removed & the one in which he had latterly been placed.

V. Such Assistant Ministers, not in the receipt of the Royal Bounty, as now are, or may become contributors to said fund, shall pay to the treasurer thereof an annual subscription of two pounds, each, until such time as their title to the Royal Bounty shall commence, & if any of such assistant Ministers shall die before he become entitled to the receipt of one years bounty, a sum equal thereto shall be deducted from the first payment to which his Widow, or family (if he should leave such) shall become entitled.

VI. Such contributors to said fund as have not pastoral charges in the bounds of the Synod, or Presbytery of Antrim, who are not in the receipt of the Royal bounty shall pay during the afore-mentioned period, an additional subscription of three pounds per Annum.

VII. Every contributor to said fund who shall contract a second marriage, shall pay to the treasurer thereof a premium equal to one year's Annuity from the same, at the time such marriage shall take place; on a third marriage a premium equal to two years' annuity, & so on in proportion, for every succeeding marriage he shall contract.

VIII. The Subscription of Ministers who shall become contributors to said fund, shall commence the quarter day next following their ordination or installment, and cease the quarter day next following their decease.
IX. If any contributor to said fund shall die before ten years shall have elapsed from the commencement of his subscription to the same, the sum of forty shillings annually shall be deducted after his first years subscription shall have been paid, from the annuity payable to his widow, or family, as the case may be, until such deduction added to the several sums before by him paid, shall amount to the subscriptions of ten full years.

X. Any Minister a contributor to said fund, who shall receive a call to become a pastor of a Congregation in the bounds of the Southern Association of Presbyterian Ministers, shall have the privilege of continuing his subscriptions to the same, if he shall be so disposed.

XI. Any Minister a contributor to said fund who shall resign his pastoral charge, in order to engage in a secular profession, or employment, shall not be permitted to continue a contributor thereto, or his widow or family derive any benefit or annuity therefrom, inasmuch as the institution in its original establishment, in the publick collections and private donations & bequests made in aid of its fund, as well as in the late royal appropriation of the surplus of his Majesty’s bounty, was intended for the exclusive advantage of Ministers as such, & not for those who should voluntarily lay down the Ministerial character. This regulation not to extend to the present ex-contributors, D’ Stephenson & M’ Gamble, provided their subscriptions be paid to the treasurer on the 29th day of September in every year.

XII. Any minister a contributor to the said fund, who shall leave the kingdom to reside abroad, shall no longer be considered as connected therewith.

XIII. If a contributor to said fund shall die leaving a family & no widow, such family shall receive an annuity therefrom, for a period of eight years next ensuing after their father’s death.

XIV. If a widow, an annuitant on said fund shall die before she shall receive an annuity therefrom for the full term of eight years, leaving a child or children by her husband who was a contributor thereto, said child or children shall continue to receive such annuity, until the term of eight years from the death of their father shall be completed.

XV. If a widow or annuitant on said fund, shall marry a second husband, having a child or children by a former husband who was a contributor thereto, such widow shall receive but one moiety of the annuity arising therefrom, the remaining moiety shall be paid to the said child or children; but if said child or children shall die the whole shall revert to the mother during her life.

XVI. Every contributor to said fund shall have the power to order the distribution of the annuity arising therefrom to his family in the event or his not leaving a widow in such proportions as be, by his last will shall direct.

XVII. Such widows & families as now are annuitants on said fund or as shall become annuitants thereon, between this date, & the first day of October which shall be in the year 1810 inclusive, shall receive an annuity therefrom, at the rate of twenty-five pounds per Annum.

XVIII. From the first day of October which shall be in the year 1810 inclusive, the Annuitants on said fund whether widows, or families, shall receive in equal shares, the largest dividend of its annual produce, from whatever source arising, which a just regard to the stability of the institution shall warrant the contributors, for the time being, to direct.

XIX. The annuities shall be remitted to the persons respectively entitled to the same in the month of October in each year, until otherwise ordered by the contributors, by the treasurer of said fund, on his receiving a certificate from each widow, signed by a contributor thereto, stating that said widow was living the first of said month, or if dead, the date of her decease, & naming the person or persons entitled to receive the annuity, or share of annuity which may be then due.

XX. The annuities of widows shall commence the quarter day which shall next follow the decease of their husband, & cease the quarter day next following their own. The quarter days are the first of January, April, July & October in each year.

XXI. The foregoing are to be considered as fundamental rules, orders, and regulations, of said Society, not to be altered or repealed without one year's notice of such intended alteration or repeal given to the contributors at their annual meeting during the sitting of the General Synod of Ulster, or at some subsequent meeting of the contributors to be then appointed for the purpose of taking such proposed alteration or repeal into consideration & to determine thereon.

XXII. All questions respecting the amounts of annuities payable from the said fund, & the time or times of the payment thereof; or the lending any part of the capital stock of said fund, or the changing or transferring of the securities of the same; or the appointment or removal of a treasurer or treasurers, trustee or trustees; shall be determined by a majority of the contributors at their several annual meetings or at any adjournment thereof, or by a committee of the same to be hereafter annually appointed to be assembled by the Moderator of the General Synod on any emergency which may arise, affecting the interests, security, or management of said fund.

XXIV. The Rev. Robert Black, D.D., of the City of Londonderry, who for twenty years past has acted as Agent for said fund, is hereby continued in the management thereof as treasurer, under the security formerly perfected by him to the trustees thereof, with a salary of forty pounds per annum, for his trouble in executing the duties of said office.
Resolved that the members of the General Synod's fixed committee do form the committee for the management of the affairs of the Widows' fund, on any emergency that may arise.

Moved & unanimously agreed to, that the thanks of this Interlocutor be given to D' Black for his care & attention to the interests of our funds, & particularly for having obtained from parliament an Act to secure the monies subscribed for the benefit of our Widows & families.

Resolved that the thanks of this Interlocutor be returned by D' Black to the Executors of the late Andrew Caldwell, Esq., for their payment of one hundred guineas being a bequest by M' Caldwell to the Widows' fund.

Moved by M' Horner, pursuant to his notice of last year that each Minister of this Synod who does not answer to his name on the first, & last call of the roll at its annual meeting, shall pay for every such offence the sum of forty shillings, except such Ministers as have through age or infirmity taken an assistant, or such Ministers as are not in the receipt of his Majesty's bounty; That said penalty be levied by each Presbytery yearly off such of their members as by non-attendance on this Synod, have incurred it, & transmitted to D' Black, our Agent, who is requested to form a fund by such fines for defraying the contingent expenses of this Synod, & that this regulation be enforced by each presbytery this year.

This motion was agreed to, & our Clerk is ordered to send with the Synod's minutes, each year, a certified list of the Ministers who shall answer to their names on the first & last call of the Roll.

Ordered that our Agent do lend out the balance in his hands, on such securities as he may deem sufficient.

THO. CUMING, Clerk of Gen. Synod.

To this motion the following amendment was moved, that it be recommended to the Presbytery of Derry to adhere to the rules of Synod. The Roll was called & the amendment negatived. Your Committee have forwarded to members of Synod since your last meeting 467, 4to—56, 8vo—203, 12mo—1004, 24mo Bibles, 55 8vo and 1118 12mo Testaments, in all 1730 bibles and 1173 Testaments. They have yet in their hands £85 : 13 : 4½, for which they have not been able to return books.

In February last your Committee received a donation of Bibles & Testaments in sheets, from the british & foreign bible Society in London, to the amount of £100. They were found on inspection to be without Psalms. Your Committee have been taught by experience that in this state they are not so acceptable to the people in the North of Ireland. They therefore ordered Psalms from Edinburgh, for the different kinds of bibles & Testaments which they had received, & now request that this Synod will advise them how to dispose of these books when bound & ready for delivery.

Your committee regret, that in many instances they have been unable to execute the orders they received from ministers with the despatch they would have wished. This arose from circumstances which they could not prevent; & when it did occur, it was as painful to their feelings, as it could be to those who received a disappointment by the delay.

Your Committee issued a circular letter, in April last, to the ministers under the care of this body who had not forwarded remittances, urging them to comply with your recommendation, which will, they hope produce the desired effect."

The Synod received this report with much satisfaction & finding that there is still occasion for a further supply of Bibles to our respective congregations, request the committee to accept our grateful acknowledgements, & to continue its benevolent labours.

With respect to the advice requested in the report, the Synod authorises the committee to dispose of the books received from the british & foreign bible Society in the the way which it may judge best calculated to forward the purposes of this institution.

On reading the Overture of last year respecting the attendance of ministers at their different Presbyteries it was moved & agreed to, that it will be considered as sufficient, if each Presbytery do report the names of such members as generally absent themselves from their meetings, & that their report be dispensed with for this year, but strictly required at each succeeding Synod.

Session adjourned with prayer. Open Synod to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Fourth Session. Thursday morning 7 o'clock.

After prayer, the committee appointed to prepare a code of laws for the future government of this church having made its report, it was moved that the further consideration of this subject be deferred until next year. To this motion was moved as an amendment that after the word "that," in the original motion, the remainder of the motion be left out, & the following substituted in its place, "that a committee be nominated to proceed in preparing a plan of discipline for the government of this Church." On the call of the Roll this amendment was carried.

It was then moved & agreed to that the Rev. John Thomson, the Rev. James Horner, & the Rev. Sam' Hanna, be the committee to prepare a plan for the government of this church, & that they be instructed to confine themselves to matters of discipline alone.

Adjourned till ten o'clock.

_Fifth Session. 10 o'clock, A.M._

After prayer, the committee appointed to meet at Loughbrickland, to try the affair respecting the Rev. M' M'Aulay, reported that they had issued the business for which they were appointed, by withdrawing M' M'Aulay’s license.

On reading the minute of last year which censures the Presbytery of Dromore for suspending the Rev. M' Hoey, it was moved and carried that the vote of censure be rescinded.

It having appeared that the arrears due to the heirs of the Rev. M'r Moorhead had not been discharged; it is ordered that said arrear be paid to M'r Moorhead’s heirs on or before the first of August next; & if this be not done, the Presbytery of Clogher is enjoined to deprive the Congregation of Fintona of publick ordinances until the debt be discharged.

M'r Thomson & M'r Hanna read their answer to the letter from the Secretary of the Belfast Academical Institution. M'r H. Henry was instructed to inform the Managers, that the Synod will be happy in taking any plan into their consideration which may be submitted to them, whereby they can promote the interests of the institution.

OVERTURE.

It was overture & agreed to that in all cases in which any Presbytery may find it necessary to suspend or publickly rebuke any of its members for misconduct such Presbytery shall report the same in its next return to this Synod.

BILLS.

A memorial from the majority of the Congregation of Donegore was presented to the Synod, complaining of the proceedings of the Presbytery of Templepatrick in the case of the Rev. M'r Butler, by refusing to forward his ordination agreeably to the regulations of this church, appealing from their decision, praying the Synod to have M' Butler ordained among them with all convenient speed, & requesting to be placed under the care of a committee of the Synod until his ordination shall take place.

A supplication was also presented from a part of the Congregation styling themselves the Synodical majority of the congregation of Donegore, praying the Synod to confirm the decision of the Presbytery of Templepatrick respecting M' Butler, & by no means to suffer him to be ordained in Donegore.

The Presbytery & Commissioners on both sides having been heard at great length, & having withdrawn, it was resolved unanimously that the appeal from the majority of the Congregation of Donegore be sustained.

It was then moved & unanimously agreed to that the conduct of the Presbytery in this case has been highly irregular, & that they be rebuked from the chair.

The Presbytery of Templepatrick was rebuked by the Moderator accordingly.

Resolved that a Committee consisting of the following members, Messrs John Thompson, Hanna, Wright, M'Cance, & John Arnold, do meet at Donegore on the second Tuesday of August next to poll the Congregation, & if they see cause, to proceed to M' Butler's ordination at such time as they may see fit. The committee is directed to admit as voters, those members of the congregation, who were qualified to vote on the first poll for M' Butler.

M' Arnold is appointed to preach at Donegore on Sunday next, read this minute to the Congregation & explain to them the views & wishes of the Synod.

An attested list of the members qualified to vote on the 6th of August last to be lodged with M' John Thompson, ten days at least before the day of poll.

M' Butler is appointed constant supplier to the congregation of Donegore, commencing from the second Sunday in July, until the meeting of the committee, & to preach for M' Arnold on Sunday next.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Sixth Session. Friday Morning 7 o'clock.

After prayer, an appeal from the Session & majority of the Congregation of Ballee against the conduct & decision of the Presbytery of Bangor respecting their minister the Rev. Josiah Ker, & praying for a redress of the grievances which they have so long suffered, was presented to the Synod.

M' Ker was heard at considerable length in support of the Allegations in the appeal, when the Synod adjourned till ten o'clock.
After prayer, Mr Ker proceeded in his farther support of the appeal of the Session & Congregation of Ballee. The commissioners were also heard on behalf of the appeal.

The Presbytery of Bangor were then heard at great length, in defence of their conduct, when it was moved & agreed to, that the further consideration of this affair be deferred till to-morrow morning at 6 o'cloke.

Eighth Session. Saturday morning 6 o'cloke.

After prayer, the Presbytery of Bangor concluded their defence. The Presbytery & the commissioners having withdrawn; the Synod after mature & serious deliberation came to the following resolutions.

Resolved unanimously, that the conduct of the Presbytery of Bangor, relative to Mr Ker & the congregation of Ballee, has not in all respects been proper.

Resolved, that Mr Ker be appointed constant supplier to the Congregation of Ballee until the last Tuesday in July next, when a committee consisting of the following members, Mr Thomas Henry, Mr McAnce, & Mr R. Thomson shall meet at Ballee to poll that congregation, when if a Synodical majority shall appear in Mr Ker's favor, the committee are directed to reinstate him in the pastoral charge of that Congregation.

Against this last resolution Messrs James Elder, Jas Brown, Rich'd Dill, Sam'l Dill, & John Hall protested, & promised to assign their reasons in due time.

Mr James Bankhead is appointed to preach at Ballee on Sunday se'night & read this minute to the Congregation.

A memorial from the Congregation of Newtownstewart was presented, praying the Synod to use its influence with Government in procuring to that congregation a portion of his Majesty's bounty.

The prayer of this memorial was granted, & the Moderator instructed to draw up a memorial pursuant to the spirit of the supplication of Newtownstewart, and have it presented to Government in the name of this Synod.

INTERLOCUTOR.

Dr Black stated the progress of the Suit respecting Tubermore. His conduct was approved of in this matter, & he was requested to persevere.

A statement of the receipts & payments of his Majesty's bounty ending 29th September 1809, was submitted to this Interlocutor & found correct & satisfactory.

The accounts of the Agent to the Widows' fund were examined & found correct.
AT COOKSTOWN, JUNE 26TH, 1810.

D'r Black informed the Interlocutor that he had lent the balance in his hands to Sir George Fitzgerald Hill & Marcus S. Hill, Esq.

Mr' McCullogh gave notice that he will move next year for the repeal of the regulation which imposes a fine of 40s. on the absent members.

Moved that the different Presbyteries belonging to this Synod be instructed to levy the fines off the members who have been absent for the last & current year; & that they treat as contumacious such members as refuse to pay the fine. To this motion it was moved as an amendment that the words "last year" be omitted. The Roll was called & the amendment negatived: The original motion was then put & carried.

A letter from the Trustees of the Widows' fund to the Moderator [was read] which the Mod'r is authorised to answer.

D'r Black is authorised to lend out the money in his hands belonging to the Widows' fund, on such private security as he may deem sufficient.

Synod concluded with prayer.

Inserted Feb. 8th 1811.

They have distributed during the last year 964 Bibles, & 513 Testaments,

They had occasion to apply to the Association in Dublin for a supply of Testaments, & obtained for [from] them a grant of 500 at their reduced prices.

Your committee have now on hand the following Books, formerly received as a donation from the British & Foreign Bible Society; 33 8vo. 70 royal 12mo. & 97 common 12mo. Bibles: 72 8vo. 728 12mo. Testaments, with Psalms. The Committee not having been able to dispose of these books in a manner satisfactory to themselves, request that the Synod may direct what may be done with them.

Your committee beg leave to suggest that the formation of different branches of the Hibernian Bible Society in this province has in a great measure superseded the necessity of their labours. The purposes for which your Bible Committee was appointed will now be accomplished by your recommending it to the Ministers of this Synod to encourage the formation of branches of the Hibernian Bible Society, in such places as may be thought expedient; & to become members of such branches as may be established in their respective neighbourhoods."

The Synod received this report with a grateful sense of the great trouble which the committee have had in the management of this business; & in compliance with the suggestion of the committee, earnestly recommend it to the members of the Synod to encourage the formation of branches of the Hibernian Bible Society in their respective vicinities, to avail themselves of the aid of such as are already established, for the purpose of disseminating still more extensively a knowledge of the holy Scriptures.

The Synod authorises the committee to dispose of the books on hand in such manner as they may judge best.

It was moved & agreed to, that the regulation of last year respecting the members who absent themselves from the meetings of Presbyteries, be thus amended, that each Presbytery do report the names of such members as generally absent themselves from their meetings. "Without assigning to their respective Presbyteries a sufficient reason for their absence."

The committee appointed to prepare a code of discipline for the future government of this church having reported, that they had made some progress in the work to which they had been appointed, but had not been able to finish it;

It was moved & seconded, that the further prosecution of this business be laid aside, to which motion this amendment was moved, "that the committee be requested to proceed, & if possible to prepare a report to be submitted to the Synod at its next meeting." This amendment on the the call of the Roll was carried.

The Presbyter of Clogher informed the Synod that the affair respecting the arrears due by the Congregation of Fintona, to the heirs of the Rev. Mr Moorhead had been finally settled.
A Letter was presented to the Synod from the Chairman of the Board of visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution, accompanied by the act of incorporation, & Bye-laws of that seminary of learning.

The Act of Incorporation, &c. is ordered to be in retentis & the Rev. Mr Hanna, & Mr Hen. Henry are instucted to express the satisfaction of this Synod at the progress which this institution has made.

On reading last year's Overture, it was moved & agreed to, that in reporting the suspension or publick censure of any of its members for misconduct, the Presbytery report also the cause of such suspension, or publick censure.

Mr Hanna reported from the Committee appointed to poll the Congregation of Donegore, that the committee did not see cause to proceed in the ordination of Mr Butler.

It was moved & seconded, that the vote of censure of last year on the Presbytery of Templepatrick be rescinded. To this motion the following amendment was moved, that the consideration of this subject be postponed till the next meeting of Synod, when the Presbytery of Templepatrick shall produce their minutes relative to Mr Butler & the congregation of Donegore.

After the motion of amendment had been debated at considerable length, it was resolved, that the Synod do adjourn till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock. Session concluded with prayer.

Fourth Session. Thursday Morning, 7 o'clock.

After prayer, the subject of postponing the consideration of rescinding the vote of censure on the Presbytery of Templepatrick was resumed & argued at great length, when the roll was called, & it carried, postpone. Adjourned.

Fifth Session. 10 o'clock. A.M.

The conduct of the committee which met at Donegore was approved of.

The committee appointed to poll the congregation at Ballec reported, that finding Mr Ker had not a Synodical Majority, they did not see cause to re-instate him in the pastoral charge of that congregation.

The protesting members against the decision of last year, in the matter of Ballec, & Mr Ker, gave in their reasons of protest, which are ordered to be inserted in the minutes & are as follows:—

"We protest against the proceedings of this Rev. Synod in this Protest affair for the following reasons:—

1. Because the Rev. Josiah Ker denied the doctrine of the Trinity which we consider a fundamental article of the Christian faith, the denial of which is utterly subversive of Christianity."
2. Because of his immorality & imprudence, for the Apostle Paul says, "a Bishop should be sober, of good behaviour, not given to wine, no striker, of good report, not a novice."

3. Because continuing the Rev. Josiah Ker a member of this Synod must be dishonourable to its reputation, and destructive of the souls under his care, therefore we consider him unworthy of being a member of this body."

Richd. Dill, Junr.,
James Marshal.

Resolved that this meeting on hearing the report of the Committee sent by them to Ballees, & from other circumstances are now convinced, that though the Presbytery of Bangor might have fallen into some irregularity in point of forms, yet that their conduct throughout all their proceedings in Mr. Ker's business, has been actuated by the best intentions.

Mr. Dunlop reported that he had presented a memorial to the Lord Lieutenant pursuant to the order of last Synod, praying his Excellency to place the congregation of Newtownstewart on the list with those who are in receipt of his Majesty's Bounty, & that he had the pleasure of informing the Synod that his Excellency had been pleased to grant the prayer of the memorial.

OVERTURES.

I. The following addresses to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent, & his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant were unanimously agreed to, & the Moderator is ordered to transmit them to the Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, & have them with the Answers published in the Dublin Evening Post, the Patriot, & the two Belfast newspapers.

TO HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, THE PRINCE REGENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN & IRELAND.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We the Ministers & Elders of the Gen. Synod of Ulster assembled at our annual meeting, request permission to express to your Royal Highness the deep & unfeigned sorrow with which we have been penetrated on account of the indisposition of our revered & most gracious Sovereign.

Protected during his long & equitable reign, in the enjoyment of civil & religious liberty, & distinguished by many marks of his Royal favour, we feel impelled by the united sense of duty & of gratitude to offer our earnest prayers to the Supreme disposer of all events for his speedy & complete recovery.
We entreat your Royal Highness to accept the assurance of our dutiful attachment to your Royal Highness's person, & of our humble acknowledgments for those liberal, dignified & constitutional sentiments, which your Royal Highness has taken occasion to express, & which cannot fail to inspire all classes of his Majesty's loyal subjects with an entire reliance on the wisdom of your Royal Highness's councils in the administration of the Government of this United Kingdom, during the indisposition of your Royal father.

Signed in our name & by our order, at Cookstown, this 27th day of June 1811.

JAMES BANKHEAD, Moderator.

We have great satisfaction in embracing the occasion which now offers, to present to your Grace our cordial acknowledgments of your Grace's mild & temperate government of this part of the United Kingdom, as well as for the particular kindness which we have experienced during your Grace's administration.

Signed in our name & by our order, at Cookstown, this 27th day of June 1811.

JAMES BANKHEAD, Moderator.

II. That it is the declared sentiment of this Synod, that every member of it has a right to have extracts from its Minutes, upon paying to the Clerk a reasonable compensation for his trouble in giving the same.

BILLS.

I. A memorial signed by 114 names, from a part of the Tullylish Congregation of Tullylish was presented to this Synod, complaining of the Presbytery of Dromore, & of the conduct of their Minister, the Rev. John Sherrard respecting a donation to the congregation by Dr Sims, & praying that as Mr Sherrard's Ministry can be no longer useful in Tullylish, the connection between him & that congregation may be dissolved. On the commissioners appointed to present this memorial being asked what they meant by the dissolution of the connection which they requested, they answered that they only wished Mr Sherrard to take an assistant & successor in the ministry; but that they did not wish to bring any charges against his moral character, or to deprive him of his Majesty's bounty during his life.

A memorial was also presented from another part of the congregation in behalf of Mr Sherrard & the Presbytery of Dromore, alleging that should Mr Sherrard's opponents be permitted to persist in their opposition to the decision of the Presbytery of Dromore, their congregation will be ruined, & praying that the decision of the Presbytery of Dromore may be confirmed.

Mr Sherrard & the commissioners on both sides being heard, the Presbytery of Dromore, gave a narrative of their proceedings, & the reasons on which they were founded, after which a protest against the proceedings of the Presbytery as inconsistent & irregular, signed by James Birch, John Thomson, Alex Patterson, Wm Wright, Moses Finlay, and Samuel Waterworth Elder, was read, & some of the protesting members heard in support of their reasons of protest; when it being the hour of dinner the farther consideration of this business was deferred till next Sederunt.

Adjourned till to morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Sixth Session. Friday morning 7 o'clock.

After prayer, the protesting members of the Dromore Presbytery having concluded their reasons for protesting, the Presbytery were heard in their defence at very considerable length, when the meeting adjourned till ten o'clock.

Seventh Session. Ten o'clock A.M.

Moved & unanimously agreed to, that this Synod do earnestly recommend it to Mr Sherrard & the commissioners on both sides to forget all past causes of jealousy & estrangement, & to return in friendship to their respective homes, & that the congregation of Tullylish be permitted to choose an assistant & successor to Mr Sherrard without lett or hindrance, so soon as the congregation may wish it. To which recommendation Mr Sherrard most heartily acceded, as did the commissioners on both sides.

Mr Shaw is ordered to exchange pulpits with Mr Sherrard on Sunday next, to read this minute from the pulpit, & to enforce the recommendation of the Synod on the congregation of Tullylish.

A similar recommendation from the Synod to the Presbytery of Dromore was received by that body in a similar manner.

II. A memorial from the united congregation of Sligo & Ballymote was presented to this Synod praying to be erected into two separate congregations.

Resolved, that for the present year Sligo & Ballymote have the publick services of their Minister equally divided between them; & that the Presbytery of Clogher do meet at Sligo or Ballymote, shortly before the next meeting of Synod, & report to the Synod the state of that Congregation.

III. A Memorial was presented by the Rev. Dr Dickson, complaining of the conduct of the Clerk, the Rev. Thomas Cuming, in refusing him copies of certain Synodical papers which he had required, & requesting the Synod to grant him copies of said papers.

Resolved, that Mr Cuming our Clerk acted with propriety & strictly conformable to the nature of his office in refusing official copies of the papers required.

Resolved, that copies of the following minutes of Synod be given to Dr Dickson by our Clerk, viz.:—

1. A minute of a rule of Interlocutor 1797, consequent on the death of the late Mr Millar, who died in America.

2. That of 1801, authorising supplies to be granted to the Separatists from the old congregation of Keady.

3. That of their erection in 1802.

A memorial from a part of the congregation of Ballee was dismissed, inasmuch as it was irregularly brought.

IV. Three Memorials were presented to the Synod from the majority & committee of the congregation of Ballyeaston complaining of the conduct of the Presbytery of Templepatrick in refusing to forward the call & Ordination of the Rev. Samuel Butler, as their stated pastor, & praying to be taken from under the care of the Presbytery of Templepatrick, & put under the care of some other presbytery.

A memorial was also presented from the minority of that congregation alleging that the poll for Mr Butler had been irregular, & praying this Synod to dismiss him altogether from the consideration of the congregation as their Minister, as the only means of preserving the peace & promoting the welfare of the congregation; and to continue them under the care of the Presbytery of Templepatrick.

The commissioners on both sides were heard, as were the Presbytery in their defence, at considerable length, when the Synod adjourned till 8 o'clock this evening.

_Eighth Session. Eight o'clock, P.M._

The Presbytery of Templepatrick concluded their defence, when the Synod adjourned till to-morrow morning at seven o'clock.

_Ninth Session. Saturday morning, seven o'clock._

The Synod proceeded to interrogate the commissioners & Presbytery of Templepatrick respecting the proceedings on the poll, &c. for Mr Butler, when the meeting adjourned.
Tenth Session. Ten o'clock. A.M.

The presbytery of Templepatrick & commissioners having withdrawn, & the Synod having maturely deliberated on the subject; it was resolved that a committee consisting of the following brethren, viz. Messrs James Bankhead, Thomas Henry, Nathaniel Shaw, Samuel Hanna, and William Wright be appointed to take the congregation of Ballyeaaston under their care until the meeting of Synod immediately after their settlement & that said committee do meet at Ballyeaaston on last Tuesday in July to poll the congregation respecting Mr Butler, in taking which poll the committee is to confine itself to the list furnished to Mr Campbell on the former poll: and shall forward a call & proceed to the ordination of Mr Butler, or not, as they see cause: and if they do not see it proper to proceed with the settlement of Mr Butler, they are to take such steps as to them may appear regular to forward the settlement of that congregation.

Resolved that the consideration of the conduct of the Presbytery of Templepatrick be postponed till next meeting of Synod.

INTERLOCUTOR.

Dr Black reported, that he had, under the advice of counsel, prosecuted the business of Tubermore, but the congregation having obtained the actual possession of the meeting-house further proceedings became unnecessary.

Resolved, that Dr Black's conduct be approved of, & that he be requested, should any attempt be made to recover possession of the meeting-house by the opposite party to resist it by every legal means.

A statement of the receipts & payments of his Majesty's Bounty ending the 29th September 1810 were submitted to the Interlocutor, & found correct & satisfactory.

The accounts of the Treasurer for the Widows' fund were examined & found correct.

Mr McCullogh, in pursuance of his notice last year, moved that the regulation imposing fines for absence be now rescinded.

On the call of the Roll this motion was carried, & all fines paid under the operation of that rule are ordered to be refunded.

Dr Black reported that he had lent the balance of last year to the corporation of Londonderry.

A letter from the Trustees of the Widows' fund was read, which Dr Black is appointed to answer.

Resolved that the following contributors, viz., Messrs Wm Moore, Wm Dunlop, Tho. Henry, And Millar, & Wm Porter, be the committee for managing the affairs of the Widows' fund for the present year, & that they shall meet at Londonderry on any emergency that may arise.

Resolved that for the present year, the annuity to be paid to the Widows be £36.
AT COOKSTOWN, JUNE 25TH, 1811.

M' Malcom gave notice that he will move the Interlocutor next year, that the annuity be continued to the children of the contributors ten years instead of eight.

1. That the eleventh regulation of the Widows' fund as published in 1809, be repealed.

2. That no minister having once become a contributor to the fund, shall be at liberty to cease being a contributor, so long as he is in the receipt of his Majesty's bounty.

Resolved that the Agent be requested to deduct 30s. from the next half-year's R.D. of each Minister in the first class, 22s. & 6d. from the R.D. of each Minister in the second class, & 16s. from the R.D. of each minister in the third class, & to apply the amount in discharging the debts of the Synod.

M' Hanna gave notice that he will move the Synod next year to afford some support to the society lately formed in London for promoting the conversion of the Jews.

Synod concluded with prayer.

THOMAS CUMING, Clerk of Gen. Synod.

These with an Elder from each Presbytery, and our Moderator & Clerk, are to meet at Cookstown when called by the Moderator on any emergency: Fifteen to be a quorum, of whom twelve, at least, are to be ministers.

Adjourned. Committees to meet immediately. Open Synod at half-past one o'clock.
Third Session. Wednesday, half-past one o'clock, P.M.

Resolved unanimously that Cookstown be the place of the Synod's meeting next year. The meeting to take place on the last Tuesday in June next. Divine service to begin at five o'clock, afternoon.

M' Munfoad on the part of the Synod's late Bible committee stated that there was still a balance of £42 : 16 : 3½ in the hands of the Committee, & requested instructions how to apply this money.

The Synod instruct the Committee to hand this money over to the Hibernian bible Society.

In consequence of an application from the Belfast branch of the Hibernian bible Society, it was unanimously resolved that it be recommended to the members of this Synod to exert their utmost influence in procuring subscriptions & donations in their respective neighbourhoods in favour of the Hibernian bible Society; and that the members of our body in the counties of Down, Antrim & Derry do give their utmost aid to the Belfast branch of the Society in forming minor branches in said counties; and that it be recommended to them to preach a Sermon in their respective congregations, & make a collection for the Society, agreeably to the application which they may receive from the Belfast branch.

The committee appointed to draw up a code of discipline for the regulation of this Church, reported progress, & asked leave to sit again. Granted.

The Presbytery of Templepatrick having produced their minutes respecting M' Butler & the Congregation of Donegore, according to the order of last year, it was resolved that this Synod do not see cause to rescind the resolution of censure; but are ready to declare, from the statement now made by that presbytery, that their irregularity did not originate in evil intentions.

On reading the addresses of last year to the Prince Regent & the Lord Lieutenant, M' James Bankhead, the late Moderator, produced the Prince Regent's & the Lord Lieutenant's answers, which were read. But the addresses and answers not having been published by M' Bankhead according to the order of the last Synod, it was unanimously resolved, that M' Bankhead's conduct in declining to publish the addresses and their answers, is highly reprehensible. The Answers to our addresses are ordered to be inserted in our minutes; but while the Synod regrets that the addresses with their answers have not been published in due time, according to the order & intention of this body, it judges it unnecessary to publish them now.

Rev. James Bankhead, Moderator of the Synod of Ulster.

W. W. POLE.

Session concluded with prayer. Open Synod to-morrow morning at 7 o’clock.

Fourth Session. Thursday morning, 7 o’clock.

After prayer, on reading the minute of last year respecting Mr Sherrard and the Congregation of Tullylish, a letter from Mr Sherrard to the Synod was read, complaining of some expressions in said minutes as reflecting on his moral character, & praying the Synod either to expunge said expressions from their minutes, or to appoint a committee to hear Mr Sherrard’s statement of facts, & report their opinion to the Synod.

After some discussion, the commissioner who answered the question of the Synod last year, being present, declared that the Congregation of Tullylish never had any charges against the moral character of Mr Sherrard.

It having appeared that the Presbytery of Clogher had neglected to comply with the order of the Synod last year, respecting Sligo & Ballymote, the Synod expresses its strong displeasure at this inattention to their duty & enjoins the Presbytery to meet at Sligo in the course of the present year, & make a report of the state of that congregation to the Synod at its next meeting.

Adjourned till half-past ten o'clock.

Fifth Session. Half-past ten o'clock, A.M.

On reading the minute of last Synod respecting Dr. Dickson's memorial, Dr. Black begged leave in pursuance of previous notice, to call the attention of the Synod to a book published since our last meeting by Dr. Dickson, in which as Dr. Black allledged, were contained false and unfounded assertions & reflections upon the character of this Synod, & being heard at great length in refutation of said assertions and in justification of this Synod; and Dr. Dickson being likewise heard at great length in reply; it was unanimously agreed to, on referring to the Synod's minute of 1799, that by the phrase "implicated in treasonable or seditious practices," the Synod did not mean to express anything more than that Dr. Dickson & Mr. Smyth, two of the persons therein alluded to, had been confined by Government under suspicion of treason or sedition, & that the Synod now attaches no other meaning to that expression, & if that expression has been otherwise understood or applied, the meaning of the Synod has been misconceived.

Resolved unanimously, that it is the opinion of this Synod that in the narrative published by Dr. Dickson there are a number of gross mistatements & misrepresentations, highly injurious to the reputation of the ministers of this body.

The Synod having thought proper that Dr. Dickson should publickly retract his mistatements & misrepresentations, & Dr. Dickson having expressed a wish that the Synod should prepare a declaration to that effect, the Synod appoints Messrs. John Thomson, James Horner, Samuel Hanna, William Wright, and James Bankhead, to meet this evening and draw up a form of declaration for Dr. Dickson to sign.

Sixth Session. Friday Morning, 7 o'clock.

After prayer, the committee appointed to draw up a form of declaration for Dr. Dickson's signature, submitted it to the Synod, which after an amendment was approved of, and handed to Dr. Dickson for his consideration until next Sederunt.

The declaration is as follows:—

From the sense of the duty I owe to myself, to the publick, and especially to the Rev. Synod of Ulster, I feel myself called upon to acknowledge and declare, in the most publick and solemn manner that my publickation entitled "a narrative of the confinement & exile of William Steel Dickson, D.D.," contains a number of mistatements & misrepresentations (partly arising from misconception) injurious to the character of the Ministers of this body, & to the Presbyterian cause, and I hope this Rev. Body will now accept my acknowledgments of my deep regret and sincere contrition for having published them.

Adjourned till half-past ten o'clock.
Seventh Session. Half-past ten o'clock, A.M.

Dr. Dickson having considered the form of declaration offered to him by the Synod, expressed his determination to decline giving it his signature.

Moved that Dr. Dickson be suspended ab officio, until he shall publickly retract his misstatements & misrepresentations respecting the ministers of this body, in a manner satisfactory to the Synod.

To this motion the following amendment was moved and agreed to, that the consideration of this business be postponed till the meeting of the Synod next year, to allow Dr. Dickson an opportunity of publickly retracting his misstatements & misrepresentations.

Resolved unanimously that the Synod return Dr. Black their hearty thanks for the display of zeal & ability manifested by him in vindicating the honor & character of this body from the aspersions contained in Dr. Dickson's narrative & that he be requested to publish his statement in vindication of the ministers of the Synod.

Dr. Black was thanked accordingly from the Chair, & promised to comply with the request of the Synod.

The committee appointed last year to take charge of and poll the congregation of Ballyeaston reported, that they had polled the congregation according to the order of the Synod, but from the great difficulties of this case, they had thought proper to postpone Mr. Butler's ordination, and refer the matter to the Synod.

BILLS.

I. Connected with the report a memorial was presented to the Synod by the majority of the Congregation of Ballyeaston, which was rejected on account of the indecency and scurrility of its language.

A memorial was also read from the minority of that congregation.

After hearing the committee at large in accounting for the line of conduct they had thought proper to pursue, & two persons on the part of the majority, & as many on behalf of the minority being appointed to act for their respective parties, the further consideration of this business was adjourned till to-morrow morning.

Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Eighth Session. Saturday morning, 7 o'clock.

After prayer, Mr. Hanna on the part of Mr. Butler, the candidate for the congregation of Ballyeaston, signified Mr. Butler's intention to resign the call from that Congregation.

The Synod express their great satisfaction at the evidence now given by Mr. Butler of his disinterested regard to the peace of that congregation, and order it to remain under the care of the committee of last year, with the addition of the Rev. John Thomson on account of the dangerous illness of M' Shaw, one of its members.

The congregation of Ballyeaston is ordered to make out with all convenient speed, a list of such persons or their representatives, as paid stipend to the publick collector at the time of M' Montgomery's death, and deliver the same to the committee at their fixed meeting in Ballyeaston; and that in case the committee shall find occasion to poll the congregation respecting a candidate, they shall take the votes of such persons only being members, or representatives of members, as above stated, who shall have paid their stipend to the term immediately preceeding the taking of such poll.

The consideration of the conduct of the Presbytery of Temple-patrick, on account of the great press of business, is postponed till next year.

II. A memorial was presented to the Synod signed by fifty-eight Clare members of the congregation of Clare, complaining of the conduct of certain disorderly persons in that congregation in shutting the doors of their meeting-house against the Rev. M' Adams their minister, thereby preventing them from enjoying the benefit of publick worship for more than three months, & praying the interposition of the Synod to have the doors of their meeting-house opened, for the publick worship as usual.

A memorial was also presented from a part of the congregation styling themselves a Synodical majority of the congregation of Clare, expressing their dissatisfaction at the decision of the Presbytery of Armagh, on certain charges brought against M' Adams, & praying for a re-hearing of said charges before the Synod.

The minutes of the Presbytery of Armagh respecting the whole of this business were read, when the Synod adjourned till eleven o'clock.

Ninth Session. Saturday, eleven o'clock, A.M.

The business respecting the congregation of Clare being resumed and the commissioners from the majority being asked, Were they prepared to deliver the keys of their meeting-house to this Synod? Answered they were not. Whereupon it was resolved that they could not be received as commissioners, & that their memorial be dismissed.

Resolved unanimously, that the proceedings of the Presbytery of Armagh in this affair be highly approved of.

Ordered, that a committee, consisting of the following members, viz., the Rev. Messrs Moore, Patterson, & Morell, with Samuel Allen, and Hugh Whyte Esq' Elders, be appointed to meet in Armagh on Friday the 17th Inst. at 11 o'clock A.M. then & there to issue every matter in dispute between M' Adams & the congregation of Clare. Three to be a quorum, of which two at least are to be ministers.
M' Malcom is ordered to exchange pulpits with M' Adams on Sunday se'nigh & read this minute to the congregation. The Presbytery of Armagh are enjoined to attend the meeting of the committee, & give them such information as they may require.

III. A memorial from the congregation of Cavanaleck was read, complaining of the Presbytery of Clogher for refusing to hear their charges against the moral character of the Rev. William Johnston their Minister, and praying the advice of the Synod.

After hearing the Presbytery of Clogher in explanation of their conduct, it was moved and unanimously agreed to, that the Presbytery of Clogher be rebuked for their very great neglect & inattention to the interests of religion in their proceedings respecting M' Johnston & the congregation of Cavanaleck.

The presbytery were rebuked by the Moderator accordingly.

Resolved that the following members, viz., Messrs. W. Dunlop, J. Gowdy, Guilkie, Hemphill, P. Whyte, Trimble and Harpur, with their Elders, be appointed to meet at Fivemiletown on the Second Tuesday of August next, to enquire into the moral character of the Rev. Wm. Johnson of the Presbytery of Clogher, & to do therein as to justice shall appertain. Five to be a quorum, of which two at least are to be ministers.

IV. A supplication from the protestant dissenters of Magilligan praying to be erected into a congregation was presented to the Synod.

After hearing M' Macurdy, the commissioner who presented this memorial, the Synod, in consequence of the rule which forbids any congregation to be erected at the meeting to which the application for an erection is made, deferred the consideration of this subject till next year, & recommended it to Messrs. Rentoul, Greer & Dill, the neighbouring ministers to supply the suppliants with preaching as often as possible.

V. A memorial from the Rev. Josiah Ker, late minister of Ballee, was read complaining that the Presbytery of Bangor had ordained the Rev. David Whyte to the pastoral charge of that congregation without having first settled M' Ker's accounts with the congregation, & praying redress.

The Synod refer this affair to the presbytery of Bangor, and recommend it to them to re-examine the accounts and if any money be due to M' Ker, to have it paid.

M' Hanna stated, that at the request of the committee of overtures, he had determined to postpone his motion respecting the society for promoting the conversion of the Jews, until next year.

A letter was presented to the Synod from the Rev. M' Waugh, which was read, when it was unanimously resolved, that this Synod express their approbation of the object of the London Missionary Society, and leave it to the members of this body who may consider it expedient, to invite the Rev. M' Waugh to explain in their respective places of Worship the views and success of this society & solicit contributions for its support.
A statement of the receipts & payments of his Majesty's bounty, ending the 29th September, 1811, was submitted to the Interlocutor, & found correct and satisfactory.

The Accounts of the Treasurer of the Widows' fund up to 1st October, 1811, were examined & found correct.

The committee for managing the affairs of the Widows' fund for the last year reported, that they had lent £700 of the capital of the Widows' fund to James Galbraith Esq', on a mortgage of the lands of Langfield, in the county Tyrone.

On the report of Dr Black it was ordered that the annuity to be paid the Widows this year be £40.

Mr Malcom withdrew the motion of which he gave notice last year.

Dr Willm Neilson by letter to the Moderator, begged leave to postpone his intended motions till next year.

Dr Black reported, that he had discharged the debts of the Synod and had in his hands a balance of £26:2:7.

Ordered that Dr Black do lend the balance of the capital of the widows' fund in his hands, on such security as he may deem eligible.

Synod concluded with Prayer.

THO. CUMING, Clerk G.S.

These with an Elder from each Presbytery, & our Moderator & Clerk are to meet at Cookstown when called by the Moderator on any emergency: Fifteen to be a Quorum, of whom twelve at least are to be Ministers.

Adjourned. Committees to meet immediately. Open Synod at two o'clock.

Third Session. Wednesday, 2 o'clock, P.M.

Cookstown & Belfast were put in nomination as places of the Synod’s meeting next year. The Roll was called & Cookstown carried. The meeting to take place on the last Tuesday in June next. Divine Service to begin at 5 o'clock afternoon.

Mr. Munfoid reported that £42: 16: 3½, being the sum in the hands of the Synod’s late Bible Society, has been handed over to the Hibernian Bible Society, according to the instructions of the Synod at its last meeting.

Mr. Hanna reported that the recommendation of the last Synod Bible societies in favour of extending the Societies in connection with the Belfast branch of the Hibernian Bible Society, had been attended with the happiest effects.

Mr. John Thomson, on the part of the committee appointed to prepare a code of discipline for the government of this church, read an outline of a plan for that purpose, which the committee for want of time, had not been able to complete.

Resolved that this Synod entertain a strong sense of the zeal and ability with which the committee have taken up & prosecuted so far as they have gone, the business committed to their care: that they instruct the committee to proceed in this most necessary work, & that the code of discipline be preceded by a form of Presbyterian church Government.

The Presbytery of Clogher having made their report respecting the united congregation of Sligo & Ballymote, the Synod are of opinion that the circumstances of that congregation do not warrant a dissolution of the Union & that Mr. Scott’s publick ministerial services be equally divided between Sligo & Ballymote.
On reading the minute of last year respecting Dr Dickson, Mr Porter signified his intention of moving that the entire minute shall be rescinded; but in order to come to his purpose with more effect, he intended to move separately on certain points pending between Dr Dickson & the members of this Synod. Accordingly, adverting to the first of Dr Black’s charges against Dr Dickson, he moved that the Synod of 1799 acted inconsiderately in declaring, without enquiry & without evidence, that two members of their body, then in confinement, “were implicated in treasonable or seditious practices.”

This motion was opposed as being out of order, and after a tedious discussion, its further consideration was deferred till the next sederunt.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning, at 7 o’clock.

Fourth Session. Thursday morning at 7 o’clock.

After prayer, the debate on Mr Porter’s motion was resumed, when after a long discussion, the previous question was put & negatived. Adjourned till 10 o’clock.

Fifth Session. Thursday morning 10 o’clock.

After prayer, the discussion on Mr Porter’s motion was resumed, & the following amendment moved, that after the word “that” the remaining words of the original motion be omitted, and the following substituted in their place: “it is not expedient to proceed further in the business respecting Dr Dickson.” On the call of the roll this amendment was negatived, after which the motion, with the consent of the mover & seconder, was thus amended, “that in the minute of 1799, the phrase ‘implicated in treasonable or seditious practices,’ as applied to two of its members then in confinement, was inaccurately used, inasmuch as it appears to be liable to an unfavourable construction respecting them.” On the call of the Roll, the motion thus amended was carried.

Moved that this Synod regrets that the Synod of 1805 dismissed, without an answer, a memorial presented to them by Dr Dickson, requiring them to declare whether the expression “implicated in treasonable or seditious practices” in the minute of 1799, alluded to him, & if so, what was the meaning attached to it. The Roll was called & the motion carried.

Against these two resolutions Mr Wright & several other members signified their intention of protesting, & assigning their reasons in due time.

Synod adjourned with prayer, till to-morrow morning at 7 o’clock.

Sixth Session. Friday Morning, 7 o’clock.

After prayer, it was moved that an insinuation against the Synod contained in a book lately published by Dr Dickson entitled “a narrative, &c." of having from motives of hostility to him & his present congregation of Keady, wilfully neglected their interests in the late arrangement of bounty is unfounded.

In the course of the debate on this motion, John Haslet an elder from the 4th Congregation of Belfast, having asserted, that the portion of bounty, intended by Government for the newly erected congregation of Keady, had been given to pay the Synod's Clerk in 1805, & he believed he could prove it; it was unanimously resolved, that the above assertion is a gross and unfounded calumny against the Agent for the distribution of his Majesty's bounty, & the Synod.

Moved & seconded, that the name of John Haslet be expunged from the Roll of this Synod. On the call of the roll, this motion was carried by a great Majority.

Adjourned till half-past ten o'clock.

Seventh Session. Half-past 10 o'clock, A.M.

The discussion of the motion of the last sedent respecting Dr. Dickson's insinuation against the Synod being resumed, the following amendment was moved that after the word "that" the remaining words of the motion be left out, & the following substituted in their place: "That the Synod as a body had not the means of informing the Congregation of Keady, why they were not included in the negotiation for bounty in 1803, but that this Synod is ready to aid a memorial to Government, that that congregation may be included in the bounty list."

This amendment on the call of the roll was negatived.

The original motion was then agreed to.

Moved & unanimously agreed to, that an assertion made by Dr. Dickson, in his "Narrative," "that during his confinement, a motion was made in Synod & supported by certain members for suspending him from the ministerial office" is unfounded.

Moved & unanimously agreed to, that a complaint made by Dr. Dickson in the same publication against the ministers of this body, for having excluded him from being a contributor to the Widows' fund," is unfounded.

Moved that a charge preferred at our last meeting, by Dr. Black & Mr. Thomson of Carnmoney against Dr. Dickson, of having grossly violated truth & decency, in the account given by him of a discussion which took place at the meeting of Synod in the year 1799 relative to the exclusion of Mr. Porter from the Widows' fund, has not been substantiated.

On this motion the previous question was put and carried.

Against the previous question on this motion, Mr. Porter & others signified their intention to protest & to assign their reasons in due time.
Moved that this Synod does not consider itself responsible for the Book published since our last meeting by Dr Black, entitled "Substance &c."

Dr Black rose and declared that he took the whole responsibility of that publication on himself, on which the motion was withdrawn.

Ordered that a copy of the three resolutions respecting Dr Dickson be given him for his consideration, till to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

The committee appointed to take charge of the congregation of Ballyeaston reported that the Rev. Sam. Elder had been ordained on the 23rd ultimo as stated pastor of that Congregation, & that complete harmony had been happily restored.

Resolved that the Presbytery of Templepatrick did not act incorrectly with respect to the congregation of Ballyeaston.

The committee appointed to enquire into the moral conduct of the Rev. Mr Johnston reported that the charges against Mr Johnston's character had been withdrawn, & that the committee considered the business as issued.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at six o'clock.

Eighth Session. Saturday morning 6 o'clock.

After prayer, Mr Hanna begged leave to postpone his intended motion respecting the conversion of the Jews till next year.

Mr John Thomson presented a letter from the manager and visitors of the Belfast academical institution, referring to a former letter to the Synod.

Resolved, that this Synod is ready to confer with the Belfast Academical institution on the best means of promoting its interests, & for this purpose appoint a Committee consisting of the following members, viz., Messrs J. Thomson, A. Malcolm, R. Acheson, Dr W. Neilson, N. Alexander, Jno. Whiteside, W. Moore, W. Dunlop, S. Hanna, T. Alexander, R. Stewart, W. Porter, A. Millar, R. Hogg, Jas Bankhead and G. Hay, to meet the managers in Belfast, on the second Wednesday in August next. The Moderator is ordered to communicate this minute to the board of managers.

A memorial from certain Students in Glasgow College was received & referred to the above committee to be reported on at our next meeting.

OVERTURE.

The following declaration was agreed to, & ordered to be published.

That however reluctant we may be to obtrude our political sentiments on the attention of the publick, we feel ourselves called on, at this time, explicitly to avow our unshaken attachment to the principles of the British constitution, an attachment inculcated by our fathers and confirmed by our own observation & experience.

Sensible of the blessings of that civil & religious liberty which we enjoy, we cannot be uninterested Spectators of the exertions which are made to extend them to all our fellow-subjects. Actuated by the spirit of the Gospel, which teaches us to promote "peace on earth & good-will towards men," and earnestly desirous that this benevolent spirit should be cherished by the people under our care, we consider it our duty to declare, that from the abolition of political distinctions on account of religious profession, so far as may be consistent with the principles of the constitution, we anticipate the happiest consequences. Hence we conceive would arise a union of interest, the firmest bond of society, and a sense of gratitude, the sure ground of fidelity & attachment; while the baneful operation of party spirit would be restrained, & the pretext removed which selfish & designing men employ to agitate & pervert the publick mind.

BILLS.

I. A supplication was presented from certain members of the congregation of Ballykelly, Drumboe, & Drumacose returning their grateful thanks to the Synod for their attention to their petition last year, & praying to be erected into a separate congregation.

This supplication is unanimously granted, and the congregation put under the care of the Presbytery of Root.

Adjourned till ten o'clock.

Ninth Session. Saturday, ten o'clock, A.M.

II. A supplication was presented to the Synod from that part of Clare the congregation of Clare, which adhered to Mr. Adams & the Synod, stating that the refractory members of the congregation continued to exclude Mr. Adams from the meeting-house & had called in Seceders, who had supplied & continue to supply that part of the congregation with preaching. Supplicants pray the interposition of the Synod to put Mr. Adams in possession of his Meeting-house.

A supplication was also presented from 81 members of said congregation declaring their unwillingness to connect themselves with the Seceders, & praying the disannexion of Mr. Adams from the congregation as the only means of restoring peace, & preserving the congregation under the care of the Synod.

After hearing the Commissioners, Mr. Adams & the Presbytery of Armagh, it was unanimously resolved, that this congregation shall be put under the care of a committee of the General Synod, & that the committee may allow the people to invite a probationer on trial; and if elected, may ordain him as Assistant & Successor to Mr. Adams. The congregation to be informed that an assistant Minister is to be granted them, provided the friends to order & discipline in that place will submit respectfully to the Authority of the Synod, & give their countenance & aid to the Ministers sent there by this body.

Names of the committee, Saml Hanna, Wm Wright, John McCance, Wm Magowan, David Bennet, Moses Finlay, John Johnston.

Dr Dickson having been heard at considerable length on the subject of the resolutions given to him yesterday, handed a paper to the Clerk, as his apology & explanation.

Resolved, that this Synod disapprove of what Dr Dickson has offered as an Apology; but that under all the circumstances, they dismiss this subject, & order said paper to be returned to Dr Dickson.

Notice of protest

Against this resolution Mr Wright & others signified their intention of protesting, & of assigning their reasons in due time.

III. A memorial was presented to the Synod from the congregation of Ballyeacon, requesting to be taken from under the care of the Presbytery of Templepatrick & put under the care of the Presbytery of Belfast.

Ordered that the Congregation of Ballyeacon remain under the care of the Synod's committee for the present year.

Mr Josiah Ker, in consequence of his application to the Synod, is disannexed from the Presbytery of Bangor & put under the care of the Presbytery of Armagh.

Reasons of protest against sustaining the report of the Belfast Presbytery respecting Mr Walker.

We whose names are subjoined protest for the following reasons, viz:—

1st. Because a minister of the Gospel to be useful, must be "blameless."

2d Because Mr Walker's confession & marriage of the woman cannot, from the circumstances in which he stood, be regarded as satisfactory evidence of genuine repentance.

3d Because the censure appears to bear no suitable proportion to the magnitude of the offence, & is not agreeable to the usage or discipline of this body.

4th Because it establishes a precedent which is dangerous to the interests of religion & morality in general & in particular cherishes a spirit of resistance to the exercise of discipline in our congregations.

Protest against the previous question in the case of M’rs Porter.

We the undersigned members of Synod protest against the foregoing decision, for the following reasons.

1st. Because the moving of the previous question in this case, when the merits of the original motion had been only partly entered into, appears to us an infringement on the right on free discussion.

2d. Because we are now convinced that what Dr Dickson has stated in his "Narrative" on this subject is substantially true, though perhaps in one unimportant point, not literally correct—inasmuch as it hath appeared from incontrovertible testimony, that an animated discussion did take place, not only in 1799, but in the year preceding, relative to the exclusion of M’rs Porter from the list of annuitants on the Widows’ fund; and also from a letter from a member of this body read by Dr Black, in opposition to the original motion, which letter contains a statement to this affect, that “it was thought unnecessary to put the question,” thus admitting that the observations which introduced the affair, were considered as equivalent to a motion.

INTERLOCUTOR.

A statement of the receipts and payments of his Majesty’s bounty, ending the 29th September last, was submitted to the Interlocutor & found correct & satisfactory.

The accounts of the treasurer of the Widows fund up to the 1st of October 1812 were examined & found correct.

Dr Wm Neilson begged leave to postpone his intended motions till next year.

Dr Black reported that he had lent the balance, in his hands, of the capital of the Widows’ fund, to William Todd Esq., & John McIlwain.

Ordered, that Dr Black do lend the balance of the capital of said fund, now in his hands, on such security as he may deem eligible.

Ordered that the annuity to be paid the widows this year be £40.
On the representation of Dr Black he is instructed to pay £20, one moiety of said annuity, so soon after the 1st of April next, as he may have sufficient funds in his hands.

Mr Boyle gave notice that he will move at the meeting of the Interlocutor next year, that the annual subscription of the contributors to the Widows' fund be increased from two to three pounds.

Synod concluded with prayer.

These with and Elder from each presbytery, our Moderator & Clerk, are to mee at Cookstown when called by the Moderator on any emergency; Fifteen to be a Quorum, of whom twelve at least are to be Ministers.

Adjourned. Committees to meet immediately. Open Synod at 1 o'clock.

Third Session. Wednesday, 1 o'clock, .P.M.

Moved that Cookstown be the place of the Synod's meeting next year. Belfast was also put in nomination. The Roll was called & Belfast carried. The meeting to take place on the last Tuesday in June next, in the meeting-house of the third congregation of Belfast. Divine service to begin at 5 o'clock Afternoon.
Mr Thomson on the part of the committee appointed to prepare a code of discipline for the government of this Church, reported that they had not been able to complete the work, but that they had made some progress, & were willing if desired, to prosecute the business until its completion.

Resolved that the committee be continued, & instructed to proceed to fulfil their appointment, with as little delay as possible.

Mr Wright according to his notice of last year, gave in his reasons of protest, which are as follows:—

1. Because I feel confident that the Synod of 1813 was less competent to judge on the subject alluded to than the Synods of 1799 and 1805.

2. Because the proceedings of last year on this subject cast a reflection & stigma on characters high in the estimation of this body, men who are now no more.

3. Because the proceeding was irregular, unprecedented, & of dangerous tendency.

On reading the minute of last year respecting the publication of Dr Black's speeches, it was moved that each Minister of the Synod be ordered to pay for 20 Copies of his pamphlet, published at their request. To this motion the following amendment was moved,—"That it be recommended by the Moderator to each minister of this Synod to pay Dr Black for 20 copies of his publication." The motion thus amended was carried, & the Moderator recommended accordingly.

Mr Thomson as chairman of the committee appointed to confer with the Managers & visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution, reported that the Committee had met at Belfast according to appointment, where they had been waited on by the Managers & Visitors, who communicated to the committee the means by which they conceived the Synod had it in their power to promote the interest of the institution. In consequence of this communication the committee agreed to recommend to the Synod.

1. That the same respect be paid by the Synod of Ulster to the certificates of the Belfast Academical Institution, of attendance & progress of the Students in learning, as to the certificates from foreign universities; so soon as adequate professors are appointed to lecture, in this institution, on the different branches of Science which the Synod points out to the Students under its care.

2. The committee recommend to the serious consideration of the Synod the expediency of establishing in the Belfast Institution a Professorship of Divinity, Hebrew & Ecclesiastical history.

3. They recommend to the members of the Synod to assist in raising subscriptions in their different congregations, which will be appropriated solely to the literary department of the Institution.

Moved & seconded that the consideration of this subject be postponed, & recommended to the serious consideration of the Synod till its next meeting. After some discussion, the Synod adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.
Fourth Session. Thursday morning 7 o'clock.

After prayer, the discussion of the motion for postponing the consideration of the recommendation of the Synod's committee respecting the Belfast Academical Institution, being resumed, the motion was carried unanimously.

Resolved that the following letter to the Rev. John Thomson, Chairman of the Synod's deputation be inserted in the minutes.

Belfast 25th June 1814.

Reverend Sir,

Since the Managers & visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution had the honor of meeting you & the other Gentlemen who composed the deputation from the Synod of Ulster in August last, several very important circumstances have occurred in the affairs of the Institution, which they wish you to communicate to the other members of the deputation, and also to the Synod.

All the principal schools of the Institution have been opened & masters selected eminently qualified to give to youth a critical knowledge of the Greek, Latin, English & French languages; as also of Arithmetic & Mathematics. The writing department has also been remarkably well filled. The Managers & Visitors have also to inform you, that there is now delivering a course of lectures on Natural Philosophy, another on Chymstry, and a third on Mechanics by a very able professor, Dr Andrew Ure from the Andersonian Institution, Glasgow:—a gentleman well acquainted with those sciences, and familiar with all the late important discoveries.

The Managers & Visitors have farther to inform you that in the month of November last they had a petition presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant praying that his Lordship would be pleased to sanction an application from them to the Imperial Parliament, for pecuniary aid. This his Excellency has been graciously pleased to do. In the course of the Winter a petition was presented to the House of Commons; & in the month of March their Secretary had an official letter from Mr Fitzgerald the Irish Chancellor of the Exchequer, stating that he would present the petition to Parliament, & move for a grant of money in aid of their funds. In the progress of the session their petition was presented, & referred to a Committee, who reported favourably on the prayer of the petition, & in a few days the Managers & Visitors expect to have an account of a grant being voted in aid of their funds.

Thus situated, they feel confident that it will shortly be in their power to appoint additional Professors, particularly one for Moral Philosophy, Logic & Metaphysics, which were considered by the deputation in their individual capacities, as most necessary to complete the studies of Students in Divinity, under the charge of the Synod of Ulster.

The Managers & Visitors beg the favour of your communicating these particulars to the Gen. Synod of Ulster. They have no doubt but collections could be made for an ample provision for the endowment of a Professorship of Divinity, Hebrew & Church History, in the several congregations under the charge of the Synod, the establishment of which would meet the wishes of the present students, & in future render the migration of Irish Students to another country unnecessary.

With much respect, I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant
Signed by order
DONEGALL President.

Resolved unanimously, that the conduct of the Synod's deputation to the Belfast Institution be approved of.

Resolved, that the Moderator be instructed to apply to Government for a portion of his Majesty's bounty to the newly erected congregation of Magilligan.

The committee appointed to take charge of the congregation of Clare, made their report.

Adjourned till ten o'clock.

Fifth Session. Thursday, ten o'clock, A.M.

After prayer, M' Wright gave in his reasons of protest against dismissing the subject of Dr. Dickson's apology last year, which are as follows:

'Because by dismissing this subject the Synod does not do justice to its character as a body, nor to individual members of it, whose characters have been attacked by Dr. Dickson in his narrative & retraction.'

Ordered that the congregation of Ballyeaston do return to the care of the Presbytery of Templepatrick.

OVERTURES.

I. The following addresses to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent, & his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant were unanimously agreed to.

TO HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, THE PRINCE REGENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN & IRELAND.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We his Majesty's most dutiful & loyal subjects, the Presbyterian Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, assembled at our annual meeting, request permission to offer to your Royal Highness our humble congratulations on the re-establishment of peace among the states of Europe, & to express our anxious hope for a speedy & honorable issue of the contest in which your Royal Highness is still engaged.

During the late war with France & her dependencies, now so happily terminated, we ceased not to offer up our prayers to Him who ruleth over the nations to guide & prosper the counsels of your Royal Father, our beloved King, in his endeavours to maintain the rights & liberties of his people, & to restore order to a distracted world.

We behold with gratitude & satisfaction the measures pursued by your Royal Highness in furtherance of the same great & salutary objects, & we have now to join in thanksgiving to Almighty God who hath so signally manifested his protection of this realm, during a long & arduous contest.

Under the direction of his unerring Providence the efforts of your Royal Highness, & those of your august allies, have been crowned with the desired success; the arrogant pretensions of lawless ambition have been humbled; the sword has been wrested from the hand of the Oppressor; and suffering Europe enjoys the prospect of a long repose.

We return your Royal Highness our sincere thanks for the exertions which you have made to procure the entire abolition of the Slave trade. We regret the failure of those exertions for the present; but we entertain the fullest confidence that your Royal Highness will embrace every opportunity which may offer for putting an end to that inhuman traffic.

We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that we are duly sensible in our humble sphere of the blessings we enjoy under a free constitution, & mild & beneficent Government, & that we shall continue to inculcate on all those of our communion the principles of peace, exemplified by an obedience to the laws, & good will & affection to our fellow-subjects.

Signed in our name, & by our order, at Cookstown, this 30th day of June, 1814.

GEORGE HAY, Moderator.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY CHARLES LORD VISCOUNT WHITWORTH, LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, & GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

May it please your Excellency,

We his Majesty's most dutiful & loyal subjects, the Presbyterian Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster assembled at our annual meeting, take the liberty of requesting your Excellency to transmit the enclosed Address to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent.
We entreat your Excellency to be assured of the high estimation in which we hold your Excellency’s character, & of our perfect reliance on the wisdom & firmness of your Excellency’s administration in the impartial execution of the Laws, & the maintenance of order & tranquillity in this part of the United Kingdom.

Signed in our name, & by our order, at Cookstown, this 30th day of June 1814.

GEORGE HAY Moderator.

Resolved that fair copies of these addresses be made out & transmitted by the Moderator to the Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Addresses with their answers be published in the Dublin Evening Post, the Correspondent, the two Belfast Papers, the Nevery Telegraph, & the Londonderry Journal.

II. Overtured that Messrs Cook, John Thomson, & Stewart, do prepare a petition to Parliament for the purpose of preventing distillation on the Sabbath & submit it to the the Synod to-morrow.

The petition was drawn up & submitted accordingly, but as it could not be engrossed & ready for signatures at this meeting, the consideration of this overture was postponed till next year.

III. Overtured & unanimously agreed to, that our Moderator be enjoined to write to the Moderator of the Gen. Assembly of the Church of Scotland, to enquire whether the law of the Assembly which excludes from their pulpits, Ministers of a particular description, be intended to apply to the ministers & licentiates of the General Synod of Ulster; & if so, to request a copy it.

BILLS.

I. A supplication was presented to the Synod from the congregation of Millisle praying the Synod to instruct the Presbytery of Belfast to restore Mr. Walker, suspended until this meeting, to the congregation of Millisle, when the Synod may think prudent; as they are convinced that Mr. Walker must have been deceived in the matter of Mr. Savage’s marriage with Mrs. Arnold; & that though they admit Mr. Walker’s imprudence, yet they have the highest opinion of his goodness & integrity, & think that he would be more useful in the congregation than any other minister.

The Presbytery of Belfast, & the commissioners from the congregation, being heard at great length & ordered to withdraw, it was moved & seconded that Mr. Walker be degraded from the ministerial Office.

This motion passed unanimously.

Resolved that the Presbytery of Belfast ought to have issued this business when it came before them, without referring it to the Synod; and that we highly disapprove of the hesitation of the Presbytery in declaring their final Judgment on a matter so flagrantly immoral as the conduct of Mr. Walker; and that we feel particularly indignant at the conduct of Mr. M'Cullogh, a member of that Presbytery, in endeavouring to skreen Mr. Walker from the punishment due to his gross immorality.

II. A memorial was presented to the Synod from a part calling themselves the Synodical majority of the Congregation of Carlan, complaining of partiality & irregularity in taking a poll for Mr. Willis, a candidate for that congregation, & praying the Synod to take them from under the care of the Presbytery of Tyrone, to place them under the care of a committee of the Synod, & to instruct the committee to grant them a second hearing & poll for Mr. Willis.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

_Sixth Session. Friday morning 7 o'clock._

After prayer, the consideration of the memorial from the Congregation of Carlan was entered into, & the commissioners & Presbytery of Tyrone being heard, it was moved & agreed to, under all the circumstances, that a new poll be granted to that congregation.

Adjourned till ten o'clock.

_Seventh Session. Friday ten o'clock, A.M._

Ordered that the Presbytery of Tyrone do take a new poll for Mr. Willis in the Congregation of Carlan, strictly according to Synodical regulations.

III. A supplication was presented from the congregation of Clare, detailing at great length, the difficulties in which that part of the congregation who wish to remain in connection with the Synod are still involved, & praying the Synod to procure them a portion of the Royal bounty without which they conceive themselves utterly unable to procure & support an able & zealous Minister, without whose exertions the congregation must, in their opinion, fall into ruin: and to continue the congregation under the Synod's Committee.

The committee, & commissioners from the congregation, having been heard at great length, & the commissioners having withdrawn:

It was moved & agreed to, that the prayer of the supplication respecting the Royal Bounty cannot be complied with; but that when a minister shall be settled in that congregation, this Synod will be disposed to give their countenance & sanction to any practicable measure that may be devised for his support.

Mr. Adams signified his determination to give a full discharge to the Congregation for all stipend, on his being paid up till May 1812.

Resolved that the Synod do highly approve of the conduct of the committee appointed to take charge of the congregation of Clare, with the exception of Mr. McCance who appears to have entirely neglected his duty.
Resolved that the congregation be continued under the care of the committee of last year, with the exception of Mr. M'Cance, & the addition of Mr. M'Allister, Mr. Dobbin & Mr. Cunningham.

Resolved that said committee be empowered to supply the congregation of Clare with preaching by the ministers of this Synod, who are enjoined to give their services gratis for the space of one year, unless the congregation shall be sooner settled with a minister.

The return from the Presbytery of Belfast being read, the Presbytery were asked why they did not degrade Mr. Gray for such gross immorality as drunkenness and neglect of duty, instead of suspending him sine die; & the Presbytery being heard in accounting for their conduct: It was moved & agreed to that Mr. Gray be degraded from the ministerial office.

Resolved unanimously, that the thanks of this Synod be given to the inhabitants of Cookstown, for the uniform attention which they have discovered towards the comfort & accommodation of its members during a period of thirteen years.

Ordered that this resolution be published in the Belfast Newspapers.

INTERLOCUTOR.

A statement of the Receipts & payments of his Majesty's bounty, ending the 29th of September last, was submitted to the Interlocutor & found correct & satisfactory.

The accounts of the Treasurer of the Widows' fund were examined & found correct.

Dr. Neilson declined making the second motion of which he had given notice in 1811, but proceeded to make the first viz., that the eleventh regulation of the Widows' fund, as published in 1809, be repealed. This motion after some discussion was withdrawn.

Mr. James Bankhead gave notice that he will bring forward a motion next year to permit, under certain restrictions, degraded ministers to continue connected with the Widows' fund.

Dr. Black reported, that he had lent the balance of the widows' fund in his hands, according to the instructions of last year's Interlocutor, to Wm. Todd Esq., & that he had taken a mortgage on the lands of Buncrana for that balance & the sum formerly lent Mr. Todd, Ordered that the annuity to the Widows this year be £40, & that the payments be half-yearly.

Capital of the widows' fund in the year 1813 £26,652: 5: 4
Interest arising from the same .. 1,549: 10: 0
Number of contributors—211.
Sum by them contributed .. 982: 10: 0
Number of Annuitants—74.
Amount of Annuities paid them 2,880: 0: 0
Ordered that D' Black be requested to retain in his hands 10 shillings from the next half-year's bounty of each minister in the first class, 7s 6d from each minister in the second class, & 5 shillings from each minister in the third class, as a fund for defraying the Synod's debts.

Synod concluded with prayer.

Inserted July 25th 1814 by

A General Synod at Belfast June 27th 1815.

Fifth Session. Thursday 10 o’clock, A.M.

Mr Thomson presented the following letter from the managers & visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution.
Belfast 24th June 1815.

Rev. Sir,

The managers & visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution embrace the opportunity of the annual meeting of the General Synod of Ulster, to lay before them, through you, the farther progress of the Institution since the former communications they had the honor of making to that respectable body. Their letters to the Moderator of the Synod of the 22d June 1809, & of the 18th June 1813, their conference with the deputation of the same year, & their letter to the Rev. John Thomson, Moderator of the deputation, of the 22d June 1814, would fully inform the Synod, of the plan & objects of the Institution, & of the progress made to that date, in carrying them into effect.

It is with much pleasure the managers & visitors have now to state to the General Synod, that in a few days after their communication to Mr. Thomson, a grant of fifteen hundred pounds was made by the legislature, in aid of the funds of the Institution. A grant of the like sum has been made in the present session of Parliament, and having been classed by his Majesty’s Ministers along with other national establishments which are annually provided for, there can be no doubt of the permanence of the grant, or of the stability of the institution.

Thus situated, the managers & visitors are preparing by degrees, to carry into effect the whole plan of education detailed in their prospectus, & sanctioned by the legislature in the act of incorporation. They have advertised for a professor to lecture on moral philosophy & metaphysicks, and a professor to lecture on Logick, Rhetoric & Belles Lettres; and several highly respectable candidates have already offered themselves for these situations. These professorships, with the lectures on Chemistry, Natural philosophy, & Mechanics already established, will, with Divinity, Hebrew, & church history, (as they understand) complete the course of studies enjoined by the General Synod to the young men under their care who are intended for the ministry.

It was with much satisfaction, the managers & visitors understood from several members of the deputation, that the Idea of a home education was often entertained by the General Synod & cherished by some of its most respectable members. That at an early period of the establishment of the Presbyterians of Ulster, the young men intended for the ministry were taught philosophy at Antrim, at Newtown & at Killileagh, & that the same idea has lately been taken up by the Irish students of Divinity at Glasgow.

The advantages & practicability of a home education are evident, nor can the establishment, or endowment of a professor of Divinity be a matter of difficulty with the numerous population with which the General Synod is connected; and it now rests with them, to draw still closer the connexion with the Belfast Academical Institution, already established by the Legislature in the act of incorporation, & by which the Moderator of the General Synod of Ulster is made a perpetual visitor of the Institution.
The managers & visitors have entrusted the care of this letter to the Rev. John Thomson, the Moderator of the committee with which they held the conference, and they have appointed the Rev. Samuel Hanna, D' Stevenson, D' Drennan, D' Tennent, & M' William Boyd, to make such further communications as the General Synod may require, on the nature, objects, & prospects of the Institution.

Signed by order of the joint boards of managers & visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution.

ROBERT GETTY, Chairman of the joint Boards.

To the Moderator of the General Synod of Ulster.

This letter together with the former correspondence between the Synod & the Institution being read, it was moved & unanimously agreed to—"that the same respect be paid by the Synod of Ulster to the certificates of the Belfast Academical Institution, of attendance & progress of the Students in learning, as to the certificates from foreign universities; so soon as adequate professors are appointed to lecture in this Institution on the different branches of science which the Synod points out to the students under its care; provided a committee of this body who shall be annually appointed for the purpose shall concur in such certificates, & signify its approbation by the signature of its Moderator."

The Synod having been informed that Hebrew is already taught in the institution by the Rev M' O'Beirne, it was moved and unanimously agreed to, that a professorship of Divinity & Church history be established by this Body in the Belfast Academical Institution, & that a committee be now appointed for the purpose of taking the necessary steps to carry this measure into execution.

Resolved that said committee be composed of a Minister & Elder Committee from each Presbytery; and that the following be the members.

The presbytery of Strabane are enjoined to appoint a Minister & Elder to be members of said committee, at their first stated meeting.

Thirteen to be a quorum whereof eight at least are to be ministers. The committee to hold its first meeting this evening, in the Meeting-house, at eight o’clock, & report to the Synod, to-morning morning.

Mr. Hay, the late Moderator, informed the Synod that he had in compliance with their order of last year, forwarded a Memorial to the Lord Lieutenant, praying his Excellency to grant a portion of his Majesty's bounty to the newly erected congregation of Magilligan; and that his Excellency had been pleased to order the sum of £50 to be included in the Annual estimate for the Minister of that congregation.

Ordered that the presbytery of Templepatrick & the committee for conducting the affairs of the Congregation of Ballyeaston do meet in the retiring-room at half-past nine o’clock to-morning morning, to make arrangements for the payment of the Arrears due probationers, for supplying that congregation.

Mr. Hay reported that he had caused the addresses to the Prince regent & Lord Lieutenant to be printed, agreeably to the order of last year, & read an answer to the address to the Prince, which is as follows:—

Dublin Castle, 20 July 1815.

Sir,

The Lord Lieutenant having transmitted the address to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent from the Presbyterian Ministers & Elders of the Synod of Ulster, I am directed by his Excellency to acquaint you, that he has received a letter from the Viscount Sidmouth, one of his Majesty’s principal Secretaries of State, signifying that his Royal Highness was pleased to receive the same in the most gracious manner.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your most obedient humble servant,

W. GREGORY.

Answer to the address to the Lord Lieutenant.

Dublin Castle 9th July 1814.

Sir,

I have received your Letter of the 4th instant, enclosing two addresses from the General Synod of Ulster, one to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent, the other to the Lord Lieutenant, which I immediately laid before his Excellency, who has commanded me to acquaint you that he will forward, forthwith, the Address to be laid before the Prince Regent. His Excellency at the same time directs me to return his best thanks for the approbation the Synod have expressed of his conduct, in the Administration of the government of Ireland.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

W. GREGORY.

Rev. George Hay, Londonderry.

Mr. Cook read the following petition to the house of Commons against distillation of spirits on the Lord's day which was approved of, ordered to be engrossed, & transmitted by the Moderator to the Right Honourable Lord Castleragh, with the request of this Synod, that he would present it to the house of Commons.

TO THE HONOURABLE THE COMMONS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED.

The petition of the Ministers & Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, assembled at their Annual meeting Humbly sheweth,

"That whereas by an act of Parliament passed in the 46th year of our gracious Sovereign king George the third for the purpose of granting to his Majesty certain duties on spirits made & distilled in Ireland it is provided, "that every still shall be presumed to be kept regularly at work from the time of commencing to work, until the working shall be discontinued in manner specified: and that during every four weeks of said time every such still shall be presumed to continue working & be chargeable with duties for twenty-eight days," which provision is understood to authorise distillation to continue on the Lord's day.

"Now we your petitioners considering that by the divine law, Christians are commanded to abstain from working on the Lord's day:—approving highly of those statutes by which its religious observance is enjoined;—convinced that its profanation has an immediate tendency to promote immorality & weaken the sense of religious obligation;—and understanding that an act permitting distillation to continue upon the Lord's day in Scotland has been repealed; do therefore most humbly pray, that so much of the aforesaid act as permits distillation to continue upon the Lord's day in Ireland may be repealed, & such measures adopted as your honourable house shall in its wisdom consider adequate, effectually to guard it from profanation, agreeably to the intent of his Majesty's gracious proclamation issued upon the 31st October 1760."

And as in duty bound your petitioners shall every pray."

Ordered that a similar petition to the house of Lords be transmitted to the Marquis of Hertford, and that the Marquis be requested to present the same.

M' Hay's report

M' Hay informed the Synod that in compliance with their order, he had written, to the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, to enquire whether the law of the Assembly, which excludes from their pulpits, ministers of a particular description, be intended to apply to the general Synod of Ulster; & if so to request a copy of it.

In answer to this application M' Hay read an un-official letter from the Moderator of the Assembly; containing the following extracts from the printed acts of that Church.

Anno 1799, C. 5. "That it is agreeable to the constitution, the laws & the decisions of this church, that no Probationer who has obtained a license without the bounds of this Church, or who has not obtained a license from a Presbytery of this church, or who either by going without the bounds of the church to obtain ordination, although he was not called to a particular congregation in another country, or by any other part of his conduct, has forfeited the license which he has obtained, shall be held qualified to accept of a presentation, or call, to any parish in this church, or to any chapel of ease connected therewith." All such presentations and calls are declared null & void. The second part of the Act "Prohibits all the ministers of this church & the ministers of all chapels of ease connected therewith from employing to preach, upon any occasion, or to dispense any of the other ordinances of the Gospel within any congregation under the jurisdiction of the church persons who are not qualified, according to the laws of this church to accept of a presentation, & from holding ministerial communion, in any other manner, with such persons."

Resolved, that our Moderator be directed to write to the General Assembly, stating, that we feel ourselves much aggrieved by the Act which excludes our ministers & licentiates from the pulpits of the church of Scotland, & requesting to know if the Assembly be disposed to alter its acts, in so far as it respects the members & licentiates of the Synod of Ulster, as we should be extremely sorry that anything should occur, or be suffered to continue, which might tend to interrupt that ministerial communion which we wish to maintain with that church.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.
AT BELFAST, JUNE 27TH, 1815.

Sixth Session. Friday morning 7 o'clock.

After prayer, the committee for establishing a professorship of divinity & ecclesiastical history in the Belfast Academical Institution, made the following report:

Resolved that it is the opinion of your committee that a fund shall be raised for the support of this professorship, and that a sum not less than three thousand pounds will be adequate to this purpose.

Resolved that your committee being of opinion that this fund be raised by voluntary subscriptions, recommend that Ministers subscribe liberally themselves, & that they with the assistance of their respective Sessions & committees be active in raising subscriptions through their congregations by application to individuals, & if ministers shall deem it prudent, they may make a public collection in their congregations for this purpose.

Resolved that Ministers forward the sums so raised by subscriptions, or collections, to the Rev. M' Hanna who is appointed treasurer to the committee, on, or before the first of November next.

Resolved that the Moderator together with the Rev. M' Cuming, Rev. M' Hanna, M' Willm Maxwel Wilson, & M' James Munfoad, be a sub-committee for superintending & forwarding the general designs of the committee.

Resolved that the committee do meet in Belfast on the first Thursday in November next, in the meeting house of the third congregation, at the hour of twelve o'clock.

JOHN THOMSON, Moderator.

After some discussion it was resolved, unanimously that the report be approved of, and that the Synod do earnestly recommend it to its Members & the congregations under its care, to be active & zealous in procuring the means of carrying into execution an object so important to the Presbyterian body in this country.

Resolved that a committee be now appointed for the purpose of attending the examinations of such students in Philosophy, in the Belfast Academical Institution, as may be entered in the reports of presbyteries to this Synod, & of expressing their satisfaction in their proficiency, by concurring with the professors in signing their certificates: And that the committee do consist of the following members:

Armagh, M' Malcom
Derry, M' Hay
T. Patrick, M' T. Alexander

Ballimena, M' Stewart
Letterkenny, M' Reid
Clogher, M' Anderson

Report approved of & recommended by the Synod to its Members & the congregations under its care
Committee of Examination
Members for the year 1815
Adjourned till ten o'clock.

Seventh Session. Friday ten o'clock, A.M.

On reading the minute of last year, which censures Mr McCance for neglecting his duty as a member of the Clare committee, Mr McCance assigned such reasons for his apparent neglect of duty in this case, as were judged satisfactory by the Synod.

BILLS.

I. A supplication was presented from the congregation of Clare praying the Synod to dissolve the connexion between them and the Rev. Mr Adams, & to continue them under the care of the committee which had charge of them for the last year.

The committee appointed to take charge of that congregation reported to the Synod their proceedings during the last year; and the commissioners from Clare being heard; it was moved & agreed to that a committee consisting of a few members of Synod be ordered to withdraw with Mr Adams & the commissioners, & to endeavour to accommodate matters between Mr Adams & the congregation of Clare. The Synod in the meantime proceeded to the consideration of the remaining bills.

II. A supplication was presented to the Synod by Mr Charles Gray, late minister of Castlereagh, complaining that the sentence of degradation pronounced on him by the Synod at its last meeting, was hasty, & unprecedented, & praying the Synod to rescind its sentence and leave him as he formerly stood, under the sentence of suspension sine die passed upon him by the Presbytery of Belfast. After reasoning on this subject at considerable length, and it having been stated by undoubted authority that Mr Gray's conduct since the meeting of last year had been correct & irrefragable: The Synod on this account, as well as on account of the consequences resulting from the sentence of degradation to his innocent family, do grant the prayer of the supplication.

III. A supplication from Mr John Walker, late minister of Millisle, was presented complaining that the Synod had taken his business out of the hands of an inferior Court before that Court had pronounced a final judgment, & of irregularity and cruelty in the Synod's sentence; and praying the Synod to appoint a Committee of their body to take his case into consideration.
AT BELFAST, JUNE 27TH, 1815.

After considerable discussion it was moved, that the Act of Synod which degrades Mr. Walker be rescinded, on this motion the previous question was put & carried.

Resolved, that Mr. Walker's memorial be dismissed: but in dismissing this memorial the Synod has no intention of attaching blame to the Presbytery of Belfast, or of supposing for a moment that the Presbytery were actuated by indifference to the interests of religion & morality in the case of Mr. Walker.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Eighth Session. Saturday morning July 1st seven o'clock.

After prayer, the committee appointed to converse with Mr. Adams Clare & the commissioners from Clare, reported that they had been unable to accommodate matters between the parties.

The Synod discussed this affair at great length, when it adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Ninth Session. Sat. 10 o'clock. A.M.

The adjourned discussion respecting the Cong. of Clare being resumed, Mr. Adams, in order to terminate this unhappy business, voluntarily offered to contribute thirty pounds, per annum towards the support of a minister in Clare, so long as he shall be in receipt of the Royal Bounty, on account of the respect he bears to many of the members of that congregation, and his regard to the interest of the Presbyterian church.

Resolved that this offer be received by the Synod & recommended to the acceptance of the congregation; and although the Synod cannot comply with the entire prayer of their memorial, they continue the congregation under the care of the committee of last year, to whom they return their thanks for the great trouble they had in conducting the affairs of that congregation.

IV. A memorial from certain members of the congregation of Stonebridge was presented to the Synod, complaining of the Presbytery of Monaghan for refusing to try certain charges against the moral character of their minister the Rev. Archd Meharg, & praying the Synod to give them such redress as to their wisdom may seem meet.

The Synod declines entering on this business at present, as it is given to understand that this case is intimately connected with a suit at present pending in a civil court: and in the meantime earnestly exhorts, by its Moderator, Mr. Meharg & the commissioners from Stonebridge, to lay aside all causes of past animosity, & return to their friendly dispositions towards each other.

V. A memorial was submitted to the Synod from the congregation Ballyeaston of Ballyeaston praying to be disannexed from the Presbytery of Templepatrick, & put under the care of such other Presbytery as the Synod may appoint.
Resolved that the congregation of Ballyeaston, be disannexed from the Presbytery of Templepatrick, but for the present the Synod do not deem it expedient to annex them to any other Presbytery.

VI. A memorial was presented from the lately erected congregation of Keady stating that Dr. Dickson had resigned the pastoral charge of that cong. through infirmity; & praying the Synod to disannex them from the Presb. of Tyrone, & put them under the care of the Presb. of Armagh, & to apply to Gov. for a portion of his Majesty’s bounty to that congregation.

Resolved, that this cong. be disannexed from the Presb. of Tyrone, & put under the care of the Presb. of Armagh; that our Moderator be instructed to apply to the Lord Lieutenant for a portion of his Majesty’s bounty to that cong. so soon as a minister shall be ordained among them by the Presbytery under whose care they are now placed.

INTERLOCUTOR.

A statement of the receipt & payments of his Majesty’s royal Bounty for the year ended the 29th September 1814 was submitted to the Interlocutor, on the part of the Agent (who was absent through indisposition) by Mr. Hay, & found correct & satisfactory.

The accounts of the Widows’ fund for the year ended the 1st Oct. 1814, were in like manner submitted, & on examination found correct.

While this Interlocutor expresses its satisfaction at the correctness of the above accounts; it feels itself called on by a sense of its obligation to Dr. Black, for his invariable attention to the interest & prosperity of its funds, from his important services to this body in general, as well as from its sincere respect & esteem for him as a Christian brother, to express its unfeigned concern for the cause of his absence.

At the request of Mr. James Bankhead, the following motion is placed upon our minutes, for the consideration of Ministers until next year. “That in case of the degradation of any minister who is a contributor to the fund, if there be a wife or family at the time of degradation, he or they, or any person for them, shall be permitted to continue their annual subscriptions in order that they may be entitled to the benefits of the fund.”

Ordered that our treasurer do pay Mr. Cook the expenses incurred by engrossing & forwarding the petition to the two houses of Parliament against distillation on the Lord’s day.

Resolved that the annuity to the widows be this year £40.

Resolved that it is the opinion of this Interlocutor that all the capital of the Widows’ fund should be vested in real landed security, and that a committee consisting of the following ministers, the Moderator, Dr. Bruce, Mr. Thomson & Mr. Hanna be now appointed for the purpose of corresponding with Dr. Black & Trustees, respecting the securities, on which the sums constituting that capital have been lent, which committee are farther authorised, in conjunction with D" Black & the Trustees, to make such changes in these securities as may be necessary.

Synod concluded with prayer.

The Roll of the several Presbyteries, belonging to the Synod having been called, it was moved that the names of the Ministers of the Presbytery of Antrim, be called over. To this it was moved as an amendment, that after the list of the Synod is completed, the Presbytery of Antrim be called in order to ascertain what members of that Presbytery are present. On this motion the previous question was put & carried.

Mr. M'Cance having moved that another Moderator be chosen to this Synod, the following brethren were named; viz. Messrs Porter, R. Dill, Campbell, Patterson, Brydone, J. Watson, S. Simpson, Stewart, Reid, M. Elder, P. Whyte, Cunningham and Malcolm.

The Roll was called & Mr. Stewart chosen.

Mr. Cuming continued Clerk.

The several Presbyteries are ordered to meet this night, & to prepare Lists to be given to the Clerk to-morrow morning, of their members for the several Committees of Overtures, Bills, Books, & General Synod's fixed committee. An account of such Ministers as have died, been ordained, or installed; of such candidates as have been licensed or entered on trials since last General Synod; & of such students as have been examined previous to their going to College, by their respective Presbyteries; and such other returns as our regulations require: An account of annuities on the Fund, of any that have died, & of the time when such did die.

Dr. Black, after stating that he was anxious to obtain the fullest information on a very important Subject that would come under the consideration of the Synod at this meeting, moved, that Mr. Thomson be appointed to wait upon the Secretary of the Belfast Academical Institution, & request that he may furnish the Clerk of this Synod, for the information of its members, with the following documents.
1. A Copy of a Petition of the managers & visitors presented to the Lord Lieutenant in November 1813.

2. A copy of a letter from the Chancellor of the Irish Exchequer, to the Secretary of the Institution, dated in March 1814.

3. A copy of a letter from the same, & of the answer thereto, dated in November 1815.

4. A copy of a statement relative to the Institution signed by the secretary, & addressed to the Chancellor of the Exchequer in February 1816.

5. A copy of a letter from the Chancellor of the Exchequer to the secretary of the Institution, dated in April 1816, with the answer thereto from the joint Boards of managers & visitors.

6. A copy of any other correspondence between the secretary, or managers of the Institution, & any members of his Majesty's government, which may have taken place, between the last mentioned date & the meeting of this Synod.

On this the previous question was put & negatived, after which the original motion was agreed to.

Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Second Session. Wednesday morning, 10 o'clock, A.M.

After prayer, returns were made by the several Presbyteries of their members for the several Committees & also the following reports:

Strabane Presbytery report that they licensed Mr. Matthews in August 1814, & Mr. Davis in November last; that they examined Mr. Alexander, previous to his going to College in October last, & on his return in May last; that they have admitted on first trials, Mr. Love, & have on the Fund Mr. Turbit, Hamil, & Anderson.

They have on the Fund Mr Hay, residing in the County of Donegal, Mr Thompson, & daughter, Mrs Magee, Mr Barber, Mrs Little, Mr Patrick, & Mrs Waddel. On the first of August last they suspended Mr Sherrard, on account of his having (by his own acknowledgment) two or three times, celebrated marriage irregularly, & also habitually neglected to attend on publick worship. They afterwards further suspended him for three months or longer, on account of his contumacy, & having no reason to believe that he had reformed. And that on the 6th of February last having ample evidence of his having celebrated marriage between two of the domestics of the Bishop of Dromore, both members of the established Church, & the woman having another husband, & this, whilst he was under sentence, of suspension; the Presbytery further suspended him until this meeting of the General Synod, & refer his case to the Synod, that they may dispose of it, as to their superior wisdom may seem fit.

That the Rev. Charles Grey died on the 24 Feb. leaving a Widow. That they ordained the Rev. These, with an Elder from each Presbytery, our Moderator & Clerk, are to meet at Belfast, when called by the Moderator on any emergency: fifteen to be a quorum, of whom twelve at least are to be Ministers.

Adjourned. Committees to meet immediately. Open Synod at half-past one o'clock.

Third Session. Wednesday half-past one o'clock,

On the second reading of the report of Templepatrick Presbytery, it was moved and agreed to, that that Presbytery be enjoined to summon M' Montgomery to attend their next meeting, in order to take such steps as our discipline admits, to bring the offending member to a sense of his duty.

On the second reading of the report of the Presbytery of Dromore, it was moved and agreed to, that that Presbytery be directed to re-consider and finally to decide on M' Sherrard's case.

Moved that Cookstown be the Synod's place of meeting next year. Belfast was also put in nomination. The Roll was called & Belfast carried. The meeting to take place on the last Tuesday of June next, in the meeting-house of the third Congregation of Belfast. Divine service to begin at five o'clock, afternoon.

Upon reading the Minute of the last year, respecting the Skeleton of a code of discipline &c. which had been laid before this Body, at its meeting, it was moved & agreed to, that the consideration of this business be postponed until next year.

Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Fourth Session. Thursday morning, 7 o'clock.

After prayer, a letter from the boards of Managers & Visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution to the General Synod of Ulster, in which they detail, for the information of the Synod, the various occurrences which have taken place in the Institution, since they last addressed them, was read, together with the documents which were moved for in the first session of this meeting.

Adjourned till a quarter-past 10 o'clock.
Fifth Session. Thursday, a quarter past 10 o'clock, A.M.

The Minute of last year on the subject of the petition to the Houses of Lords & Commons against distillation of spirits on the Lord's Day, having been read, Mr. M'Cance, the Moderator of last year, reported, that he had duly forwarded the petitions as directed, by the Synod; that he had received two communications on the subject from the Marquis of Hertford who had been so good as to present the petition to the House of Lords; & that by a letter from Dr. Black, written at the desire of Sir George Hill, he had learned that in the absence of Lord Castlereagh, Sir George had been so obliging as to present the Petition to the House of Commons, but that not having arrived until the last day of the business of the Session, it had been presented too late.

Resolved unanimously, that a Committee consisting of the following members, viz., Mr. Thomson, Mr. Horner, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Cooke, Mr. M'Cance & Mr. Johnston, be appointed to prepare new Petitions to both Houses of Parliament, & to take such further steps as may be likely to carry into effect the wishes of the Synod for preventing distillation of spirits on the Lord's Day.

The Moderator of last year stated, that through Dr. Magill, of Glasgow College, he had transmitted a letter, as ordered by the Synod, to the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, to which he had not received any answer.

Adjourned till 2 o'clock.

Sixth Session. Thursday 2 o'clock, P.M.

The consideration of the matter relating to the General Assembly, having been resumed, it was moved & agreed to, that no official communication on the subject in question, be made to the Assembly before the next meeting of General synod.

The Committee for establishing a Professorship of Divinity & Church History in the Belfast Academical Institution reported that they had not been able to hold a meeting, a sufficient number of members to form a quorum not having attended. That they had received remittances from Mr. Reid of Ramelton and Mr. Watson of Killinchy which they had lodged at interest in the Commercial Bank.

The Committee appointed for the purpose of attending the examination of students of Philosophy in the Belfast Academical Institution made the following report:—

That they have to express their approbation of the progress made by the Students in that Institution—a progress equally honourable to the Professors, & to the young men under their care; & that they consider it a happy omen of the eminence to which that Seminary of learning would yet rise in the literary world.

The following Ministers were then appointed to attend the examinations next year, viz.:—
Any other Ministers of the Synod who may attend shall have the privilege of sitting & voting with the Committee.

Moved & seconded, that this Synod do provide a sum equal to the support of a Professor of Divinity & Church History, in the Academical Institution, during next winter. To this the following amendment was moved, that instead of endowing a Professorship a Committee be appointed by the Synod to prescribe a course of reading to the Students in theology—that the books, &c., be specified, & young men be examined by Presbyteries as usual.

Neither of these motions having met the approbation of the House, a Committee of the following members, viz., Mr Thomson, Mr Horner, & Mr McCance, was appointed to meet for the purpose of digesting some plan which may be likely to promote the object of establishing a Professorship of divinity & church history in the Belfast Academical Institution to report to the Synod at its next sederunt.

Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Seventh Session. Friday morning, 7 o'clock.

After prayer, the Committee appointed at last sederunt made their report, which is as follows:—

Having maturely considered the subject referred to us at the conclusion of the last Session, we, with great deference, submit the following:—

That the Ministers of the Synod shall provide for the support of a Professor of Divinity & Church History in the Belfast Academical Institution for the first year after his election, & in order to secure this measure, that they request the Agent of Government to stop out of their next half year's bounty the sum of £2: 10: 0 from each Minister in the first class, £2: 0: 0 from each Minister in the second class, & £1: 10: 0 from each Minister in the third class, & to remit the same to a Committee, now to be appointed by the Synod, to be vested by them in one of the Banks, till required.

That after this contribution on the part of the Ministers of the Synod, an application be made by each Minister to his congregation, for such contribution as their circumstances will enable them to give, to be applied to the purpose of supporting the Professor or purchasing a Library, as the Synod at its next meeting shall direct. This contribution to be made & transmitted to the Committee, on or before the month of March next.

That in case this contribution shall be found insufficient for the support of a Professor, & that circumstances shall warrant the measure, an application shall be subsequently made to Government, for an annual grant for his future support.

That the Committee now to be appointed to receive the contributions of the Ministers & people, be also empowered to write to the Principal of each of the Colleges in Scotland, requesting him with the concurrence of the Professors, to recommend a Person who shall appear to him well qualified to discharge the duties of Divinity Professor in the Belfast Academical Institution; & the election of a Professor shall he made on the 2d Tuesday of September by the Synod, or a Committee now to be appointed by the Synod; & that said Professor, so elected, shall commence his course of Lectures on the 15th of November & continue the same till the 15th of April next.

This report having been read it was moved & seconded, that in order to establish a Professorship of Divinity, & Church history in the Belfast Academical Institution, the ministers in the first class shall contribute £2:10:0; those in the second, £2 & those in the third £1:10:0; for this year; & that the Agent for the distribution of his Majesty's Bounty be requested to retain the above mentioned sums out of the next payment of Royal Bounty, & transmit them to the Committee appointed to receive the same.

This motion was agreed to.

The Moderator having signified the request of the Synod, to Dr Black, he replied, that "it gave him pain to refuse any request made by the Synod, but that in the distribution of his Majesty's Bounty, he could be guided only by the instructions of his Majesty's Representative."

Adjourned till a quarter past 10 o'clock.

Eighth Session. Friday a quarter-past 10 o'clock.

In consequence of Dr Black having stated that he could not comply with the request of the Synod expressed at last sederunt, it was moved & seconded that this Body shall enjoin the several Presbyteries to exert themselves in collecting from their several members the sums above mentioned, & that the Moderator of each Presbytery shall make a return of the same to the Committee, on or before the first of November next.

Moved as an amendment the above "That various difficulties having occurred in carrying into effect the intentions of this Synod respecting the endowment of a professorship of Divinity & Church History, which appear insurmountable, that measure is relinquished & the young men who propose to become candidates for the Ministry in the bounds of this Synod are hereby directed to pursue their studies, under the Regulations of 1804 & 1806 until circumstances shall warrant a departure from the system then established.

The Roll be called on the amendment it was negatived by a large Majority. The original motion was then put & carried.

Adjourned till 3 o'clock.

Ninth Session. Friday, 3 o'clock, P.M.

Against the motion passed at last sederunt D' Black & Mr James Elder signified their intention of protesting, & promised to assign their reasons in due time.

In accordance with the second suggestion of the committee, it was moved & agreed to that the Elders now present be addressed from the Chair, & warmly pressed to use every exertion in their power, in the Congregations to which they respectively belong, to raise money for the purpose of consolidating a Fund, the interest of which may be applied to the support of a Professorship of Divinity & Church History, in the Belfast Academical Institution; & that the Ministers of the Synod be enjoined to use their influence with their people for this purpose.

The Moderator addressed the Elders accordingly.

Resolved, that the Committee for receiving contributions from the Ministers & Congregations do consist of the following members, viz. :

M' Thomson  M' Cooke
M' Acheson  M' Munfoad
M' Hanna  M' Boyd
M' M'Cance  M' W. M. Wilson
M' Montgomery  M' Shaw

Resolved that M' Thomson be the Treasurer of this Committee.

Moved & seconded that the election of a Professor be deferred until next meeting of Synod.

Moved as an amendment to the above, that the Synod shall meet on the first Tuesday in November next, for the purpose of electing a Professor of Divinity & Church History to lecture in the Belfast Academical Institution.

On a call of the Roll, the amendment was carried.

Moved & agreed to, that Cookstown be the place of meeting, the hour of meeting 12 o'clock.

Resolved, that the Committee be permitted to advertise in the Newspapers, as they may consider expedient, the object of the above meeting; in order that candidates for the Professorship may offer themselves to the attention of the body, through the Moderator, previous to the meeting—and likewise to make such inquiries & communications as they may judge necessary.
Resolved that the successful candidate for the Professorship shall, upon his being appointed, take the oath of allegiance to his Majesty.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 6 o'clock.

Tenth Session. Saturday morning, 6 o'clock.

After prayer, the Committee appointed to take charge of the Congregation of Clare made their report which is as follows:

The Committee for the Congregation of Clare report, that some time after the last meeting of Synod, a supplication for a hearing of the Rev. H. Haslett, of the Presbytery of Route, having been presented, they obtained a hearing of him for four sabbaths, on trial, & sent Mr. Dobbin afterwards to take the minds of the people with regard to him; an unanimous call for Mr. Haslett, was the pleasing result, but he declined accepting it. The Committee continued to supply the Congregation for some time farther, till the Congregation having heard of the Rev. Francis Dill, ordained Minister of the Presbytery of Route, as a person who might be a suitable Minister for them, requested a hearing of him for two or more sabbaths might be obtained, that they might judge of his ministerial qualifications. A hearing of Mr. Dill for two sabbaths on trial was accordingly procured: Mr. Dobbin was sent to take the minds of the people with regard to him, & a call nearly unanimous, was drawn up, signed, & forwarded to the Presbytery of Route, to be presented to Mr. Dill. The Congregation, having, however, for some reasons, requested that Mr. Dill might not be required to give an immediate answer to their Call, the Committee have not yet been assured of his mind. In addition to these things they have only to add, that they have endeavoured to have the Congregation regularly supplied, which they have been enabled to do with very few exceptions. And having anxiously & with considerable trouble, so far attended to the important trust reposed in them, they hope not without some success, they beg they may now be exonerated from their charge, & others appointed to attend to it.

It being understood that a Bill concerning the Congregation of Clare will be laid before this Synod, the consideration of this report was deferred until the reading of that Bill.

Mr. McCance, the Moderator of last year, stated, that he had applied to the Lord Lieutenant for a portion of his Majesty's Bounty, for the second Congregation of Keady, as directed by last Synod, & that his Excellency had been pleased to order the sum of £50 to be included in the annual estimate, for the minister of that Congregation.

OVERTURES.

I. Overtured & agreed to, that Presbyteries on examining young men, previous to their going to College, or to the Academical Institution, shall give them certificates of their fitness for entering College, signed with the names of all the Ministers who are satisfied with their proficiency; & that Presbyteries be enjoined not to give certificates to any students of whose learning & qualifications they are not fully satisfied.

II. Overtured & agreed to, that a certificate of approbation, signed by all the Professors & Teachers in the collegiate department of the Belfast Academical Institution, on a public examination of the students connected with the General Synod of Ulster, at the close of their studies in that seminary, be received in place of a degree in arts which the Synod requires from Young men who have studied at the universities; provided that the said certificates shall have the concuring signature of the Moderator of the Synod's Committee of examination, affixed to them, in their name, & by their authority.

Against this overture D' Black signified his intention of protesting & promised to assign his reasons in due time.

BILLS.

I. A memorial was presented to the Synod from the Committee appointed to conduct the affairs of the intended new erection in Drumlough in the Parish of Dromore, County of Down; in which Memorialists express a wish to obtain the advice & to come under the protection of the Synod & pray that suppliers may be sent to them every Lord's Day.

Moved & seconded that this memorial be dismissed.

This motion having been withdrawn, the following was agreed to—that the Petitioners be referred to the Presbytery of Dromore, & that M' James Bankhead be invited to sit with the Presbytery in deliberating on this matter.

II. A memorial signed by 20 members of the 2d Congregation of Larne, was presented to the Synod, stating that the conduct of their Pastor, the Rev. James Cochran had rendered his ministry useless amongst them, & his continuation injurious to the interests of religion & praying that M' Cochran be discontinued from the pastoral charge of their Congregation.

To this a counter-memorial was presented signed by 212 Members of that Congregation, stating, that as M' Cochran had given them ample satisfaction & full proof of his sincere repentance, they pray that his suspension may be taken off.

A third memorial was presented by M' Cochran, stating, that he been suspended for seven weeks without any decisive sentence having been passed upon him; that his Congregation have petitioned the Presbytery, for his restoration; but that the affair having been referred to the Synod, he prays that Rev. Body, that he may be restored agreeably to the wishes of his congregation.

The Presbytery of Templepatrick who had been enjoined to reconsider & finally to decide in M' Cochran's case, reported that they had come to a decision, against which three of their members had protested.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Eleventh Session. Saturday 10 o'clock. A.M.

The Presbytery of Templepatrick having been heard at great length in explanation of their conduct respecting Mr. Cochran, & the Commissioners from both parts of the Congregation, on the subjects of their memorials, it was moved & agreed to, that the conduct of the Presbytery of Templepatrick in Mr. Cochran's case, be disapproved of, & that there was ground for appeal.

Moved & seconded that Mr. Cochran be suspended "ab officio, sine die."

To this it was moved as an amendment, that while this Synod considers Mr. Cochran's conduct deserving of the severest punishment in the power of this house to inflict, yet in consideration of his youth, his former good conduct, & the consequences of degradation or suspension sine die to his family, they resolve to suspend him for six months, & so long after as the Presbytery of Templepatrick may deem requisite to satisfy them of his sincere reformation; & that on Sunday the 7th of July next, he be rebuked by a member of the Presbytery in the face of his Congregation.

The amended motion having been withdrawn, & the Roll called on the original motion, it was negatived.

Against this decision, Dr. Black, Mr. Thomson & others signified their intention of protesting, & promised to assign their reasons in due time.

moved & seconded, that Mr. Cochran be suspended "ab officio," until the meeting of General Synod, in June next & that the Presbytery of Templepatrick do then report to the Synod, on Mr. Cochran's conduct within that period of time.

The consideration of this motion was postponed until next sederunt.

Session concluded with Prayer. Adjourned till Monday next at 12 o'clock.

Twelfth Session. Monday July 1st 12 o'clock.

After prayer, Dr. Black, Mr. Thomson, & others, gave in their reasons of protest, as promised at last sederunt & are as follows:

We the undersigned do solemnly protest against the foregoing decision for the following reasons:

1st Because we consider Mr. Cochran's original offence to be of such a nature that it merited at least the punishment of suspension "sine die."
2d Because Mr. Cochran highly aggravated his original offence by gross prevarication & wilful deception, when in a most solemn appeal to God, from his own Pulpit, on the Lord’s day he declared that he was privately married in May 1815—which declaration he well knew his own Congregation & the Publick at large must understand to mean, that his marriage was privately solemnised by a Clergyman in the usual manner.

3d Because Mr. Cochran afterwards acknowledged that the marriage alluded to was celebrated by himself, no witnesses having been present; which if he believed possible, indicated a deficiency of understanding; which if he did not believe, indicated a want of integrity, as proves him, in either case, totally disqualified for discharging the duties of the ministerial office.

4th Because although sincere repentance of such crimes would justify Mr. Cochran’s admission to every lay privilege of the Christian Church, we do not consider that it would justify his restoration to the Ministry; besides, that of the sincerity of his repentance we have reason to entertain the most serious doubts.

5th Because we consider the interests of religion in general, & the honour of the Synod of Ulster in particular, would be vitally injured by Mr. Cochran’s continuance in the Gospel Ministry.

Robert Black  John Johnston  Geo. Hay
John Thomson  Richard Dill, Sen  W. M. Wilson, Elder
James Horner  Richard Dill, Jun  A. G. Malcom
Henry Cooke  Samuel Dill  Edward Reid
William Wright (with the exception of 4th reason)  Willm Glendy
Francis Dill  Geo. McClelland
H. Henry  Moses Finlay

The motion made at the close of the last sederunt was then put & carried.

The Presbytery of Dromore reported that in obedience to the order of the Synod, they had reconsidered Mr. Sherrard’s case & had further suspended him for six months. The minutes of the Presbytery of Dromore, respecting Mr. Sherrard having been read, & the Presbytery having been heard at considerable length in explanation of their conduct in this case, & after reasoning on the subject for some time, it was moved & agreed to, that the conduct of the Presbytery of Dromore in this business is highly reprehensible, & that it be disapproved of.

Resolved that a Committee consisting of two Ministers & one Elder from each Presbytery, be appointed to investigate the charges against Mr. Sherrard, & to issue the business; & that they be instructed to hear no new charges against Mr. Sherrard, unless the individual preferring the same, shall have given at least ten days previous notice to Mr. Sherrard of such charges, together with the names of the witnesses who are to support them.
The following Ministers were returned for this Committee by the several Presbyteries:

- William Porter
- William Dunlop
- And" McCallain
- George Hay
- Henry Cooke
- Robert Orr
- James McCalloeh
- Fletcher Bleakly
- Robert Acheson

The Committee to meet at Dromore, on the last Wednesday of July at the hour of 12 o'clock. Five to be a quorum.

The Clerk of the Presbytery of Dromore is ordered to put the minutes of that Presbytery into the hands of the Synod's Clerk at this meeting in order that they may be laid before the Synod's Committee.

Session concluded with prayer. Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Thirteenth Session. Tuesday morning, 7 o'clock.

After prayer the Synod having proceeded to consider what farther instructions it was proper to give to the Committee appointed to investigate the charges against Mr. Sherrard, it was moved & agreed to, that it is the sense of this Synod that the sentence of disapprobation passed on the Presbytery of Dromore is founded on the clear conviction of the Synod that they should have degraded Mr. Sherrard—that the design of sending the Committee to Dromore is merely to afford him an opportunity of defence, & unless he can satisfy them that the transgressions recorded in the Minutes of the Dromore Presbytery are unfounded, it is the duty of the Committee to degrade him.

It having appeared that some flagrant instances of Mr. Sherrard's misconduct had come to the knowledge of Messrs. James Baukhead, Patterson, & Davis, these Gentlemen are enjoined to attend the meeting of the Committee & to furnish whatever information they can on this business.

The Presbytery of Dromore are likewise enjoined to attend the Meeting for the same purpose.

Resolved that a respectful letter be written by our Moderator to the Rev. Charles Hamilton, Vicar-General of the Diocese of Dromore, & to the Rev. Holt Waring, requesting them to attend the meeting of the Committee, & furnish them with whatever information they may have in their Power.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.
Fourteenth Session. Tuesday 10 o' clock, A.M.

III. A memorial was presented from the Congregation of Ballyeaston requesting that they may not be again joined to the Presbytery of Templepatrick, but be united to whatever other Presbytery the Synod may think proper.

M' Elder & the Commissioners having been heard on the subject of this Memorial, & the Synod having taken it into consideration, it was moved & seconded, that the Congregation of Ballyeaston be joined to the Presbytery of Belfast.

Moved as an amendment, that they be re-united to the Presbytery of Templepatrick. On a call of the Roll the amended motion was carried.

IV. A memorial from the Session & Congregation of Clare was presented to the Synod, in which Memorialists express their gratitude for the care & attention they have experienced from the Committee to which they have been given in charge; & pray the Synod to aid them in providing for a Minister, or to disannex M' Adams from them, in order that they may be enabled to have a suitable pastor settled among them, who shall receive the Bounty intended for the Minister of their Congregation; & farther, that they may be continued under the care of the Committee who had charge of them for the last year.

The Commissioners having been heard at some length on the subject of their memorial, a Committee of three Members was desired to withdraw with M' Adams, & the Commissioners, & consult together on this business, with a view of accommodating matters between him & the Congregation of Clare. In the meantime it was thought proper to proceed with the next Bill.

V. A memorial was presented in the name of upwards of 100 families, residing in the village of Ballintrain & its vicinity, in the County of Monaghan, whose names are annexed, with a statement of the stipend which they are able to pay to a Minister amounting to upwards of £50—stating, that Memorialists are connected with the the General Synod, that they live at a distance of more than six Miles from any place of worship under the care of the Synod,—that they have been supplied with preaching by the Ministers of the Presbytery of Monaghan who are favourable to their views—& praying that they may be erected into a Congregation, under the care of the Synod.

The Commissioners having been heard on the subject of this memorial, it was moved & agreed to, that the Presbytery of Monaghan, be enjoined to attend the meeting of Synod in June next, & give such information respecting the numbers, ability & other circumstances of the memorialists, as may enable this Body to judge of the propriety of granting the prayer of their supplication.

The Committee appointed to confer with M' Adams & the Commissioners of Clare, reported, that notwithstanding their most zealous endeavours, they had not been able to accommodate matters between M' Adams & the Commissioners.
Moved & agreed to, that the Synod do not see any practicable means of assisting the Congregation of Clare, in their funds at present, & that they do not see reason to dissolve the connexion between Mr Adams & his Congregation.

Moved & seconded that they enjoin Mr Adams and the Congregation of Clare to adhere to the arrangement which was made last year in pecuniary matters.

To this the following amendment was moved—that inasmuch as the offer of Mr Adams last year, did not terminate the business respecting Clare, Mr Adams is exonerated from his proposal of last year; but that it be recommended to Mr Adams to contribute to the support of that Congregation.

The Roll being called, the amended motion was carried.

The above Resolutions having been read to Mr Adams & the Commissioners from Clare, Mr Adams renewed his offer of £30 per Annum to the support of an assistant Minister in Clare, so long as he shall be in the receipt of his Majesty's Bounty; on condition that no farther application shall be made to the General Synod, or any other quarter, on this subject.

The Synod approved of this proposal of Mr Adams.

Resolved, that Mr Adams be enjoined to reside within the bounds of his Congregation.

Resolved, that the Congregation of Clare be continued under the care of the Committee of last year, till the meeting of General Synod in June next.

A Letter from the Proprietors of the Belfast Academical Institution expressing their satisfaction at the late proceedings of the Synod, with respect to their Establishment, & their thanks to the Body, for the steps it has taken to found a Professorship of Divinity & Church History in the Institution, was read, & ordered to be "in retentis."

Mr Thomson having declined to act as Treasurer to the Committee appointed to receive contributions for the establishment of a Professorship in the Institution, Mr Hanna was appointed in his room. Mr Thomson was then appointed Chairman of that Committee & it was ordered to meet immediately after the business of the Interloquitur shall be concluded.

The Moderator concluded the Synod with Prayer.

INTERLOQUITUR.

A statement of the receipt and payments of his Majesty's Royal Bounty for the year ended the 29th September 1815, was submitted to the Interloquitur, & found correct & satisfactory.

The accounts of the Widows' fund for the year ended the 1st October, 1815, were in like manner submitted, & on examination found correct.
After some discussion on the subject, Mr Bankhead withdrew the motion of which had given notice last year.

The Committee appointed by the Interloquitur of last year for the purpose of corresponding with Dr Black & the Trustees respecting the securities of the Widows Fund, reported, that they had several communications with Dr Black & Mr Horner & that in consequence they are fully persuaded of the propriety of adhering to the resolution of the Interloquitur "that all the Capital of the Widows' Fund, should be vested in real landed security."

Moved & agreed to, that the proceedings of the Committee be approved of; but that after a minute examination of the securities of Fund, we are satisfied of its present safety, & think it neither prudent nor necessary to carry the resolution of last year into immediate effect.

Resolved that the Ministers of the Synod's fixed Committee, together with Dr Bruce & Mr Carley from the Presbytery of Antrim, be a Committee for superintending the affairs of the Widows' Fund for one year—This Committee to meet in Cookstown, when called on any emergency. Five to be a quorum.

Resolved that Mrs Grey, widow of Charles Grey, late Minister of Castlereagh, be an annuitant on the Fund.

Resolved that Dr Black be instructed to lend the present balance on landed security.

Resolved that the Annuity to the widows for this year be £40.

Inserted the 18th day of October 1816 by (in consequence of the decease of the Clerk)

* ROBERT BLACK,

Death of The Moderator having stated that the Rev. Thomas Cuming was
Mr. Cuming dead; Doctor Black was requested to call the Roll.

Wood Haslet offered himself as an Elder from the Congregation of Larne, and produced a written appointment signed by the session
Clerk—His admission was resisted on the ground of his not being an Elder—The Roll was called "admit" or "not" and it carried "not."

It was moved and seconded that the Rev. George Hay be appointed Clerk to the Synod, in the room of the late Revd. Thomas Cuming.

To this it was moved as an amendment that all the words of the foregoing motion except the word "that" be expunged, and the two following resolutions inserted in their place.

Salary for 1 year

1st. That the salary attached to the Clerkship be continued for the current year to the family of the late Clerk—This Resolution passed without opposition.
2nd. That the election of a Clerk be deferred till the next Annual Meeting of Synod; and that Mr. Campbell act as Clerk in the interim. The Roll being called this Resolution was negatived—Against this decision, Mr. McEwen and others signified their intention of protesting, and said they would assign their reasons in due time.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at eight o'clock.

Second Session, Wednesday, 8 o'clock. A.M.

After prayer, the consideration of the motion of last sederunt being resumed, it was moved and seconded, "that the Rev. William Porter be appointed Clerk." It was also moved and seconded, "that the Rev. Henry Montgomery be appointed Clerk." It was also moved and seconded "that the Rev. William McEwen be appointed Clerk." It was also moved and seconded "that the Rev. John Johnstone be appointed Clerk."

Mr. Johnstone, Mr. Montgomery, and Mr. McEwen, declined being candidates for the present, on the ground, of their considering this meeting not competent to elect.

Mr. Hay and Mr. Porter being thus the only candidates, a question arose previous to the calling of the Roll respecting the right of the Presbytery of Antrim to vote in the choice of a Clerk.—It was submitted "have they a right" or "not."—The Roll was called, and it was carried in the affirmative.

Adjourned till twelve o'clock.

Third Session Wednesday, 12 o'clock.

The question respecting the choice of a Clerk was resumed. After some discussion the Roll was called, and Mr. Porter chosen.

Mr. McEwen and others gave in their reasons of protest against the decision of yesterday in favour of electing a Clerk, at this meeting, which are as follows:—

Cookstown, Novr 6th 1816.

We the undersigned protest against the election of a Clerk, to the General Synod of Ulster at this meeting for the following reasons:—

1st Because so far as precedent serves to regulate our procedure in this business, it appears that no such appointment (as far as we know) has taken place, except at an annual meeting of the General Synod of Ulster, or at a meeting convened for the express and avowed purpose of electing a Clerk.

2nd Because from the general impression which this uniform practice has produced in the body at large, not only individuals, but a great majority of several Presbyteries, have not attended this meeting—a circumstance which precludes the possibility of ascertaining the general sense of the Synod of Ulster, by a vote taken at present relative to the Clerkship of the Synod.

3rd Because we have been assembled at this time, solely to discharge a particular and specific duty, prescribed at the annual meeting of the General Synod of Ulster in July last; for the discharge of which we are accountable to the Synod at our next meeting in June next and beyond which we have neither warrant nor authority to proceed—Signed by

Wm McEwen  Joseph Jenkins  Hugh Woods  James Kydd
Wm Skelly  Patk. White  Fletcher Blakely  Tho' Osborne
David White  And' Goudie  Rob' Campbell  John Gowdy
Wm Harrison  Sam'l Watson  Rob' Acheson  John Patrick
Wm Finlay  John Mulligan  Rob' Orr  S. H. Rowan
Jno. Anderson  Ham. Dobbin  John Smith  Wm Boyd

Synod adjourned till 4 o'clock.

Fourth Session, Wednesday, 4 o'clock, P.M.

Moved and unanimously agreed to, that the thanks of the Synod be returned to Doctor Black, for the kind and correct manner in which he has performed the duties of Clerk "pro tempore."

The Committee for establishing a Professorship of Divinity and Church History in the Belfast Academical Institution, gave in a Report of their proceedings which was ordered to be held by the Clerk in retentis.

Moved and unanimously agreed to, that the thanks of the Synod be given to the Committee, and particularly to Mr Munfoad who acted as their Clerk, for the zeal and propriety with which they have discharged the trust reposed in them.

The following communication was received by the Moderator, and ordered to be inserted in the minutes.

"The Joint Boards of Managers and Visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution beg leave most respectfully to acquaint the Rev. the General Synod of Ulster, that a deputation from their body, was appointed to wait on the Right Honble Lord Viscount Castlereagh, for the purpose of soliciting his Lordship's influence with his Majesty's Government in aid of its funds—and that during the conference which took place on that occasion, his Lordship deprecated the measure of connecting the Synod of Ulster with the Institution, as proposed at the present time. His Lordship said, he considered the measure premature, owing to the Institution not being of sufficient standing to warrant such a connection, and to the Synod not having apprized Government of such being their intention—that the Synod did not act with becoming respect to his Majesty's Government, in withholding from them their intention of appointing a Professor of Divinity to lecture in the Institution, and resolving to accept of certificates from a Committee of their own body, in lieu of a degree of A.M. from a regular college. In his opinion, such a measure if adopted, would be deemed an act of hostility by his Majesty's Government—and his Lordship recommends to the Synod, that no such appointment should be made at present. When the Institution has been matured, such a connection may become a measure of adjustment between Government and the Synod. His Lordship requested it may be understood that the above sentiments are his as an individual, without any reference whatever to those of his Majesty's Government.''

The Boards submit the foregoing to the consideration of the Rev. Synod; and beg leave to assure them, that it would be matter of extreme regret to the Boards, should any circumstance arise to lessen the confidence and harmony which ought always to exist between his Majesty's Government and the Synod of Ulster.

Signed by order

JOSEPH STEVENSON, Scty.

Institution Buildings
Sat. 2nd Nov 1816.

The Synod adjourned till 8 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Fifth Session, Thursday 8 o'clock, A.M.

After prayer, some discussion took place on the business of yesterday morning.

Adjourned till half-past 10 o'clock.

Sixth Session, Thursday half-past 10 o'clock, A.M.

The consideration of the establishment of a Professorship of Divinity and Church History in the Belfast Academical Institution being resumed, it was moved and seconded, that the Rev. Samuel Hanna be appointed Professor.

To this it was moved as an amendment, that inasmuch as only one candidate has been named, and as several individuals have been recommended as competent to discharge the duties of the intended Professorship, who from the Committee being unable to offer security as to the amount and permanency of the emoluments of the office, have not appeared as candidates on the present occasion—therefore the Synod thinks it right, to defer the appointment of a Professor till its next meeting in June, and exhorts all its members to continue in the meantime their exertions to raise the sum requisite for carrying the proposed measure into effect. This amendment was carried by a large majority.
By desire of Doctor Black, it was ordered to be inserted in the minutes, that he concurred in delaying the appointment of a Professor, but dissented from the subsequent part of the foregoing amendment.

In consequence of the communication from the Managers and Visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution, it was moved and agreed to, that a deputation consisting of the following members, the Moderator, Mr. McCance, Mr. Nat. Alexander, and Mr. McEwen, Ministers, and Mr. Sidney Hamilton, Rowan, and Mr. William Maxwell Wilson, Elders, be appointed to wait on Lord Viscount Castlereagh on the earliest day possible, and explain to his Lordship the principles which have guided this Body in forming a connexion with the Belfast Academical Institution.

Mr. Porter was requested to transmit to each Presbytery, a written copy of the minutes of this Synod.

Synod concluded with prayer.

Inserted December 1st 1816

WILLIAM PORTER Clk. Gen'l Synod.

Third Session, Wednesday 2 o'clock afternoon.

Mr. Montgomery

The minute of last year enjoining the Presbytery of Templepatrick to summon Mr. Montgomery to attend their ensuing meeting, in order to take with respect to him, such steps as our discipline requires, being read, the Presbytery reported that Mr. Montgomery had regularly attended their meetings during the past year.

Moved that Belfast be the place of the Synod's meeting next year. Armagh was also put in nomination. The Roll was called and Belfast carried. The meeting to take place on the last Tuesday of June next, in the Meeting-house of the third congregation of Belfast. Divine service to begin at 5 o'clock afternoon.

On reading the minute of last year respecting "The Skeleton of a Code of Discipline, &c.," it was moved, that the Committee to whom this business was intrusted, shall proceed to fill up the first part of the skeleton, which relates exclusively to Discipline: that they shall revise the second part, containing "An outline of a Directory, &c.," and submit the whole to the Synod at its next meeting.

To this it was moved as an amendment, that no farther steps be taken in the preparation of the Code. The Roll being called this amendment was negatived. The original motion was then put and carried.

The Committee appointed to manage the Petition to the House of Lords and Commons against Distillation on the Sabbath, stated that they had prepared a Petition as directed, and given it to a Gentleman to be carried to the special meeting of Synod at Cookstown in order to have signatures affixed to it, but that it was accidentally lost by the way. Ordered that the Committee shall prepare another petition and have it ready for signatures on Friday morning.
Respecting the application to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, to which an answer had not last year been returned, M' M'Cance stated that he had since received a letter from D' Gill, Moderator of the Assembly. _Fourth Session, Thursday Morning 7 o'clock._

Moved and seconded that no answer be returned to the letter from the General Assembly.

After some discussion, the Synod adjourned till ten o'clock.

_Fifth Session, Thursday Morning 10 o'clock._

The following Ministers are appointed a Committee of examination for the ensuing year, viz.:

Mr N. Alexander Modr ″ Mr Acheson ″ Mr Blakely

Against the resolution of last year, enjoining the several Presbyteries to collect from their Ministers certain specified contributions to support for one year a Professor of Divinity in the B.A. Institution Dr Black and others gave in the following reasons of protest:

We dissent because we consider the whole plan of which the resolution agreed to forms a part, as ill calculated to attain its professed object, unlikely to be followed by beneficial results; and tending to distract the minds of parents and guardians in directing the studies of young men intended for the ministry in this Synod.

Robert Black Adam Hill
James Elder Jas. M′Cullogh

Synod adjourned till 3 o′clock.
Sixth Session, Thursday Afternoon 3 o'clock.

The minutes of the Special meeting of Synod at Cookstown were read.

Adverting to the resolution continuing for the current year to Mrs Cuming and her family, the salary attached to the Clerkship, it was stated by Dr Black, that Mrs Cuming and her family had authorized him to express in the warmest terms, their sense of this mark of esteem and respect for the memory of Mr Cuming; and at the same time to add, that they must beg leave to decline the acceptance of it, conceiving that the salary attached to the Clerkship, belongs of right to the person who does the duties of the office.

On this, it was moved and agreed to, that in order to perpetuate the respect which this Body entertains for the memory of their late Clerk, the several Presbyteries be requested to enter forthwith into a voluntary subscription; the amount of which shall be forwarded to the Rev John Thomson, and that our Moderator, Mr Thomson, and Mr Horner, shall expend the sum so subscribed, in the purchase of a piece of Plate, to be presented, with a suitable inscription, to Mrs Cuming and her family.

The Deputation appointed at the special meeting in Cookstown to wait on Lord Castlereagh, for the purpose of explaining the principles which guided this Synod in forming a connexion with the B.A. Institution, gave in a written report of their conference with his Lordship. Being asked, whether they had anything to add to this statement, the Deputation mentioned several facts, which were deemed so important, that they were requested to commit them to writing in addition to their original report.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Seventh Session, Friday morning 7 o'clock.

An address from the Managers and Visitors of the B.A. Institution was presented to the Synod by Messrs Wm Tennent, W. D. H. McEwen, Adam McClean, Wm Boyd, and Robert McCluney, who were authorized to give such information respecting the Institution as the Synod may require.

The above Gentlemen handed to the Moderator a copy of a letter from the Right Honourable Robert Peel, secretary to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, addressed to the Secretary of the B.A. Institution, and dated London March 10th 1817, and also a copy of certain resolutions relative to said letter, passed at a special meeting of the Proprietors of the Institution, held on the 3rd of April 1817, both of which papers were read, and ordered to be held in relictus.

A letter was also read, addressed to the Moderator by certain students in the B.A. Institution, praying the Synod to adopt such measures as may enable them to complete their Collegiate Education in that Seminary.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.
Eighth Session, Friday Morning. 10 o'clock.

The Deputation appointed at the special meeting in Cookstown, to wait on Lord Castlereagh, gave in their written report, with the additions required.

Moved and unanimously agreed to, that the warm thanks of the Synod be given to the Deputation for the prudent, able and dignified manner, in which they discharged the trust reposed in them, and that their report be held in retentis.

In reference to the above report, it was moved and seconded, as a declaratory resolution, "that the regulations for the education of our young men intended for the ministry, are strictly a matter of Discipline."

After a long discussion, the Roll was called and the resolution carried by a great majority.

Adjourned till 3 o'clock.

Ninth Session, Friday Afternoon 3 o'clock.

By desire of the members who voted against the Resolution respecting the education of our young men intended for the ministry, the Clerk was ordered to record their declaration, that they sincerely concur in the principle of the resolution; and opposed to it only on the ground, of its being at present uncalled for, and of dangerous tendency.

It was then moved and agreed to, that the Rev. Sam' Hanna be appointed Professor of Divinity and Church History under the direction of the Synod, and that he commence his course of Lectures, on the 1st day of November next.

Moved and seconded, that it is expedient to enjoin M' Hanna to deliver his lectures in his own Meeting-house.

To this it was moved as an amendment, that M' Hanna be enjoined to deliver his lectures in the B.A. Institution.

After some discussion the Synod adjourned till 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Tenth Session, Saturday Morning 7 o'clock.

After prayer, the amended motion of last sederunt was discussed. Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Eleventh Session, Sat. Morning, 10 o'clock.

The discussion respecting the place in which M' Hanna should deliver his lectures, being resumed, the Roll was called, and it was carried by a large majority that he should deliver them in the B. A. Institution.

Against this decision Mr Horner and Mr James Bankhead protested, and assigned the following reasons.

1st Because we cannot perceive any peculiar advantages likely to result, either to the Synod of Ulster, or to the B. A. Institution, from our Professor delivering his lectures on Divinity and Church History within its walls.

2nd Because we are of opinion, that previous to our Professor delivering his lectures in the B. A. Institution, the negotiations at present pending between the Government of the country, and the Managers of that Institution, respecting certain changes in its constitution, should have been satisfactorily terminated.

James Horner.
James Bankhead.

Resolved, that the measures proposed at the last annual meeting for raising a Fund to support our Theological Chair, be persevered in; that the several Presbyteries be urged to carry them forthwith into effect, and that the Committee appointed last year to manage the Fund, be continued, with the exception of Mr Hanna, in whose place Mr Harrison is nominated.

Resolved, that Mr Hanna be guided by the directions of this Committee, as to the duration of his course of lectures, and the mode of delivering them.

In consequence of the letter from Mr Peel secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, addressed to the secretary of the B. A. Institution, and submitted to the Synod by the deputation from that Body, it was resolved that a Committee be appointed, to prepare a respectful address to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, stating to his Excellency, the powerful motives by which the Synod have been induced, to adopt a plan of Home Education for their young men intended for the ministry.

Against this decision the following Protest was given in.

We the undersigned, protest against addressing the Lord Lieutenant for the following reasons.

1st Because we consider any communication to the Government on the subject in question as unnecessary and inexpedient.

2nd Because we consider the measure agreed on, to be of dangerous tendency inasmuch, as it appears to recognize a right in the Government, to interfere with our regulations for the education of candidates for the ministry, which we conceive to be strictly a matter of discipline.

William Harrison.
Wm Steele Dickson.
In consequence of the Report of the Deputation appointed at the special meeting at Cookstown to wait on Lord Castlereagh, it was resolved, that the Committee appointed to prepare an address to the Lord Lieutenant on the plan of Home education, shall be farther instructed, to prepare a letter to his Lordship on the same subject.

Resolved, that the Committee shall consist of the following members Mr. Thomson, Mr. Horner, Mr. James Bankhead, Mr. Malcolm, and Mr. Stewart.

Adjourned till 12 o'clock on Monday.

Twelfth Session, Monday June 30th 12 o'clock.

After prayer, the Committee appointed to prepare a reply to the communication from the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, submitted the copy of a letter, which was read, and ordered to be transmitted, by our Moderator, to the Moderator of the Assembly.

A Copy of an address to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant on the subject of Home Education, was produced by the Committee appointed to prepare it. The address was read, considered, and on a call of the Roll, agreed to, as the address of this Synod.

Against this decision, Mr. Wright and others signified their intention of protesting, and promised to assign their reasons in due time.

Moved and agreed to, that the Moderator, Mr. Thomson, Mr. Horner, and Mr. James Bankhead, shall present the address to his Excellency.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock to-morrow morn.

Thirteenth Session, Tuesday Morning 7 o'clock.

After prayer,—On reading the overture of last Synod, dispensing with the testimonial of a Degree in Arts from students intended for the ministry—Dr. Black requested, that his dissent might be recorded for the Reasons assigned by him and the Rev. James Elder against the endowment of a Professorship of Divinity &c. in the B. A. Institution. Messrs. Elder, Hill, and M'Cullogh, joined Dr. Black in the above expression of Dissent.

The Committee appointed by the Synod of last year, to investigate the charges against Mr. Sherrard, gave in a report of their proceedings, the consideration of which was deferred till next sederunt.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Fourteenth Session, Tuesday Morning 10 o'clock.

The following abstract was made out of the report of the Committee in Mr. Sherrard’s case.
"The Committee having heard Mr. Sherrard in his defence, it was decided by a majority, that the charges against him recorded in the minutes of the Presbytery of Dromore, were founded.

"It was then moved and seconded, that as Mr. Sherrard seems to have laboured under misapprehension of the Synod’s laws concerning marriage, and as he has proposed to make a solemn asseveration, that he will not, till next meeting of Synod, marry any person whatever—instead of being degraded, he is now suspended "sine die."

"To this the following amendment was moved, that in obedience to the order of the Synod, Mr. Sherrard be degraded from the office of the Christian ministry." On this amendment the previous question was put and negatived. The amendment was then put and negatived. Against the latter decision Messrs. Hay, Cooke, Horner, Malcom, Stewart, and Brown protested. With the consent of the Committee the original motion was then withdrawn.

"It was next moved and seconded, that as Mr. Sherrard has proposed to make a solemn asseveration, that he will not till next meeting of Synod, marry any person whatever—instead of being degraded, he be now suspended sine die. The roll being called, this motion carried—Against this decision a protest was entered by Mr. Hay, and the members who protested with him before.

"Previous to the conclusion of the business, Messrs. Montgomery, Orr, Blakely, and Davis signified their intention of protesting against the first decision of the Committee, viz., that the charges against Mr. Sherrard recorded in the minutes of the Presbytery of Dromore, were founded."

The parties having withdrawn, it was moved and seconded, that the Synod approve of the conduct of the Committee, in not degrading Mr. Sherrard, inasmuch as all the guilt contemplated by the Synod when they gave instructions to the Committee, was not proved against him. The Roll being called, this motion carried.

Moved and agreed to, that the Synod cannot sustain the sentence of the Committee, suspending Mr. Sherrard "sine die," because the Committee had no authority to inflict that punishment.

Mr. Sherrard was ordered to be in attendance on the Synod at its meeting to-morrow morning.

A letter from the Proprietors of the Belfast Academical Institution, was presented to the Moderator, expressing their thanks for favours formerly received from the Synod, and particularly for the recent appointment of a Professor of Divinity to lecture in the Institution.

Adjourned till 7 o’clock to-morrow morning.

Fifteenth Session, Wednesday, A.M. 7 o’clock.

After prayer—Moved and unanimously agreed to, that the minute of last Synod expressing disapprobation of the conduct of the Presbytery of Dromore, in the case of Mr. Sherrard, be now rescinded."
Resolved unanimously, that in order to mark the Synod's disapprobation of the conduct of M' Sherrard in celebrating marriages irregularly, he be now rebuked from the chair; and assured, that for the very first instance of irregularity in this respect, which shall be proved against him, he shall be punished with degradation—M' Sherrard was rebuked and admonished accordingly.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Sixteenth Session, Wed. 10 o'clock, A.M.

The minute of last Synod respecting an application from certain families, residing at or near Ballintrain, to be erected into a congregation, was read, but the Presbytery of Monaghan, who were ordered to attend this meeting for the purpose of giving information on the subject in question not having done so, the business was necessarily dropt for the present.

On reading the minute of last Synod respecting Clare, the Committee appointed to take charge of that congregation reported,

"That on the 28th day of March last, they ordained the Rev. James Gardner, as assistant and successor to the Rev. Robert Adams, in the Congregation of Clare—that M' Gardner subscribed the Westminister Confession of Faith, and is a contributor to the Widows' Fund—and that there is a fair prospect of harmony and prosperity in the congregation."

Resolved unanimously, that the conduct of the Clare Committee, has been highly satisfactory, and that M' Gardner and the congregation be now annexed to the Presbytery of Armagh.

M' Hanna having begged leave to decline the situation of Treasurer, to the Committee for establishing a Professorship of Divinity, M' Munfoad was appointed in his place.

M' Thomson having begged leave to decline the situation of Chairman to the same Committee, the Committee were authorized to nominate their own Chairman.

M' Henry Montgomery gave notice, that at the next meeting of Synod, he will bring forward certain resolutions, for the purpose of preventing irregularities on the part of Ministers of this body in the celebration of marriages.

OVERTURES.

I. In order to render the education of Candidates for the ministry in this Church, more complete, it was overture and agreed to, that not less than two years study of Theology, Hebrew, and Church History, after the prescribed course of philosophical study has been completed, shall entitle candidates for the sacred office, to admission into the presbyteries belonging to this body.
II. Overtured, that no Presbytery shall license any young man to preach the Gospel, under the age of twenty-four years. The consideration of this Overture deferred till next meeting of Synod.

III. Overtured and agreed to, that no candidate for the ministry shall be licensed to preach the Gospel, in less than one year after he shall have finished the prescribed course of theological study, and that any license granted in violation of this rule shall be null and void.

BILLS.

I. A memorial was presented from the second Congregation of Larne, stating, that the memorialists had respectfully submitted to the decision of last Synod with regard to their Pastor, the Rev. James Cochrane; that they are now fully satisfied of the sincerity of his contrition; and therefore pray, that he may be restored to the ministerial office.

To this a counter-memorial was presented signed by a few members of the congregation of Larne, stating their unwillingness to receive M'r Cochrane as their Pastor; and praying the Synod to take all the circumstances of this case into serious consideration.

The Presbytery of Templepatrick, and the commissioners from both parties of the Cong's of Larne, having been heard at considerable length, the Synod adjourned till 3 o'clock.

Seventeenth Session, Wed. 3 o'clock, P. M.

Moved and seconded, that M'r Cochrane be rebuked by the Moderator, and restored to the pastoral charge of the congregation of Larne.

To this it was moved as an amendment, that the sentence of suspension "sine die" be now passed on M'r Cochrane.

After a long discussion, the Roll was called, and the amendment was negatived.

Against this decision the following protest was entered.

We the undersigned protest.

1st Because we consider M'r Cochrane's original offence, to be of such a nature, that it merited, at least, the punishment of suspension "sine die."

2nd Because M'r Cochrane highly aggravated his original offence, by gross prevarication and wilful deception, when in a most solemn appeal to God, from his own pulpit on the Lord's day, he declared that he was privately married in May 1815; which declaration, he well knew his own congregation and the public at large, must understand to mean, that his marriage was privately solemnized by a clergyman in the usual way.

3rd Because M'r Cochrane afterwards acknowledged that the marriage alluded to was solemnized by himself, no witness having been present, which if he believed possible, indicated such a want of understanding, and which if he did not believe, indicated such a want of integrity, as proves him in either case totally disqualified for discharging the duties of the christian ministry.

4th Because, although sincere repentance of such crimes, would justify M' Cochrane's admission to every lay privilege of the christian church, we do not consider that it can justify his restoration to the ministry; besides that of the sincerity of his repentance, we have reason to entertain the most serious doubts.

5th Because, we consider the interests of religion in general, and the honour of the Synod of Ulster in particular, to be vitally injured, by M' Cochrane's restoration to the Gospel ministry.

6th Because we consider the foregoing decision of the Synod, destructive of the discipline of this Church in future.

7th Because, we believe M' Cochrane's restoration must be ultimately injurious to the interests of religion in the congregation of Larne.

The original motion (viz. that M' Cochrane be rebuked and restored) was then agreed to.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock to-morrow morn.

Eighteenth Session, Thursday 7 o'clock, A.M.

After prayer, M' Cochrane was rebuked by the Moderator conformably to the resolution of last sederunt.

II. A memorial was presented from Alexander Charlton, son in law to the late Rev. James Davison, minister of the united congregation of Ballygawly and Aughnacloy, complaining of the Presbytery of Clogher, for not having procured memorialist certain arrears of stipend alleged to be due by said congregation to M' Davison, at the time of his decease.

The parties having been heard, it was moved and unanimously agreed to, that this memorial be dismissed.

III. A memorial was presented from M' Smith a member of the Presbytery of Ballymena complaining of the conduct of the Presbytery of Route with respect to a charge of immorality against M' Thomas Campbell, a licentiate under their care, which Memorialist had merely reported to them, and praying the Synod, to institute a re-investigation of the charge against M' Campbell, and to say, whether mem't had, or had not, sufficient grounds for reporting it.
The minutes of the Presbytery of Route on this subject, having been read by their Clerk, the Synod adjourned till 10 o'clock.

_Nineteenth Session, Thursday 10 o'clock A.M._

The subject of M' Smith's memorial was resumed, the witnesses in support of it were examined, and the Presbytery of Route were heard in their defence. The parties were ordered to withdraw, and the consideration of the case was entered on.

Adjourned till 3 o'clock.

_Twentieth Session, Thursday 3 o'clock P.M._

The consideration of M' Smith's memorial was again resumed; it was unanimously resolved, that M' Smith was only discharging his duty as a minister of this body, in directing the attention of the Presbytery of Route, to the report against the moral character of M' Campbell, and that the Synod highly disapproves of the spirit in which that Presbytery received his communication.

Resolved, that it appears from the minutes of the Presbytery of Route, and from the testimony of the witnesses this day examined, that M' Campbell had in his possession, a Bank-note taken from the house of Daniel M'Kay, which he immediately returned on being asked for it—that it does not appear in evidence that he took it with a felonious intention, but not having given a satisfactory account of the manner in which he obtained it, that he was not entitled to an "honorable acquittal."

Resolved, that the minute of the Presbytery of Route, in which M' Smith is said to have accused M' Campbell "falsely, scandalously, and maliciously," is highly reprehensible; and an unworthy reflection on the character of M' Smith.

IV. A memorial was presented from certain families in the neighbourhood of Drumlough in the County of Down, stating, that since the last Meeting of Synod, they had been supplied by the Presbytery of Dromore, with preaching, on one sabbath in each month; that their numbers are greatly increased; that they are able to pay more stipend than is required by the rules of Synod for the erection of congregations, and praying that they may be erected accordingly.

The Report of the Presbytery of Dromore on this subject having been read—the Synod adjourned till 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

_Twenty-first Session, Friday 7 o'clock A.M._

After prayer, the consideration of the memorial from Drumlough, being resumed, it was moved and seconded, that the association at that place be erected into a Congregation under the care of the Synod.

As an amendment to this it was moved and agreed to, that the consideration of this business be delayed till the next meeting of Synod; and that the memorialists be referred as they were last year to the Presbytery of Dromore.

The Committee appointed for the purpose, submitted the copy of a letter to Lord Castlereagh, on the subject of Home Education; which was read, and ordered to be transmitted by the Moderator.

Synod concluded with prayer.

[INTERLOQUITUR.]

A statement of the Receipt and payments of his Majesty's Royal Bounty, for the year ended the 29th of September 1816, was submitted to the Interloquitor, and found exact and satisfactory.

The accounts of the Widows' Fund, for the year ended the 1st of October 1816, were in like manner submitted and on examination found correct.

Resolved, that the ministers of the Synod's Fixed Committee, together with Dr Bruce and Mr Carley from the Presbytery of Antrim, be a Committee for superintending the affairs of the Widows' Fund for one year. This Committee to meet in Cookstown when called by the Moderator on any emergency. Five to be a quorum.

Dr Black stated that in obedience to the order of last Interloquitor, he had lent the balance in his hands on landed security. His conduct was approved of.

Resolved that the Annuity to the Widows, be for this year £40.

A memorial was presented from Mr Gamble, an ex-contributor to the Fund, stating that the Agent had refused to receive his subscription for the year 1815, on account of its not having been transmitted in due time.

Resolved unanimously, that by the 11th Regulation, Mr Gamble has forfeited all claims on the Fund.

Resolved, on Dr Black's request, that his narrative of the circumstances connected with the augmentation of Royal Bounty in the year 1792, be no longer "in retentis."

Inserted Sept. 1st 1817.

The Moderator having stated, that he had called the present meeting in compliance with requisitions addressed to him by two Presbyteries—it was unanimously resolved, that the reasons specified in the requisitions alluded to, were not sufficient to justify a call of the Synod,—and therefore that the meeting be now dissolved—It was accordingly concluded with Prayer.

Inserted Feby. 1st 1818, by

WM. PORTER Clerk of G.S.
AT COOKSTOWN, MARCH 3rd, 1818.

At a Meeting of the Committee for superintending the Widows' Fund, convened in Cookstown, on Tuesday, March 3rd 1818—the following members were present.

In making out the foregoing list, it became a subject of discussion whether Mr Porter, the Clerk, was of right a member of the Committee—The question was put "Is he" or "Is he not" and it was decided in the affirmative.

The Moderator announced the death of Doctor Black, Treasurer to the Fund; and stated, that he had convened the Committee that they might provide for the management of that institution till the next meeting of the Contributors.

The Committee, having taken the affairs of the Fund, into serious consideration, resolved unanimously to recommend to the Contributors the following measures—

1st To submit the securities, and other concerns of the Fund to two eminent Lawyers, that they may make a report to the Treasurer, of the state of the same, and of any measure which it may be expedient for they Contributors to adopt, and that the Treasurer, shall then apply to the Moderator, to call a meeting of the superintending Committee, if this step shall be deemed necessary.

2nd To take the opinion of persons experienced in such calculations, as to the annuity which the Fund can afford to pay, the probable increase of Annuitants, the Maximum of Annuitants, and the period, at which it may be expected.

3rd To require the Treasurer, to furnish every Contributor to the Fund, with a printed copy of its laws and regulations; and to reserve a number of copies for the use of new contributors.

4th To require the Treasurer every year, as early a period as possible before the stated meeting of the Contributors, to transmit a particular statement, of the Securities, Receipts, and Disbursements of the Fund, to each Presbytery, or to each Contributor, as may hereafter be determined.

In both these cases, the expense of printing to be born[c] by the Fund.

5th To require the Treasurer, annually to invest the balance which may remain in his hands, in Government securities, in the name of the Trustees, until, the Contributors shall order the sum arising from these investments, to be laid out on landed security which shall always be done by the advice of a Lawyer, chosen by the Contributors or the Trustees.

6th That defaulters, who shall forfeit by degradation or otherwise, shall not be restored to the privileges of the Fund without the consent of the Contributors, who shall prescribe the terms of restoration.

After agreeing to recommend the above measures, the Committee unanimously resolved, that it is expedient, now to appoint a temporary Treasurer, who shall manage the Fund till the next meeting of the Contributors, and shall give adequate security for the due discharge of his trust.

Moved and seconded, that it is expedient, that the agency for Royal Bounty, and the treasurership of the Fund, should be committed to the same hands, and therefore that the Rev. George Hay (recently appointed Agent for R.D. by his Majesty's Government) be appointed to act as Treasurer of the Fund, till the time mentioned above.

To this it was moved as an amendment, that the Rev. Robert Acheson be appointed temporary Treasurer.

The Roll was called, and Mr Hay chosen.

Resolved unanimously, that Mr Hay, shall forthwith provide a surety or sureties, who shall become bound to the Clerk of the Peace for the City and County of Londonderry, in the penal sum of £5000, for Mr Hay's due discharge of the trust now reposed in him.—Dr Bruce and the Rev. John Thomson to be satisfied with respect to the sufficiency of the security, and to see that the necessary bonds shall be duly perfected.

Resolved unanimously, that on re-consideration we deem it expedient, that the first of the measures recommended above to the Contributors, should not be delayed till the stated meeting of that Body; and therefore we do now instruct Mr Hay to have the securities on which the Capital of the Widows' Fund is lent, submitted to the consideration of Counsellors Joy and Smyly, and to get their opinions as to the sufficiency of the same. He is also instructed, to propose to those Lawyers such queries respecting said securities as he may deem important, and to obtain their answers. Mr Hay is requested to have these things done with all convenient speed; and to report the result to the Moderator that he may take such steps as circumstances may require.

The meeting concluded with Prayer.

The Presbytery of Bangor having assigned as their reason for not having returned any Members for the Committee of Books, "that this Committee had now become a nonentity" it was ordered that the several Presbyteries shall bring their Books, for inspection, to the next and every subsequent meeting of Synod; and that they shall return every year, members for the Committee of Books, according to our standing regulations.

Moved that Armagh be the place of the Synod's meeting next year. Belfast was also put in nomination. The roll was called and Belfast carried. The meeting to take place on the last Tuesday of June next, in the Meeting-house of the third Congregation. Divine service to commence at five o'clock in the afternoon.

The Committee for managing the petitions against Distillation on the Lord's Day, reported, that not having had an opportunity of procuring a sufficient number of signatures, they had deemed it expedient not to forward the Petitions. The Committee for purchasing a piece of plate, to be presented to Mr. Cuming and her family, stated that they would be ready to make their report, to-morrow morning.

A letter was read from the Joint Boards of Managers and Visitors of the B.A. Institution, stating, that they begged leave to present to the Synod some copies of a publication detailing the system of education pursued in that seminary; and that they had deputed the Rev. H. Montgomery, and the Rev. W. D. H. McEwen, to give any farther information respecting the Institution, which the Synod might require.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Fourth Session. Thursday 10 o'clock, A.M.

After prayer—the Committee for purchasing a piece of Plate, to be presented to Mrs. Cuming and her family, reported that they had not received contributions sufficient to carry into effect the object of their appointment—Ordered that the Moderator of each Presbytery, shall at its next stated meeting, collect the contributions of his co-presbyters, and transmit them forthwith to the R. John Thompson, Belfast.

A letter was received by the Moderator from the Professors of the B.A. Institution, stating, that they had been recently formed into a Board of Faculty, possessing full powers to take cognizance of every thing connected with the literary arrangements and moral discipline of the Collegiate Department.

Resolved that Mr. Montgomery and Mr. McEwen be requested to communicate to the Board of Faculty, our assurance of the satisfaction which the arrangement now communicated has afforded us.
The Moderator of last year, reported that he had transmitted to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, the letter committed to his care; and that no answer had been returned.

Moved, that inasmuch as the Church of Scotland, passed an Act in 1799, which excludes the Ministers and Licentiates of this Body from preaching in their Congregations; and though respectfully and repeatedly applied to, have not made any alteration of said act in our favour,—it is therefore resolved that the Ministers and Licentiates of the Church of Scotland shall not be admitted to preach in our Congregations.

To this it was moved, as an amendment—that as the Church of Scotland passed an act in 1799, which excludes the Ministers and Licentiates of this body, from preaching in their congregations; and though respectfully and repeatedly applied to, have not made any alteration of said act in our favour,—it is therefore resolved, that we deem it a duty which we owe to our Licentiates and to ourselves to declare, that the Ministers and Licentiates of the Church of Scotland shall not be eligible to any of our congregations, nor allowed to preach in any of our vacancies.

The roll was called and this amendment was negatived.

The original motion was then put and carried.

Against this decision the following Ministers, viz., Messrs Protest Thompson, John Brown, Cooke, Stewart, Johnstone, Horner, Hanns, S. Simpson, H. Simpson, Kennedy, Boyle, R. Dill Junr, Lyle, Graham, Campbell, and George McLeland, together with Robert Magill and Samuel Beggs, Elders, gave in reasons of protest, which were ordered to be in retentis.

Adjourned till 4 o'clock.

Fifth Session. Thursday, 4 o'clock, P.M.

The Deputation which was last year appointed to present an address to the Lord Lieutenant on the subject of Home Education, gave in their report.

Resolved unanimously, that the conduct of the Deputation has been highly satisfactory; and that their report be in retentis.

Mr Montgomery requested, that he might be allowed another year for bringing forward his promised regulations respecting marriage. His request was granted.

In reference to the first and third overtures of last year, it was moved, that it is not the intention of the Synod, that young men who had commenced their collegiate education before these overtures were passed, should be subject to their operation.

After a long discussion, the Synod adjourned till 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.
Sixth Session. Friday, 7 o'clock A.M.

After prayer,—it was moved as an amendment to the motion of last sederunt, that such young men as had commenced their collegiate education before the enactment of the first and third overtures of last year, shall be admitted on judicial trials immediately on the close of the first session which they shall have devoted to the study of Divinity; and be licensed as soon after the close of the second session, as their Presbyteries shall think right.

The roll was called, and this amendment carried.

The adjourned consideration of the overture of last year, prohibiting Presbyteries from licensing candidates under the age of twenty-four years, being resumed, it was moved and agreed to that the overture be rejected.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Seventh Session. Friday, 10 o'clock A.M.

On reading the minute of last year, respecting Mr Smyth's memorial against the conduct of the Presbytery of Route, in the case of Mr Campbell, a licentiate under their care,—it was moved, that the resolution of last Synod, declaring part of the minutes of the Presbytery "highly reprehensible," be rescinded.

To this, the following amendment was moved and agreed to, that as Mr Campbell declares he can produce witnesses in his favour, who were not present when the business was last year discussed, a Committee be now appointed to re-investigate and determine the whole matter at issue between him, Mr Smyth and the Presbytery of Route—This Committee to consist of the following Ministers—the Moderator. Messrs T. Alexander, A. Patterson, Thomas Henry, H. Henry, Davis, Malcom, Hay, Cooke, Allen, Harrison, Dr Stevenson, Davison, Stewart, and Park. These, with each an Elder, to meet in Ballinlough, on Wednesday, the 22nd of July, instant at 12 o'clock. The attendance of at least seven ministers is necessary to form a quorum.

Mr Campbell having acknowledged himself the author of a publication entitled "A Letter to the Rev. the General Synod of Ulster, &c., &c." the Committee are instructed to take such steps respecting this publication, as they may deem expedient.

Mr Smith and Mr Campbell are enjoined to furnish each the other, with a list of his witnesses, ten days previous to the day of trial.

Adjourned till 3 o'clock.

Eighth Session. Friday, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Committee for managing the concerns of the Synod's Divinity Professorship, gave in a report of their proceedings during the last twelve months, which was ordered to be in retentis.
Resolved, that a committee consisting of Messrs' Bankhead, Malcom, Wright, Patterson, and R. Hogg, shall meet this night, and prepare a plan, to be submitted to the Synod to-morrow morning, for the farther support of our Divinity Professorship.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Nine Session. Saturday, 7 o'clock A.M.

After prayer, the Committee appointed for the purpose, presented the following plan for the support of the Divinity Professorship:

"From the accounts submitted to them, the Committee find, that the sums subscribed by congregations for the permanent fund, amount to £241 14s. 5½d.; and that the subscriptions of Ministers for the support of the Professorship for one year, amount to £85 10s.

"From this statement it appears, that a great majority of the Ministers and congregations of the General Synod, have neglected to comply with the instructions of the Synod, on this important subject. The Committee therefore are of opinion, that it ought to be warmly recommended by the Moderator, to such Ministers as have not yet paid their subscriptions, to do so with as little delay as possible, as they value the importance of the object in view, and the credit of the Presbyterian body; the more particularly, as the contributions of the Ministers for the present year, are inadequate to compensate the Professor for his extraordinary labour during the session, and as it is the opinion of the Committee, that no part of the permanent fund should be applied to the payment of the Professor.

"With respect to the congregational collections, the Committee are of opinion, that it ought to be again warmly recommended to Ministers, to collect money from their people in aid of the permanent fund, as soon as they conceive they can do so with a prospect of success; and in congregations where a considerable sum cannot be raised at present in aid of the permanent fund, a collection be raised in support of the Professorship in the meantime in whatever manner ministers shall judge most proper. But the Committee recommend, that Ministers do take pains to inform their people, of the great advantages of the establishment which their contributions are intended to support, and urge them to lend their liberal assistance, in promoting the objects of the present promising plan of home education.

"The Committee think that the collections might, with propriety be made in the month of August or of September next.

"They recommend that the Committee appointed last year for the management of the concerns of the Professorship, be continued; and that they shall have the power of determining the salary of the Professor for the last year.

"They farther recommend that Mr. Munfoid be requested to continue treasurer."

A. G. MALCOM, Clerk of Committee.
Resolved unanimously, that the foregoing plan be adopted; and its execution most earnestly recommended, to all the Ministers and Elders of this body.

Resolved unanimously, that our warm thanks be returned to the Second Congregation of Presbyterians in Belfast, for their liberal donation of fifty pounds in support of our Divinity Professorship.

OVERTURES.

I. The following address to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, was overtured and unanimously agreed to.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, EARL TALBOT, LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

We, the Ministers and Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, embrace the first opportunity afforded us by our annual meeting, of congratulating your Excellency on your appointment to the Government of this Country—an event which we regard with much satisfaction, and from which we anticipate the most beneficial results.

We beg leave to assure your Excellency, that we are actuated by the same principles of loyalty to his Majesty's Illustrious House, and devoted attachment to the British Constitution by which our ancestors were distinguished; and that we will zealously inculcate the same sentiments on the minds of our people, particularly of the rising generation. We trust that in the course of your administration, your Excellency will feel yourself warranted in representing us to his Majesty's Government, as worthy of a continuance of that favour and confidence, which Presbyterians have enjoyed, from their first settlement in Ireland.

Signed in our name and by our order.

at Belfast, this 4th day of July, 1818.

HENRY MONTGOMERY, Moderator.

II. Overtured and agreed to, that the term of study at any collegiate seminary of learning, which students under the care of Presbyteries of this Body, shall each session be required to complete, be at least from the 10th of November, to the 1st of May; and that Presbyteries, in their annual reports, shall specify the dates, as stated in the Professors' certificates, at which the students under their care, commenced and terminated their studies, each session at college.

III. Overtured and agreed to, that if any Presbytery shall license any young man, contrary to the foregoing regulation, the Presbytery so offending, shall be subject to the severe censure of the Synod, and the license so granted shall be null and void.
BILLS.

I. A memorial was presented from certain families in the neighbourhood of Drumlough, stating that during the last year, they had been regularly supplied with preaching by the Presbytery of Dromore; and praying that they may be erected into a congregation under the care of the Synod.

The minutes of the Presbytery of Dromore, stating their proceedings with regard to the association at Drumlough, were read by their clerk; the members of the Presbytery communicated some additional information, and the commissioners deputed by the association were heard.

The commissioners having withdrawn, it was moved and agreed to, that the association at Drumlough be erected into a Congregation, and placed under the care of the Presbytery of Dromore. The Presbytery however are enjoined not to ordain a minister among them, until the debt due for the building of their Meeting-house be liquidated.

II. A memorial was presented from the Presbyterian inhabitants of Carlow, stating various reasons, which in their opinion ought to induce the Synod to erect them into a Congregation; and praying that they may be erected accordingly, and placed under the care of the Presbytery of Dublin.

A letter was handed to the Moderator, containing certain resolutions of the Presbyterian Synod of Munster. The resolutions were read, and as bearing on the subject of the memorial from Carlow, were ordered to be inserted in the minutes.

"At the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Munster, held in Dublin on Wednesday, July 1st, 1818.

"Resolved unanimously, that we contemplate with peculiar satisfaction, the recent exertions made by our brethren of the Synod of Ulster, to extend the Presbyterian interest in the South of Ireland.

"Resolved unanimously, that we will co-operate with the Synod of Ulster, in any means they may adopt for promoting this desirable end.

"Resolved unanimously, that the thanks of this Synod are due to the Rev. M' Cooke, and the Rev. M' Stewart, who have recently supplied the Congregation of Carlow, for the zeal, prudence, diligence, and ability, exhibited by them, in fulfilling the objects of their mission.

"Resolved unanimously, that a copy of these resolutions, signed by our Moderator and Clerk, be sent to the Moderator of the Synod of Ulster, to be communicated to that body.

"PH. TAYLOR, Moderator.
"JAMES ARMSTRONG, Clerk."
Moved and unanimously agreed to, that the worshipping association at Carlow, be erected into a Congregation, and placed under the care of the Presbytery of Dublin.

Resolved unanimously, that we will most cordially co-operate with our brethren of the Synod of Munster, in promoting the Presbyterian interest in the South of Ireland.

Resolved unanimously, that for this purpose, we authorize the Trustees of the General Fund in Dublin, to invite to preach in the South, such ministers of our body, and for such periods of time as they may think proper; and that the Presbyteries to which such ministers belong, shall, during their absence, supply their congregations free of expense.

Moved and unanimously agreed to, that our Moderator shall write a respectful letter to the Moderator of the Synod of Munster, enclosing a copy of the foregoing resolutions and expressing the happiness we feel in the prospect of extending Presbyterianism, and our sense of the liberal conduct of our brethren in the South.

Resolved unanimously that our warm thanks be returned to our own members, Messrs Horner, Cooke and Stewart, for their zealous exertions in this business—Messrs Horner, Cooke and Stewart were accordingly thanked by the Moderator.

Ordered that each Presbytery, shall, at their meeting immediately previous to the stated meeting of Synod, appoint a Moderator for the year, and return his name as such in the annual report.

Ordered that on the death of any minister of this body, or of any widow on the Fund, the Presbytery to which he or she belonged, shall at their meeting immediately subsequent to such death, transmit an official report of the same to the Treasurer.

Ordered that the Christian name of each annuitant shall in future be inserted by Presbyteries, in their annual reports, and also the name of the congregation of which each annuitant’s husband was minister. In cases of subsequent marriages, annuitants shall still be designated in the reports of Presbyteries, by the name of their husbands through whom they became entitled to the fund, with the names by which they are known at the time of making such reports, immediately subjoined.

Mr Johnstone gave notice that he will move at our next annual meeting, that the amount of stipend required previous to the erection of congregations, shall be reduced from fifty pounds to forty.

Synod concluded with prayer.

Attested by

WILLIAM PORTER, Clerk of G. Synod.
INTERLOQUITUR.

It was officially announced to the Interloquitur that in consequence of the death of Dr Black, Treasurer to the Widows' Fund, a meeting of the Committee for superintending that institution, had been held at Cookstown, on the third of March last, to provide for the management thereof till the present time. The minutes of that meeting were read, and on them the following proceedings were grounded.

Resolved, that Mr R. Hogg, Mr Malcom, Mr Hay and Mr Bruce, be requested to submit to the next stated, or official meeting of the contributors, which shall be convened, such data as they may deem necessary, for calculating the annuity which the Fund can afford to pay, the probable increase of annuitants, the maximum of annuitants, and the period at which it may be expected. The same gentlemen are also requested, to ascertain as nearly as they can, the expense of obtaining the desired calculations.

Resolved, that the Treasurer shall furnish each contributor to the Fund, with a printed copy of its laws and regulations, and shall reserve a number of copies for the use of future contributors.

Resolved, that the Treasurer shall transmit (every year) at as early a period as possible before the stated meeting of the contributors, a particular statement of the securities, receipts and disbursements of the Fund, to the Moderator of each Presbytery. In both these cases, the expense of printing to be borne by the Fund.

Dr Bruce gave notice that at the next annual meeting of the contributors, he will propose a regulation to the following effect, viz. that no defaulter who shall forfeit by degradation or otherwise, shall be restored to the privileges of the Fund without the consent of the contributors, who shall prescribe the terms of restoration.

Mr Bruce gave notice that at the next annual meeting, he will propose an alteration of the seventh rule, to this effect, viz. that the premium to be paid by ministers on second marriages, shall be regulated by the tables used for that purpose, by annuity companies.

On reading the resolution of Fund Committee, assembled at Cookstown, appointing Mr Hay to act as Treasurer till this meeting, it was stated that Mr Hay had gratuitously discharged the duties imposed on him, by this appointment—Resolved unanimously that the thanks of this body are due to Mr Hay for his disinterested conduct. Thanks were accordingly returned to him by the Moderator.

Resolved unanimously, that Mr Hay be now appointed Treasurer of the Fund. For the faithful discharge of the trust reposed in him, he is required to give security to the amount of two thousand pounds to the Clerk of the Peace for the City and County of Londonderry. Dr Bruce and Mr Hanna to be satisfied as to the validity of the security.

The Treasurer stated, that in obedience to instructions given to him by the Fund Committee at Cookstown, he had taken the opinion of Serjeant Joy and Counsellor Smyly as to the validity of the securities, on which the capital of the Fund is lent. The opinions were read, and the Treasurer was enjoined to carry into immediate execution, certain measures therein recommended.

Ordered that the Moderator shall in due time convene a committee consisting of Mr. Thompson, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Hogg, and Mr. M' Ewen, and submit to them the case which was laid before Serjeant Joy and Counsellor Smyly, that they may add to it such queries as they may think proper. The case with these additional queries to be transmitted to the Treasurer, who is hereby instructed to procure a consultation with respect to it, between the two lawyers above mentioned. So soon as he shall have obtained their joint opinion, he is to inform the Moderator of his having done so. The Moderator is then to call a special meeting of the contributors at Belfast, that said opinion may be laid before them, and such measures adopted as shall be deemed expedient.

A Committee consisting of Messrs. Hanna, Horner, Bankhead, D'r James Neilson and Mr. Bruce was appointed to examine the accounts of the late D'r Black as agent for R.D., and Treasurer of the Fund; and also those of Mr. Hay as Treasurer of the Fund pro tempore.

This Committee reported, that they had examined the accounts of Mr. Hay as Treasurer of the Fund pro tempore, and found them correct.

The Committee farther reported, that not having D'r Black's books before them, they had not been able to execute that part of their commission which related to his accounts as agent for R.D. and Treasurer of the Fund.

Resolved that a Committee consisting of Messrs. Horner, Porter, Dunlop, and R. Dill Jun'r, shall forthwith repair to Londonderry, in order to examine D'r Black's books, and make a final settlement of his accounts.

Resolved that the Moderator, Mr. Thompson, D'r Bruce, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Mc Cance, Mr. James Bankhead, Mr. Horner, Mr. Malcom, Mr. R. Hogg, Mr. Blakely, and Mr. M'Ewen be a committee for superintending the affairs of the Fund for one year. This Committee to meet in Belfast, when called by the Moderator, on any emergency—five to be a quorum.

Resolved that the annuity to the widows for the current year, shall be fixed by the contributors at the special meeting in Belfast, which the Moderator has already been instructed to convene.

Resolved that the deputation appointed by the Synod of this year, to present an address to the Lord Lieutenant, shall write to the Rt. Hon. Robert Peel, and to Mr. Vaughan of London, and return them our sincere thanks for their good offices in procuring a more desirable arrangement of English R.D.

The deputation are farther instructed to wait, when in Dublin, on the Rev. Joseph Hutton, and to communicate to him our acknowledgments for his exertions in the same business.
Dr. William Neilson, stated that in consequence of having accepted the situations of Classical Head Master and Professor in Hebrew in the Belfast Academical Institution, he intended to resign the Pastoral charge of the congregation of Dundalk; and wished the Interloquitur to inform him, whether by such resignation, his connection with the Widows' Fund would be affected. Dr. Neilson further stated that it was by no means his intention, to lay down the "ministerial character," that he was resolved to continue a member of a Presbytery; to perform such clerical duties as his circumstances would allow; and to accept of any congregation in Belfast, or its immediate vicinity, which might choose him for their pastor.

Resolved that Dr. William Neilson's connexion with the Fund, and the interest of his family therein, cannot, in our opinion, be affected by the resignation contemplated, inasmuch, as we do not think that the instruction of youth can be considered as a secular employment, within the meaning of our regulations, provided, that the minister, who may resign for this purpose, his pastoral charge, shall continue under the care, and subject to the appointments of some Presbytery, either of the Synod of Ulster, or the Synod of Munster.

A letter was read from Mr. Gamble, praying that he might be restored to his privileges as a contributor to the Fund. To this application the Interloquitur refused to accede.

Mr. Hanna gave notice that at our next annual meeting, he will bring forward a motion to the following effect, viz.—That the widow or family of a degraded minister, a contributor to the Fund, shall, on his death be entitled to all the benefits thereof, provided his annual subscription be paid to the Treasurer, on the 29th day of September in every year.

Mr. Campbell gave notice, that at our next annual meeting, he will move for the repeal of the 11th Regulation of the Fund.

Inserted November 12th 1818.

WILLIAM PORTER, Clerk, G. Synod.

These with an Elder from each Presbytery, our Moderator and Clerk, are to meet at Belfast when called by the Moderator on any emergency—fifteen to be a quorum, of whom twelve at least are to be Ministers.

No member of Letterkenny Presbytery having attended this meeting, it was resolved, that though we allow the report transmitted from that body to be inserted in our Minutes, it is not to be considered as stamped with our sanction; because we have not the means of making inquiry concerning its correctness. With respect to Mr Steele, however, we consider the reason assigned for his non-conformity to the Synodical regulation of last year as valid. On the proceedings with regard to the other young men, mentioned in the report, we can give no opinion whatsoever. The several members of the Presbytery are enjoined to attend our next meeting, and to account for their absence from the present.
On reading that part of the report from the Presbytery of Route, which states, "That the Revd Daniel M'Kee had requested them to allow his Congregation to choose an Assistant and Successor," the circumstances connected with this application were minutely investigated; and it appearing, that the Presbytery had sanctioned an arrangement, by which Mr M'Kee was to resign the whole of his stipend, and the half of his R.D. to an assistant, when chosen; and that Mr M'Kee had concurred in this arrangement, in order to stop the prosecution of certain charges which had been preferred against his moral conduct—It was resolved, that we cannot countenance any such compromise as that which seems to have taken place on the occasion in question; and that the Presbytery be enjoined to investigate said charges, without delay, and decide thereon, conformably to our discipline.

Adjourned—Committees to meet immediately—Open Synod at half-past three o'clock.

Third Session, (Wednesday afternoon, June 30, ½ past 3 o'clock).

On the second reading of that part of the report from the Presbytery of Armagh, which relates to Carlingford, it was stated by the Presbytery, as their decided opinion, that the persons now worshipping in that place are so very few, and the augmentation of their numbers so very improbable, that Mr Arnold's usefulness as a Minister would be greater, were he to discontinue his present practice of preaching there every sixth Sabbath, and devote his whole time to the Congregation of Narrow-water.

After considerable discussion, it was moved as a resolution, That in our opinion, Mr Arnold ought to continue to supply Carlingford, as he has hitherto done; that the Presbytery of Armagh ought to assist him in supplying Narrow-water, and avail themselves of the services of such members of the Presbytery of Dromore, as may be willing to preach occasionally in Carlingford, during the ensuing year. The roll was called, and the resolution carried.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning, at 7 o'clock.

Fourth Session, (Thursday morning, July 1st 7 o'clock).

After prayer, it was proposed as a resolution, that it is conducive to our interest as a body, that our Synodical meetings be held by turns, in many different places; and not longer in the same place than two years in immediate succession. This resolution was unanimously agreed to, and the members present pledged themselves to use their influence to have it acted on in future.

Conformably to the foregoing resolution, it was moved, that Cookstown be the place of the Synod's meeting next year; Lurgan also was put in nomination. The roll was called and Cookstown carried. The meeting to take place on the last Tuesday of June next; divine service to commence at five o'clock afternoon.
The Committee for preparing "A Code of Discipline &c." requested that they might be allowed another year to complete the business for which they had been appointed. The request was granted. Mr. Thompson, on account of his present state of health was permitted to avail himself of Mr. Cooke's assistance, in preparing the part of the Code allotted to him.

The Committee for managing the Petitions against Distillation on the Lord's Day, reported, that the petition to the House of Lords had been presented by Lord O'Neill, on the request of Lord Hertford; and that, to the House of Commons, by Lord Castlereagh. They farther reported, that they had been informed by Mr. Vansittart, Chancellor of the Exchequer, that a regulation was contemplated, which would put an end to the practice complained of.

The Committee for the examination of Students belonging to the Synod, in the Belfast Academical Institution, made the following report:—

"Belfast, April 25th, 1819.

"At a meeting of the Committee appointed by the General Synod of Ulster, to attend the examination of students under the care of that body in the Belfast Academical Institution—present, H. Montgomery, Moderator, A. Craig, R. Acheson, J. Thomson, D' Hanna, R. Campbell, H. Simpson, and F. Blakely.

"Having attended examinations in Natural Philosophy and Greek—ordered that our Moderator join the Professors D' Knight and D' Neilson, in granting Certificates to the following students, viz.:—

In Natural Philosophy, to Clarke Houston, William Erskine, William Hunter, John Shaw and Robert Carlisle.

"Edward Alexander having been prevented by sickness from being publicly examined in Greek, at the end of last session, offered himself for this purpose, after the general examination of the Class had been concluded. The Committee considering a separate examination informal, enjoined him to attend the public examinations in Greek at the close of the ensuing Session.

"Having attended Examinations in Mathematics and Logic—ordered, that our Moderator join Professors Thomson and Cairns, in granting Certificates to the following students, viz.:—

"In Mathematics, to Alexander Patterson, Clarke Houston, George Bellis, William Erskine, William Neilson, James M'Cay, James Mulligan, James Hutton, John Bell, John Doherty, John Scott Porter, Robert Little and Thomas May.

"April 30th—Present, H. Montgomery, Moderator, R. Acheson, J. Thompson, Dr Hanna, H. Simpson, F. Blakely, W. Wright, W. Glendy, J. McCance, R. Campbell, and W. Harrison—T. Alexander, who was present sat with the Committee.

"Having attended examinations in Moral Philosophy—Ordered that our Moderator join Professor Young in granting certificates to the following Students, viz. to Alexander Patterson, George Bellis, George Jardine, James McCay, James Mulligan, John Bell, John Doherty, Robert Little, Thomas May, Edward Alexander, John Hutton, James Cowan, George Thomson, John Mulligan, William Hay, and Hugh Gamble.

"Clarke Houston, William Hunter, John Shaw and Robert Carlisle, having been examined in presence of the Committee, in Latin, Greek, Logic, Moral Philosophy, Natural Philosophy, and Mathematics, Ordered that our Moderator join the Professors of the Belfast Academical Institution, in granting to these Students the General Certificate, received by the Synod as equivalent to a Degree in Arts.

"The Committee having attended the examinations of William Erskine, with a view to his obtaining a General Certificate—Agreed unanimously that his answers were satisfactory, in the different departments, with the exception of Mathematics. He was therefore enjoined to continue his studies in that Science until our Moderator shall deem it proper to convene the Committee, for his re-examination.

"The Committee feel much pleasure in reporting, that the examinations, afforded convincing proof of the abilities of the professors, and the diligence of the Students; the proficiency being so great and general in each of the classes as to give high satisfaction to all present.

"Signed,

F. BLAKELY, Clerk of the Committee.

Resolved, that the Committee of last year be continued for the present; and that any other Ministers of the Synod, who may attend the Examinations, shall have the privilege of voting with regard to them.

By a letter addressed to the Moderator, the Joint Boards of Managers and Visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution informed the Synod of the prosperous state of that Seminary and their having recently established in it a professorship of Anatomy and Medical Philosophy—The Moderator was desired to express the satisfaction which this Communication has afforded to the Synod.

The Committee for purchasing a piece of Plate, to be presented to Mrs. Cuming Mr Cuming and family, were instructed to expend for that purpose the amount of whatever contributions the shall have received on the 1st of November next.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.
Fifth Session, (Thursday morning, 10 o'clock).

On reading the regulation of last year, which goes to prohibit Clergymen of the Church of Scotland from preaching on any occasion, in our pulpits—it was moved, that the regulation be rescinded, and the following enacted in its stead—"That as the Church of Scotland passed an Act in 1799 which excludes the Ministers and Licentiates of our body from preaching, in their Congregations, and though respectfully and repeatedly applied to, have not made any alteration of said Act, favourable to us; therefore we deem it a duty which we owe to our Licentiates and to ourselves, to declare that the Ministers and Licentiates of the Church of Scotland shall not be eligible to any of our Congregations, nor allowed to preach in any of our vacancies."—The roll was called, and the motion carried. Against this decision, the following Protest was entered.

We the undersigned protest,

First—Because the Act of the General Assembly of 1799, was an unhandsome and unkind violation of the amity which had long subsisted between that Church and ours.

Secondly—Because, when we applied for a revision and alteration of said unkind Act, the Assembly treated our remonstrance, at first with total neglect, and finally with insult.

Thirdly—Because, after duly considering all the circumstances, we resolved in the year 1818, to protect the interests of our Licentiates and the peace of our Congregations, by preventing persons in connexion with the Church of Scotland from preaching in our pulpits—and as no change has taken place in that Law of the Assembly, we think the present decision of Synod discovers an unwise and vacillating policy.

Fourthly—Because, there can be no real friendship, where there is not a mutual return of civilities, and where the parties are not upon an equality. We therefore consider it highly disgraceful to the Synod, to fawn upon a Body of men who have treated them with unmerited contempt and insult.

Fifthly—Because, in our opinion, neither honour nor advantage is likely to accrue from a re-union with the Church of Scotland; and even if there were, we think the present decision will have the most powerful tendency to prevent it.

Synod adjourned till half-past two o'clock.
Sixth Session, (Thursday, ½ past 2 o'clock, afternoon).

Mr. Montgomery stated, that after consulting some aged members of Synod, he had resolved not to bring forward, at present, any new regulations respecting marriage.

The Committee, last year, appointed to determine the matter at issue between Mr. Smith, Mr. Campbell, and the Presbytery of Route; and also to consider the pamphlet published by Mr. Campbell, reported—That they had met at Ballymoney, according to instructions; and after a laborious investigation, (the minutes of which were read to the Synod by their Clerk) had come to the following resolutions:

"I. Resolved, That in reporting to the Presbytery of Route, the charge against Mr. Campbell, Mr. Smith did an act of duty, as a Minister of the Synod; though we cannot wholly approve of the manner in which he did it, inasmuch as we think he ought to have made more particular inquiry respecting the truth of the charge, before he reported it to the Presbytery."

From the latter part of the foregoing resolution, Mr. Harrison declared that he dissented, because it appeared to him, that Mr. Smith had made sufficient inquiry before he reported the charge.

"II. Resolved unanimously, That we highly disapprove of the spirit in which the Presbytery of Route received Mr. Smith's communication of the charge against Mr. Campbell—That we also disapprove of the manner in which the majority of that body seem to have acted, during the investigation, towards the witnesses examined in support of said charge. But, above all, that we disapprove of the conduct of the Presbytery, in having, at a subsequent meeting in Garva, altered their decision, at the request of Mr. Campbell, so as to cast a severe and unmerited reflection on the moral character of Mr. Smith; and this at a time when Mr. Smith had regularly entered an appeal to the Synod against their original decision: and when they knew that that gentleman was in prison, and utterly unapprised of their proceeding.

"III. Resolved, That as Mr. Campbell has declined entering on his defence, and as no new evidence in his favour has appeared during the investigation, we see no reason for altering the decision of the Synod of 1817, with respect to him."

From this resolution Mr. Cooke expressed his dissent.

The Committee, after hearing Mr. Campbell at great length, in support of certain statements in his pamphlet,

"IV.—Resolved, That a pamphlet entitled 'Letter to the Rev'd Mr. Campbell's pamphlet the Synod of Ulster,' &c., &c., of which Mr. Campbell has acknowledged himself the author, is a scandalous invective against the Synod of Ulster, abounding with the most groundless, indecent, and malicious representations."

Having received the foregoing report, the Synod adjourned till to-morrow morning, at 7 o'clock.
Seventh Session, (Friday morning, July 2nd 7 o'clock).

After prayer, resolved unanimously—that the decision of the Committee which met at Ballymoney be approved of; and that the thanks of the Synod be returned to them, for their assiduous and acute investigation of the case on which they were appointed to decide.

The Presbytery of Route having admitted, that since the decision of the Committee with regard to Mr Campbell, they had given him credentials as a preacher of the Gospel, previously to his departure from the Kingdom—it was moved, and unanimously agreed to, That the credentials thus improperly given, be declared null and void.

It was farther moved—that the conduct of the Presbytery of Route, in the whole affair of Mr Smith and Mr Campbell; has been highly reprehensible, and that those members of that body who signed the credentials given to the latter; and also, those members who concurred in the alteration made at Garva of the original decision respecting Mr Smith, shall be suspended from preaching for one Lord’s day.

Moved, as an amendment—that we highly disapprove of the conduct of the Presbytery of Route, in the case of Mr Smith and Mr Campbell; and that the act of a majority of that body, in signing credentials for the latter, is particularly reprehensible—it is therefore resolved, that the Presbytery shall be most seriously admonished to conduct themselves with more propriety for the time to come, and as only a few members of that body are now present, it is farther resolved, to express, in a written document, to be transmitted to their Moderator, and publickly read by him at their next meeting, the strong displeasure which we feel at their irregular proceedings; and a solemn warning, never again to be guilty of similar misconduct—The roll was called and this amendment negatived.

The original motion for suspension was then put and carried. The following members desired that their dissent from this decision should be entered on the Ministers [Minutes], viz. G. Hay, J. Horner, A. G. Malcolm, H. Cooke, R. Stewart, R. Park, J. Mitchell, M. Heron, W. Wauchope, P. White, W. Craig, R. Allen, T. M’Kay, H. Haslett, and Robert Magill, Elder, Ordered, that the suspension shall take place on the second Sabbath of August next; and accordingly, those members of the Presbytery of Route, who either signed Mr Campbell’s credentials, or who concurred in the procedure at Garva, are hereby suspended for that day.

A Committee appointed to devise the mode of carrying this sentence into effect, reported, that according to the best evidence they could obtain, the following members of Route Presbytery came under the operation of the foregoing order of Synod, viz:—
AT BELFAST, JUNE 29TH, 1819.

R. Rentoul, his cong° to be supplied, and H. Kydd.
J, Elder, Do. T. Henry.
M. Elder, Do. H. Henry.
A. Martin, Do. G. M'Clelland
James Brown, Do. A. M'Caldin.
Chas. Kennedy, Do. W. Moore.
James Boyle, Do. R. Stewart.
J. Whiteside, Do. Wm Porter.
S. Butler, Do. J. A. Johnson.

The Committee farther reported their opinion, that the Probationers supplying the pulpits of the Ministers appointed to announce the suspensions, should be paid one Guinea each by the respective persons suspended.

The decision of the Committee was sustained, and the measures recommended by them were adopted by the Synod.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Eighth Session, (Friday morning, 10 o'clock).

A Letter from the Faculty of the Belfast Academical Institution, was presented to the Moderator by a deputation from that body, and read by the Clerk. As certain suggestions in this communication (respecting the discipline of the Theological Class), were connected with an affair, understood to be referred [to], in the report of the committee for managing the concerns of the Divinity Professorship, it was agreed to postpone the consideration of these suggestions, till that report should be presented.

The Committee for managing the concerns of the Divinity Professorship, gave in a report of their proceedings during the last twelve months. The report contained a charge against Mr Hugh Hutton, a Student in the Theological Class, for contumacious behaviour towards the Committee, and Professor Hanna.

Mr Hutton was heard in his defence.

Adjourned till half-past 2 o'clock.

Ninth Session, (Friday afternoon, 1½ past 2 o'clock).

Dr Hanna, and the Professorship Committee were, heard on the subject of Mr Hutton's behaviour.

Resolved—that the conduct of the committee, and of Dr Hanna, as Professor, is entitled to our highest approbation.

Resolved—that the Presbytery of Belfast, to which Mr Hutton belongs, be ordered to admonish him with respect to his conduct during the last Session, as a Student in the Theological Class; and to inform him, that unless he submit to the regulations, he cannot be continued under the care of the Synod. Against this decision, Mr. Blakely and others signified their intention of protesting and promised to assign their reasons in due time.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning, at 7 o'clock.

Tenth Session, (Saturday morning, July 3rd 7 o'clock).

Resolved—That as Mr. Hutton's conduct in the Theological Class, during last session, has been disrespectful and contumacious, both towards the Managing Committee and Dr. Hanna, he shall not again be admitted into the class without acknowledging to the Committee and Dr. Hanna, severally, that his behaviour has been improper.

That part of the Report of the committee, which relates to the funds for supporting the Divinity Professorship, being taken into consideration, it appeared that the amount of contributions,

Moved, that every Minister of the Synod, who shall not, before our next annual meeting, have paid his own quota of contribution in support of the Divinity Professorship, and endeavoured to make a collection for the same purpose from his people, shall at that meeting, be publicly admonished from the Chair.

Moved, as an amendment, that for each Presbytery belonging to this body, two Ministers not members thereof, be appointed, who shall visit its respective Congregations, and endeavour to raise money for the support of our Divinity Professorship, either by private contributions, or by congregational collections, made, after suitable addresses to the people; or by both these modes conjointly.

These Gentlemen are to apply for the contributions of such ministers in their respective circuits, as have not yet obeyed the injunction of Synod—The money collected, to be forwarded without delay, to Mr James Muirhead, Belfast. Whatever expense they shall incur in fulfilling the object of their appointment, on being reported to the Synod at its next meeting, shall be defrayed out of the sums collected.

They are, in due time, to notify to each Minister in the several districts allotted to them, the particular day on which they will visit his Congregation; and on receiving such notification, each Minister is enjoined to announce the same to his people; and read from the pulpit, the whole of the Minute on this subject, that they may be prepared with their Contributions.

Ordered—That during their absence, on this business of general concern, their pulpits shall be gratuitously supplied by the Presbyteries to which they respectively belong.

Resolved—that our Moderator shall write to the Moderator of the Synod of Munster as representative of that body, and to the several members of the Presbytery of Antrim, requesting their co-operation in support of our Divinity Professorship—an establishment so highly conducive to the interests of Presbyterianism in Ireland.

Resolved—That the Professorship Committee of last year, be requested to meet this evening, and consult on the means of carrying into effect the suggestions transmitted from the Faculty of the Belfast Academical Institution, respecting the discipline of the Theological Class, and to report to the Synod the result of their deliberations.

Adjourned till 12 o'clock on Monday next.

Twelfth Session, (Monday, July 5th, 12 o'clock).

After prayer, the Committee, requested to take into consideration the discipline of the Theological Class, recommended it as expedient, that the Professor and Students of that class, so far as relates to entrance, lectures, examinations, and the support and management of the Theological library, be continued under the direction of the Committee, annually appointed, to manage the concerns of the Professorship; but, that in all other matters, they be placed under the government and control of the Faculty of the Belfast Academical Institution.

The above recommendation was adopted by the Synod.

The Faculty of the Belfast Academical Institution informed the Synod, that they had recommended to such students as had passed through the Logic class, to read, during the summer recess, Cicero's Offices, and, in the Greek Testament, the Gospels, and Acts of the Apostles, preparatory to an examination, to be held at the commencement of the ensuing session; and that they had, in like manner, recommended to such students as had passed through the Moral Philosophy class, to read, for a similar examination, the two first Books of Livy, and the Epistles and Revelation in the Greek Testament. They farther stated, that a prize shall be given to the best answerer in each class; and the proficiency of those who excel, mentioned in their class certificates. Of these measures the Synod highly approved.

Resolved—That the Committee of last year for managing the concerns of the Divinity Professorship, be requested to continue in office for the ensuing year. With this request the Committee complied. M' Munfoad continued Treasurer.

Resolved—That all affairs relating to the interests and management of the Theological class, as well as the government of the students whilst assembled in the class room, be committed, for the ensuing year, to the above appointed Committee, and Professor Hanna; but that in all other respects, the Theological Students shall be under the government and control of the Faculty.

The members last year appointed, to present an Address to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, viz., Messrs' Montgomery, Moderator, Horner, Dr W. Neilson, and M' Hay, reported, that they had been most graciously received by his Excellency, and had been favoured by him with the following answer:—

"I return you many thanks for the very flattering manner in which you have been pleased to express yourselves towards me.

"I can have no doubt, that your loyal conduct during my stay in this country, will fully warrant me in representing you to his Majesty's Government, as amply deserving that confidence and favour, which have been so long and so deservedly extended to you.

Synod adjourned till a quarter past 4 o'clock.

OVERTURES.

Thirteenth Session, (Monday ½ past 4 o'clock).

I. Overtured—That with a view to preserve a knowledge of important facts relative to the Presbyterians of Ireland, the Ministers of the Synod shall prepare accounts of their Congregations, and submit them to their respective Presbyteries.

That ministers shall state the situation and extent, with the dates and circumstances of the original settlement, of their Congregations—the names of the Ministers, from the earliest period, with the dates and circumstances of their ordinations, installations, removals, depositions, and deaths—And shall particularly mention in what respects, important to Presbyterianism, any of the Ministers, or their Congregations, or any individuals belonging to their Congregations, have distinguished themselves.

They shall also give an account of Congregational records, and shall enter into each detail of facts, as they may judge proper, respecting their houses of worship, religious services, psalmody, elders, observance of Church discipline, funds, stipend paid at different periods, collections and subscriptions, zeal of their Congregations, number of families, state of education, and the numbers and influence of other denominations of Christians within their bounds.

Ministers will take notice of any other particulars respecting their Congregations, which they may consider worthy of being recorded.

Moved and agreed to, that the consideration of this overture be deferred till next meeting of Synod.

II. Overtured, and unanimously agreed to—That no Presbytery shall ordain or install an Assistant minister in any Congregation, until the Minister of said Congregation shall have obtained leave from the General Synod, to take an assistant and successor.

III. Overtured, and unanimously agreed to—That Presbyteries shall at their meeting immediately previous to that of the General Synod, nominate one of their members, to be returned as a candidate for the office of Moderator to the Synod. Any Presbytery neglecting this rule, shall forfeit the privilege of returning a candidate.

IV. Overtured and unanimously agreed to—That every Minister of this Synod shall keep, or cause to be kept, a regular registry of all the marriages celebrated by him; stating the date of each marriage, the names of the parties, the Congregations or Parishes in which they reside, and the names of at least two of the witnesses present at the celebration of the ceremony. And every Minister is enjoined to give in annually to his Presbytery, at the meeting immediately previous to that of the General Synod, a correct list, authenticated by his own signature, of the marriages which he has celebrated during the foregoing year. These marriages are to be registered by the Clerk of each Presbytery, in a book kept for the purpose. Any Minister who shall not return such correct list, will be liable to the same penalties, as if had celebrated marriage irregularly.

V. Overtured and unanimously agreed to—That every minister of and Baptism the Synod be enjoined to register, or cause to be registered, in a book to be kept for that purpose, the names of all children baptised by him; the dates of their birth and baptism; the names of their parents, and the places of residence. This book shall be carefully preserved, and considered as the property of the congregation—to remain with them on the death, resignation, or removal of the Minister, and to be handed to his Successor, for the purpose of continuing the registry.

VI. Overtured, and unanimously agreed to—that when candidates for the Ministry have gone through the course of education and trials, prescribed by the Synod, they shall be licensed to preach the Gospel, in the following manner, viz. Their respective Presbyteries shall license them in public, and at a regular meeting. A member of Presbytery, previously appointed for the purpose, shall, from the pulpit, deliver to to the Licentiates an address, suitable to the occasion, and tending to impress on their minds, the importance and responsibility of the Ministerial office.

BILLS.

I. A Memorial was presented from the Minister, Session and Congregation of Corglass, praying for the countenance and support of the Synod, in defending their title to a farm, set apart for their benefit, upwards of one hundred years ago, by Mr Hamilton, of Bailieborough.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning, at 7 o'clock.

Fourteenth Session, (Tuesday morning, July 6th 7 o'clock).

After prayer, the consideration of the memorial from Corglass was resumed. Resolved—that we highly approve of the manner in which Mr Whyte, the Minister of Corglass, has conducted himself in this business, and that he merits the efficient support of the Synod, in defending his own claim, and that of his congregation, to the farm in question.

Mr Hay, agent of R.D, having signified his willingness to advance to Mr Whyte for this purpose, the sum of £150, on behalf of the Ministers of the Synod, the offer was accepted; and it was resolved—
That Mr Hay is entitled to our warmest thanks, for his kind and accommodating proposal, and also, for his ready concurrence in the following plan for repaying to himself the money to be advanced, viz.
—That out of the next half-yearly payment of R.D he shall stop from Ministers in the first class . . . £1: 6: 8

Ministers in the second class . . . 1: 0: 0
Ministers in the third class . . . 0: 13: 4

The foregoing plan was unanimously agreed to; and the members present pledged themselves to Mr Hay, for the reimbursement of the sum to be given to Mr Whyte.

This cause appears to the Synod of such interesting importance, that it is trusted and expected, that no member of the body will offer any objection to the plan proposed; and it is recommended that the Ministers who are now present, shall take pains, at the next meeting of their respective Presbyteries, to explain to those who are absent, the imperious sense of duty, which has dictated to the Synod the resolution to assist M^r White and the congregation of Corglass in maintaining possession of their farm.

II. A memorial was presented from the newly erected congregation of Drumlough, praying, that as a Minister has now been ordained there, the Synod may assist them in procuring for him and his successors, a portion of his Majesty’s Bounty. The prayer of this memorial was granted; and Messrs McCance, Hay, and Cooke, were appointed to prepare the necessary memorial to Government, that it may be signed and transmitted by the Moderator.

III. A memorial was presented from certain inhabitants of the Parish of Anaghlone, who have hitherto adhered to the congregation of Loughbrickland, stating, that as they reside at a considerable distance from any place of worship, they cannot regularly attend on the public ordinances of religion—That they have obtained a piece of ground, on which they propose building a meeting-house; and that they supplicate the Synod to countenance and protect them in this undertaking.

After a minute inquiry into the circumstances of the case, it was resolved—That memorialists may proceed to build a meeting-house; and that they be referred to the Presbytery of Dromore, who shall grant them preaching as they may see cause.

IV. A memorial was presented from certain Members of the congregation of Donaghadee, stating, that in the month of November last, a charge against their Minister, the Revd William Skelly, for criminal conversation with M^r Jane Hamilton, was investigated by the Presbytery of Bangor, which charge the Presbytery decided was ‘not proved.’ Against this decision, memorialists appealed, declaring their belief of M^r Skelly’s guilt, and praying, that the Synod may institute a re-investigation of the case.

A counter-memorial was presented from other members of the congregation, who declared their conviction of M^r Skelly’s innocence; and prayed, that the foregoing application should be dismissed.

Moved—That the whole of this case be referred to a committee of the Synod.

Moved as an amendment—That the consideration of the case be entered on immediately.

Adjourned till 10 o’clock.

Fifteenth Session, (Tuesday morning, 10 o’clock).

The roll was called, and the amended motion of last sederunt negatived. The original motion was then passed; and a committee appointed, consisting of the following Ministers: the Moderator, Messrs Cooke, Glendy, Malcom, Wright, James Bankhead, D’ Hanna, D’ W. Neilson, T. Henry, McCance, Stewart, Hay, Park, H. Henry, Anderson, Eccles, N. Alexander. These with each an Elder, are ordered to meet at Comber, on the last Tuesday of the present month, at twelve o'clock; to issue this matter. Nine Ministers to be a quorum. Those members of the Committee who do not attend according to appointment, shall, at the next meeting of Synod, be rebuked from the chair.

The committee are authorized to take cognizance of any other charge affecting the moral character of Mr. Skelly, which may be regularly brought before them.

Mr. Skelly must be furnished, ten days previous to the trial, with a copy of any additional charges which may be brought against him; together with a list of the witnesses by whom they are to be substantiated; and also, with a list of any new witnesses who may be produced in support of the charge already preferred.

The Presbytery of Bangor are enjoined to attend the meeting of the Committee. Their Minutes on this subject are to be considered as admissible evidence; and their Clerk is ordered to produce them at the trial.

Adjourned till 2 o'clock.

Sixteenth Session, (Tuesday 2 o'clock, afternoon).

Several members having stated, that after the commencement of the present meeting of Synod, the Revd Samuel Elder had appeared before the Committee of Bills in a state of intoxication, the Presbytery of Templepatrick, to which he belongs, are enjoined to take cognizance, at their next meeting, of this and other similar irregularities, of which he is reported to be guilty.

The Presbytery having stated, that they are to meet at Larne on the first Tuesday of August next, Messrs Cooke, Wauchope, and W. Finlay, are ordered to attend there on that day, and give testimony as to the offence alleged to have been committed before the Committee of Bills. Mr. Elder to be furnished with a copy of this Minute ten days previous to the investigation; and also with the names of any witnesses, besides the three mentioned above, who may be produced against him. Our Moderator to issue a Citation to Mr. Elder to appear before the Presbytery, at the aforesaid time and place.

The Committee of Books having reported, that several Presbyteries had not obeyed the order of last year, respecting the production of their records,—these Presbyteries are most strictly enjoined, to conform to the order in future.

Mr. Hay gave notice, that at the next annual meeting, he will move for a repeal of that rule, which prohibits Synodical appointments from being imposed on brethren who are absent, when such appointments are made.

Mr. Denham gave notice, that he will, next year, move an amendment of the rule of 1805, respecting marriage, viz.—that the part of it which requires the consent of clergymen of another church, be rescinded; as implying the subjection of Presbyterian ministers to an authority which they do not acknowledge, and over the exercise of which, the Presbyterian Church has no control.

Synod concluded with prayer.

INTERLOQUITUR.

A Statement of the receipts and payments of His Majesty’s Royal Bounty, for the year ended the 29th of September, 1818, was submitted to the Interloquitur, and found correct.

The accounts of the Widows’ Fund, for the year ended the 1st of October, 1818, were also submitted and found correct.

Resolved—That the opinion of an experienced calculator be taken on certain queries respecting the interests of the Fund; which are to be drawn up and submitted to him by a Committee consisting of the following members:—Messrs Bruce, M’Ewen, Ledlie, D’r Stephenson, Thompson, D’r Hanna, Malcom, Acheson, R. Hogg.

The Treasurer stated that according to the order of last Interloquitur, he had transmitted to each contributor a printed copy of the laws and regulations of the Fund; and had reserved a number of copies for the use of future contributors.

On reading the third resolution of last Interloquitur it was ordered—That every year, at as early a period as possible, before the stated meeting of the contributors, the Treasurer shall transmit to the Moderator of each Presbytery, a particular statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Fund.

The motions, of which notices were last year given by D’r Bruce, and M’r Bruce were allowed to lie over till the next meeting of Interloquitur.

For the faithful discharge of the trust reposed in him as Treasurer of the Fund, M’r Hay proposed M’r John Thompson, merchant, of Londonderry, as his security, to the amount of £2,000. The security was deemed sufficient, and ordered to be perfected.

The Treasurer stated, that in obedience to his instructions, he had obtained the joint opinion of Sergeant Joy and Counsellor Smyly, as to the validity of the securities on which the capital of the Fund is lent.—The opinion was read; and the Treasurer was ordered to make certain inquiries respecting the security marked No 3, and report the result to the next meeting of Interloquitur.

Resolved—That the Treasurer be requested to procure a final settlement of all accounts with the Representatives of D’r Black.

Resolved—That the Moderator, M’r Thomson, D’r Bruce, D’r Hanna, M’r McCance, M’r James Bankhead, M’r Horner, M’r Maleom, M’r M. Montgomery, M’r R. Hogg, M’r Blakely, and M’r M’Ewen be a Committee for superintending the affairs of the Fund, during the ensuing year. The Committee to meet in Belfast, when called by the Moderator, on any emergency—Five to be a quorum.
The Treasurer reported—that as the Committee which was appointed at the last meeting of Interloquitur to fix the annuity to the Widows for the current year, had not been convened according to expectation, he, in order to save the annuitants from inconvenience, had advanced to each of them the sum of £14 for the half-year ended the 1st of April last. His conduct was highly approved of; and he was directed to reimburse himself by deducting the amount so advanced, from the annuities for the present year.

Resolved—that the English R.D. shall, every year, be reserved from the expenditure, and added to the capital of the Fund; and that the remaining produce of the Fund, after deducting the necessary expenses of its management, shall be annually distributed amongst the annuitants.

A memorial was presented by Mr. Gamble, requesting to be readmitted as contributor to the Fund. The memorial was dismissed.

The consideration of the motion, of which Dr. Hanna last year gave notice, was deferred till the next meeting of Interloquitur.

Mr. Campbell declined making the motion, of which he last year gave notice.

Resolved—that the expense of annually printing the Minutes of Synod and Interloquitur shall in future be defrayed by the Ministers of the Synod, and of the Presbytery of Antrim; and that Mr. Hay be requested to advance the sum of £8, to pay for printing the Minutes of the present year. With this request Mr. Hay readily complied.

Moved that 3s 4d, shall be annually deducted from the R.D. of each Minister in the first class, 2s 6d, from that of each Minister in the second class, and 1s 8d, from that of each Minister in the third class, for the purpose of defraying expenses incidentally incurred by the Synod and the Presbytery of Antrim.

A Letter was read from Miss Mary Kerr, stating that her father the Revd Josiah Kerr, formerly a contributor to the Fund, went to America in 1816, intending to return to Ireland, as soon as he should have accomplished a certain business which was not likely to detain him long but that he had died whilst preparing to embark for home—The letter further stated, that during his absence his subscription was tendered to the Treasurer who refused to receive it, until he (Mr. Kerr) should return to the country.

An affidavit and other documents corroborating the foregoing statement were submitted to the Interloquitur.

On these grounds Miss Kerr rested her own claim conjointly with that of her brothers and sisters, to the benefit of the Fund, since their father’s death, which it appears took place at New York on the 12th August 1817.

Their claim was admitted by the Interloquitur.
M' Bruce gave notice, that in explanation of the 12th Rule, he will move at the next meeting of Interloquitur, that in future any contributor to the Fund who shall be absent from Great Britain, or Ireland for the space of nine months; or who shall leave the United Kingdom, without signifying his intention to the Moderator of the Synod, shall be considered to have gone, with the intention of residing abroad.

Transcribed July 25th 1819.

I certify that the foregoing copy of the Minutes of 1819, is correct.

Resolved—That the committee of last year be continued for the present; and that any other Ministers of Synod, who may attend the examinations, shall have the privilege of voting.
B. A. Institution

An Address was received from the joint Boards of Managers and Visitors of the Belfast Academical Institution, stating the continued prosperity of that establishment, and the high satisfaction afforded, by the talents and assiduity of the several Professors; congratulating the Synod on the complete success by which its efforts for the establishment of a system of home education, have now been crowned; and communicating an assurance, that it shall, at all times, be an invariable rule with the Joint Boards, to select men of character and talents, to fill the chairs of the Institution.

A Letter was at the same time, received from the Faculty of the Institution, communicating similar information respecting the prosperous state of that seminary; recommending increased attention on the part of Presbyteries, to the preparatory education of candidates for the ministry; and requesting the Synod to impress strongly on all students under its care, who are educated in Belfast, the propriety of adopting the course of summer reading, last year recommended by the Faculty.

These communications were highly gratifying to the Synod; and the Moderator was instructed to assure the Faculty, that due regard shall be paid to their suggestions.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning, at 7 o'clock.

Fourth Session, (Thursday, June 29th 7 o'clock, a.m.)

After prayer, the committee for purchasing a piece of plate to be presented to M' Cuming and her family, reported that they had carried into effect the object of their appointment, and a letter was read from M' Cuming expressing her thanks.

Dr. Henry gave notice that he will move at our next meeting that the regulation made last year, respecting the ministers and licentiates of the Church of Scotland, be repealed; and that our connexion with that body shall remain, as fixed in 1818.

It having appeared, that the sentence of suspension last year pronounced by the Synod on certain members of the Presbytery of Route, had not been submitted to by any of the individuals on whom it was passed, Mr. Hay proposed that a conference should be held between those individuals and the following brethren, who are forthwith to report the result; Messrs. A. Millar, Moore, Horner, Hay, Cooke, Stewart, Reid, and R. Hogg.

The conference was held, and the following report received:

"The brethren appointed to confer with the suspended members of the Presbytery of Route, report, that after hearing their reasons in defence of the line of conduct which they have pursued, they recommended to them, to express their deep sorrow for having fallen into irregularities in their presbyterial conduct. They advised them to state to the Synod their sincere regret, that they had felt themselves under the necessity of declining submission to what they could not help considering a severe and unprecedented sentence; and that they were led to resistance, not from any disrespect to the Body, but from a conceived regard to their own usefulness, and a conviction, that their case had not been fully heard by the Synod of 1819.

"With this advice, the suspended members, after a short conversation expressed their willingness to comply; and the brethren respectfully recommend to the Synod, to accept of their apology.

"(Signed)

"ANDREW MILLAR, Moderator."

Moved and agreed to, That the foregoing recommendation be adopted. Against this decision, Messrs. Harrison, Smith, Eccles, and W. Cuthbertson, ministers, and James Carr, elder, signified their intention of protesting; and promised to assign their reasons in due time.

The suspended members having made the required apology, it was Resolved,—That though we might now enforce the sentence of suspension which was last year passed, yet, on account of the apology which has been made, and from a desire to promote kind and Christian feelings amongst all the members of this body, we think it expedient to proceed no farther in this matter.

Mr. Harrison and the others having offered their reasons of protest, it was moved, that these reasons shall be in retentis, but not inserted in the Minutes.

On this it was moved, as an amendment, That the reasons of protest be inserted in the Minutes,—The roll was called, and the amendment negatived. Against this decision, and against the offending members of the Presbytery of Route being allowed to vote on this question, Messrs. Montgomery, Harpur, Harrison, Eccles, and D. Davison, ministers, and Joseph Harrison, elder, signified their intention to protest, and promised to assign their reasons in due time. The original motion was then passed.

The reasons of protest assigned by Mr. Montgomery and the other dissentient members, being read, their insertion in the Minutes was in like manner objected to. The question was put—"Insert, or not?"—The roll was called, and it was carried "not." The reasons were then ordered to be, in retentis.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Fifth Session, (Thursday, June 29th, 10 o'clock a.m.)

The members appointed to collect contributions in support of the Divinity Professorship, severally reported their proceedings.

Moved, and unanimously agreed to, That the thanks of this Synod are due to the collectors, for their zealous endeavours to accomplish the object of their appointment; and that they be requested to persevere in their exer tions.
The late Moderator reported, that in obedience to the injunction of Synod, he had written to the several members of the Presbytery of Antrim (with the exception of Mr. McEwen, who had formerly contributed) requesting their co-operation in support of our Divinity Professorship; but had received an answer from one member only, who declined doing anything in the matter.

The late Moderator farther reported, that he had prepared a letter, on the same subject, to the Moderator of the Synod of Munster; but that, owing to certain circumstances which were stated, the letter had not been transmitted.

Ordered, that our present Moderator shall make to our brethren in the South, the official application which was last year resolved on.

The committee for managing the concerns of the professorship of Divinity and Church History in the Belfast Academical Institution made the following report:—

"Your Committee report, that they have had only a few meetings during the last twelve months; and those on subjects of little importance. For a more particular account of their proceedings, they refer to their Minutes, which are in the hands of their Clerk.

"They farther report, that the Session of the Divinity class commenced on the 10th of November, and ended on the 1st of May last; and that the whole business of the establishment was transacted most harmoniously, and in a manner highly creditable both to the Professor and to the students.

"The committee regret extremely, that they have been able to give the Professor one hundred pounds only, for his labours during the last three sessions. On this fact the Committee cannot trust their feelings so far as to make any comment.

"(Signed,)

"H. MONTGOMERY, Moderator of Committee.

Resolved,—That the Committee of last year be re-appointed for the present, with the addition of Dr Wm Neilson,—Mr Munfoad continued Treasurer.

Resolved,—That to this Committee, and to Professor Hanna, all affairs connected with the interest and management of the Theological Class, and the government of the students whilst assembled in the classroom, be committed for the ensuing year, but that, in all other respects, these students shall be under the government and control of the Faculty.

Resolved,—That the sum collected for the permanent support of our Theological Chair, shall be vested by the committee in the National Funds, that it may become as productive as possible.

Resolved,—That the Committee be instructed to write to such ministers as have not yet paid their respective contributions, requesting them to forward the same to Mr Munfoad, so that the Professor may receive £100 per annum, for his past services.

Ordered, that until a fund can be provided adequate to the permanent support of our Theological Chair, every minister of the Synod shall annually make a collection in his congregation, and transmit the amount to the Treasurer of the Managing Committee, that it may be appropriated to the immediate remuneration of the Professor.

On reading the overtture of last year, for preserving the knowledge of important facts relative to the Presbyterians of Ireland, the consideration of which was deferred until the present meeting, it was moved, That the overtture be adopted, and that the required account shall in due time be furnished by each minister to his Presbytery, by whom it shall be carefully revised, and communicated to the Synod at its next annual meeting.

Moved, as an amendment, That the object of this overtture is highly desirable, but that, in our opinion, it would be most effectually accomplished, if some individual of literary talents, were to take on himself the management of the business, and make personal application to the several members of Synod. The roll was called and the amendment negatived. The original motion was then passed.

Adjourned till 3 o'cloak.
Sixth Session, (Thursday, June 29th, 3 o'clock p.m.)

Corglass

On reading the Minute of last year respecting Corglass, Mr. Hay stated, that, according to the request of Synod, he had advanced £150, for enabling Mr. White and his congregation, to resist the suit at law instituted to deprive them of their farm; for which sum he was not as yet completely reimbursed, in consequence of some ministers having refused to allow the required contributions to be deducted from their bounty.

Mr. White accounted for the expenditure of the sum advanced; and stated, that though a verdict had been pronounced in his favour, yet he still wanted £260 to defray the expenses which he had incurred, and requested the Synod to devise some means by which he might be indemnified.

Dr. William Neilson, James Bankhead, James Morell, T. Henry, and Henry Montgomery, were appointed as a Committee to confer with Mr. White, and devise some plan for the attainment of his object. This Committee made the following report:—

"On a minute consideration of the whole of this very important case, the committee recommend that the Presbytery of Monaghan be enjoined by the Synod, not to ordain an assistant or successor to Mr. White, in case of his taking an assistant and successor; nor in case of his resignation, translation, or death, until payment shall be made of the sum which, to the Presbytery, shall appear due to him at the time; or until what the Presbytery shall deem adequate security for the liquidation of such sum, be given, to himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns.

"And, in order that this injunction may be carried into effect, the Committee farther recommend, that the Synod direct the Presbytery of Monaghan to hold a meeting at Bailieborough, as soon as convenient, and to require the acquiescence and co-operation of the congregation of Corglass in the foregoing plan. This acquiescence to be entered in the records of the Presbytery, and in the session book of that Congregation, and duly authenticated by the signature of the Moderator of the Presbytery, and of the Committee of the congregation.

This recommendation was unanimously adopted by the Synod; and such ministers as have not yet paid the contributions required in this case, were exhorted from the Chair to do so.

Drumlough

The members appointed for the purpose reported, that they had forwarded a memorial to Government, for the extension of his Majesty's bounty to the lately erected congregation of Drumlough.

Mr. Skelly's case

The Committee last year appointed to decide on the case of Mr. Skelly read, as part of their report, the Minutes of the Presbytery of Bangor on this subject.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.
Seventh Session, (Friday, June 30th 7 o'clock a.m.)

The Committee resumed their report, and stated, that after a most minute investigation, they had degraded M't Skelly from the ministerial office.

Against this decision, a memorial was addressed by M't Skelly, alleging that it was unsupported by evidence, and unfounded in fact; stating that since his trial by the Committee, new and important matter had arisen in his favour, and praying that he might be heard in his defence.

M't Cornelius Campbell appeared as Commissioner; and presented a memorial from the session and seat holders of the congregation of Donaghadee; declaring their conviction of M't Skelly's innocence, and praying that he might be reinstated as their minister.

M't Skelly was heard in his defence.—Adjourned till 10 o'clock.

Eighth Session, (Friday, June 30th, 10 o'clock, a.m.)

M't Skelly produced as Witnesses in his favour, William Tait, Esq. magistrate of Wigtown, Scotland, and Thomas Dornan of Donaghadee, both of whom were solemnly adjured, and examined at great length. M't Skelly having declined to produce any other witnesses, he, and the Commissioner from Donaghadee were ordered to withdraw.

Adjourned till 2 o'clock.

Ninth Session, (Friday, June 30th 2 o'clock p.m.)

Moved, That the prayer of the memorial from the Congregation of Donaghadee be granted.

Moved, as an amendment, That the decision of the Committee be confirmed.

After a long discussion, the roll was called, and the amendment negatived.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Tenth Session, (Saturday July 1st 7 o'clock, a.m.)

After prayer, reports from several Committees were read, and ordered to be inserted in their proper places.

Adjourned till ten o'clock.

Eleventh Session, (Saturday, July 1st 10 o'clock, a.m.)

The consideration of M't Skelly's case being resumed, the original motion was put and negatived.
It was then moved, that Mr. Skelly be suspended, ab officio, sine die.

Moved, as an amendment, That in place of the words "sine dei" [die] the words, "twelve months" be inserted—The roll was called and this amendment negatived.

The motion for suspension, sine die, was then passed without a division.

The Presbytery of Templepatrick, reported, that they had found Mr. Samuel Elder guilty of the offence particularly alluded to in the Minutes of last year: and after public rebuke, had suspended him, ab officio, for four Lord's days. They also stated their proceedings with respect to other acts of irregularity with which they have reason to believe that Mr. Elder is chargeable.

Moved, and unanimously agreed to, That the conduct of the Presbytery of Templepatrick in this affair, be approved of.

The Committee of Books reported, that all the Presbyteries, except Dublin, had obeyed the order of Synod respecting the production of their Records, which on examination, appeared to be regularly kept.

D' Malcom requested, that the following amendment of the Regulation of 1805, respecting marriage, should be entered in the minutes, for the consideration of the members of Synod, till next year.

"Any minister of the body, who shall join in marriage any man or women not under his care, but under the care of some other regular minister of the Christian Church, without being certified in writing by the minister to whose congregation the party may belong, that there is not, so far as is known to him, any legal impediment to the marriage, or by the session to the same effect, in case of vacancy, or of the absence of the Minister; or by the parents of the party, in case of the refusal of the minister or session, specified by him or them, to arise solely from want of compliance with the proclamation of bans; shall, for the first instance of transgression proved, be rebuked publicly by his Presbytery; for the second instance be suspended ab officio, three months; and for the third be degraded.

"In case of either of the parties belonging to the established Church, a certificate from the church Clergyman to the same effect as above, shall be held sufficient. But if, on a formal application made by the minister to the Church Clergyman, for a certificate by a letter to be delivered to the Clergyman, by a person specially sent by the minister for that purpose, the Clergyman shall not in a reasonable time grant one, nor state any legal impediment to the union of the parties then, and in that case, the certificate shall not be held as indispensably necessary."

A Letter from Hibernian Bible Society was received and read, to which the Moderator was instructed to return a respectful answer; and, in accordance with which, it is most earnestly recommended by the Synod to all its members, to promote the cause of Bible associations in their respective vicinities.
AT COOKSTOWN, JUNE 27TH, 1820.

OVERTURES.

I. The following Addresses to his Majesty, and his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, were unanimously agreed to.

ADDRESS TO THE KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

"We the ministers and Elders of the General Synod of Ulster embrace the opportunity afforded by our annual meeting, of approaching the Throne, and expressing our sincere condolence with your Majesty, on the death of our late venerable and beloved King.

"During a reign unprecedented in its length, and unequalled in the importance of the events with which it was marked, our late lamented Monarch, ever exhibited to his Subjects an example of all that is truly amiable and excellent. In the bosom of his family, he was a pattern of piety and devotion; in the circle of his court, he was the revered supporter of morality and religion; and during the lengthened period in which he presided over the councils of these realms, the limits of religious liberty were more than usually extended, and each denomination of Christians, in the Monarch, found a friend.

"Under his government, we have experienced much of his kindness; our Ministers have had their means of subsistence liberally increased; and our rights, as Presbyterians, were recognised, extended, and secured.

"Almighty God having been pleased to remove from amongst us, your Majesty's pious and venerable father, we beg leave to approach your Majesty, and offer to you our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's succession to the throne of your ancestors. And we beg leave farther to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever earnestly inculcate on the people under our care, a steady attachment to your Majesty's person, respect for the constitution, obedience to the laws, and an inviolable regard to those principles that placed your illustrious family on the throne.

"That your Majesty's reign may be long, and peaceful, and prosperous, and that you may live in the hearts and affections of your people, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects.

"Signed in our name, and by our order, at Cookstown, this 1st day of July, 1820.

"A. G. MALCOM, Moderator."
ADDRESS TO THE LORD LIEUTENANT.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, CHARLES, EARL TALBOT, LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

"We, the Ministers and Elders of the General Synod of Ulster, request that your Excellency will be pleased to transmit to our most Gracious Sovereign, the loyal and dutiful Address which we herewith forward to your Excellency.

"We have much satisfaction in embracing the present occasion, of renewing to your Excellency our sincere expression of high respect for your Excellency's private character; and our warm approbation of the mild and equitable manner in which you have administered the Laws, since your Excellency's appointment to the Chief Government of this Country.

"Signed in our name, and by our order, at Cookstown, this 1st day of July, 1820.

"A G. MALCOM, Moderator."

Resolved—that fair copies of the foregoing Addresses, be made out, and transmitted, through Dr Horner, to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Addresses, with their answers, be published by the Moderator, in the "Dublin Correspondent," the "Belfast News-Letter," the "Belfast Commercial Chronicle," the "Newry Telegraph," and the "Londonderry Journal."

II. Overtured, and unanimously agreed to, that a Committee of the General Synod, consisting of eight ministers, shall be annually appointed, for promoting the cause of Presbyterianism in the south and west of Ireland.

The Committee for this year to be composed of the following members:—the Moderator, Mr Thompson, Dr Hanna, Dr William Neilson, H. Henry, H. Montgomery, H. Cooke and R. Stewart.

This Committee shall be instructed to co-operate with the ministers of Dublin, the Synod of Munster, and the Trustees of the General Fund, in preserving and extending the Presbyterian interest in the above mentioned parts of the Kingdom.

They shall have power to meet as often as they shall judge proper; and to suggest to Ministers, to Presbyteries, and to Synods such measures as to them may appear serviceable to the Presbyterian cause. They shall be authorized to correspond with Ministers and Presbyteries: and also to invite other ministers to attend their meetings, for the purpose of furnishing information, and otherwise assisting them in their deliberations.
They shall give in a written report to each annual meeting of the General Synod.

BILLS.

I. A Memorial was received from the worshipping society of Anaghline, stating, that during the last twelve months they have been regularly supplied with preaching by the Presbytery of Dromore; that according to the permission of Synod, they have now built a meeting-house, and that they pledged themselves to pay a minister an annual stipend of fifty pounds; they therefore prayed to be recognized as a Congregation.

The prayer of this memorial was granted.

II. A Memorial was received from the Rev'd James Morgan, Carlow, stating, that on the 21st day of June last, he was ordained to the pastoral charge of the lately erected congregation of Carlow, and, praying the Synod to take the necessary steps to procure for him, and his successors in that place, a share of his Majesty's bounty.

This application was acceded to; and the Moderator and Mr Horner were directed to prepare, in our name, a Memorial to Government, stating the history and circumstances of Carlow Congregation; and praying that it may be placed on the list of those for whose respective ministers, a portion of Royal Bounty is allotted.

III. A supplication was received from the Maguire's Bridge part of the congregation of Enniskillen, stating that from time immemorial they have had a separate meeting-house, which is seven miles distant from that of Enniskillen; that hitherto they have had divine service only every fifth Lord's day; that they are willing and able to support a minister of their own; and praying the Synod to recognise them as a separate congregation—a measure strongly recommended by Mr Stevenson, their present pastor, and by the Presbytery of Clogher, to which they belong.

The Presbytery of Clogher having given their opinion in favour of this Memorial, were directed to assist Mr Stevenson in supplying the people of Maguire's Bridge with preaching, till the next meeting of Synod, and then to report the state of that congregation.

IV. A Memorial was presented from certain persons styling them- selves "Presbyterian worshippers at Grange, in the bounds of the Presbytery of Ballymena," stating, that in early times the Presbyterians of Grange constituted a distinct congregation, under the care of the Synod; that they were afterwards united with the congregation of Dunean, under the ministry of the late Mr Scott, and enjoyed the half of that gentleman's official services; that in the decline of his life, their congregation gradually fell away, and shortly after his demission was literally dissolved as a Presbyterian body.

Memorialists accounted for this dissolution, by stating, that many of their members had been led astray by itinerant and self-constituted preachers; that these members were now convinced of their error; that their whole body were anxiously desirous of being again taken under the care of the Synod; and prayed to be recognised as a separate congregation; engaging in that case, to contribute fifty pounds per annum for the support of a minister. James M' Mullan appeared as their Commissioner.

The Commissioner, and the Presbytery of Ballymena having been heard at length, it was moved, That the prayer of the Memorial be granted.

Moved, as an amendment, That the Presbytery of Ballymena be instructed to supply the people of Grange with preaching during the ensuing year; and endeavour to effect a reunion between that worship[ ]ing society and the congregation of Dunean.

The original motion was withdrawn and the amendment agreed to.

Adjourned till 12, o'clock on Monday.

Twelfth Session, (July 3d twelve o'clock).

After prayer, the Rev'd Thomas D. Hincks, a member of the Synod of Munster, being present, was requested, from the Chair, to sit, deliberate, and vote with the Synod. M' Hincks signified his acquiescence.

V. A Memorial was received from the congregation of Ballywalter, stating, that shortly after the last meeting of Synod, they had chosen for their pastor the Rev'd John Gibson, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Tyrone; that certain charges were subsequently preferred against him before the Presbytery of Bangor, of which charges that body had pronounced him not guilty; and yet, had unaccountably delayed his ordination.

Memorialists prayed, that the above sentence of acquittal might be confirmed; that an early day might be appointed for M' Gibson's ordination; and that he might in the meantime, be continued their constant supplier. They nominate as Commissioners, Hugh Galbraith and Francis Stewart.

Resolved unanimously,—That though many expressions in the foregoing Memorial are highly indecent and scandalous, and unfit to be used in the presence of this body, yet, in order to afford M' Gibson and the Commissioners from Ballywalter, an opportunity of being heard, we deem it right to proceed to the consideration of the Matter therein contained.

The commissioners having stated, that they had nothing to add to the Memorial, the Presbytery of Bangor were heard on the subject of the charges against M' Gibson, and read their Minutes with respect to them.

M' Gibson then entered on his defence.

Adjourned till 7 o'clock, to-morrow morning.
Thirteenth Session. Tuesday July 4th 7 o'clock, A.M.

After prayer, Mr. Gibson resumed his defence. Witnesses were adjured and examined as to one of the charges against him, and the whole case was minutely investigated.

Adjourned till a quarter past 11 o'clock.

Fourteenth Session, (Tuesday July 4th ½ past 11 o'clock, a.m.)

The investigation of Mr. Gibson's case was continued—

The parties having stated that they had nothing more to add, were ordered to withdraw.

Moved, and unanimously agreed to, That the prayer of the Memorialist from Ballywalter be rejected.

Moved, That Mr. Gibson's license be withdrawn.

Moved, as an amendment, That Mr. Gibson's call to Ballywalter be returned to the Presbytery of Bangor, and that he himself be sent back to the Presbytery of Tyrone.

After some discussion this amendment was withdrawn, and the original motion was passed.

VI. A Memorial was received from Robert Millar, stating that he was formerly a member of the Congregation of Ballykelly; that on account of certain offences of which he had acknowledged himself guilty, and for which he had expressed sincere contrition, the minister and session of that Congregation had excluded him from church privileges, though he had uniformly declared his willingness to submit to any censure they might think proper to impose; that under these circumstances, memorialist had brought his case before the Presbytery of Route, whose determination was, that he might be admitted as a member of any congregation within their bounds, on giving proofs of the genuineness of his repentance, and submitting to adequate censure; that with this decision memorialist was, and still is waiting to comply, but that the session of Ballykelly have refused to receive him on any terms. Memorialist prayed the Synod to determine on his case as to them might seem good.

After a minute investigation, it was moved, and unanimously agreed to, that this Memorial be dismissed as vexatious; and that memorialist be excluded from Christian ordinances in our Church, until he shall have satisfied the Presbytery of Route as to the sincerity of his repentance.

Mr. Harrison gave notice, that he will move at our next meeting, for an amendment of the resolution of 1740, against inserting in the minutes the reasons assigned by protesters.

Dr. Hanna and Mr. Hay gave notice, of their intention to bring forward, at our next meeting, a plan for the formation of a society for educating the sons of ministers of the General Synod of Ulster.

Synod concluded with prayer.
INTERLOQUITUR.

A Statement of the receipts and payments of his Majesty's Royal Bounty, for the year ended the 29th of September 1819 was submitted to the Interloquitur, and found correct.

The accounts of the Widows' Fund, for the year ended the 1st of October, 1819, were also submitted, and found correct.

The Treasurer was ordered to invest the balance now in his hands, belonging to the Fund, in the 5 per cent. Stock.

The Treasurer stated, that conformably to the order of last meeting, he had consulted Mr. Morgan, of London, an eminent and experienced calculator, on certain points connected with the circumstances and management of the Fund; whose opinion was, that the plan of making a certain annual addition to the capital, which was last year resolved on by the Interloquitur, is the safest and best which can be devised.

Resolved unanimously.—That the thanks of the Interloquitur be returned to the Treasurer, for having obtained the foregoing opinion, without subjecting the Fund to any expense.

Resolved unanimously,—That the order of last Interloquitur, enjoining the Treasurer annually to transmit to the Moderator of each Presbytery, a particular statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Fund, shall for the present, be rescinded; and that in place of a particular statement, it will be sufficient to subjoin to the Minutes of each year, a general one, such as may be found in the Minutes of 1815.

Mr. Hay stated, that for the faithful discharge of the trust reposed in him, as Treasurer of the Fund, Mr. John Thompson, merchant, of Londonderry, had joined him in a bond to the amount of £2000.

Ordered, that one copy of said bond shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace for the City and County of Londonderry, and another with the Trustees of the Fund.

The Treasurer reported, that he had made the inquiries directed, respecting the security marked No. 3, and that the two lawyers whom he was instructed to consult, considered that security as sufficient.

The Treasurer stated, that he had not succeeded in procuring from the representatives of Dr. Black a settlement of the accounts of the Fund for incidental expenses. The Moderator was instructed to write to Mr. Joseph Black, requesting him to hand over to Mr. Hay the sum of £39:14:3, which appears, by the report of the Committee that inspected Dr. Black's books, to be due to the ministers of the Synod.

Resolved—That the Moderator, Mr. Thompson, Dr. Bruce, Dr. Hanna, Mr. M'Cance, Mr. James Bankhead, Mr. Horner, Mr. H. Montgomery, Mr. R. Hogg, Mr. Blakely, and Mr. W. D. H. M'Ewen, be the Committee for superintending the affairs of the Fund, during the ensuing year. They are to meet in Belfast, when called by the Moderator on any emergency. Five to be a quorum.
The consideration of Dr. Hanna's motion, which was last year deferred, was further postponed till the next meeting of Interloquitur.

Resolved unanimously—That £8, be the sum this year allowed for printing the Minutes; and the Clerk was instructed to have them henceforth executed in an octavo form.

For defraying expenses incidentally incurred by the Synod, and the Presbytery of Antrim, Mr. Hay was requested to make this year, the same deduction from the R.D. of each minister, which was ordered by last Interloquitur.

Resolved—That is incumbent on ministers writing on their own business to the Agent of his Majesty's bounty, to the Treasurer of the Fund, or to the Moderator or Clerk of the Synod, to have their letters either franked or post paid.

A Memorial was presented from Mr. A. J. Barnett of Belfast, on behalf of the family of the late Mr. Bryson, a contributor to the Fund. The case was maturely considered, and the Treasurer was ordered to pay to Mr. Barnett, on his accountable receipt, the Interest of £266, for the benefit of Mr. Bryson's children, the Interest to commence on the same day in 1819, up to which in 1805, Mr. Bryson received her annuity.

Mr. N. Alexander gave notice of his intention to move at the next meeting of Interloquitur, that assistant ministers who shall not have paid their subscriptions on or before the 1st of September, in each year, shall forfeit their connexion with the Fund.

Mr. Cooke gave notice, that he will next year move an explanation of the 11th Regulation of the Fund.

Mr. R. Dill, Junr., gave notice, that he will propose at the next meeting of Interloquitur, an alteration of the 15th Regulation of the Fund.

The Clerk was requested to continue the Extracts from the Records of the General Synod, from the 1st of June, 1804, till the 1st of June, 1820.

I certify that the foregoing copy of the Minutes of 1820 is correct.

WILLIAM PORTER, Clerk of Genl. Synod.
At a General Meeting of Synod held at Cookestown June 26th 1828, the Clerk was instructed to set apart, every year, one of the printed copies of the minutes, the correctness of which he is to attest by his signature—The copies thus preserved and attested are in future to be considered as the official and authentic Records of the Synod.
